

30-1-2011

Dear Sir,

We have one wind tower on the property which has been working for several years. There were no objections when the towers went up or since by the next door farmer. I have not found any dead birds and the sheep even camp under the tower.

The wind farm company have been good for local town and I have found them very good to deal with.

yours faithfully Douglas Hopkins