Social Security Legislation Amendment (Streamlined Participation Requirements and Other Measures) Bill 2021

QUESTION ON NOTICE

Outcome: Employment

Department of Education, Skills and Employment Question No. IQ21-000046

Senator Louise Pratt provided in writing.

Bill proposed changes

Question

In order to aid the understanding of the committee as to the proposed changes in the bill compared to what is currently legislated, could the department please fill out the table below for each clause or set of clauses in each schedule that are amended by the bill with an accompanying statement outlining what the change will achieve and/or why it is necessary?

Answer

It is not possible to provide a one for one mapping of which provisions in the Social Security Legislation Amendment (Streamlined Participation Requirements and Other Measures) Bill 2021 (the Bill) replace existing provisions due to the complexity of the interactions and the streamlined structure of provisions in the Bill. For example, section 606 of the Social Security Act (1991) 'Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plans—terms' has elements being replicated in new provisions 40D, 40F, 40K, 40V and 40W.

To aid the committee in its understanding of the changes, 'marked up' versions of the Social Security Act (1991) and Social Security (Administration) Act 1999 have been provided. Also provided is the Explanatory Memorandum to the Bill, which outlines in detail how the amendments will operate and how existing protections will be retained.

An Act to provide for the payment of certain pensions, benefits and allowances, and for related purposes

Chapter 1—Introductory

Part 1.1—Formal matters

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Social Security Act 1991.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 July 1991.

3 Application of the *Criminal Code

Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code applies to all offences against this Act.

3AA Norfolk Island

This Act extends to Norfolk Island.

Section 3A

---

Part 1.2—Definitions

3A Power of Secretary to make determinations etc.

If:

- (a) a provision of this Act refers to a determination made, approval given or other act done by the Secretary; and
- (b) there is no other provision of this Act expressly conferring power on the Secretary to make the determination, give the approval or do the act;

the Secretary has power by this section to make such a determination, give such an approval or do such an act, as the case requires.

3AB References to Employment Secretary

A reference in a provision of this Act or the Administration Act to the Employment Secretary does not, by implication, affect the meaning of a reference to the Secretary in any other provision of this Act or the Administration Act.

Note: Under subsection 23(1), Secretary generally means the Secretary of the Department. Applying section 19A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (which deals with references in provisions of Acts to the Department), the Secretary referred to in many provisions of this Act or the Administration Act will be the Employment Secretary.

3B Definitions—simplified outline

Sections 4 to 23 contain definitions of terms that are used in the social security law.

Subsection 23(1) contains an entry for each expression that is defined for the purposes of this Act. That subsection is like a Dictionary.

Section 4

The entry is either an actual definition of the expression or a signpost definition that identifies the provision that defines the expression.

Many other sections in this Part contain the actual definitions relating to a particular topic. For example, sections 4 and 5 contain family relationship definitions and section 8 contains income test definitions.

  - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the requirements of subsection (2) are being given effect to from the day the income stream commences to be paid.

Examples: Examples of work described in paragraph (a) are fishing, fruit picking, shearing and work in an industry that is subject to Christmas shutdowns. Examples of work that is intermittent are relief teaching and work as a locum.

seasonal work income means gross income from seasonal work less amounts necessarily expended in relation to that seasonal work that the person can demonstrate are allowable deductions for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 or the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, as the case may be.

seasonal work preclusion period has the meaning given by subsections (3) and (4).

subject to a seasonal work preclusion period has the meaning given by subsection (11).

- (1A) Paragraph (aa) of the definition of seasonal work in subsection (1) does not apply to a person undertaking seasonal work if the person was receiving income support payments (whether or not the kind of payment received has changed over the period and whether any part of it occurred before or after the commencement of this section) in respect of a continuous period exceeding 12 months immediately before the person commenced the seasonal work.

Secretary's determination—seasonal work

- (2) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, determine that a specified kind of work that is intermittent is seasonal work for the purposes of this Act.

Seasonal work preclusion periods

- (3) If:
- (a) a person is not a member of a couple; and
  - (b) the person has made a claim for jobseeker payment, widow allowance, youth allowance, special benefit, parenting payment, disability support pension, carer payment or austudy payment; and
  - (c) the person was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim;

the person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to the claim is the period consisting of the number of weeks worked out under subsection (5) that starts on the day on which the claim was lodged.

- (4) If:
- (a) a person is a member of a couple; and
  - (b) the person has made a claim for jobseeker payment, partner allowance, parenting payment, youth allowance, special benefit, disability support pension, carer payment or austudy payment; and

- (c) the person, or the person's partner, or both, were engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim;

the person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to the claim is the period consisting of the number of weeks worked out under subsection (6), (7) or (8) that starts on the day on which the claim was lodged.

- (5) If the person is not a member of a couple, the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the person that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the person has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the person has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.
- Step 3. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the person during each of the person's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the person before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 4. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 3. The result is called the person's seasonal work earnings.

- Step 5. Divide the person's seasonal work earnings by the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the person's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that a person paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year would have to work to earn an amount equal to the person's seasonal work earnings.
- Step 6. Work out the number of weeks in the person's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 6A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.
- Step 6B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's intervening weeks.
- Step 6C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 6 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 6B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's self-supported weeks.

Step 7. Subtract the person's self-supported weeks from the person's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(6) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim (the relevant period); and
- (c) the person's partner was not engaged in seasonal work at any time during the relevant period;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the person that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the person has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the person has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.

- Step 3. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the person during each of the person's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the person before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 4. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 3. The result is called the person's seasonal work earnings.
- Step 5. Work out the total amount of income from personal exertion earned by the person's partner during the person's relevant periods of seasonal work. Add the amount obtained to the person's seasonal work earnings. The result is called the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 6. Divide the couple's combined earnings by twice the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the couple's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that 2 persons, each paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year, would have to work to earn together an amount equal to the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 7. Work out the number of weeks in the person's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 7A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.

Step 7B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's intervening weeks.

Step 7C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 7 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 7B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's self-supported weeks.

Step 8. Subtract the person's self-supported weeks from the couple's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(7) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person was not engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim (the relevant period); and
- (c) the person's partner was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the relevant period;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Section 16A

---

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the partner that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the partner has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the partner has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.
- Step 3. Work out the total amount of income from personal exertion earned by the person during the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work. The result is called the person's earnings.
- Step 4. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the partner during each of the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the partner before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 5. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 4. The result is called the partner's seasonal work earnings.
- Step 6. Add the partner's seasonal work earnings and the person's earnings. The result is called the couple's combined earnings.

- Step 7. Divide the couple's combined earnings by twice the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the couple's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that 2 persons, each paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year, would have to work to earn together an amount equal to the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 8. Work out the number of weeks in the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 8A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.
- Step 8B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's intervening weeks.
- Step 8C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 8 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 8B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's self-supported weeks.

Step 9. Subtract the partner's self-supported weeks from the couple's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(8) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) both the person and the person's partner have engaged in seasonal work during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out what would be the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period if subsection (6) applied to the person.
- Step 2. Work out what would be the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period if subsection (7) applied to the person.
- Step 3. Compare the number of weeks in each period. The number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is equal to the number of weeks in the longer of the 2 periods.

Section 16B

Subject to a seasonal work preclusion period

- (11) If a person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a claim consists of a number of weeks that is greater than nil, then, except as otherwise provided under this Act, the person is subject to that period for the purposes of this Act.

    - (ii) no training activity is likely (because of the impairment) to enable the person to do 30 hours per week of work independently of a program of support within the next 2 years.
- (2) A person is treated as doing work independently of a program of support if the Secretary is satisfied that to do the work the person:
- (a) is unlikely to need a program of support that:
    - (i) is designed to assist the person to prepare for, find or maintain work; and
    - (ii) is funded (wholly or partly) by the Commonwealth or is of a type that the Secretary considers is similar to a program of support that is funded (wholly or partly) by the Commonwealth; or

- (b) the mental hospital is either:

- (c) the adult is making a reasonable contribution towards the expenses of maintaining the young person; and
- (d) the Secretary determines that the young person is to be taken to be a dependent child of the adult.

38B Notional continuous period of receipt of income support payments

- (1) The object of this section is to treat a person in certain circumstances as having received an income support payment in respect of a continuous period even though the person did not actually receive such a payment during a part or parts of the period.
- (2) A continuous period in respect of which a person has received income support payments can only start on a day on which the person is receiving such a payment and can only end on a day when the person is receiving such a payment, and the following provisions of this section have effect subject to this section.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), in determining the continuous period in respect of which a person has received income support payments, any period of not longer than 6 weeks in respect of which the person did not receive an income support payment is taken to have been a period in respect of which the person received such a payment.

- (4) If a person is taken, because of subsection (3), to have received income support payments in respect of a continuous period of at least 12 months, then, in determining, as at a time after the end of that period of 12 months, the continuous period in respect of which the person has received income support payments, any period of not longer than 13 weeks in respect of which the person did not receive an income support payment is taken to have been a period in respect of which the person received such a payment.
- (5) In determining for the purposes of subsection (4) the length of a period in respect of which a person did not receive an income support payment, any part of the period that occurred immediately before the end of the period of 12 months referred to in that subsection is to be taken into account.

EXAMPLE OF APPLICATION OF SUBSECTION (5)

Facts:

John receives an income support payment for 48 weeks. He is then employed for 14 weeks. After the 14 weeks he again begins to receive an income support payment. How does his break in payments affect the calculation of his continuous period of receipt of income support payments?

Application:

At the end of the first 4 weeks of John's employment he may be taken, under subsection 38B(3), to have received income support payments for a continuous period of 12 months because no longer than 6 weeks have elapsed since he actually received such a payment.

Therefore, as John may be taken to have accrued 12 months continuous receipt of income support payments, he may have a period, under subsection 38B(4), of not longer than 13 weeks without income support payments and still be taken to be in continuous receipt.

However, under subsection 38B(5), the period of not longer than 13 weeks allowed under subsection 38B(4) must include the period of 4 weeks that occurred immediately before, as well as the 10 weeks immediately after, John was taken to have accrued 12 months duration.

As his total period in which he did not receive income support payments was 14 weeks, it exceeds the 13 weeks allowed under subsection 38B(4). His continuous period in receipt of income support ceased, under subsection 38B(2), on the last day he received payment before he started employment.

A new period of continuous receipt of income support payments will begin when John resumes income support payments after his 14 week break.

Section 38C

- (6) For the purposes of this section, a person who was receiving an income support payment is taken to have continued to receive the payment in respect of a period if:
- (a) for the duration of the period, the person remained qualified to receive the income support payment by the operation of the exercise of the discretion under:
    - (i) section 516 of this Act as in force at a time before 20 September 1996; or
    - (ii) section 595 of this Act (disregard a period of employment);but the person's rate of payment was reduced to nil because of the operation of:
    - (iii) section 1067G, 1067L or 1068 of this Act; or
  - (b) the period was a compliance penalty period that applied to the person in respect of the income support ~~payment;~~ ~~or payment.~~
  - ~~(c) subsection 547AA(1), 615(1) or 771HF(1) applied to the person in respect of the income support payment for the duration of the period.~~

Note: For income support payment see subsection 23(1).

38C Adult Disability Assessment Tool

- (1) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument (the determination):
    - (a) devise a test for assessing the disability, emotional state, behaviour and special care needs of a person aged 16 or more; and
    - (b) provide a method for rating the person by giving him or her, on the basis of the results of the test, a score in accordance with a scale of the kind described in subsection (2).
  - (2) The scale referred to in subsection (1) is a scale that provides for a range of scores that indicate the different levels of physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability of persons.
  - (3) The determination is, in this Act, referred to as the Adult Disability Assessment Tool.

38E Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination

- (1) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument (the Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination):
  - (a) devise a test for assessing the functional ability, behaviour and special care needs of a person aged under 16 (the child), that includes an assessment that must be completed only by a treating health professional; and
  - (b) provide a method for rating the care needs of the child; and
  - (c) provide a method for giving a qualifying rating to a person (the carer) who is caring for the child that takes into account:
    - (i) the care provided for the child by the carer; and
    - (ii) the assessment completed by the treating health professional.
- (2) If a carer who is caring for a child also cares for one or more other persons (whether or not aged under 16), the Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination may provide a method for giving a qualifying rating to the carer that takes into account:
  - (a) both:
    - (i) the care provided for the child by the carer; and
    - (ii) the assessment completed by the treating health professional; and
  - (b) the care provided by the carer for each other person.
- (3) The Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination may, in addition, declare that a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability specified in the determination is a recognised disability for the purposes of section 953.

38F Treating health professional

The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, determine that a person, or any person included in a class of persons, is a treating health professional for the purposes of this Act (other than for the purposes of the Adult Disability Assessment Tool).

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a Calculator (whether a Rate Calculator, a Lump Sum Calculator or any other Calculator) is to be taken to be part of the section immediately preceding the Calculator.
- (3) Rate Calculators are divided into Modules (for example, Module A).

- (4) A Module of a Rate Calculator is divided into points and some points are divided into subpoints.
- (5) The points in a Module are numbered as follows:
  - (a) the initial number (followed by a dash) identifies the section that immediately precedes the Rate Calculator;
  - (b) the letter following the dash is the letter allocated to the Module in which the point occurs;
  - (c) the final number identifies the order of the point within the Module.

Example: Point 1068-E8 is the eighth point in Module E of the Rate Calculator at the end of section 1068.

Note: Paragraph (5)(a) has been adopted so that if a reader is looking for a particular section of the Act and opens a page that happens to be in the middle of a Rate Calculator, the reader will know whether the section the reader is looking for is before or after that page.

Division 4—Rate of age pension

55 How to work out a person's age pension rate

A person's age pension rate is worked out:

- (a) if the person is not permanently blind—using Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064 (see Part 3.2); or
- (b) if the person is permanently blind—using Pension Rate Calculator B at the end of section 1065 (see Part 3.3).

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision A—Death of partner

82 Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving an age pension; and
  - (b) the person is a member of a couple; and
  - (c) the person's partner dies; and
  - (d) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
    - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
    - (ii) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
    - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
  - (e) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
    - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 85 (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
    - (ii) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 83 (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 83 provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: Section 84 provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Section 82

- (1A) If:
- (a) a person is receiving an age pension; and
  - (b) immediately before starting to receive the age pension the person was receiving partner bereavement payments; and
  - (c) the bereavement rate continuation period in relation to the death of the person's partner has not ended;
- the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the remainder of the bereavement period.
- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (3) An election under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
  - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
  - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which age pension is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 85.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long term social security recipient if:
- (a) the person is receiving a social security benefit; and
  - (b) in respect of the previous 12 months, the person:
    - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
    - (ii) was receiving a social security benefit; or
    - (ia) was receiving a youth training allowance; or
    - (iii) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment.
- (6) A person is taken to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (5)(b) if:

- (a) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for a continuous period of 12 months; or
- (b) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for 46 weeks of the previous 52.

83 Continued payment of deceased partner's previous entitlement

- (1) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period the following amount:
  - (a) where the partner was receiving a social security pension or social security benefit—the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the payday if the partner had not died; or
  - (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III, IIIA or IIIAA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:
    - (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the partner's payday; or
    - (ii) in any other case—follows the partner's payday; if the partner had not died.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

84 Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;
- there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
  - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the partner had not died; and
  - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 85, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

85 Adjustment of person's age pension rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision;
and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 82(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's age pension during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of age pension payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
  - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
  - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which age pension is payable to the person is the rate at which the age pension would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

86 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
  - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the person's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 85, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

87 Matters affecting payment of benefits under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
  - (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and

- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) an amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

Subdivision C—Death of recipient

- (2A) The annual pension rate is to be worked out under subsection (2) by disregarding the amendments made by Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Social Services and Other Legislation Amendment (Simplifying Income Reporting and Other Measures) Act 2020.

If person is permanently blind

- (3) If the person is permanently blind, the person's annual pension rate is the sum of the following, worked out as at the start day for the age pension:

Change in couple status during overall qualifying period

- (2) If subsection (1) does not apply to a person, the amount of the person's pension bonus is worked out using the following formula (for rounding up, see subsection (7)):

- (3) For the purposes of this section, a person's annual notional single pension rate is equal to:

- (a) if the person is not permanently blind—the adjusted percentage of the sum of:
- (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1064-B1; and
  - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);

calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was not a member of a couple at that day; or

- (b) if the person is permanently blind—the sum of:
- (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1065-B1; and
  - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);

calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was not a member of a couple at that day.

- (4) For the purposes of this section, a person's annual notional partnered pension rate is equal to:

- (a) if the person is not permanently blind—the adjusted percentage of the sum of:

- (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1064-B1; and
    - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was a member of a couple at that day; or
  - (b) if the person is permanently blind—the sum of:
    - (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1065-B1; and
    - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was a member of a couple at that day.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person's adjusted percentage is the percentage worked out using the following formula (for rounding up, see subsection (8)):

$$\frac{\text{Annual pension rate}}{\text{Maximum basic rate}} \times 100$$

where:

maximum basic rate is the sum of the person's maximum basic rate worked out using Module B of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064 and the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4).

- (6) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) the number of single years during the overall qualifying period is the number of years during the overall qualifying period when the person was not a member of a couple; and
  - (b) the number of partnered years during the overall qualifying period is the number of years during the overall qualifying period when the person was a member of a couple.

  - (c) the rate determination is made because of a reduction since the start day in either or both of the following:
    - (i) the value of the person's assets;
    - (ii) the person's ordinary income.

Note: Any reduction in the value of a person's assets or the person's income will be determined by applying the assets test and the ordinary income test in Pension Rate Calculator A in Part 3.2 (including because of the operation of Pension Rate Calculator B in Part 3.3).

- (2) The person's pension bonus is increased by the difference between:
  - (a) the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day; and
  - (b) the amount that would have been the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day if the person's rate of age pension on that day had been the highest rate at which age pension was payable to the person during the 13 weeks after the start day.

- (3) A top up determination takes effect on the day on which the determination is made or on any earlier or later day specified in the determination.

  - (b) the amount that would have been the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day if the person's rate of age pension on that day had been the rate specified in the rate determination.
- (4) A top up determination takes effect on the day on which the determination is made or on any earlier or later day specified in the determination.
- (5) A top up determination is not a legislative instrument.
- (6) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify circumstances (other than circumstances specified in subsection 93K(1)) for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b).

(2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

Note: If a person makes an election, the date of effect of any determination to increase the person's rate of age pension may, in some circumstances, be the day on which the person's partner died (see subsection 146D(5A)).

(3) An election under subsection (2):

- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
- (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
- (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.

(4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which disability support pension is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 146J.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long-term social security recipient if:

  - (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III, IIIA or IIIAA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:
    - (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the partner's payday; or
    - (ii) in any other case—follows the partner's payday; if the partner had not died.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

Section 146H

146H Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 146J, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

146J Adjustment of person's disability support pension rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 146F(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's disability support pension during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of disability support pension payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
  - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
  - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;

Section 146K

- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which disability support pension is payable to the person is the rate at which the disability support pension would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

146K Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 97 of the Administration Act, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

146L Matters affecting payment of benefits under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
  - (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and

- (b) subparagraph 197G(1)(a)(ii) and paragraphs 197G(1)(b) and (c);
- (c) paragraphs 197H(1)(a) and (b).

- (a) the person has turned 16; and
  - (b) the person has not been assessed and rated and given a score under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool.

Constant care

- (7) If section 197F applies in relation to the person as a care receiver or as one of 2 or more care receivers, it does not matter that the care provided for the person is not constant care.

Section 197E

- (a) the person personally provides constant care for a person (the care receiver) aged under 16; and
  - (b) a medical practitioner certifies in relation to the care receiver that:
    - (i) the care receiver has a terminal condition; and
    - (ii) the average life expectancy for a child with the same or a similar condition is not substantially longer than 24 months; and
    - (iii) because of the condition the care receiver will need personal care for the remainder of his or her life; and

  - (ii) be the subject of a decision in force under subsection 198N(2), (3) or (4) that subparagraph (i) does not disqualify the person providing the constant care from carer payment.

