

Dear Committee,

As a parent and a staff member of a high school, I like the idea of NAPLAN, however i would like to see the Principles get together with non goverment schools and government to create a common ground in which to publish the results. I am sure there are many positives and many good outcomes available to do this for the childrens sake.

I am happy for this to be published.