

Dear Sir/Madam,

Regarding the Medicare Funding for Certain Types of Abortion Bill.

I am unsure of how widespread gender selection abortions are in Australia, but its prevalence is not relevant, the possibility of it legally happening is. The government has a duty to outlaw such atrocities to those defenceless ones who have no peers to protest on their behalf. If passing a Bill can stop it, then it should be passed.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Lewis