197F Qualification—exchanged care of children

Purpose of section

- (1) The purpose of this section is to allow a person to qualify under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, or a combination of them, for a carer payment for caring for persons who are or include 2 or more persons aged under 16 despite the fact that the person is not personally providing constant care for the same persons.

When section applies

- (2) This section applies if:
  - (a) the person is a parent of 2 or more persons aged under 16; and
  - (b) the person (the carer) is personally providing care for at least 2 of those persons (the care receivers); and
  - (c) the care receivers would qualify the carer for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, apart from:
    - (i) the fact that the carer is not personally providing constant care for the care receivers; and
    - (ii) the fact that each care receiver has or may have more than one home; and
  - (d) the circumstances in subsection (3) apply in relation to each of the care receivers.

OFFICIAL: Sensitive // Legal Privilege

Chapter 2 Pensions, benefits and allowances

Part 2.5 Carer payment

Division 1 Qualification for and payability of carer payment

Section 197F

Circumstances—family law arrangements

- (3) The circumstances are:
- (a) under one or more registered parenting plans, parenting plans or parenting orders that are in force, the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with the carer and the care receiver's other parent (whether or not the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with, someone else); and
  - (b) the length or percentage of time (however described) that the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with, the carer and the other parent is specified in, or worked out in accordance with, the plans or orders; and
  - (c) the carer personally provides constant care for the care receiver when the care receiver is living with, or spending time with, the carer; and
  - (d) the carer does not personally provide constant care for the care receiver only because the terms of the plans or orders require the care receiver to live with, or spend time with, the other parent or someone else; and
  - (e) when the carer is not personally providing care for the care receiver, the carer is personally providing care for one or more other care receivers in relation to whom this subsection also applies.

Qualification for a carer payment

- (4) If this section applies, the carer is taken to be qualified for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, or a combination of them, for caring for the care receivers or for persons who include the care receivers, as the case requires.

Example: The parents of 3 children each with a disability or medical condition are divorced. Under a registered parenting plan covering all 3 children, one parent (the first parent) personally provides care in week 1 to:

- (a) one of the children covered by the plan; and
- (b) another child who is similarly disabled but who is not covered by the plan.

Section 197G

The other parent personally provides care for the other 2 children covered by the plan. In week 2, the parents swap care arrangements for the children covered by the plan.

The first parent would not qualify for a carer payment under section 197C because he or she is not providing constant care for the same children. However, this section allows the first parent to qualify for a carer payment for providing care for different children.

Application of income and assets tests

- (5) In applying the income and assets tests under section 198A or 198D in working out whether a parent qualifies under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H because of this section, disregard the other parent for the purposes of the following:
- (a) subsections 198B(1B) and 198D(1A), (1C) and (1DA);
  - (b) subparagraph 198N(5)(aa)(ii);
  - (c) paragraphs (b), (d) and (e) of the definition of FPC in subsection 198N(6).

197G Qualification—short term or episodic care of children

Secretary's determination

- (1) The Secretary may determine that a person is qualified for a carer payment for a period if:
- (a) the person is personally providing constant care for one or more persons (the care receiver or care receivers) each with:
    - (i) a severe disability or severe medical condition; or
    - (ii) a disability or medical condition; and
  - (b) each care receiver is aged under 16 at the start of the period; and
  - (c) in relation to each care receiver—a treating health professional has certified in writing that, because of the severe disability or severe medical condition, or because of the disability or medical condition:
    - (i) the care receiver will need personal care for at least 3 months but less than 6 months; and

Part 2.5 Carer payment

Division 1 Qualification for and payability of carer payment

Section 197H

- (ii) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons; and
- (d) apart from the fact that the care receiver, or care receivers, will need personal care for less than 6 months, the person would qualify for a carer payment:
  - (i) under section 197B or 197C (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers; or
  - (ii) under section 197D (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver and another person.

Limits on period determined

- (2) The period determined by the Secretary:
  - (a) must be 3 months or more and less than 6 months; and
  - (b) must not begin before the person's start day.

Person may remain qualified until end of period even if care receiver turns 16

- (3) A person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment under this section only because the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16 before the end of the period determined by the Secretary.

197H Qualification—extension of short term or episodic care

Extension of qualification under section 197G

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for one or more persons (the care receiver or care receivers) aged under 16 for a period (the preceding period):
    - (i) under section 197G; or
    - (ii) if this section has previously applied to the person and the care receiver or care receivers—under the most recent application of this section; and

- (b) in relation to each care receiver—before the end of the preceding period, and before the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16, the person gives the Secretary a certificate from a treating health professional certifying that:
  - (i) because of a severe disability or severe medical condition, or a disability or medical condition, the care receiver will need personal care for a further period of less than 3 months starting immediately after the end of the preceding period; and
  - (ii) the severe disability or severe medical condition, or disability or medical condition, is the same as, or related to, the severe disability or severe medical condition, or disability or medical condition, that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
  - (iii) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.

Person qualified for further period determined by Secretary

- (2) The person is qualified for a carer payment for a further period if:
  - (a) apart from the fact that the care receiver or care receivers will need personal care for less than 6 months, the person would qualify for a carer payment:
    - (i) under section 197B or 197C (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers; or
    - (ii) under section 197D (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver and another person; and
  - (b) the Secretary determines that a carer payment should be granted to the person for the period.
- (3) The period determined must end not later than 6 months after the first day on which the person started to receive a carer payment under section 197G.

Section 197J

Person may remain qualified until end of period even if care receiver turns 16

- (4) A person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment under this section only because the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16 before the end of the period determined by the Secretary.

197J Qualification following qualification for short term or episodic care

Purpose of section

- (1) The purpose of this section is to treat a person as qualified for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C or 197D, or because of 197F, for caring for:
- (a) one or more persons aged under 16; or
  - (b) persons who include one or more persons aged under 16;
- if, immediately beforehand, the carer was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the person or persons aged under 16.

Person taken to be qualified

- (2) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for one or more care receivers aged under 16 for a period (the preceding period):
    - (i) under section 197G; or
    - (ii) if section 197H has applied to the person and the care receiver or care receivers—under the most recent application of that section; and
  - (b) before the end of the preceding period, and before the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16, the person gives the Secretary a certificate in relation to each of them as required by whichever of subsection (3) or (4) applies; and
  - (c) apart from paragraph 197B(1)(c), 197C(1)(c) or 197D(1)(c), the person would be qualified (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for caring for the care receiver or care receivers or for persons who include at least one of them;

the person is taken to qualify under section 197B, 197C or 197D (as the case requires) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers or for persons who include at least one of them.

Note: Paragraphs 197B(1)(c), 197C(1)(c) and 197D(1)(c) require that a treating health professional has certified that the care receiver, or each of them, will need personal care for 6 months or more.

- (3) If the person was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for caring for a care receiver with a severe disability or severe medical condition, there must be a certificate from a treating health professional certifying that:
- (a) because of a severe disability or severe medical condition the duration of the personal care needed by the care receiver is 6 months or more; and
  - (b) the severe disability or severe medical condition is the same as, or related to, the severe disability or severe medical condition that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
  - (c) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.
- (4) If the person was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for caring for one or more care receivers aged under 16 each with a disability or medical condition, there must be a certificate in relation to each care receiver from a treating health professional certifying that:
- (a) because of a disability or medical condition, the duration of the personal care needed by the care receiver is 6 months or more; and
  - (b) the disability or condition is the same as, or related to, the disability or condition that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
  - (c) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.

Section 197K

- (5) For the purposes of paragraphs (3)(a) and (4)(a):
  - (a) the 6 months includes any preceding periods under section 197G or under an application of section 197H; and
  - (b) it does not matter if the treating health professional who certified under those sections is the same treating health professional referred to in subsection (3) or (4) or not.

197K Remaining qualified for up to 3 months after child turns 16

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for a care receiver aged under 16 under one of the following provisions:
    - (i) section 197B, 197C or 197D (whether or not because of section 197F);
    - (ii) paragraph 198(2)(d); and
  - (b) the care receiver turns 16; and
  - (c) the care receiver has not been assessed and rated and given a score under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool.
- (2) If, apart from the care receiver turning 16, the person would remain qualified for a carer payment under that provision, the person remains qualified under that provision for 3 months after the care receiver turns 16.

198 Qualification—disabled adult or disabled adult and dependent child

- (1) A person is qualified for a carer payment if the requirements of this section are met.

Note: Sections 198AA, 198AB and 198AC allow the person to qualify in certain short-term circumstances where the requirements would not be met.

Constant care for disabled adult or disabled adult and a dependent child

- (2) The person must personally provide constant care for:

- (a) either:
  - (i) if the person is the only person providing the constant care—a disabled adult (the care receiver) who has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 25, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 10; or
  - (ii) if not—a disabled adult (the care receiver) who has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 80, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 32; or
- (d) a disabled adult and a dependent child of the adult (the care receivers), where:
  - (i) the disabled adult has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 20, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 8; and
  - (ii) the child is aged under 16; and
  - (iii) if the child is aged 6 or more—carer allowance is payable for the child; and
  - (iv) section 197D does not apply in respect of the care receivers.

Note: In a paragraph (d) case, subsection (9) deems certain supervision to constitute care.

Alternative to Australian residence test for higher ADAT score adults

- (6) Paragraph (5)(b) does not apply if:
- (a) the care receiver is the higher ADAT score adult mentioned in paragraph (2)(a); and

  - (c) carer payment may be granted to another person for the adult under a scheduled international social security agreement.

Alternative to income/assets test for higher ADAT score adults

- (a) is receiving a social security pension or benefit, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
  - (b) would be receiving a social security or service pension or income support supplement if he or she had been an Australian resident for a long enough period.

Deemed personal care of disabled adult and dependent child

  - (b) it is reasonable to assume that, if the hospitalised person were not in hospital, the carer would qualify, except under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F), for a carer payment for:
    - (i) the hospitalised person; or
    - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons; and
  - (c) a requirement in subsection (2) is met.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the requirements are that either:
- (a) the hospitalised person is terminally ill; or
  - (b) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
    - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
    - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

Limit on qualification under subsection (1)

- (3) However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under subsection (1) for a hospitalised person who is a disabled adult is 63 days in any calendar year.

Note: There is no limit under subsection (1) for a hospitalised person who is a child.

Short term or episodic care of child (qualified under section 197G or 197H)

- (4) A person (the carer) qualifies for a carer payment if:
- (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
    - (i) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
    - (ii) a child with a disability or medical condition; and
  - (b) the Secretary determines in writing that, if the hospitalised person were not in hospital, the carer would qualify under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for a period or periods for:
    - (i) the hospitalised person; or
    - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons; and
  - (c) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
    - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
    - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under this subsection for the hospitalised person must not exceed the period, or the sum of the periods, determined under paragraph (b).

- (5) A person (the carer) qualifies for a carer payment if:
- (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
    - (i) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
    - (ii) a child with a disability or medical condition; and
  - (b) immediately before the carer began participating in that care, the carer was qualified under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for a period for:
    - (i) the hospitalised person; or
    - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons; and
  - (c) the person would cease to be qualified under section 197G or 197H for a carer payment for the balance of the period only because the person is participating in the care of the hospitalised person in hospital; and
  - (d) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
    - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
    - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under this subsection for the hospitalised person must not exceed the balance of the period referred to in paragraph (c).

198AB Care not required to be in private residence during portability period

- (1) This section applies if a person:

- (a) is qualified for a carer payment; and
  - (b) is absent from Australia for a period:
    - (i) throughout which Division 2 of Part 4.2 applies to the person; and
    - (ii) that is before the end of the person's portability period for carer payment (within the meaning of that Division).
- (2) The person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment:
- (a) merely because the constant care for the care receiver or care receivers is not provided in a private residence that is the home of the care receiver or care receivers; or
  - (b) if the person is qualified because of section 197F—merely because the care for the care receiver or care receivers is not provided in a private residence that is a home of the care receiver or care receivers.

198AC Effect of cessation of care etc. on carer payment

Continuation of payment where temporary cessation of care

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), if:
- (a) a person is qualified (except under section 197G or 197H) for a carer payment:
    - (i) because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or
    - (ii) if the person is qualified because of section 197F—because the person is personally providing care for care receivers; and
  - (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care for the care receiver or care receivers;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of that cessation.

- (1A) Subject to subsections (3) and (3A), if:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment:

- (i) under section 197G or 197H because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or

- (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care for the care receiver or care receivers;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of that cessation.

Continuation of payment after hospitalisation—section 198AA ceases to apply

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (3A), if:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment under section 198AA because the person is participating in the care of an adult or child in hospital; and
  - (b) apart from this subsection, the person would later cease to be qualified for carer payment under that section; and
  - (c) either:
    - (i) the person would not cease to be qualified for a carer payment if the person were providing constant care for the adult or child, or the adult or child and another person; or
    - (ii) if the person qualified under section 198AA because of section 197F—the person would not cease to be qualified for a carer payment if the person were providing care for the adult or child, or the adult or child and another person;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for carer payment merely because of the lack of provision of that care.

Limit on subsections (1) and (2)

- (3) Subject to subsection (3B), the period, or the sum of the periods, for which subsection (1) or (2), or a combination of those subsections, can apply is:
- (a) 63 days in any calendar year; or
  - (b) another period that the Secretary, for any special reason in the particular case, decides to be appropriate.
- (3A) The period (or the sum of the periods) for which subsection (1A) or (2) (or a combination of those subsections) can apply to the person in a calendar year is the number of whole days worked out in accordance with the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Carer payment period}}{\text{Number of days in calendar year}} \times \text{Limit}$$

where:

carer payment period, in relation to a calendar year, means:

- (a) if only 197G applied to the person to any extent in the calendar year—the number of days in the period determined under that section that fall in the calendar year; or
- (b) if sections 197G and 197H applied to the person to any extent in the calendar year—the number of days worked out by adding the days in each period determined under those sections to the extent that those days fall in the calendar year.

It does not matter whether section 197G or 197H (or both of them) apply because of section 197F or not.

limit, in relation to a calendar year, means:

- (a) 63 days; or
- (b) another number of days in the calendar year that the Secretary, for any special reason in the particular case, decides to be appropriate.

(3B) If:

- (a) because of subsection (1A), the person does not cease to be qualified in a calendar year for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for a care receiver or care receivers;

and

- (b) the number of days (the qualifying days) for which the person does not cease to be qualified (whether under subsection (1A) or (2), or a combination of them) in the calendar year is not more than the number of days worked out under subsection (3A) in relation to the person; and
- (c) subsequently in the calendar year, the person begins to qualify for a carer payment because of section 197J for the care receiver or care receivers;

subsection (3) applies as if the periods referred to in whichever of paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection apply were reduced by the number of qualifying days.

Cessation of constant personal care in order to undertake training etc.

(4) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for carer payment because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; and
- (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care in order to undertake training, education, unpaid voluntary work or paid employment; and
- (c) the cessation does not exceed 25 hours per week;

the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of the cessation.

Cessation of participation in hospital care in order to undertake training etc.

(5) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for carer payment because the person is participating in the care of another person in hospital; and
- (b) the person temporarily ceases to participate in the care in order to undertake training, education, unpaid voluntary work or paid employment; and

198AD Qualification—wife pension and carer allowance recipient

A woman is qualified for a carer payment if:

- (a) immediately before 20 March 2020, the woman was receiving a wife pension under Part 2.4; and
- (b) immediately before 20 March 2020, the woman was receiving carer allowance under Part 2.19; and
- (c) on and after 20 March 2020, the woman continuously receives carer allowance under Part 2.19; and
- (d) the woman is not otherwise qualified for a carer payment.

Note: The effect of paragraph (c) is that once the woman stops receiving carer allowance, the woman will not be able to again qualify for a carer payment under this section.

198A Income test

Passing the income test

- (1) A care receiver or care receivers pass the income test if the taxable income of the care receiver, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, worked out under section 198B for the appropriate tax year determined under section 198C is not more than $66,403 (the income ceiling).

Income test failed where no taxable income for appropriate tax year

- (2) A care receiver or care receivers do not pass the income test if any person (whether or not a care receiver) whose taxable income is required to be taken into account in applying section 198B does not have an assessed taxable income or an accepted estimated taxable income for the appropriate tax year.

198B Taxable income

Rules that apply for the purposes of this Subdivision

- (1) For the purposes of this Subdivision, the rules set out in subsections (1A), (1B), (1BA), (1C) and (6) apply.

Taxable income of higher ADAT score adult

- (1A) If a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult is a member of a couple, the care receiver's taxable income includes the taxable income of the care receiver's partner.

Taxable income of sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child

- (1B) If a care receiver is a sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child who lives with his or her parent, the taxable income of the care receiver includes the taxable income of the following people:

- (a) the parent;
- (b) if the parent is a member of a couple—the parent's partner;
- (c) if the parent or the partner has one or more FTB children—the FTB children (other than any who are care receivers).

However, if the care receiver is a combined care child or a multiple care child who is one of 2 or more care receivers, the taxable income of the same person is not to be included in the taxable income of any of the other care receivers.

Note: See also subsection 197F(5).

Taxable income of lower ADAT score adult

- (1BA) If a care receiver is a lower ADAT score adult, the care receiver's taxable income includes the taxable income of the following people:

- (b) in any other case—any FTB child (except the other care receiver) of the adult.

Taxable income

- (1C) A person's taxable income for a tax year is:
  - (a) the person's assessed taxable income for the tax year; or
  - (b) if the Commissioner of Taxation has not made an assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year—the person's accepted estimated taxable income for the tax year.

Note: For accepted estimated taxable income see subsection (5).

Assessed taxable income

- (2) At a particular time, a person's assessed taxable income for a tax year is the taxable income according to whichever of the following was made most recently:
  - (a) an assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation;
  - (b) an amended assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation;

Accepting estimate of taxable income

- (4) The Secretary may accept the estimate only if:
- (a) the person does not have an assessed taxable income for the tax year; and
  - (b) one of the following applies:
    - (i) the tax year has not ended;
    - (ii) the Secretary is satisfied that the person is not required to lodge a return of income for the tax year under the Income Tax Assessment Act;
    - (iii) the Secretary is satisfied that the person has lodged, or proposes to lodge, a return of income for the tax year under the Income Tax Assessment Act; and
  - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the estimate is reasonable.

Accepted estimated taxable income

- (5) A person's accepted estimated taxable income for a tax year is the taxable income according to the estimate that was most recently given to the Secretary under subsection (3) or (3A) and accepted by the Secretary.

Nil amounts of taxable income

- (6) A person's assessed taxable income or accepted estimate of taxable income may be a nil amount.

198C Appropriate tax year

(2) If:

- (a) carer payment would not be payable to a person because the care receiver or care receivers would not pass the income test under subsection 198A(1) apart from this subsection; and
- (b) the Secretary is given a written request to treat the care receiver or care receivers as if the tax year in which the request is given were the appropriate tax year; and
- (c) the request is given to the Secretary by the person, any care receiver who is 16 or over or a parent of any care receiver who is under 16; and
- (d) the taxable income of the care receiver, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the request is made is likely to be less than the income ceiling;

the appropriate tax year, for the purposes of applying subsection 198A(1) to the care receiver or care receivers on or after the day on which the request is given, is the tax year in which the request is made.

Note 1: For taxable income see section 198B.

Note 2: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Current tax year to be retained for consecutive calendar years in certain circumstances

(3) If:

- (a) an instalment of carer payment (the first payment) is paid to a person on a day in one calendar year; and
- (b) the next instalment of carer payment (the second payment) is paid to a person on a day in the next calendar year; and
- (c) the instalment period to which the second payment relates:
  - (i) commences immediately after the end of the instalment period to which the first payment related; and
  - (ii) includes the first day of the calendar year referred to in paragraph (b); and

- (d) the person's carer payment is payable in relation to the period referred to in subparagraph (c)(i) because, as a result of a request under paragraph (2)(b), the appropriate tax year is the tax year in which that period occurs (the current tax year); and
- (e) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the current tax year is less than the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the base tax year; the care recipient's appropriate tax year, as from the beginning of the later calendar year, is the current tax year and not the base tax year unless the care recipient's taxable income for the base tax year is less than the income ceiling.

Note 1: For base tax year see subsection (6).

Note 2: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Change to appropriate tax year because of notifiable event

- (4) For the purposes of section 198A, if:
  - (a) a notifiable event occurs in relation to a care receiver or any of 2 or more care receivers; and
  - (b) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs exceeds the income ceiling;the appropriate tax year is the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs.

Note 1: For notifiable event see subsection (6).

Note 2: For taxable income see section 198B.

Note 3: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Note 4: The effect of subsection (4) is that the person caring for the care receiver or care receivers will cease to be qualified for carer payment because the care receiver or care receivers will not pass the income test under subsection 198A(1).

Change to appropriate tax year because of effect of notifiable event on taxable income for later tax year

- (5) For the purposes of section 198A, if:
- (a) a notifiable event occurs in relation to a care receiver or any of 2 or more care receivers; and
  - (b) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs (the event tax year) does not exceed the income ceiling; and
  - (c) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year that follows the event tax year is likely to exceed the income ceiling;
- the appropriate tax year is the year that follows the event tax year.

Note 1: For notifiable event see subsection (6).

Note 2: For taxable income see section 198B.

Definitions

- (6) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) the base tax year for a day is the tax year that ended on 30 June in the calendar year immediately before the calendar year in which the day falls; and
  - (b) a notifiable event is an event or change of circumstances that:
    - (i) is specified in a notice under section 70 of the Administration Act; and
    - (ii) is described by the notice as a notifiable event.

Example: Suppose 4 April 1996 is a carer payment payday. It falls in the calendar year 1 January to 31 December 1996, so the base tax year for that payday is the tax year that ended on 30 June 1995 (i.e. the year of income beginning on 1 July 1994).

the amount that was included in the value of the partner's assets because of that disposition is to be included in the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of separation of couple after disposal of partner's asset

(4) If:

- (a) an amount is included under subsection (2) in the value of both the assets of the care receiver and the assets of the care receiver's partner because of a disposition of an asset by the partner; and

Section 198LA

198LA Disposal of assets in income year—members of couples including higher ADAT score adults

Application

- (1) This section has effect in determining whether a person (the carer) who has been receiving a carer payment for caring for a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult and is a member of a couple continues to qualify for the payment.

Disposals to which section applies

- (2) This section applies to a disposal (the relevant disposal) on or after 1 July 2002 of an asset by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner.

Increase in value of assets

- (3) If the amount of the relevant disposal, or the sum of that amount and the amounts (if any) of other disposals of assets previously made by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner (whether before or after they became members of the couple), during the income year in which the relevant disposal took place, exceeds $10,000, then, for the purposes of this Act, the lesser of the following amounts is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver and in the value of the assets of the partner for the period of 5 years starting on the day on which the relevant disposal took place:
  - (a) one-half of the amount of the relevant disposal;
  - (b) one-half of the amount by which the sum of the amount of the relevant disposal and the amounts (if any) of other disposals of assets previously made by the care receiver, the partner, or the care receiver and the partner, during the income year in which the relevant disposal took place, exceeds $10,000.

Effect of ceasing to be a member of couple after disposal by care receiver

(4) If:

- (a) the relevant disposal is the disposal of an asset by the care receiver; and
- (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the care receiver's partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the partner because of the relevant disposal is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of ceasing to be a member of couple after disposal by care receiver's partner

(5) If:

- (a) the relevant disposal is the disposal of an asset by the care receiver's partner; and
- (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the care receiver because of the relevant disposal is no longer to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

198LB Disposal of assets in 5 year period—members of couples including higher ADAT score adults

Application

- (1) This section also has effect in determining whether a person (the carer) who has been receiving a carer payment for caring for a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult and is a member of a couple continues to qualify for the payment.

Disposals to which section applies

- (2) This section applies to a disposal (the relevant disposal) on or after 1 July 2002 of an asset by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner.

Increase in value of assets

- (3) If:

- (a) the sum of the amount of the relevant disposal and the amounts of any previous disposals during the rolling period of assets by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner;

less

- (b) the sum of any amounts included in the value of the assets of the care receiver or the partner during the rolling period under a provision of this Subdivision other than this section or under any previous application or applications of this section;

exceeds $30,000, then, for the purposes of this Act, an amount equal to one-half of the excess is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver and in the value of the assets of the partner for the period of 5 years starting on the day on which the relevant disposal took place.

Effect of ceasing to be member of couple after disposal by care receiver

- (4) If:

(b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the care receiver's partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the partner because of the relevant disposal is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of ceasing to be member of couple after disposal by care receiver's partner

(5) If:

- (a) the relevant disposal is a disposal of an asset by the care receiver's partner; and

198M Certain dispositions to be disregarded for care receiver assets test

This Division does not apply to a disposition of an asset by a person (the disposer):

- (a) more than 5 years before the time when another person (the carer) became qualified for a carer payment:
  - (i) because the carer was providing care for the disposer and the disposer was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; or
  - (ii) because the carer was providing care for the person who was the disposer's partner at the time of the disposition and that person was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; or
- (b) less than 5 years before the time referred to in paragraph (a) but before the time when the disposer could, in the Secretary's opinion, reasonably have expected that the carer

- would become qualified for carer payment for a reason described in paragraph (a); or
- (c) before 9 May 1995.

198MA Other disposals to be disregarded for care receiver assets test

This Division does not apply to a disposal by a person (the disposer) of an asset of a child:

- (a) more than 5 years before the carer became qualified for a carer payment because the carer was providing care for the child and the child was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; and
- (b) less than 5 years before the time referred to in paragraph (a) but before the time when the disposer could, in the Secretary's opinion, reasonably have expected that the carer would become qualified for carer payment because the carer was providing care for the child.

Note: Subsections 198D(1B), (1D) and (1DB) provide that if a sole care child, a combined care child or a multiple care child lives with a parent, the assets listed in subsection 198D(1A) and paragraphs 198D(1C)(b) and (1DA)(c) are taken to be the assets of the child.

198N Exemption from care receiver assets test

Application by parent or carer of sole care child

- (1AA) Subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) have effect if:
- (a) subparagraph 197B(4)(d)(i) or 197E(5)(d)(i) would disqualify from carer payment a person caring for a care receiver who is a sole care child; and
  - (b) the parent or the carer of the care receiver lodges with the Department, in a form approved by the Secretary, a request that the carer not be disqualified by that subparagraph; and
  - (c) the request includes a written estimate of the taxable income of the care receiver for the current financial year under subsection 198B(3); and

- (c) the request includes written estimates of the taxable incomes of the care receivers for the current financial year under subsection 198B(3); and
- (d) the Secretary accepts the estimate under subsection 198B(4).

Application by lower ADAT score adult (multiple care child or children)

(1AC) Subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) have effect if:

- (a) subparagraph 197D(4)(d)(i) would disqualify from carer payment a person caring for care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children; and
- (b) the lower ADAT score adult lodges with the Department, in a form approved by the Secretary, a request that the carer not be disqualified by that subparagraph; and

    - (i) the care receiver;
    - (ii) if the care receiver has a partner—the partner;
    - (iii) if the care receiver or the care receiver's partner has one or more FTB children—those FTB children; and
  - (aa) the value of the liquid assets of a care receiver who is a sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child is the sum of the values of the liquid assets of the following people:
    - (i) the care receiver;
    - (ii) if the care receiver lives with his or her parent—the parent;

    - (iv) if the parent with whom the care receiver lives or the parent's partner has one or more FTB children—those FTB children.
- However, if the care receiver is one of 2 or more care receivers each of whom is a combined care child or a multiple care child, liquid assets of the same person are not to be taken into account in respect of any of the other care receivers; and
- (ab) the value of the liquid assets of a care receiver who is a lower ADAT score adult is the sum of the values of the liquid assets of the following people:
    - (i) the care receiver;

However, liquid assets of the same person are not to be taken into account in respect of any of the other care receivers; and

Note: The value of the liquid assets of the child who is the other care receiver or the children who are the other care receivers is not adjusted by adding any other person's liquid assets.

- (b) the liquid assets limit is $10,000 if the care receiver or any of the care receivers is a member of a couple, or $6,000 if not; and
- (c) the taxable income of a care receiver or of any of 2 or more care receivers for a particular financial year is the taxable income of the care receiver for that year as worked out under section 198B.

Note 1: For liquid assets see subsection 19B(1).

Note 2: Subsections 198D(1B), (1D) and (1DB) provide that if a sole care child, a combined care child or a multiple care child lives with a parent, the assets listed in subsection 198D(1A) and paragraphs 198D(1C)(b) and (1DA)(c) are taken to be assets of the child.

Note 3: For subparagraph (5)(aa)(ii), see also subsection 197F(5).

Working out the threshold amount

- (6) For the purposes of paragraphs (2)(c), (3)(b) and (4)(c), the threshold amount is the amount worked out using the following formula:

$$(\text{MBR} \times 2) + ($639.60 \times \text{FPC})$$

where:

MBR is the maximum basic rate of age pension payable, as at the last 1 January, to a person who has a partner.

FPC is:

- (a) in the case of a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult—the number of FTB children of the care receiver or the care receiver's partner (if the care receiver has a partner); or

Section 198P

- (b) in the case of a care receiver who is a sole care child who lives with his or her parent—the number of FTB children of the parent or the parent’s partner (if the parent has a partner); or
- (c) in the case of a care receiver who is a sole care child who does not live with his or her parent—0; or
- (d) in the case of care receivers who are 2 or more combined care children:
  - (i) if any of the children lives with his or her parent—the sum of the number of FTB children of each such parent or of the partner (if the parent has a partner) of each such parent; or
  - (ii) in any other case—0; or
- (e) in the case of care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children, or a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child—the number of FTB children of the care receiver or the care receiver’s partner (if the care receiver has a partner).

Note 1: For the maximum basic rate of age pension see point 1064-B1 of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064.

210 How to work out a person's carer payment rate

A person's carer payment rate is worked out using Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064 (see Part 3.2).

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision A—Continuation of carer payment

235 Continuation of carer payment for bereavement period where person cared for dies

(1) If:

- (a) a person is receiving carer payment because he or she ordinarily cares for a care receiver or care receivers; and
- (b) the person is caring for the care receiver or care receivers or has temporarily ceased to care for the care receiver or care receivers; and
- (c) the care receiver or any of the care receivers dies; and
- (d) the care receiver who dies is not the person's partner; and
- (e) because of the death, the person would, apart from this subsection, cease to be qualified for the carer payment;

the person remains qualified for the carer payment during the bereavement period as if the death had not occurred.

(1A) If:

- (a) a person (the carer) is receiving a carer payment only because section 198AA or subsection 198AC(2) applies; and
- (b) the death occurs of:
  - (i) the person or any of the persons for whom the person would qualify for carer payment as mentioned in paragraph 198AA(1)(b); or
  - (ia) the person or any of the persons for whom the carer would qualify for carer payment as mentioned in subsection 198AA(4) or (5); or
  - (ii) the person or any of the persons for whom the care mentioned in paragraph 198AC(2)(c) is assumed to be provided; and

(c) the person who dies is not the carer's partner;
the carer remains qualified for carer payment during the bereavement period as if the death had not occurred.

- (3) A person to whom subsection (1) applies may, by written notice to the Secretary, choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision and to receive instead any payments to which the person would be otherwise entitled.
- (4) If a person makes an election under subsection (3):
  - (a) this Act, or Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, has effect accordingly; and
  - (b) the person may not withdraw the election after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to the election.

236 Continued carer payment rate

If a person is qualified for a carer payment solely because of section 235, the rate at which the pension is payable is to be determined having regard to the person's actual circumstances.

236A Lump sum payable in some circumstances

- (1) A lump sum is payable to a person under this section if:
  - (a) the person remains qualified for carer payment because subsection 235(1) or (1A) applies; and
  - (b) immediately before the death of the person mentioned in that subsection, the person who died was not a member of a couple, or was a member of a couple and his or her partner:
    - (i) was not receiving a social security pension; and
    - (ii) was not receiving a social security benefit; and
    - (iii) was not receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment.
- (1A) However, if subsection (1) would apply where 2 or more persons die at the same time, only one payment is payable under that subsection.
- (2) The amount of the lump sum under this section is the lesser of the amount worked out under subsection (3) and the amount worked out under subsection (4).

Section 236B

---

- (3) The amount under this subsection is:

$$\frac{(\text{Partnered MBR} + \text{Pension supplement})}{26} \times 7$$

where:

partnered MBR is the maximum basic rate applicable, on the day that the person dies, to a person covered by item 2 of the Maximum Basic Rate Table in point 1064-B1 of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064.

pension supplement is the person's pension supplement worked out under Module BA of Pension Rate Calculator A.

- (4) The amount under this subsection is:

$$\text{carer's current instalment} \times 7$$

where:

carer's current instalment is the amount of the last instalment of carer payment paid to the carer before the person died.

236B Subdivision not to apply in certain cases involving simultaneous death

If:

- (a) either:

- (i) a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children die at the same time; or
- (ii) a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child of the adult die at the same time; and

- (b) apart from this subsection and section 243, because of those deaths, a person would continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235 and would be qualified for payments under Subdivision B; and

- (c) the sum of the carer payments for which the person would continue to qualify under section 235 and any lump sum payable to the person under section 236A is less than the sum of the amounts payable to the person under Subdivision B;

the person does not continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235 and no lump sum is payable to the person under section 236A.

Subdivision B—Death of partner

237 Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving a carer payment; and
  - (b) the person is a member of a couple; and
  - (c) the person's partner dies; and
  - (d) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
    - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
    - (ii) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
    - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
  - (e) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
    - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 238 (continued payment of partner's pension or allowance); and
    - (ii) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 240 (person's continued rate);

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 238 provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: Section 239 provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Part 2.5 Carer payment

Division 9 Bereavement payments

Section 237

---

~~Note 3: —A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision for the death of the person's partner may, in some circumstances, be automatically transferred to a parenting payment after the end of the bereavement period without making a claim for that payment (see subsection 501(4)).~~

(1A) If:

- (a) a person is receiving a carer payment; and
- (b) immediately before starting to receive the carer payment the person was receiving partner bereavement payments; and
- (c) the bereavement rate continuation period in relation to the death of the person's partner has not ended;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the remainder of the bereavement period.

(1AB) Subsection (1) or (1A) does not apply in relation to care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children if:

- (a) the person is receiving carer payment under section 235 because of the death of the child or children; and
- (b) the person's partner is the lower ADAT score adult.

(1B) Subsection (1) or (1A) does not apply if:

- (a) the person is receiving carer payment under section 235 because of the death of a care receiver who is a dependent child of a lower ADAT score adult; and
- (b) the person's partner is the lower ADAT score adult.

(2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

(3) An election under subsection (2):

- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
- (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
- (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.

- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which carer payment is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 240.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long-term social security recipient if:
  - (a) the person is receiving a social security benefit; and
  - (b) in respect of the previous 12 months, the person:
    - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
    - (ii) was receiving a social security benefit; or
    - (iii) was receiving a youth training allowance; or
    - (iv) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment.
- (6) A person is taken to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (5)(b) if:
  - (a) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for a continuous period of 12 months; or
  - (b) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for 46 weeks of the previous 52.

238 Continued payment of deceased partner's previous entitlement

- (1) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period:
  - (a) where the partner was receiving a social security pension or social security benefit—the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the payday if the partner had not died; or
  - (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III, IIIA or

Section 239

IIIAA (as the case may be) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:

- (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the pension payday; or
- (ii) in any other case—follows the pension payday; if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

239 Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the person's partner had not died; and

- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 240, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 6. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

Section 240

240 Adjustment of person's carer payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision;
and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 237(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's carer payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of carer payment payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
  - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
  - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which carer payment is payable to the person is the rate at which the carer payment would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

241 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
  - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
  - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 240, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Section 242

---

- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of partner's paydays in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

242 Benefits under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (b) an amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

243 Subdivision not to apply in certain cases involving simultaneous death

If:

- (a) either:
  - (i) a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children die at the same time; or
  - (ii) a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child of the adult die at the same time; and
- (b) apart from this subsection and section 236B, because of those deaths a person would be qualified for payments under this Subdivision and would continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235; and
- (c) the sum of the amounts payable to the person under this Subdivision is less than or equal to the sum of the carer payments for which the person would continue to qualify under section 235 and any lump sum payable to the person under section 236A;

no amounts are payable to the person under this Subdivision.

- (b) if the person is a member of a couple—the Benefit PP (Partnered) Rate Calculator at the end of section 1068B (see Part 3.6A).

503A Approved program of work supplement

If a person:

- (b) the person's partner dies; and
  - (c) immediately before the deceased partner died, he or she:
    - (i) was a long-term social security recipient; or
    - (ii) was receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and
  - (d) immediately before the deceased partner died, the surviving partner was a long-term social security recipient;
- the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: For benefit PP (partnered) see section 18 and for long-term social security recipient see subsection 23(1).

Note 2: Section 514B provides for the payment to the surviving partner, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the deceased partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 3: Section 514C provides for payment to the surviving partner of a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the deceased partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the deceased partner had not died.

Note 4: For bereavement period see section 21.

- (2) A surviving partner who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (3) An election under subsection (2):
  - (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and

514B Continued payment of deceased partner's previous entitlement

If a surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the deceased partner, there is payable to the surviving partner, on each of the deceased partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on that payday if he or she had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

514C Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the deceased partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the surviving partner as a lump sum an amount worked out using the following Lump Sum Calculator:

Lump Sum Calculator

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on the deceased partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount of pension PP (single) that would, if section 514D did not apply, have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the surviving partner's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the surviving partner's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the deceased partner's instalment component.

Step 6. Work out the number of the deceased partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 7. Multiply the deceased partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the surviving partner under this section.

549B Start of liquid assets test waiting period

General

- (1) The liquid assets test waiting period of a person who does not have a temporary incapacity exemption starts on the day on which the person became qualified for youth allowance.

Person has temporary incapacity exemption

- (2) If a person has a temporary incapacity exemption, the person's liquid assets test waiting period starts on the day on which the person became incapacitated.

549C Length of liquid assets test waiting period

  - (b) if the result obtained under subsection (2) is fewer than 13 whole weeks—the number of whole weeks obtained under that subsection.

Working out number of weeks

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the number of weeks is worked out by using the following formula:

where:

divisor, in relation to the person, means:

- (a) if the person is not a member of a couple and does not have a dependent child—$500; or
- (b) otherwise—$1,000.

Section 549CA

---

liquid assets means the person's liquid assets on the day referred to in subparagraph 549A(1)(a)(i) or (ii) (as the case requires).

maximum reserve amount means the maximum reserve in relation to the person under subsection 14A(1).

Weeks etc. to be disregarded

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), disregard:
- (a) any weeks after the person claimed youth allowance during which the person was not qualified for youth allowance; and
  - (b) any fractions of a week.

- (2) Subject to subsections (3), (5) and (6), the person is subject to an ordinary waiting period unless:
- (a) at some time in the 13 weeks immediately before the person's start day (worked out disregarding clauses 4A, 4B and 5 of Schedule 2 to the Administration Act), the person received an income support payment; or
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the person is experiencing a personal financial crisis; or

  - (b) has been exempted from the application of subsection (2) by the Secretary.
- (4) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify activities for the purpose of paragraph (3)(a).
- (5) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person if:
  - (a) the person makes a claim for youth allowance on or after the commencement of this subsection; and
  - (b) the person makes the claim after the death of the person's partner on or after the commencement of this subsection; and
  - (c) if the person is a man or a woman who was not pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; and
  - (d) if the person is a woman who was pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim:
    - (i) in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; or
    - (ii) in the period starting on the day of the death of the partner and ending when the child is born or the woman otherwise stops being pregnant;whichever ends later.
- (6) If a person makes a claim for youth allowance during the period beginning on 1 April 2021 and ending at the end of 30 June 2021, then, despite subsection (2), the person is not subject to the whole of the ordinary waiting period.

549CB Duration of ordinary waiting period

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (4), if a person is subject to an ordinary waiting period, the ordinary waiting period is the period of 7 days that starts on the person's start day (worked out disregarding clauses 4A, 4B and 5 of Schedule 2 to the Administration Act).

- (2) Subject to subsection (4), if:
- (a) a person is subject to an ordinary waiting period; and
  - (b) apart from this subsection, the ordinary waiting period would be the period of 7 days that starts on the person's start day (worked out disregarding clauses 4A, 4B and 5 of Schedule 2 to the Administration Act); and
  - (c) that start day falls within one or more of the following periods (each of which is an exclusion period) that the person is subject to:

    - (iv) a lump sum preclusion period under Part 3.14;
    - (v) an income maintenance period, where the person's rate of youth allowance on that start day would be nil;
- then the ordinary waiting period is the period of 7 days that starts on the first day after all the exclusion periods have ended.
- (3) If:
- (a) subparagraph (2)(c)(v) applies to a person; and
  - (b) on a day in that income maintenance period, the person's rate of youth allowance would be greater than nil if youth allowance were payable to the person on that day;
- then, for the purposes of subsection (2), that income maintenance period is taken to have ended at the end of the day before that day.
- (4) If:
- (a) a person qualifies for a social security payment (other than youth allowance); and
  - (b) because the person is subject to an ordinary waiting period relating to that payment, that payment is not payable to the person for a period starting on a particular day (the initial day); and
  - (c) during that period the person:
    - (i) ceases to be qualified for that payment; and

Subdivision D—Situations where allowance not payable because of youth allowance participation failure

549G Application of Subdivision

(2A) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of subsection (2), a person had a reasonable excuse for committing a youth allowance participation failure.

(2B) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (2A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of subsection (2), a person had a reasonable excuse for committing the youth allowance participation failure referred to in subsection (1).

Subsequent failures in the same instalment period

(3) Despite subsection (1), if a failure of a kind referred to in that subsection occurs in an instalment period of the person in which the person has already committed a youth allowance participation failure, the failure is not a youth allowance participation failure if:

Division 10—Bereavement payments

Subdivision A—Ongoing payments for death of partner

567 Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

Qualification for payment

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving youth allowance; and
  - (b) the person is a long-term social security recipient; and
  - (c) the person is a member of a couple; and
  - (d) the person's partner dies; and
  - (e) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
    - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
    - (ii) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
    - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
  - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
    - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 567C (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
    - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 567A (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 567A provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Section 567A

---

Note 2: Section 567B provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For first available bereavement adjustment payday and bereavement period see section 21.

Choice not to receive payments

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

Note: By making such a choice, the person may qualify for a payment under Subdivision AA.

Form of choice

- (3) A choice under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
  - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
  - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that choice.

Rate during bereavement period

- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which youth allowance is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made a choice under subsection (2), governed by section 567C.

567A Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

567B Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 567C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is the person's individual rate.

- Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

567C Adjustment of person's youth allowance rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 567(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's youth allowance during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of youth allowance payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which youth allowance is payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

567D Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and

(c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;
there is payable, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 567C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is the person's individual rate.

- Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

567E Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

Recovery/reduction of amount payable

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount is more than the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

Bank not liable

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (b) the amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not more than the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, despite anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

567F Calculation of bereavement payment in respect of former CDEP Scheme participant

If a benefit becomes payable under this Subdivision in respect of a person who was a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the day on which the benefit becomes payable, the amount of the benefit is to be the amount that would have been the amount of the benefit if section 552C had not been enacted.

Note: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Subdivision AA—One-off payment for death of partner

567FA Qualification for payment under this Subdivision

A person is qualified for a lump sum payment under this Subdivision if:

- (a) the person is qualified for youth allowance on a day (the relevant day); and
- (b) youth allowance is payable to the person on the relevant day; and
- (c) on or before the relevant day but after the commencement of this section, the person was a member of a couple and stopped being a member of a couple because the person's partner died; and

- (i) if the person is qualified for payments under section 567 in respect of the person's partner's death—the person has made a choice under subsection 567(2).

567FB Amount of payment

- (1) The amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula (except if paragraph 567FA(g) applies in relation to the person):

$$\text{Daily rate of person's youth allowance on the relevant day} \times 14 \times 7$$

- (2) If subparagraph 567FA(g)(i) applies in relation to the person, the amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula:

Persons who do not satisfy the activity test

- (2) A person cannot be taken to satisfy the activity test if the person:

569AA One course of education

- (1) Whether subparagraph 569A(a)(i) or (ii) and paragraphs 569A(b), (c) and (d) are satisfied in relation to a person is to be determined in relation to only one course of education.
- (2) Whether a person satisfies the Secretary of the person's intention mentioned in subparagraph 569A(a)(iii) and whether paragraphs 569A(b), (c) and (d) are satisfied in relation to the person is to be determined in relation to only one course of education.

Note 1: The effect of this section is that 2 or more courses of education for a person cannot be aggregated to satisfy the undertaking qualifying study requirement.

Note 2: The one course of education may be a combined course: see the legislative instrument made under section 5D of the Student Assistance Act 1973.

Section 569B

Full-time students

- (1) A person who is a full-time student in respect of a tertiary course satisfies the progress rules if:
- (a) in the case of a person who is enrolled in the course—on the day on which the person enrolled in the course; or
  - (b) in the case of a person who is not yet enrolled in the course but intends to enrol in the course—on the day on which enrolments in the course are next accepted;
- the time already spent by the student on the course, or on one or more other tertiary courses at the same level as that course, does not exceed the allowable study time for that course.

Note: For allowable study time for a course see subsection (3).

Concessional study-load students

- (2) A person who is a concessional study-load student in respect of a tertiary course satisfies the progress rules if:
- (a) in the case of a person who is enrolled in the course—on the day on which the person enrolled in the course; or

Part 2.11A Austudy payment

Division 1 Qualification for austudy payment

Section 569H

- (a) if the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student is one year or less—that minimum amount of time; or
- (b) if the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student is more than 1 year and:
  - (i) the student is enrolled, or intends to enrol, in a year-long subject; or
  - (ii) the student's further progress in the course depends on passing a whole year's work in the course;the minimum amount of time plus 1 year; or
- (c) in any other case—the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student plus half an academic year.

Allowable study time—25% concessional study-load students

- (4) The allowable study time for a course undertaken by a 25% concessional study-load student is twice the minimum period in which it is possible to complete the course as a full-time student but the Secretary may approve, in particular cases, an allowable study time of up to four times the minimum period in which it is possible to complete the course as a full-time student.

Time spent by person studying part-time

- (5) If a student has studied part-time for a course over a certain period, the time spent by the student on that course is taken to be the proportion of that period calculated by using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Study undertaken}}{\text{Normal full-time study}}$$

where:

normal full-time study means the normal amount of full-time study for the course.

study undertaken means the amount of study undertaken part-time by the student for the course.

Current full-time students who have previously undertaken courses as concessional study-load students

(6) If:

- (a) a person is undertaking a course as a full-time student; and
- (b) the person has previously undertaken:
  - (i) part of the course; or

- (c) the time spent by the person undertaking the part of the course referred to in subparagraph (b)(i), or the course or courses referred to in subparagraph (b)(ii), (the previous study) is not to be disregarded under subsection (7);

the time spent by the person undertaking the previous study is taken to be equal to the minimum amount of time that a full-time student would have taken to complete the previous study.

Current 25% concessional study-load students who have previously undertaken courses on a different basis

(6A) If:

- (a) a person is undertaking a course as a 25% concessional study-load student; and
- (b) the person has previously undertaken:
  - (i) part of that course; or
  - (ii) one or more than one other course at the same level as that course;

in any of the following ways:

- (iii) as a full-time student;
- (iv) as a 66% concessional study-load student;

- (c) the time spent by the person undertaking the part of the course referred to in subparagraph (b)(i), or the course or courses referred to in subparagraph (b)(ii), (the previous study) is not to be disregarded under subsection (7);

Section 569H

the time spent by the person undertaking the previous study is taken to be:

- (d) twice the time that the person took to complete the previous study; or
- (e) if the Secretary has approved, under subsection (4), a longer allowable study time in relation to the person for the course—the time taken by the person to complete the previous study multiplied by the factor used by the Secretary for the purposes of the approval under that subsection.

Matters to be disregarded in determining whether someone has exceeded the allowable study time

- (7) In determining whether a person has exceeded the allowable study time (for a full-time student or a concessional study-load student), disregard the following:
  - (a) if the person has completed a course (a pre-requisite course) the completion of which is the normal requirement for admission to the course in which the person is enrolled or intends to enrol—time spent undertaking the pre-requisite course;

    - (i) the person's illness; or
    - (ii) other circumstances beyond the person's control;
  - (c) time spent undertaking a course that has been permanently discontinued because of:
    - (i) the person's illness; or
    - (ii) other circumstances beyond the person's control;
  - (d) time spent undertaking a course that has been completed but which, because of the person's illness, the person cannot use in any of the trades or profession to which the course is appropriate;
  - (e) time spent undertaking a TAFE course or a course provided by a VET provider if the normal length of the course for a full-time student is one year or less;

- (f) time spent undertaking a course more than 10 years ago, unless the course has since been completed;

Subsequent failures in the same instalment period

- (3) Despite subsection (1), if a failure of a kind referred to in that subsection occurs in an instalment period of the person in which the person has already committed an austudy participation failure, the failure is not an austudy participation failure if:
  - (a) the instalment period is the person's first instalment period for austudy payment; or
  - (b) the instalment period is not the person's first instalment period for austudy payment, and:
    - (i) the person did not commit an austudy participation failure in the immediately preceding instalment period of the person; or
    - (ii) in respect of each austudy participation failure that the person committed in the immediately preceding instalment period of the person, the person acted in accordance with a requirement of the Secretary that was notified in respect of that failure.

576A Allowance not payable because of austudy participation failure

General

available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For first available bereavement adjustment payday and bereavement period see section 21.

Choice not to receive payments

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Division may choose not to receive payments under this Division.

Form of choice

- (3) A choice under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and

592B Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 592C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

- Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

592C Adjustment of person's austudy payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 592(2) not to receive payments under this Division;

the rate of the person's austudy payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of austudy payment payable to the person is the rate at which the austudy payment would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which austudy payment is payable to the person is the rate at which austudy payment would be payable to the person apart from this Division.

592D Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Division

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 592C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that begins on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

Recovery/reduction of amount payable

(1) If:

~~test~~enter into an employment pathway plan until an assessment of the person's capacity to work has been undertaken.

- (1E) The period for which the person is qualified for a jobseeker payment under subsection (1D) starts:
- (a) if the person is already receiving jobseeker payment when the Secretary becomes aware of the medical condition referred to in paragraph (1D)(e)—when the Secretary becomes aware of the medical condition; or
  - (b) otherwise—when the person made, or is taken to have made, the claim for jobseeker payment.
- (1F) The period for which the person is qualified for a jobseeker payment under subsection (1D) ends:
- (a) if the person has failed to comply with a requirement to enter into a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan—on the day on which the person so failed; or

- (4) If:
- (a) a person was receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and
  - (b) the person claims a jobseeker payment within 14 days of the day on which the last instalment of the person's social security pension, service pension, income support supplement or veteran payment was paid; and last instalment of social security pension, service pension, income support supplement or veteran payment is paid. The subsection deems the person to be so qualified. As a result, the person may be paid a jobseeker payment for the period beginning on the day after the day on which the person's last instalment of social security pension, service pension, income support supplement or veteran payment was paid. The subsection aims to ensure that there is minimal disruption to a person's payments when a person transfers from a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment to a jobseeker payment.

~~(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who has reached 55, but is under 60, years of age and to a period of 2 weeks (the relevant period) if that period begins before the end of 12 months starting on the day the person starts to receive jobseeker payment. Instead the person is taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of the relevant period if the person:~~

~~(a) is engaged, for at least 30 hours in the relevant period, in a combination of:~~

~~(i) approved unpaid voluntary work for an approved organisation; and~~

~~(ii) paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable and that is at least 15 hours in the relevant period; or~~

~~(b) is engaged for at least 30 hours in the relevant period in paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable.~~

~~Note: Because of the definition of receive in section 23, this subsection applies separately in relation to each occasion the person starts to receive jobseeker payment.~~

~~(2A) If jobseeker payment ceases to be payable to a person for a period of less than 3 months (except because the jobseeker payment was cancelled), then, for the purposes of subsection (2), the person is taken to be receiving jobseeker payment during that period.~~

~~(3) This section does not apply to a person in respect of a day in a relevant period if, in respect of the person, having regard to the opportunities, or possible opportunities, for employment that become available to the person on or before the day, the Secretary considers that this section is not to apply to the person in respect of that day.~~

~~(4) For the purposes of this section:~~

~~(a) approved unpaid voluntary work, either full time or otherwise, is work that has been approved by the Secretary for the purposes of this section; and~~

~~(b) an approved organisation is an organisation that has been approved by the Secretary for the purposes of this section.~~

~~603AB Relief from activity test—certain principal carers and people with partial capacity to work~~

~~————— A person who:~~

~~————— (a) is the principal carer of at least one child; or~~

~~603AC Relief from activity test—cessation of claims for widow allowance~~

~~603BA Subdivision not to apply to a person with a pending claim for disability support pension~~

~~————— This Subdivision does not apply to a person who is qualified for jobseeker payment under subsection 593(1B).~~

~~603B Interpretation~~

~~————— A reference in this Subdivision to a person being exempt from the activity test, or ceasing to be exempt from the activity test, under, or under a provision of, this Subdivision is a reference to a person not being required to satisfy the activity test, or becoming required to satisfy the activity test, as the case may be, because of the operation of, or the operation of that provision of, this Subdivision.~~

~~603C Incapacitated person not required to satisfy activity test~~

~~————— (1) Subject to this Subdivision, a person is not required to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period if:~~

- ~~———— (1AA) Subsection (1) does not apply to sickness, or an accident, wholly or predominantly attributable to the person's dependence on alcohol or another drug, unless the person is a declared program participant.~~
- ~~———— (1A) The Secretary must comply with the guidelines (if any) determined and in force under subsection (1B) in deciding the following:~~
  - ~~———— (a) whether paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (c) applies to a person in respect of a period;~~
  - ~~———— (b) whether, for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of work in subsection (2), work is of a kind that a person could be reasonably expected to do.~~

611 Assets test—jobseeker payment not payable if assets value limit exceeded

- (1) Subject to section 654, a jobseeker payment is not payable to a person if the value of the person's assets is more than the person's assets value limit.
- (2) A person's assets value limit is worked out using the following table: work out which family situation applies to the person; the assets value limit is the corresponding amount in the assets value limit column.

Assets value limit table
Column 1	Column 2	Column 3
Item	Person's family situation	Assets value limit
		Column 3A	Column 3B
		Either person or partner homeowner	Neither person nor partner homeowner
1.	Not member of a couple	$250,000	$450,000
2.	Partnered (partner getting neither pension nor benefit)	$375,000	$575,000
3.	Partnered (partner getting pension or benefit)	$187,500	$287,500

Note 1: For member of a couple, partnered (partner getting neither pension nor benefit) and partnered (partner getting pension or benefit) see section 4.

Note 2: For homeowner see section 11.

Note 3: If item 2 applies to a person, the value of all the assets of the person's partner are to be taken as being included in the value of the person's assets (see subsection 612(1))—this is why the assets value limit is so high. If, on the other hand, item 3 applies to a person, the value of the person's assets is only half the combined value of the person's assets and the assets of the person's partner (see subsection 612(2)).

Note 4: If a jobseeker payment is not payable to a person because of the value of the person's assets, the person may be able to take advantage of provisions dealing with financial hardship (see sections 1131 and 1132).

Note 5: The assets value limits of items 1 and 3 in column 3A and item 3 in column 3B are indexed annually in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

Note 6: The assets value limit of item 1 in column 3B is adjusted annually (see subsection 1204(1)).

  - (d) if the person is a woman who was pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim:
    - (i) in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; or
    - (ii) in the period starting on the day of the death of the partner and ending when the child is born or the woman otherwise stops being pregnant;whichever ends later.
- (5) If a person makes a claim for jobseeker payment during the period beginning on 1 April 2021 and ending at the end of 30 June 2021, then, despite subsection (1), the person is not subject to the whole of the ordinary waiting period.

621 Duration of ordinary waiting period

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (5), if a person:
- (a) is subject to an ordinary waiting period; and
  - (b) is not disqualified for jobseeker payment under section 598 (liquid assets test);
- the ordinary waiting period is the period of 7 days that starts on the person's start day (worked out disregarding clauses 4A, 4B and 5 of Schedule 2 to the Administration Act).
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (5), if a person:
- (a) is subject to an ordinary waiting period; and
  - (b) is disqualified for jobseeker payment under section 598 (liquid assets test);
- the ordinary waiting period is the period of 7 days that starts on the day after the end of the liquid assets test waiting period referred to in subsection 598(2).

- (3) Subject to subsection (5), if:
- (a) a person is subject to an ordinary waiting period; and
  - (b) apart from this subsection, the ordinary waiting period would be the period of 7 days that starts on the person's start day (worked out disregarding clauses 4A, 4B and 5 of Schedule 2 to the Administration Act); and
  - (c) that start day falls within one or more of the following periods (each of which is an exclusion period) that the person is subject to:
    - (i) a newly arrived resident's waiting period;
    - (ii) a seasonal work preclusion period;
    - (iii) a lump sum preclusion period under Part 3.14;
    - (iv) an income maintenance period, where the person's rate of jobseeker payment on that start day would be nil;
- then the ordinary waiting period is the period of 7 days that starts on the first day after all the exclusion periods have ended.
- (4) If:
- (a) subparagraph (3)(c)(iv) applies to a person; and
  - (b) on a day in that income maintenance period, the person's rate of jobseeker payment would be greater than nil if jobseeker payment were payable to the person on that day;
- then, for the purposes of subsection (3), that income maintenance period is taken to have ended at the end of the day before that day.
- (5) If:
- (a) a person qualifies for a social security payment (other than jobseeker payment); and
  - (b) because the person is subject to an ordinary waiting period relating to that social security payment, that social security payment is not payable to the person for a period starting on a particular day (the initial day); and
  - (c) during that period the person:
    - (i) ceases to be qualified for that social security payment; and
    - (ii) claims jobseeker payment;

- (a) moves back to the place of residence (the original place of residence) the movement from which resulted in jobseeker payment not being payable to him or her;
- (b) moves to another place of residence a movement to which from the original place of residence would not have resulted in jobseeker payment not being payable to him or her;

the period of 26 weeks ends at the time of the movement back to the original place of residence or the movement to the other place of residence, as the case may be.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who:

    - (c) satisfies the Secretary that the move is necessary for the purposes of treating or alleviating a physical disease or illness suffered by the person or by a family member; or
    - (d) satisfies the Secretary that the person has moved from his or her original place of residence because of an extreme circumstance which made it reasonable for the person to move to the new place of residence (for example, the person had been subjected to domestic or family violence in the original place of residence).
- Note: For family member see subsection 23(1).
- (4) The Secretary may determine in writing the day on which the period of non-payment imposed by subsection (1) commences and that day may be before the day of the determination.

Division 4—Rate of jobseeker payment

643 How to work out a person's jobseeker payment rate

Subject to this Division, a person's jobseeker payment rate is to be worked out using Benefit Rate Calculator B at the end of section 1068.

~~644AAA Approved program of work supplement~~

~~_____ If a person:~~

~~_____ (a) is receiving jobseeker payment; and~~

~~_____ (b) is participating in an approved program of work for income support payment;~~

~~the rate of the person's jobseeker payment is increased by an amount of $20.80, to be known as the approved program of work supplement, for each fortnight during which the person participates in the program unless, during that fortnight, the person subsequently ceases to participate in the program in circumstances that constitute:~~

~~_____ (c) a failure of the activity test to which the person is subject; or~~

~~_____ (d) a failure to comply with a requirement in a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person.~~

644AAA Approved program of work supplement

_____ If a person:

_____ (a) is receiving jobseeker payment; and

_____ (b) is participating in an approved program of work for income support payment;

the rate of the person's jobseeker payment is increased by an amount of $20.80, to be known as the approved program of work supplement, for each fortnight during which the person participates in the program.

~~644AAB Approved program of work supplement not payable in certain circumstances~~

~~————— An approved program of work supplement under section 644AAA is not payable to a person in respect of a fortnight if a training supplement is payable to the person in respect of the fortnight.~~

~~644AAC Training supplement~~

~~————— (1) This section applies if a person:~~

~~————— (a) is receiving newstart allowance; and~~

~~————— (b) is participating in an approved training course for training supplement for the person; and~~

~~————— (c) started participating in the course during the period beginning on the day on which this section commenced and ending on 30 June 2011.~~

~~————— (2) The rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by an amount of $41.60 (to be known as a training supplement) for each fortnight during which the person participates in the course.~~

~~————— (3) However, a training supplement is not payable for a fortnight during which the person participates in the course if, during the fortnight, the person ceases to participate in the course in circumstances that constitute:~~

~~————— (a) a failure of the activity test to which the person is subject; or~~

~~————— (b) if a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan is in force in relation to the person — a failure to comply with a requirement in the plan.~~

~~645 National Green Jobs Corps supplement~~

~~————— (1) This section applies if a person:~~

- ~~————— (d) started participating in that program before 2012.~~
- ~~————— (2) The rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by an amount of $41.60 (to be known as a National Green Jobs Corps supplement) for each fortnight during which the person participates in the National Green Jobs Corps program.~~
- ~~————— (3) However, a National Green Jobs Corps supplement is not payable for a fortnight during which the person participates in the National Green Jobs Corps program if:~~
  - ~~————— (a) both:~~
    - ~~————— (i) a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan is in force in relation to the person; and~~
    - ~~————— (ii) during the fortnight, the person ceases to participate in that program in circumstances that constitute a failure to comply with the plan; or~~
  - ~~————— (b) the rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by training supplement for the fortnight.~~

653A CDEP Scheme participant may accumulate newstart allowance

- (1) A person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of a quarter may, by written notice given to the Secretary, choose to accumulate the amounts of any newstart allowance that become payable to the person in respect of that quarter, or any later quarter in respect of the whole or a part of which the person is a CDEP Scheme participant, and have not already been paid.
- (2) If a person to whom subsection (1) applies makes a choice under that subsection, the sum of the accumulated amounts payable to the person in respect of a quarter is to be paid on, or as soon as practicable after, the first payday after:
  - (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the last day of the quarter; or
  - (b) if the person ceases to be a CDEP Scheme participant before the end of the quarter—the day on which the person so ceases.

- (3) In this section:

quarter means a CDEP Scheme quarter.

Note 1: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Note 2: For CDEP Scheme quarter see subsection 23(1).

654 Rate of jobseeker payment for former recipients of wife pension

- (1) This section applies if:

- (a) a woman was receiving wife pension under Part 2.4 immediately before 20 March 2020; and
- (b) the Secretary makes a determination under section 12 of the Administration Act that the woman is taken to have made a claim for jobseeker payment because the woman became qualified for that payment immediately after ceasing to receive wife pension.

- (2) The Secretary must, in determining the claim, disregard section 611.

- (3) Subject to this section, if:

- (a) the Secretary determines that the claim is to be granted; and
- (b) as a result of that determination and disregarding section 611, jobseeker payment is payable to the woman on a day (a transition day) on or after 20 March 2020;

the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day is worked out in accordance with the following method statement:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day in accordance with sections 643 and 644AAA.

Step 2. Work out the woman's wife pension transition rate on the transition day.

Note: See subsection (4) for the wife pension transition rate.

OFFICIAL: Sensitive // Legal Privilege

Chapter 2 Pensions, benefits and allowances

Part 2.12 Jobseeker payment

Division 4 Rate of jobseeker payment

Section 655

Step 3. If the rate at step 2 exceeds the rate at step 1, the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day is the rate at step 2.

Step 4. If the rate at step 2 does not exceed the rate at step 1, the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day is the rate at step 1.

- (4) The woman's wife pension transition rate on a transition day is the rate worked out in accordance with section 655 or 656.
- (5) If, for a period of 42 consecutive days, the following apply:
- (a) the woman's jobseeker payment rate is the rate at step 1 of the method statement in subsection (3);
  - (b) if section 611 had applied in relation to the woman throughout that period, the value of the woman's assets throughout that period is less than or equal to the woman's asset value limit under that section;
- then for any day after the end of that period:
- (c) section 611 applies in relation to the woman; and
  - (d) the woman's jobseeker payment rate is to be worked out in accordance with sections 643 and 644AAA (and not under this section).
- (6) If, on a day (the cessation day) on or after 20 March 2020, the woman would not have qualified for a wife pension if Part 2.4 (as in force immediately before 20 March 2020) were still in force on the cessation day, then on and after the cessation day:
- (a) section 611 applies in relation to the woman; and
  - (b) the woman's jobseeker payment rate is to be worked out in accordance with sections 643 and 644AAA (and not under this section).

655 Wife pension transition rate—method 1

- (1) A woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is worked out in accordance with this section if:

- (a) on 19 March 2020, there was no reduction under step 5 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, and there was no reduction under step 9 of that method statement, in relation to the woman's rate of wife pension on that day; and
  - (b) assuming the woman were receiving newstart allowance on each day in the period starting on 6 February 2020 and ending at the end of 19 March 2020, there would have been no reduction under step 5 of the method statement in point 1068-A1 on any day in that period.
- (2) The woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is the rate that would have been the woman's rate of wife pension on that day under Module A of the Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064 if the woman had been receiving wife pension on that day.
- (3) However, subsection (2) applies with the following modifications:
  - (a) in working out the amount at step 1 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-B1 were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
  - (b) in working out the amount at step 1A of the method statement in point 1064-A1:
    - (i) assume the combined couple rate of pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020; and
    - (ii) assume the combined couple rate of minimum pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
  - (c) assume the amount at step 5 of the method statement in point 1064-A1 were the amount worked out at step 5 of the method statement in point 1068-A1, multiplied by 26;
  - (d) in working out the amount at step 9 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-G3 were that amount as at 19 March 2020.

656 Wife pension transition rate—method 2

- (1) A woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is worked out in accordance with this section if:

Section 656

- (a) on 19 March 2020, there was a reduction under either or both of steps 5 and 9 of the method statement in point 1064-A1 in relation to the woman's rate of wife pension on that day; or
  - (b) assuming the woman were receiving newstart allowance on each day in the period starting on 6 February 2020 and ending at the end of 19 March 2020, there would have been a reduction under step 5 of the method statement in point 1068-A1 on at least one day in that period.
- (2) The woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is the rate that would have been the woman's rate of wife pension on that day under Module A of the Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064 if the woman had been receiving wife pension on that day.
- (3) However, subsection (2) applies with the following modifications:
  - (a) in working out the amount at step 1 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-B1 were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
  - (b) in working out the amount at step 1A of the method statement in point 1064-A1:
    - (i) assume the combined couple rate of pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020; and
    - (ii) assume the combined couple rate of minimum pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
  - (c) in working out the amount at step 5 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-E4 were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
  - (d) in working out the amount at step 9 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-G3 were that amount as at 19 March 2020.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, take into account clause 146 of Schedule 1A as in force immediately before 20 March 2020. However, in taking that clause into account, assume each amount referred to in subparagraph 146(4)(a)(i) of Schedule 1A were that amount as at 19 March 2020.

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision AA—Ongoing payments for death of partner

660LA Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving a jobseeker payment; and
  - (b) the person is a long-term social security recipient; and
  - (c) the person is a member of a couple; and
  - (d) the person's partner dies; and
  - (e) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
    - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
    - (ii) was receiving a service pension or a veteran payment;
or
  - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
    - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 660LD (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
    - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person, under section 660LB (continued payment of partner's pension or allowance) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 660LB provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: Section 660LC provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For long-term social security recipient see subsection 23(1).

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

Note: By making such an election, the person may qualify for a payment under Subdivision A.

- (3) An election under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
  - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
  - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which jobseeker payment is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 660LD.

660LB Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

660LC Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 660LD, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Part 2.12 Jobseeker payment

Division 9 Bereavement payments

Section 660LD

---

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

660LD Adjustment of a person's jobseeker payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 660LA(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's jobseeker payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of jobseeker payment payable to the person is the rate at which the payment would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which jobseeker payment is payable to the person is the rate at which the payment would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

660LE Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 660LD, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined pensioner couple rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Section 660LF

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

660LF Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and

- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

660LG Calculation of bereavement payment in respect of former CDEP Scheme participant

If a benefit becomes payable under this Subdivision in respect of a person who was a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the day on which the benefit becomes payable, the amount of the benefit is to be the amount that would have been the amount of the benefit if section 614A had not been enacted.

Note: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Subdivision A—One-off payment for death of partner

660LH Qualification for payment under this Subdivision

A person is qualified for a lump sum payment under this Subdivision if:

- (a) the person is qualified for jobseeker payment on a day (the relevant day); and
- (b) jobseeker payment is payable to the person on the relevant day; and
- (c) on or before the relevant day but after the commencement of this section, the person was a member of a couple and stopped being a member of a couple because the person's partner died; and
- (d) the person is not a member of a couple on the relevant day; and
- (e) when the person's partner died, both the person and the person's partner were Australian residents; and

- (g) if the person is a woman who was pregnant when her partner died—the relevant day occurs:
  - (i) in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; or
  - (ii) in the period (the relevant period) starting on the day of the death of the partner and ending when the child is born or the woman otherwise stops being pregnant; whichever ends later; and

- (i) if the person is qualified for payments under section 660LA in respect of the person's partner's death—the person has made an election under subsection 660LA(2).

660LI Amount of payment

- (1) The amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula (except if paragraph 660LH(g) applies in relation to the person):
$$\text{Daily rate of person's jobseeker payment on the relevant day} \times 14 \times 4.5$$
- (2) If subparagraph 660LH(g)(i) applies in relation to the person, the amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula:
- (3) If subparagraph 660LH(g)(ii) applies in relation to the person, the amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula:

660M Death of child—continuation of jobseeker payment rate for 14 weeks

If:

- (a) a person is receiving jobseeker payment; and
- (b) the person is the principal carer of a child who dies; and
- (c) apart from this section, the person's rate of jobseeker payment would be reduced because the person is no longer the child's principal carer;

the person's rate of jobseeker payment, during the period of 14 weeks that starts on the day of the child's death, is to be worked out as if the child had not died.

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

- (3) The Secretary is not to determine that a special benefit should be granted to a person for a period if the Secretary is satisfied that the benefit is not payable to the person for that period.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(d), a jobseeker payment is to be taken to be not payable to a person for a period because of the operation of a provision if:

- (c) the person becomes qualified for a special benefit at some time during the 14 day period but after the first day of that period;

the person is taken to be qualified for a special benefit for the whole of the 14 day period.

  - ~~————— (b) willing to undertake;~~~~paid work in Australia other than unsuitable paid work within the meaning of section 731B.~~
- ~~————— (7) A person to whom this Subdivision applies also satisfies the activity test in respect of a period if:~~

  - ~~————— (b) the Secretary notifies the person that the person is required to act in accordance with the opinion; and~~

- ~~———— (c) the person complies, throughout the period, with the Secretary's requirement.~~
- ~~———— (8) To avoid doubt, the work that the person is required to undertake under subsection (7) may involve a number of hours per week that differs from the number of hours of work per week that the person is required to seek to comply with a Special Benefit Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person.~~
- ~~———— (9) A person cannot be taken to satisfy the activity test throughout a period if the person fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (7):~~
  - ~~———— (a) whether or not the person complies with subsection (1) or (11); and~~
  - ~~———— (b) whether or not another provision of this Act under which the activity test is satisfied, or taken to be satisfied, applies (or would apart from this section apply) to the person.~~

731B Meaning of unsuitable work for the purposes of the activity test

~~———— (1) For the purposes of subsection 731A(1) and paragraph 731A(7)(a), particular paid work is unsuitable paid work in respect of a person if and only if, in the Secretary's opinion:~~

~~———— (a) the person lacks the particular skills, experience or qualifications that are needed to perform the work and no training will be provided by the employer; or~~

~~———— (b) it has been established that there is medical evidence that the person has an illness, disability or injury that would be aggravated by the conditions in which the work would be performed; or~~

~~———— (ba) the person is the principal carer for one or more children, and does not have access to appropriate care and supervision for the children at the times when the person would be required to undertake the work; or~~

~~Note: — For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).~~

~~———— (c) performing the work in the conditions in which the work would be performed would constitute a risk to health or safety and would contravene a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory relating to occupational health and safety; or~~

~~———— (e) the terms and conditions for the work would be less generous than the applicable statutory conditions; or~~

~~———— (g) commuting between the person's home and the place of work would be unreasonably difficult; or~~

~~———— (h) the work requires the person to move from a home in a place to a home in another place; or~~

~~———— (i) for any other reason, the work is unsuitable for the person.~~

~~———— (1A) A person has, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(ba), access to appropriate care and supervision for a child at a particular time if, at that time:~~

~~———— (a) the child could be provided with care by an approved child care service (within the meaning of the Family Assistance~~

- ~~Administration Act), and provision of that care would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances; or~~
- ~~———— (b) the child could be provided with other care that the person considers to be suitable; or~~
- ~~———— (c) the child could be attending school, and attendance at that school would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances.~~
- ~~———— (1B) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(ba), a time when the person would be required to undertake the work includes reasonable amounts of time that would be needed for the person to travel from the person's home to the place of work and from the place of work to the person's home.~~
- ~~———— (1C) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(i), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.~~
- ~~———— (1D) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (1C) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(i), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.~~
- ~~———— (2) If:~~
- ~~———— (a) a person seeks work in an area (the new area) that is outside the area (the old area) in which the person's home is situated; and~~
- ~~———— (b) the person is offered permanent full time work (whether or not work of the kind sought) in the new area;~~
~~the work offered is not unsuitable work in respect of the person because of paragraph (1)(g) or (h) unless:~~
- ~~———— (c) the person is under the age of 18; or~~
- ~~———— (d) the person or the person's partner is pregnant; or~~
- ~~———— (e) the person or the person's partner has a severe medical condition and the condition makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or~~

- ~~————— (f) the acceptance of the offer would jeopardise the current employment, or the employment prospects, of the person's partner; or~~
- ~~————— (g) the person or the person's partner has a child under the age of 16 years who is living with them or is living somewhere else in the old area; or~~
- ~~————— (h) the person or the person's partner has significant caring responsibilities in the old area; or~~
- ~~————— (i) the educational, cultural or religious background of the person makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or~~
- ~~————— (j) it is more appropriate for the person to participate in education or training than to accept the offer; or~~
- ~~————— (k) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the person were to accept the offer.~~
- ~~————— (3) A person who, when seeking employment through an employment service provider, represents to the provider that he or she is willing to undertake work outside the area in which the person's home is situated is taken, for the purposes of subsection (2), to seek work outside the area at the time when the representation is made.~~
- ~~————— (4) Subsection (3) does not affect what would otherwise constitute a circumstance of a person seeking work outside the area in which the person's home is situated.~~

731D Persons in certain areas can be taken to comply with activity test

- ~~————— If the Secretary considers that:~~
- ~~————— (a) it would be reasonable to assume that, at the end of a period, a person is present in an area where:~~
  - ~~————— (i) there is no locally accessible labour market; and~~
  - ~~————— (ii) there is no locally accessible vocational training course; and~~
- ~~————— (aa) it would be reasonable to assume that, throughout the period, the person is capable of undertaking, and willing to~~ ~~undertake, paid work that in the Secretary's opinion is suitable to be undertaken by the person; and~~

~~(b) having regard to all the relevant factors, including:~~

~~(i) the location of offices of the Department; and~~

~~(ii) difficulties with transport and communication; and~~

~~(iii) the educational and cultural background of the person;~~

~~it would be unreasonable to expect the person to comply with the activity test in order to be qualified for special benefit for that period;~~

~~then, unless the person has been notified of a requirement under subsection 731A(7) in relation to the period, the person is taken to satisfy the activity test during that period.~~

~~(a) a person makes a claim for special benefit on or after the commencement of this section; and~~

~~(b) the person makes the claim after the death of the person's partner on or after the commencement of this section; and~~ ~~(c) if the person is a man or a woman who was not pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; and~~

~~(d) if the person is a woman who was pregnant when her partner death of the partner; or~~

~~(ii) in the period starting on the day of the death of the partner and ending when the child is born or the woman

732 Special benefit not payable if benefit rate nil

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), special benefit is not payable to a person if the person's special benefit rate would be nil.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person's rate would be nil merely because:

assets value limit is the corresponding amount in the assets value limit column.

Item	Person's family situation	Assets value limit
		Column 3A	Column 3B
		Either person or partner homeowner	Neither person nor partner homeowner
1.	Not member of a couple	$250,000	$450,000
2.	Partnered (partner getting neither pension nor benefit)	$375,000	$575,000
3.	Partnered (partner getting pension or benefit)	$187,500	$287,500

Note 1: For member of a couple, partnered (partner getting neither pension nor benefit) and partnered (partner getting pension or benefit) see section 4.

Note 2: For homeowner see section 11.

Note 3: If item 2 applies to a person, the value of all the assets of the person's partner is to be taken as being included in the value of the person's assets (see subsection 734(1)—this is why the assets value limit is so high. If, on the other hand, item 3 applies to a person, the value of the person's assets is only half the combined value of the person's assets and the assets of the person's partner (see subsection 734(2)).

Note 4: If a special benefit is not payable to a person because of the value of the person's assets, the person may be able to take advantage of provisions dealing with financial hardship (see sections 1131 and 1132).

Note 5: The assets value limits of items 1 and 3 in column 3A and item 3 in column 3B are indexed annually in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

Note 6: The assets value limit of item 1 in column 3B is adjusted annually (see subsection 1204(1)).

Note 7: The item 2 assets value limits are adjusted annually so that they are twice the corresponding item 3 limits (see subsections 1204(2) and (3)).

734 Value of assets of members of couples

(1) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person's partner:
  - (i) is not in receipt of a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and
  - (ii) is not in receipt of a social security benefit;

the value of the person's assets, or of assets of a particular kind of the person, includes the value of the partner's assets or of assets of that kind of the partner.

Note: For social security pension see subsection 23(1).

(2) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person's partner is in receipt of:
  - (i) a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
  - (ii) a social security benefit;

the following provisions have effect:

- (c) the value of the person's assets is taken to be 50% of the sum of the value of the assets of the person and the value of the assets of the person's partner; and
- (d) the value of the person's assets of a particular kind is taken to be 50% of the sum of the value of the assets of that kind of the person and the value of assets of that kind of the person's partner.

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision AA—Death of partner

768A Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving a special benefit; and
  - (b) the person is a long-term social security recipient; and
  - (c) the person is a member of a couple; and
  - (d) the person's partner dies; and
  - (e) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
    - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
    - (ii) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
    - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
  - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
    - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 768D (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
    - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person, under section 768B (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 768B provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: Section 768C provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For long-term social security recipient see subsection 23(1).

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (3) An election under subsection (2):
  - (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
  - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
  - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which special benefit is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 768D.

768B Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

768C Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 768D, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

768D Adjustment of a person's special benefit rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision;
and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 768A(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's special benefit during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of special benefit payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which special benefit is payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

768E Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 768D, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined pensioner couple rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

768F Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:

Section 771NX

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
- (b) if immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and 4(8) respectively.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on the deceased partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
- (b) if immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and 4(8) respectively.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the surviving partner's notional rate using subsection (2), (2A), (3), (5) or (6) (whichever applies).

Note: The subsection that you use depends on whether the deceased partner was receiving a job search allowance, jobseeker payment, special benefit, age pension or disability support pension before he or she died.

- Step 5. Take the surviving partner's notional rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the deceased partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of the deceased partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the deceased partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the surviving partner under this section.

Deceased partner receiving youth allowance or austudy payment

- (2A) If, immediately before the deceased partner died, he or she was receiving youth allowance or austudy payment, the surviving partner's notional rate is the amount of youth allowance or austudy payment that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's pay day immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment pay day if:
- (a) a youth allowance or an austudy payment had been payable to the surviving partner on that pay day; and
  - (b) the surviving partner was not a member of a couple on that pay day.

Deceased partner receiving jobseeker payment

- (3) If, immediately before the deceased partner died, he or she was receiving jobseeker payment, the surviving partner's notional rate is the amount of jobseeker payment that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) a jobseeker payment had been payable to the surviving partner on that payday; and
- (b) the surviving partner was not a member of a couple on that payday.

Deceased partner receiving special benefit

- (5) If, immediately before the deceased partner died, he or she was receiving special benefit, the surviving partner's notional rate is the amount of special benefit that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
  - (a) a special benefit had been payable to the surviving partner on that payday; and
  - (b) the surviving partner was not a member of a couple on that payday.

Deceased partner receiving other social security payment

- (6) If, immediately before the deceased partner died, he or she was receiving age pension or disability support pension, the surviving partner's notional rate is the amount of jobseeker payment that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
  - (a) jobseeker payment had been payable to the surviving partner on that payday; and
  - (b) the surviving partner was not a member of a couple on that payday.

771NY Effect of death of surviving partner

If:

- (a) a surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the deceased partner; and
- (b) the surviving partner dies within the bereavement period; and

(c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the deceased partner before the surviving partner dies;
there is payable as a lump sum, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, an amount worked out using the following Lump Sum Calculator:

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if:

- (a) neither the surviving partner nor the deceased partner had died; and
- (b) if immediately before the deceased partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and 4(8) respectively.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if:

771NZ Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) after the deceased partner died, an amount to which the deceased partner would have been entitled if he or she had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the surviving partner had not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the surviving partner or from the personal representative of the deceased partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the surviving partner under this Subdivision;

- (e) the amount payable to the surviving partner under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) an amount to which the deceased partner would have been entitled if the deceased partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the surviving partner, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the deceased partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the surviving partner.

Division 5—Rate of special needs pension

796 How to work out a person's special needs pension rate

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the rate of a person's special needs pension is:
  - (a) if the pension is a special needs age pension—the rate at which an age pension would be payable to the person if the person were qualified for an age pension; or
  - (b) if the pension is a special needs disability support pension—the rate at which a disability support pension would be payable to the person if the person were qualified for a disability support pension; or
  - (c) if the pension is a special needs wife pension—the rate at which a wife pension would be payable to the person if the person were qualified for a wife pension.
- (2) If:
  - (a) the person was absent from Australia on 1 July 1986; and
  - (b) the person commences after 1 July 1986 to receive a special needs pension; and
  - (c) the person is absent from Australia;the rate of the person's special needs pension is, subject to subsections (3) and (4), the person's special needs proportional rate worked out using the Special Needs Proportional Rate Calculator at the end of this section.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person's special needs disability support pension if the person became qualified for the pension because the person became permanently incapacitated for work or permanently blind while the person was an Australian resident.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person's special needs sole parent pension if:
  - (a) the person became qualified for the pension because of the death of the person's former partner; and

- (b) at the time when the former partner died the former partner was an Australian resident; and
- (c) the person would, apart from subsections 249(2) and 362(2) of this Act, and section 46 of the 1947 Act as in force at any time before 1 March 1989, have become so qualified for that pension.

Special Needs Proportional Rate Calculator

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Overall rate calculation process

796-A1 This is how to work out a person's special needs proportional rate:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the period of the person's Australian working life residence using Module B: the result is called the residence period.
- Step 2. Use the person's residence period to work out the person's residence factor using Module C below.
- Step 3. Work out the rate that would be the person's pension or allowance rate if this Rate Calculator did not apply to the person: the result is called the person's notional domestic rate.
- Step 4. Multiply the person's notional domestic rate by the person's residence factor: the result is the person's special needs proportional rate.

Module B—Australian working life residence

Working life

- 796-B1 For the purposes of this Module, a person's working life is the period commencing when the person turns 16 and ending:
- (a) if the person is a woman—when she turns 60; or

Australian working life residence (general)

- 796-B2 Subject to points 796-B3 to 796-B9, a person's period of Australian working life residence as at a particular time is the number of months in the period, or the aggregate of the periods, during the person's working life during which the person has, up to that time, been an Australian resident.

Calculation of number of months

- 796-B3 If a person's period of Australian working life residence would, apart from this subsection, be a number of whole months, the period is to be increased by one month.
- 796-B4 If a person's period of Australian working life residence would, apart from this subsection, be a number of whole months and a day or days, the period is to be increased so that it is equal to the number of months plus one month.

the person's period of Australian working life residence is to be equal to the partner's period of Australian working life residence.

Australian working life residence (member of former special needs age or disability support pensioner couple)

796-B6

If:

- (a) a person is receiving a special needs age pension or a special needs disability support pension; and
- (b) the person is a member of a couple; and

  - (ii) the partner was receiving an age or disability support pension or a special needs age or disability support pension; and
- (e) the partner's period of Australian working life residence (immediately before the person ceases to be a member of a couple) is longer than the period that would be the person's period of Australian working life residence under point 796-B2;

the person's period of Australian working life residence is to be equal to the partner's period of Australian working life residence (immediately before the person ceases to be a member of a couple).

Australian working life residence (special needs wife pensioner)

the person's period of Australian working life residence for the second pension is to be equal to the period of Australian working life residence used in calculating the person's initial pension.

Module C—Residence factor

Residence factor (period of Australian working life residence 25 years or more)

796-C1 If a person's period of Australian working life residence is 300 months (25 years) or more, the person's residence factor is 1.

Note: If a person's residence factor is 1, the person's overseas pension will be payable overseas at the full domestic rate (less any rent assistance and any and remote area allowance).

available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

(1A) If:

- (a) a person is receiving a special needs pension; and
- (b) immediately before starting to receive the special needs pension the person was receiving partner bereavement payments; and
- (c) the bereavement rate continuation period in relation to the death of the person's partner has not ended;

- (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.

(4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which special needs pension is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 825.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long-term social security recipient if:

823 Continued payment of deceased partner's previous entitlement

- (1) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period:
  - (a) where the partner was receiving a social security pension or social security benefit—the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the payday if the partner had not died; or

    - (ii) in any other case—follows the partner's payday; if the partner had not died.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
  - (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
  - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the partner had not died; and
  - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for subsection 825, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

825 Adjustment of rate of person's special needs pension

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision;
and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 822(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's special needs pension during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of special needs pension payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
  - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
  - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;

826 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and

- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 825, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that starts on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

Subdivision C—Top-up payments of clean energy advance

914G Top-up payments of clean energy advance

- (1) The Minister may by legislative instrument determine that persons:
  - (a) who have been paid the amount (the original payment) of a specified clean energy advance worked out under Subdivision B in relation to a clean energy qualifying payment (the original qualifying payment); and
  - (b) whose circumstances change, within a period specified in the instrument, in a way that is specified in the instrument and is covered by subsection (2) or (3);qualify for a further payment, of the amount worked out in accordance with the instrument, of clean energy advance.
- (2) This subsection covers a person's circumstances changing in a way such that:
  - (a) on the day (the change day) the change happens, the person was still receiving the original qualifying payment; and
  - (b) had the amount of the original payment been worked out by reference to the person's circumstances on the change day (rather than those on the advance qualification day), a greater clean energy advance daily rate would have been used for working out that amount than the rate actually used for working out that amount.

Division 2—Quarterly energy supplement

915 When quarterly energy supplement is payable

Quarterly energy supplement is payable to a person for each day for which an election by the person under subsection 915A(1) or 1061VA(1) is in force in relation to a social security payment the person is receiving.

Note: Section 918 may affect the person's qualification for quarterly energy supplement.

915A Electing to receive quarterly energy supplement

(1) If:

- (a) Part 2.25C (about quarterly pension supplement) does not apply to a person in relation to a social security payment the person is receiving; and
- (b) energy supplement is used to work out the rate of that social security payment;

the person may, in a manner or way approved by the Secretary, make an election to receive the person's energy supplement under this Division as a separate social security payment.

Note: The person could make an election under subsection 1061VA(1) if Part 2.25C applies to the person in relation to the social security payment. That election would cause quarterly energy supplement to be payable (see section 915).

- (2) An election comes into force as soon as practicable after it is made.
- (3) An election ceases to be in force if the person ceases to receive a social security payment (a main payment) calculated using a Rate Calculator that has an energy supplement Module.
- (4) The person may, in a manner or way approved by the Secretary, revoke an election. A revocation takes effect as soon as practicable after it happens.

915B Rate of quarterly energy supplement

- (1) The person's daily rate of quarterly energy supplement, for a particular day, is:
  - (a) if the Rate Calculator for the main payment received on that day produces an annual rate— $\frac{1}{364}$  of the amount that, apart from this Division, would be the person's energy supplement for that day; or
  - (b) if the Rate Calculator for the main payment received on that day produces a fortnightly rate— $\frac{1}{14}$  of the amount that, apart from this Division, would be the person's energy supplement for that day.
- (2) This section has effect subject to subsection 1210(3A).

Person cannot qualify for more than 2 carer allowances

- (5) A person may qualify for carer allowance under this section and/or section 954 for 2, but no more than 2, disabled adults.

954B Qualification for carer allowance—receiving carer payment for caring for child or children

While:

- (a) a person is receiving a carer payment for caring for one or more persons (the care receiver or care receivers) other than:
  - (i) a care receiver referred to in subparagraph 197D(1)(a)(i); or
  - (ii) a care receiver referred to in paragraph 198(2)(a) or (d);and

  - (c) either the hospitalised person is terminally ill or it is reasonable to expect that, upon the hospitalised person leaving hospital:

- (i) the hospitalised person will reside in the private home of the carer and the hospitalised person; or
- (ii) the carer will qualify under section 954A for carer allowance for the hospitalised person;

the one or more persons who would qualify for carer allowance as mentioned in paragraph (b) qualify for carer allowance.

- (2) However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the one or more persons can be qualified under subsection (1) for a hospitalised person who is a disabled adult is 63 days in any calendar year.

Note: There is no limit for a hospitalised person who is a child.

956 Absence from Australia

During any period of absence from Australia:

- (a) throughout which Division 2 of Part 4.2 applies to the person; and
- (b) that is before the end of the person's portability period for carer allowance (within the meaning of that Division);

the person does not cease to be qualified, under section 953, 954 or 954A, for carer allowance merely because the care and attention of the care receiver or care receivers is not provided in a private home that is described in whichever one of paragraphs 953(1)(d) and (2)(d), 954(1)(d) and 954A(2)(d) is relevant.

- (b) the care receiver or care receivers temporarily cease to receive care and attention that would qualify the person for carer allowance; the person does not cease to be qualified for carer allowance merely because of that cessation.

Continuation of allowance after hospitalisation—section 955 ceases to apply

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if:
  - (a) a person is qualified for carer allowance under section 955 because the person or another person is participating in the care of a disabled child or disabled adult in hospital; and
  - (b) apart from this subsection, the person would later cease to be qualified for carer allowance under that section; and
  - (c) the person would not cease to be qualified for carer allowance if the disabled child or disabled adult were receiving care and attention on a daily basis;

the person does not cease to be qualified for carer allowance merely because of the lack of receipt of that care and attention.

Limit on subsections (1) and (2)

- (3) However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which subsection (1) or (2), or a combination of those subsections, can apply is:
  - (a) 63 days in any calendar year; or
  - (b) another period that the Secretary, for any special reason in the particular case, decides to be appropriate.

Cessation of care in order to undertake training etc.

- (4) If:
  - (a) a person is qualified under section 953 for carer allowance for a care receiver who is a disabled child or for care receivers who are 2 disabled children; and

Note: A person who continues to be qualified for carer allowance because of subsection (4) will receive a reduced rate of carer allowance: see subsection 974(3).

957A Carer allowance income test

- (1) This is how to work out whether a person satisfies the carer allowance income test on a day (the test day).

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's adjusted taxable income for the reference tax year.

Note 1: Section 957B deals with how to work out adjusted taxable income.

Note 2: For reference tax year see subsections (2) and (3).

Step 2. If, on the test day, the person is a member of a couple, work out the amount of the person's partner's adjusted taxable income for the reference tax year applicable under step 1.

If, on the test day, the person is not a member of a couple, the person has reached the minimum age mentioned in section 301-10 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 and the person has at least one long-term financial asset, work out the person's deemed income amount under subsection 957D(1).

- (1) A person (the qualified person) is qualified for carer supplement for a year if the person was or is paid an instalment (the qualifying instalment) of carer allowance, carer payment or carer service pension in respect of a period that includes 1 July in the year.

Note: There may be more than one qualifying instalment for carer supplement for a year. ### Amount for eligible care receiver

- (3) The amount for an eligible care receiver is:

  - (b) if the rate at which the qualifying instalment was paid takes account of a determination under subsection 981(1) of a particular share (being a percentage or proportion) in relation to the eligible care receiver—that share of $600.

Example 1: Assume that:

- (a) the qualified person qualifies for carer supplement for 2010 because he or she is paid a qualifying instalment of carer allowance relating to 3 eligible care receivers; and

- (c) the qualified person is also paid an instalment of partner service pension for a period including 1 July 2010.

The amount of carer supplement for the qualified person for 2010 is $2,100, made up of $600 each for 2 of the eligible care receivers, $300 (which is half of $600) for the eligible care receiver to whom the half-share determination relates and $600 relating to the partner service pension.

Example 2: Assume that the qualified person qualifies for carer supplement for 2011 because he or she is paid a qualifying instalment of carer allowance relating to one eligible care receiver and also because the qualifying person is paid a qualifying instalment of carer payment.

The amount of carer supplement for the qualified person for 2011 is $1,200, made up of $600 relating to carer allowance relating to the eligible care receiver and $600 relating to carer payment.

(c) either:

- (i) if subparagraph (a)(i) applies—the person has employment income (within the meaning of this Act) in respect of that period; or
- (ii) if subparagraph (a)(ii) applies—the person has employment income (within the meaning of section 46AB of the Veterans' Entitlements Act) in respect of that period; and

Division 2—Rate of mobility allowance

1044 Rate of mobility allowance

(1AA) The rate of mobility allowance is a daily rate worked out by dividing the fortnightly rate by 14.

(1) The fortnightly rate of mobility allowance for a person who qualifies for the allowance under section 1035 is $50.50.

(1A) The fortnightly rate of mobility allowance for a person who qualifies for the allowance under section 1035A is $100.

(2) A person's mobility allowance rate is nil if:

(b) the person's advance payment period has not ended.

Note: The rate of mobility allowance is indexed annually in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

(3) In this section:

advance payment period, in relation to a person, means the period of:

(a) 26 weeks; or

(b) if section 1044A applies—such number of days as is provided for in that section;

Section 1044A

- (c) the person qualifies for mobility allowance under section 1035A, during the period of 26 weeks starting on the day on which the person qualified for the advance; and
- (d) this section has not previously applied to the person in relation to the same advance.

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the number of days that, at the time of qualification under section 1035A, remain from the period of 26 weeks referred to in paragraph (c) (counting the day on which that qualification occurs as a whole day).

Step 2. Multiply the result under Step 1 by the amount worked out under the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Rate of mobility allowance specified in subsection 1044(1)}}{\text{Rate of mobility allowance specified in subsection 1044(1A)}}$$

If the result is not a whole number, round the result down to the next whole number.

Step 3. Subtract the result under Step 2 from the result under Step 1.

Step 4. Subtract the result under Step 3 from the number 182. The result is the number of days in the person's advance payment period.

- (3) The amount of the advance is calculated by multiplying the mobility allowance rate by 13.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (3):

mobility allowance rate is the rate of mobility allowance on the advance payday.

Part 2.22—Advance payments of social security entitlements

Division 1—Qualification for advance payment

1061A Qualification for advance payment

Qualifications

- (1) Subject to this section, a person is qualified for an advance payment of a social security entitlement only if:
  - (a) the social security entitlement is payable to the person; and
  - (b) the person has been receiving an income support payment for a continuous period of 3 months immediately before the day on which the person's application for the advance payment is lodged; and
  - (d) the Secretary is satisfied that the person will not suffer financial hardship from reductions in instalments of the social security entitlement as a result of receiving the advance payment.

Note 1: Other provisions of this Act deal with advances of social security payments that are not social security entitlements. For example, Division 3 of Part 2.21 deals with mobility allowance advance and Part 2.23 deals with advance pharmaceutical allowance.

Note 2: For income support payment and social security entitlement see subsection 23(1).

Note 3: For the determination of the continuous period in respect of which a person received an income support payment see section 38B.

- (2) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, determine that paragraph (1)(b) does not apply to a person who has applied for an advance of youth allowance or austudy payment and the determination has effect accordingly.

Disqualification—age and disability support pensions and carer payment

- (3) A person is not qualified for an advance payment of an age pension, disability support pension or carer payment if:
- (a) the maximum amount of advance payment to which the person would be entitled under Division 4 is less than  $\frac{1}{52}$  of the person's advance payment qualifying amount; or
  - (b) the amount of an advance payment of a social security entitlement that the person received in full (whether as a single lump sum or in instalments) more than 12 months ago has not been fully repaid; or
  - (c) the person owes a debt to the Commonwealth (whether arising under this Act or not) that is recoverable under Part 5.2 by means of deductions from the person's social security payment.

The amount worked out under paragraph (a) must be rounded to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents upwards).

Note 1: Paragraph (a) does not prevent payment of an advance payment in instalments of less than the amount worked out under that paragraph.

Note 2: For advance payment qualifying amount, see subsection 23(1).

Disqualification—other social security entitlements

- (4) A person is not qualified for an advance payment of a social security entitlement not covered by subsection (3) if:

  - (b) the amount of the debt is smaller than the amount of advance payment to which the person would be entitled under Division 4.

Division 2—Applying for advance payment

Division 3—Determination of application and payment of advance payment

1061EA Secretary to determine application

Division 4—Amount of advance payment

1061ECA Amount of advance payment—age and disability support pensions and carer payment

Application

- (1) The amount of an advance payment of any of the following social security pensions is worked out according to this section:
- (a) age pension;
  - (b) disability support pension;
  - (d) carer payment.

Amount of advance

- (2) The amount of the advance payment is the smaller of the following amounts:
- (a) the amount of advance payment sought;
  - (b) the maximum amount of advance payment payable to the person as worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out  $\frac{3}{52}$  of the person's advance payment qualifying amount.
- Step 2. Work out the annual rate at which the social security pension was payable to the person on the last payday before the application for the advance payment was lodged, disregarding:
- (a) any amount payable by way of remote area allowance; and
  - (b) so much of the person's pension supplement amount (if any) as is equal to the person's minimum pension supplement amount; and

- (c) the person's energy supplement (if any).
- Step 3. Work out the smaller of the result of step 1 and 7.5% of the result of step 2.
- Step 4. Subtract the following from the result of step 3:
- (a) each advance payment (if any) of a social security entitlement paid to the person during any of the 13 fortnights immediately before the application for the current advance payment was lodged;
  - (b) each other advance payment (if any) of a social security entitlement paid to the person that has not been fully repaid.
- Step 5. The result of step 4 (rounded to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents upwards)) is the maximum amount of advance payment payable to the person.

Note 1: The amount of the advance payment will be more than the minimum qualifying amount for the person (see paragraph 1061A(3)(a)).

Note 2: For advance payment qualifying amount, see subsection 23(1).

1061ED Amount of advance payment—pension PP (single)

Application

- (1) The amount of an advance payment of pension PP (single) is worked out according to this section.

Amount of advance

- (2) The amount of the advance payment is the smallest of the following amounts:
- (a) the amount of advance payment sought;
  - (b) the maximum amount of advance payment payable to the person as worked out under subsection (3);
  - (c) $500.

Note: The amount of the advance payment will be at least $250 (see paragraph 1061A(4)(a)).

Formula for maximum amount of advance under paragraph (2)(b)

- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), the maximum amount of advance payment payable to the person is the amount worked out using the following formula:

$6\% \times \text{annual payment rate}$

where:

annual payment rate means:

- (a) if the person was receiving pension PP (single) on the last payday before the application for the advance payment was lodged—the rate at which the pension was payable under the Pension PP (Single) Rate Calculator to the person on that payday, disregarding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance; or
- (b) if the person was receiving benefit PP (partnered) on the last payday before the application for the advance payment was lodged—the rate at which pension PP (single) is payable to the person under the Pension PP (Single) Rate Calculator on the person's first pension PP (single) payday after the application for the advance payment was lodged, disregarding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance.

Rounding

- (4) Amounts worked out under subsection (3) must be rounded to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents upwards).

Example:

Facts: Geoff has, at all times during the past 5 months, been receiving pension PP (single). His annual payment rate is $4,680. He applies for an advance payment of $290.

Application: The maximum amount of advance payment payable to Geoff is worked out under subsection (3) as follows:  $6\% \times $4680 = $280.80$ . This is the smallest of the 3 amounts referred to in subsection (2). Geoff can therefore be paid an advance payment of $280.80.

Division 4 Amount of advance payment

Section 1061EE

1061EE Amount of advance payment—certain other social security payments

Application

- (1) The amount of an advance payment of widow allowance, benefit PP (partnered), youth allowance, austudy payment or jobseeker payment is worked out according to this section.

Amount of advance

- (2) The amount of the advance payment is the smallest of the following amounts:
- (a) the amount of advance payment sought;
  - (b) the maximum amount of advance payment payable to the person as worked out under subsection (3) or (4), as the case requires;
  - (c) $500.

Note: The amount of the advance payment will be at least $250 (see paragraph 1061A(4)(a)).

Formula for maximum amount of advance: widow allowance and mature age allowance

- (3) For the purpose of paragraph (2)(b), the maximum amount of advance payment of widow allowance or mature age allowance under Part 2.12B payable to the person is the amount worked out under the following formula:

$$6\% \times \text{Fortnightly payment rate} \times 26$$

Formula for maximum amount of advance: benefit PP (partnered), youth allowance, austudy payment or jobseeker payment

- (4) For the purpose of paragraph (2)(b), the maximum amount of advance payment of benefit PP (partnered), youth allowance, austudy payment or jobseeker payment payable to the person is the amount worked out under the following formula:

$$7\% \times \text{Fortnightly payment rate} \times 26$$

Rounding

- (5) Amounts worked out under subsection (3) or (4) must be rounded to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents upwards).

Meaning of fortnightly payment rate

- (6) For the purposes of the formulae in subsections (3) and (4):

fortnightly payment rate means:

- (a) in relation to benefit PP (partnered)—the fortnightly rate of that benefit payable under the Benefit PP (Partnered) Rate Calculator to the person on the last payday before the application for the advance payment was lodged, excluding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance; or
- (b) in relation to widow allowance, mature age allowance under Part 2.12B or jobseeker payment—the fortnightly rate of that benefit payable under Benefit Rate Calculator B to the person on the last payday before the application for the advance payment was lodged, excluding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance; or
- (c) in relation to youth allowance—the fortnightly rate of that benefit payable under the Youth Allowance Rate Calculator to the person on the last payday before the application for the advance payment was made, excluding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance; or
- (d) in relation to austudy payment—the fortnightly rate of that benefit payable under the Austudy Payment Rate Calculator to the person on the last payday before the application for the advance payment was made, excluding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance.

Section 1061EE

Facts: Veronique has, at all times in the past 4 months, been receiving widow allowance. Her fortnightly payment rate is $200. She applies for an advance payment of $300.

Result: The maximum amount of advance payment payable to Veronique is worked out under subsection (3) as follows:

$$6\% \times $200 \times 26 = $312.00$$

The smallest of the 3 amounts referred to in subsection (2) is $300. Veronique can therefore be paid an advance payment of $300.

Division 5—Payment of advance payment

1061EI Advance payment to be paid to person or nominee

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), an advance payment of a person's social security entitlement is to be paid to that person.

1061EK Advance payment to be absolutely inalienable

Inalienability

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) and section 238 and Parts 3B and 3D of the Administration Act, an advance payment under this Part is absolutely inalienable, whether by way of, or in consequence of, sale, assignment, charge, execution, bankruptcy or otherwise.

Note: The effect of a garnishee order on an advance payment of a social security entitlement is dealt with in the Part of this Chapter that deals with that social security entitlement. For example, the effect of a garnishee order on an advance payment of age pension is dealt with in Part 2.2 (which deals with age pension).

Payments to Commissioner of Taxation at recipient's request

- (2) The Secretary may make deductions from an advance payment payable to a person under this Part if the recipient asks the Secretary:

Deductions from advance payment with recipient's consent

- (3) The Secretary may make deductions from an advance payment payable to a person under this Part if the recipient consents under section 1234A to the Secretary making the deductions.

Note: Section 1234A enables the Secretary to recover a debt from a person other than the debtor if the person is receiving a social security payment.

Division 7—Repayment of advance payment

1061EL Repayment of advance payment

- (1) If a person receives an advance payment or an instalment of an advance payment under this Part, the person must repay the advance payment or instalment to the Commonwealth by one or more of the following methods:
  - (a) deductions from the person's social security entitlement under Chapter 3 (General provisions relating to payability and rates);
  - (b) a method provided for by Chapter 5 (Overpayments and debt recovery);
  - (c) a method (other than a method described in paragraph (a) or (b)) that is acceptable to both the person and the Secretary.

  - (a) the operation of subsection 1224E(1) (Debts arising from advance payments of social security entitlements); or
  - (b) the Secretary's powers and duties under Part 5.4 (Non-recovery of debts) if the amount of the advance payment or instalment that has not been repaid becomes a debt due to the Commonwealth.

Division 1—Qualification for special employment advance

1061EM Qualification for special employment advance

- (1) Subject to section 1061EO, a person is qualified for a special employment advance at a particular time (the relevant time) only if:
- (a) the person is qualified for a special employment advance qualifying entitlement at the relevant time; and

Part 2.22A Special employment advances

Division 1 Qualification for special employment advance

Section 1061EM

- (2) This subsection applies for the purpose of determining whether a person is qualified for a special employment advance at the relevant time only where:
- (a) the person's claim for the advance was based on the effect of the unreceived income on the person's special employment advance qualifying entitlement; and
  - (b) the person is not a CDEP Scheme participant; and
  - (c) either of the following subparagraphs applies:
    - (i) if the person were qualified for the special employment qualifying entitlement on the next payday for the entitlement at a rate equal to the maximum basic rate of the entitlement, the rate of the entitlement on that payday would be reduced by at least 50% as a result of the person or the person's partner having earned the unreceived income;
    - (ii) subparagraph (i) does not apply in respect of the person but, if the person were qualified for the special employment qualifying entitlement on 2 or more paydays for the entitlement at a rate equal to the maximum basic rate of the entitlement, the average of the rates of the entitlement on those paydays would be reduced by at least 50% as a result of the person or the person's partner having earned the unreceived income.
- (3) This subsection applies for the purpose of determining whether a person is qualified for a special employment advance at the relevant time only where the person's claim for the advance was based on the person's need for financial assistance from the Commonwealth to enable him or her to take up the offered employment and:
- (a) if the person were qualified for the special employment qualifying entitlement on each of the paydays for the entitlement that occur in the period of 6 weeks referred to in subparagraph (1)(c)(ii) at a rate equal to the maximum basic rate of the entitlement, the average of the rates of the entitlement on those paydays:

- (i) would be reduced by at least 50% as a result of the person having taken up the offered employment; or
- (ii) would be so reduced if Module J of the Youth Allowance Rate Calculator in section 1067G or Module E of the Austudy Payment Rate Calculator were disregarded; or
- (b) the person would cease to be qualified for the special employment advance qualification upon his or her taking up the offered employment.

1061EN Meaning of *in severe financial hardship

- (1) For the purposes of paragraph 1061EM(1)(e) as it applies to a person who makes a claim for special employment advance, the person is in severe financial hardship if:
  - (a) where the person is not a member of a couple—the value of the person's liquid assets (within the meaning of subsection 14A(1)) is less than the fortnightly amount of the maximum payment rate of the special employment advance qualifying entitlement that is payable to the person; or
  - (b) where the person is a member of a couple—the value of the person's liquid assets (within the meaning of subsection 14A(2)) is less than twice the fortnightly amount of the maximum payment rate of the special employment advance qualifying entitlement that is payable to the person.
- (2) If the person referred to in subsection (1) is a CDEP Scheme participant, then, in determining for the purposes of that subsection the fortnightly amount of the maximum payment rate of the special employment advance qualifying entitlement payable to the person, the person's maximum basic rate is taken to be the rate that would be that maximum basic rate if sections 408CG, 500W, 552C, 614A, 660YCH and 771HK had not been enacted.

Division 4—Amount of special employment advance

1061EW Where claim based on effect of unreceived income on special employment advance qualifying entitlement

  - (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

Part 2.25C—Quarterly pension supplement

1061V When this Part applies

- (1) This Part applies to a person if:
  - (a) a pension supplement amount is used to work out the rate of the person's social security payment (the main payment); and
  - (b) the annual rate of that pension supplement amount is more than the person's pension supplement basic amount.

Note: A pension supplement amount that is more than the person's pension supplement basic amount contains a minimum component. The person may elect under this Part to receive that minimum component on a quarterly basis as a separate social security payment.

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), if the Rate Calculator for the main payment produces a fortnightly rate, then multiply the person's pension supplement amount by 26 to get the annual rate of that pension supplement amount.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), it does not matter if the rate of the person's main payment would become nil were an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) to come into force.

1061VA Quarterly pension supplement

- (1) The person may, in a manner or way approved by the Secretary, make an election to receive the person's minimum pension supplement amount on a quarterly basis as a separate social security payment.
- (2) An election comes into force as soon as practicable after it is made.
- (2A) An election ceases to be in force if the main payment ceases to be payable to the person.

- (3) The person may, in a manner or way approved by the Secretary, revoke an election. A revocation takes effect as soon as practicable after it happens.
- (4) Quarterly pension supplement is payable to the person in relation to each day on which an election is in force.

1061VB Rate of quarterly pension supplement

- (1) The person's annual rate of quarterly pension supplement is the person's minimum pension supplement amount.
- (2) The person's daily rate of quarterly pension supplement is worked out by dividing the person's annual rate by 364.
- (3) This section has effect subject to subsection 1210(3).

- (4) The cost is to be based on the cost of any concessional fare available to the person.
- (5) The cost of a sleeping berth is to be included only if it is reasonable for the person to travel by rail and for the person to have the berth.

Division 2—Rate of Northern Territory CDEP transition payment

1061ZAAS Rate of Northern Territory CDEP transition payment

- (1) The rate of a person's Northern Territory CDEP transition payment is a daily rate, worked out by dividing the person's fortnightly rate worked out under subsection (2) by 14.
- (2) The person's fortnightly rate is:
  - (a) the excess (if any) of the amount in subparagraph (i) over the amount in subparagraph (ii):
    - (i) the person's pre-transition fortnightly income worked out under section 1061ZAAT; and
    - (ii) the person's post-transition fortnightly income worked out under section 1061ZAAU; or
  - (b) if the Secretary considers that a person's rate worked out under paragraph (a) is not appropriate in the person's circumstances—the rate determined by the Secretary.
- (3) In making a determination under this section, the Secretary must have regard to the guidelines (if any) set out in rules made for the purposes of this section under section 1061ZAAW.

- (d) if the person received remote area allowance in respect of a fortnight that included 23 July 2007—the person's remote area allowance for the fortnight; and
  - (e) if the person received CDEP Scheme Participant Supplement under Division 3 of Part 3.15A in respect of a period that included 23 July 2007—$20.80.
- (2) The Secretary must determine a period for a person for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a). The period must not be more than 13 weeks and must end on 23 July 2007.
  - (3) Despite subsection (1), if the Secretary considers that a person's pre-transition fortnightly income as worked out under that subsection would not be appropriate in the person's circumstances, the person's pre-transition fortnightly income is the amount determined by the Secretary (having regard to the person's income as at 23 July 2007 from CDEP Scheme payments and any social security benefit or social security pension).
  - (4) In making a determination under this section, the Secretary must have regard to the guidelines (if any) set out in rules made for the purposes of this section under section 1061ZAAW.

Chapter 2AA—Student start-up loans

Part 2AA.1—Introduction

1061ZVAA Simplified outline of this Chapter

Student start-up loans are social security payments that are income-contingent loans.

Broadly, full-time students who are receiving youth allowance or austudy might be qualified for a student start-up loan. A person can qualify for up to 2 loans each calendar year. To receive a loan, a person must make a claim before the end of the relevant period for each loan.

Once the person's income exceeds the minimum repayment income under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 and the person has finished repaying any debt under that Act and certain other income-contingent loan schemes, the person must start repaying debt in relation to student start-up loans.

Part 2AA.2—Qualification for and amount of student start-up loan

1061ZVBA Simplified outline of this Part

Broadly, full-time students who are receiving youth allowance or austudy might be qualified for a student start-up loan. A person can qualify for up to 2 loans each calendar year.

Note 1: For approved scholarship course, see section 592M.

Division 1—Introduction

1061ZVCA Simplified outline of this Part

A person incurs an SSL debt if the person receives a student start-up loan (except in certain circumstances when the loan is required to be recovered as a social security debt under this Act).

Each SSL debt is incorporated into the person's accumulated SSL debt. This accumulated SSL debt forms the basis for working out the amounts the person is obliged to repay.

Division 2—Incurring SSL debts

1061ZVDA SSL debts

- (1) A person incurs an SSL debt to the Commonwealth if the person is paid a student start-up loan for a qualification period.
- (2) The SSL debt is incurred by the person on the later of:
  - (a) the day the person was paid the loan; and
  - (b) the day after the person's enrolment test day for the qualification period.

Note: For enrolment test day, see subsection (5).

- (3) The amount of the person's SSL debt is the amount of the loan, reduced by any amount repaid before the day on which the debt is incurred.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), an SSL debt is not incurred, and is taken never to have been incurred, in relation to a loan if:
  - (a) the loan has been fully repaid before the day on which the SSL debt in respect of the loan would be incurred; or
  - (b) the amount of the loan is a debt under section 1223 or 1223ABF; or
  - (c) the Secretary has formed an opinion under subsection 1223ABF(3) in relation to the loan (relating to exceptional circumstances beyond the person's control).
- (5) A person's enrolment test day, for a qualification period, is the earliest of the following days:
  - (a) if the relevant approved scholarship course ends in the qualification period—the last day of that approved scholarship course;
  - (b) the last day of the qualification period;
  - (c) the 35th day of the period starting on whichever of the following applies:

Upon the death of a person who owes an SSL debt to the Commonwealth, the debt is taken to have been paid.

Note: SSL debts are not provable in bankruptcy: see subsection 82(3AB) of the Bankruptcy Act 1966.

1061ZVDC Notice to Commissioner

- (1) If a person incurs an SSL debt, the Secretary must give the Commissioner a notice specifying the amount of the debt incurred by the person.
- (2) The Secretary may include in the notice any other details the Commissioner requests for the purpose of ensuring the Commissioner has the information needed to exercise powers or perform functions of the Commissioner under this Act.

Division 3—Working out accumulated SSL debts

1061ZVEA Simplified outline of this Division

There are 2 stages to working out a person's accumulated SSL debt for a financial year.

In stage 1, the person's former accumulated SSL debt is worked out by adjusting the preceding financial year's accumulated SSL debt to take account of:

- (a) the HELP debt indexation factor for 1 June in that financial year; and
- (b) the debts that the person incurs during the last 6 months of the preceding financial year; and
- (c) voluntary SSL repayments of the debt; and
- (d) compulsory SSL repayment amounts in respect of the debt.

In stage 2, the person's accumulated SSL debt is worked out from:

- (a) the person's former accumulated SSL debt; and
- (b) the SSL debts that the person incurs during the first 6 months of the financial year; and
- (c) voluntary SSL repayments of those debts.

1061ZVEB Stage 1—working out a former accumulated SSL debt

- (1) A person's former accumulated SSL debt, in relation to the person's accumulated SSL debt for a financial year, is worked out by multiplying:

Step 2. Add the sum of all of the SSL debts (if any) that the person incurred during the last 6 months of the immediately preceding financial year.

Step 3. Subtract the sum of the amounts by which the person's debts referred to in steps 1 and 2 are reduced because of any voluntary SSL repayments that have been made during the period:

  - (a) starting on 1 June in the immediately preceding financial year; and
  - (b) ending immediately before the next 1 June.

Step 4. Subtract the sum of all of the person's compulsory SSL repayment amounts that:

  - (a) were assessed during that period (excluding any assessed as a result of a return given before that period); or
  - (b) were assessed after the end of that period as a result of a return given before the end of that period.

Step 5. Subtract the sum of the amounts by which any compulsory SSL repayment amount of the person is increased (whether as a result of an increase in the person's taxable income of an income year or otherwise) by an amendment of an assessment made during that period.

Section 1061ZVEC

Step 6. Add the sum of the amounts by which any compulsory SSL repayment amount of the person is reduced (whether as a result of a reduction in the person's taxable income of an income year or otherwise) by an amendment of an assessment made during that period.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, an assessment, or an amendment of an assessment, is taken to have been made on the day specified in the notice of assessment, or notice of amended assessment, as the date of issue of that notice.

1061ZVEC Stage 2—working out an accumulated SSL debt

- (1) A person's accumulated SSL debt, for a financial year, is worked out as follows:

$$\begin{array}{rcccl} \text{Former accumulated} & + & \text{SSL debts} & - & \text{SSL debt} \\ \text{SSL debt} & & \text{incurred} & & \text{repayments} \end{array}$$

where:

former accumulated SSL debt is the person's former accumulated SSL debt in relation to that accumulated SSL debt.

SSL debt repayments is the sum of all of the voluntary SSL repayments (if any) paid, on or after 1 July in the financial year and before 1 June in that year, in reduction of the SSL debts incurred in that year.

SSL debts incurred is the sum of the amounts of all of the SSL debts (if any) that the person incurred during the first 6 months of the financial year.

- (2) The person incurs the accumulated SSL debt on 1 June in the financial year.

1061ZVED Rounding of amounts

- (1) If, apart from this section, a person's accumulated SSL debt would be an amount consisting of a number of whole dollars and a number of cents, disregard the number of cents.
- (2) If, apart from this section, a person's accumulated SSL debt would be an amount of less than $1.00, the person's accumulated SSL debt is taken to be zero.

1061ZVEE Accumulated SSL debt discharges earlier debts

- (1) The accumulated SSL debt that a person incurs on 1 June in a financial year discharges, or discharges the unpaid part of:
  - (a) any SSL debt that the person incurred during the calendar year immediately preceding that day; and
  - (b) any accumulated SSL debt that the person incurred on the immediately preceding 1 June.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects the application of Division 2 of this Part or sections 1061ZVEB and 1061ZVEC.

1061ZVEF Accumulated SSL debt discharged by death

- (1) Upon the death of a person who has an accumulated SSL debt, the accumulated SSL debt is taken to be discharged.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect any compulsory SSL repayment amounts required to be paid in respect of the accumulated SSL debt, whether or not those amounts were assessed before the person's death.

Note: Accumulated SSL debts are not provable in bankruptcy: see subsection 82(3AB) of the Bankruptcy Act 1966.

Part 2AA.4—Discharge of indebtedness

Division 1—Introduction

1061ZVFA Simplified outline of this Part

A person who owes a debt to the Commonwealth under this Chapter may make voluntary SSL repayments.

The person is required to make repayments once the person's income exceeds the minimum repayment income under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 and the person has finished repaying any debt under that Act and certain other income-contingent loan schemes.

The amount of the repayments is based on the person's income.

The Commissioner makes assessments of repayment amounts, which are collected in the same way as amounts of income tax.

1061ZVFB Debts under this Chapter

- (1) The debts under this Chapter are:
  - (a) SSL debts; and
  - (b) accumulated SSL debts.
- (2) To avoid doubt, debts that arise under the following sections are not debts under this Chapter:
  - (a) section 1223 (Debts arising from lack of qualification, overpayment etc.);
  - (b) section 1223ABF (Debts in respect of student start-up loans).

Chapter 2B—Student Financial Supplement Scheme

Note: Section 19AB contains many of the definitions that are relevant to the provisions of this Chapter.

Part 2B.1—Establishment of scheme

Division 1—Preliminary

1061ZW Object of this Chapter

The object of this Chapter is to establish a Student Financial Supplement Scheme enabling certain tertiary students to obtain a repayable financial supplement by entering into a contract for that purpose with a financial corporation that participates in the scheme.

1061ZX Outline of the scheme

- (1) The scheme provides for the reduction of the rate of youth allowance, austudy payment or pensioner education supplement payable to a person who obtains financial supplement.
- (2) The scheme contains provisions under which the amount of supplement that the person is eligible to obtain depends on the total rate of youth allowance, austudy payment or pensioner education supplement that the person chooses to receive. Those provisions allow the person to choose to repay some or all of the youth allowance, austudy payment or pensioner education supplement, or to receive a lower rate of payment of such an allowance, payment or supplement, in order to receive a higher amount of financial supplement.
- (3) The scheme provides that the person is not liable to pay interest to the financial corporation in respect of financial supplement received by the person, but provides for payment by the Commonwealth, without cost to the person, to the financial corporation of a subsidy that includes an amount in lieu of interest.

- (4) The scheme provides for the amount of the financial supplement that has to be repaid under a contract to be indexed on 1 June in the year next following the year in which the contract is entered into, and on 1 June in each later year. The amount by which the supplement is increased by indexation is owed by the person to the Commonwealth and not to the financial corporation.
- (5) Under the scheme, the person is entitled, but not required, to make early repayments in respect of the supplement during the period of the contract. The scheme provides for a discount for any repayments made before the end of that period.
- (6) The scheme provides that, if financial supplement paid to a person is not repaid in full before the end of the period of the contract, the obligation to repay the outstanding amount of the supplement is transferred to the Commonwealth, and the indexed amount is repayable by the person to the Commonwealth through the taxation system when the person's income reaches a specified level.

Division 2—Eligibility to obtain financial supplement

1061ZY Eligibility to obtain financial supplement

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person is eligible to obtain financial supplement for a period (an eligibility period) that is a year or a part of a year if:
  - (a) the person is undertaking, or intending to undertake, a tertiary course at an educational institution throughout the period; and
  - (b) the person does not undertake a course of primary or secondary education at any time during the period; and
  - (c) the person is a category 1 student or a category 2 student in respect of the period; and
  - (d) the amount of financial supplement that the person is eligible to obtain under Division 6 for the year is not less than the minimum amount of financial supplement.
- (2) A person is not eligible to obtain financial supplement for an eligibility period that begins on or after the day on which the Student Assistance Legislation Amendment Act 2006 receives the Royal Assent.

1061ZZ Category 1 student

- (1) A person is a category 1 student in respect of a period if, throughout the period, one or more of the payments referred to in this section are payable to the person.
- (2) The payment may be youth allowance if:
  - (a) the person's youth allowance general rate is more than zero; and
  - (b) the youth allowance is payable because the person is undertaking full-time study.
- (3) The payment may be austudy payment if the person's austudy payment general rate is more than zero.

  - (b) throughout the period the person is undertaking full-time study; and
  - (c) throughout the period youth allowance at the youth allowance general rate is not payable to the person only because of the operation of one or more of the following:

    - (ii) Module G (the family actual means test) of that Calculator;
    - (iii) Subdivision AB (the youth allowance assets test) of Division 2 of Part 2.11; and
  - (d) if subparagraph (c)(i) applies—the person’s combined parental income for the appropriate tax year under Submodule 4 of Module F is throughout the period less than the person’s modified parental income free area; and

  - (ea) if subparagraph (c)(iii) applies—the allowance would have been payable if the reference to 50% in subsection 547G(2) were instead a reference to 75%; and
  - (f) neither section 1061ZZAA nor 1061ZZAB applies to the person.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(d) and (e), the person’s modified parental income free area is the indexed amount that would be the person’s parental income free area under point 1067G-F22 if the amount of $23,400 that was specified in paragraph 1067G-F22(a) when that paragraph was enacted had been $54,949.

Section 1061ZZCJ

Subdivision B—Person's rights to make repayments during contract period

1061ZZCJ Person not required to, but may, make repayments during contract period

- (1) Subject to sections 1061ZZDE, 1061ZZDL, 1061ZZDV and 1061ZZEE, a person who is a party to a financial supplement contract with a participating corporation is not required during the contract period to make a repayment of the amount outstanding under the contract.
- (2) Non-payment by the person during the contract period of the amount outstanding is not a default under the contract for the purposes of any law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory.
- (3) However, the person may, at any time during the contract period, make a repayment (an amount repaid) to the corporation of the whole or a part of the amount outstanding at that time.
- (4) Subsection (3) has effect subject to section 1061ZZCL.

1061ZZCK What happens if person makes an excess repayment

If a person purports to make a repayment to a participating corporation under a financial supplement contract by paying an amount under subsection 1061ZZCJ(3) that exceeds the amount that, having regard to the discount to which the person is entitled, would be needed to pay in full the amount outstanding, the excess:

- (a) is taken not to be a repayment; and
- (b) must be repaid by the corporation to the person.

1061ZZCL Amount repaid not to include certain amounts

If the person makes a repayment under subsection 1061ZZCJ(3), the amount repaid is to be disregarded for the purposes of this Division:

- (a) to the extent to which it relates to wrongly paid supplement;
or
- (b) if it is repaid after the giving of a notice under section 1061ZZCZ, 1061ZZDG, 1061ZZDQ or 1061ZZEA.

1061ZZCM How to work out discount

- (1) If, during the contract period, a person makes a repayment of an amount that is less than the amount outstanding, the person is entitled, in respect of the repayment, to a discount of an amount worked out using the formula:

- (2) If, during the contract period, a person makes a repayment of an amount that is equal to the amount outstanding, the person is entitled, in respect of the repayment, to a discount of an amount worked out using the formula:

- (3) If, apart from this subsection, an amount worked out under subsection (1) or (2) would be an amount of dollars and cents, the amount is to be rounded to the nearest number of whole dollars (rounding 50 cents upwards).

1061ZZCN Effect of making a repayment during contract period

Application

- (1) This section applies if a person, at a time (the repayment time) during the contract period of a financial supplement contract made by the person with a participating corporation, makes a repayment (the relevant repayment) in respect of the amount outstanding under the contract. For the purposes of this section, it is first necessary to work out whether an indexation amount is taken to

When an indexation amount is taken to have existed

- (2) For the purposes of this section, an indexation amount is taken to have existed in respect of the contract immediately before the repayment time if:
- (a) an amount outstanding under the contract existed immediately before the repayment time under section 1061ZZCH; and
  - (b) that amount outstanding exceeds the amount worked out using the formula:

Meaning of expressions used in formula

- (3) For the purpose of applying the formula in subsection (2) immediately before the repayment time:

amounts previously notionally repaid means the total of the amounts notionally repaid under the contract before the repayment time because of the application of this section in respect of previous repayments.

amounts repaid means the total of the amounts repaid under the contract before the repayment time.

principal sum means the principal sum immediately before the repayment time.

What constitutes indexation amount

- (4) The indexation amount referred to in subsection (2) is the amount of the excess referred to in paragraph (2)(b).

If no indexation amount

- (5) If no indexation amount existed in respect of the contract immediately before the repayment time, the person is taken to have repaid to the corporation at the repayment time an amount (an amount notionally repaid) equal to the discount to which the person is entitled in respect of the relevant repayment.

If discount does not exceed indexation amount

- (6) If:
- (a) an indexation amount existed in respect of the contract immediately before the repayment time; and
  - (b) the discount to which the person is entitled in respect of the relevant repayment is equal to or less than the indexation amount;
- the amount outstanding under the contract is taken to be reduced by the discount.

If discount exceeds indexation amount

- (7) If:
- (a) an indexation amount existed in respect of the contract immediately before the repayment time; and
  - (b) the discount to which the person is entitled in respect of the relevant repayment exceeds the indexation amount;
- the following paragraphs have effect:
- (c) the amount outstanding under the contract is taken to be reduced by the indexation amount;
  - (d) the person is taken to have repaid to the corporation at the repayment time an amount (an amount notionally repaid) equal to the excess.

Commonwealth to pay corporation amounts notionally repaid

- (8) The Commonwealth must pay to the corporation an amount equal to any amount notionally repaid.

- (1) If an assurance of support is given under this Chapter, the Secretary must accept or reject the assurance.

Accepting the assurance

- (2) The Secretary may accept the assurance, but only if:
- (a) he or she is satisfied that the requirements that are specified for the purposes of this paragraph in a determination under section 1061ZZGH and relate to the person who gave the assurance are met; and
  - (b) the requirements in subsection (3) are met, if the assurance is in respect of:
    - (i) a visa of a kind that can be granted under the Migration Act 1958 only if an assurance of support is accepted; and
    - (ii) another person who was at least 18 at the time of the application for the visa;(whether or not the assurance is also in respect of someone else who was under 18 at the time of the application for the visa).

Note 1: The Secretary may accept an assurance given by 2 or more persons only if satisfied that the requirements specified in a determination under item 3 of the table in subsection 1061ZZGH(1) and relating to all of them are met. See paragraph 23(b) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Note 2: Subparagraph (2)(b)(i) does not apply to a visa of a kind in relation to which there is a discretion to request an assurance of support, because a visa of that kind can be granted without accepting an assurance if one is not requested (even if, in a case in which an assurance is requested, acceptance of the assurance is a condition for the grant of the visa).

- (3) At least one person who gave the assurance must have given the Secretary a single security for the liability that may be incurred, under section 1061ZZGG in connection with the assurance and a social security payment received by anyone identified in the assurance, by everyone who gave the assurance. The security must:

- (a) be in a form approved by the Secretary; and
- (b) be of a value specified for the purposes of this paragraph in a determination under section 1061ZZGH.

Rejecting the assurance

- (4) The Secretary may reject the assurance.
- (5) The circumstances in which the Secretary may reject the assurance include failure of the person giving the assurance to attend an interview relating to the assurance as requested by the Secretary. This subsection does not limit subsection (4).

1061ZZGE Notices relating to an assurance of support

- (1) If the Secretary accepts or rejects an assurance of support, he or she must give written notice of the acceptance or rejection to:
  - (a) the person who gave the assurance; and
  - (b) the Minister administering the Migration Act 1958.The notice must name the person in respect of whom the assurance was given.
- (2) If:
  - (a) the Secretary has accepted an assurance of support given by a person (the assurer) in respect of another person and a visa; and
  - (b) the Secretary is informed that the other person:
    - (i) is a holder under the Migration Act 1958 of the visa; and
    - (ii) has entered the migration zone (as defined in that Act) before, on or after becoming the holder of the visa;the Secretary must give the assurer written notice of the period for which the assurance is in force in respect of the other person.

Part 2C.2 Acceptance of assurances

Section 1061ZZGE

Note: Section 1061ZZGF explains when an assurance of support is in force in respect of the other person.

- (3) If the assurance of support ceases to be in force in respect of the other person at a time determined by the Secretary under subparagraph 1061ZZGF(1)(b)(ii) or (iii), the Secretary must give the assurer written notice of that fact.

Part 2C.3—Effect of accepted assurances

1061ZZGEA Assurance cannot be withdrawn once visa issued

A person who has given an assurance of support that has been accepted under this Chapter cannot withdraw that assurance once the person in respect of whom the assurance was given becomes the holder under the Migration Act 1958 of a visa granted in connection with the assurance.

1061ZZGF When an accepted assurance is in force

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an assurance of support that has been given in respect of a person identified in the assurance and has been accepted under this Chapter:
  - (a) comes into force in respect of the person at the later of the following times:
    - (i) the time at which the person becomes under the Migration Act 1958 the holder of the visa that was granted under that Act in connection with the assurance;
    - (ii) the time at which the person enters the migration zone (as defined in that Act) as the holder of the visa; and
  - (b) remains in force in respect of the person until the earliest of the following times:
    - (i) the end of the period specified for the purposes of this subparagraph in a determination under section 1061ZZGH;
    - (ii) the time (if any) determined by the Secretary under subsection (2);
    - (iii) if a circumstance specified for the purposes of this subparagraph in a determination under section 1061ZZGH applies in relation to the assurance—the time determined by the Secretary in relation to that circumstance.

Note: An assurance of support given in respect of 2 or more persons may be in force at different times in respect of each of those persons.

Section 1061ZZGG

- (2) The Secretary may determine that the assurance of support ceases to be in force in respect of the person at the time (which may be before the determination is made) another assurance of support comes into force in respect of the person.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, an assurance of support (as defined in section 1061ZZGA) is in force in respect of a person only for the period for which it is in force in respect of the person under subsection (1) of this section.
- (4) Except as provided by paragraph (1)(b), an assurance of support that has come into force in respect of a person remains in force in respect of that person in spite of any change in circumstances whatsoever (including any purported withdrawal, however described, of the assurance).

1061ZZGG Liability to pay for social security payments

- (1) This section has effect if:
  - (a) a person (the assurer) has given an assurance of support that has been accepted under this Chapter; and
  - (b) a social security payment is received, by another person who is identified in the assurance, in respect of all or part of the period for which the assurance is in force in respect of the other person; and
  - (c) the social security payment is specified for the purposes of this section in a determination in force under section 1061ZZGH when the payment is received.
- (2) The assurer is liable to pay the Commonwealth the amount of the social security payment.
- (3) If the assurance was given by more than one person, all of the persons who gave it are jointly and severally liable to pay the Commonwealth the amount of the social security payment.

Part 2C.4—Determinations

1061ZZGH Determinations

- (1) The Minister must, by legislative instrument, make a determination specifying, for the purposes of the provisions mentioned in the table, the things in the table.

Determinations
	Provision(s)	Things to be specified
1	Definition of assurance of support in section 1061ZZGA and section 1061ZZGG	Social security payments
2	Section 1061ZZGB	Requirements to be met in relation to persons for them to be permitted by section 1061ZZGB to give assurances of support
3	Paragraph 1061ZZGD(2)(a)	Requirements to be met in relation to persons giving assurances of support for the Secretary to be permitted by subsection 1061ZZGD(2) to accept such assurances
4	Paragraph 1061ZZGD(3)(b)	Values of securities to be given for the Secretary to be permitted to accept assurances of support
5	Subparagraph 1061ZZGF(1)(b)(i)	Periods for which assurances of support accepted under this Chapter remain in force in respect of persons under section 1061ZZGF
6	Subparagraph 1061ZZGF(1)(b)(iii)	Circumstances in which assurances of support accepted under this Chapter cease to be in force

Note 1: A determination may specify matters and things by reference to classes and may make different provision with respect to different matters or classes of matters. See the Legislation Act 2003.

Note 2: The Minister may amend a determination by another legislative instrument. See the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Chapter 2C Assurances of support

Part 2C.4 Determinations

Section 1061ZZGH

- (2) A determination may specify, as a requirement to be met in relation to a person (the assurer) giving an assurance of support for the Secretary to be permitted by subsection 1061ZZGD(2) to accept the assurance, a requirement that relates to:
- (a) the members of a couple consisting of the assurer and the assurer's partner; or
  - (b) the assurer's partner.

This subsection does not limit the requirements that may be specified under item 3 of the table in subsection (1) of this section.

- (3) Before making a determination specifying a thing described in item 4 or 5 of the table in subsection (1), the Minister must ask the Minister administering the Migration Act 1958 for comments on the things that should be specified and consider the comments (if any) received.

Part 2C.5—Assurances by unincorporated bodies

1061ZZGI Application of social security law to unincorporated bodies

- (1) This Chapter, and the rest of the social security law so far as it relates to this Chapter, apply to an unincorporated body or association (the body) as if it were a person other than an individual, but they apply with the following changes.

Acts of certain persons treated as acts of the body

- (2) One change is that anything done or omitted by or in relation to:
- (a) if the body is a partnership—a partner; or
  - (b) in any other case—a member of the committee of management of the body;
- on behalf of the body is taken to have been done or omitted by the body.

Imposition of obligations and liabilities

- (3) Another change is that obligations, or liabilities under section 1061ZZGG, that would be imposed on the body are imposed instead on:
- (a) if the body is a partnership—each partner; or
  - (b) in any other case—each member of the committee of management of the body;
- but they may be discharged by any of the partners or any of those members.

The body cannot commit an offence

- (4) Another change is that if, apart from this subsection, the body would commit an offence, the body does not commit the offence.

Example: Subsection (1) applies section 217 of the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999 to the body as if it were a person. That section provides that a person who contravenes certain provisions of that Act about false or misleading statements commits an offence. The body does not commit an offence if it contravenes those provisions by making a false or misleading statement.

Limit on scope of changes

(5) Subsections (2) and (3) do not affect:

- (a) whether, for the purposes of section 1061ZZGB (about giving an assurance of support), the requirements specified in a determination under section 1061ZZGH are met in relation to the body; or
- (b) whether, for the purposes of paragraph 1061ZZGD(2)(a) (about accepting an assurance of support), the requirements specified in a determination under section 1061ZZGH are met in relation to the body.

Note: Whether the body may give an assurance of support and whether such an assurance may be accepted depend on whether the requirements specified in relation to the body are met, rather than whether requirements relating to a person who is a partner or member of the body's management committee are met in relation to that partner or member.

(6) A determination under section 1061ZZGH (applying in accordance with this section) may specify, for the purposes of section 1061ZZGB or paragraph 1061ZZGD(2)(a) (as so applying in relation to the body), a requirement that relates to:

- (a) one or more of the partners, if the body is a partnership; or
- (b) some or all of the members of the body or of its committee of management, if the body is not a partnership.

This subsection does not limit the requirements relating to the body that may be specified.

Chapter 3—General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.1—Rate Calculators (General)

1062E1062 Steps in rate calculation

- (1) The following are the usual steps in the rate calculation process:
  - (a) start with a maximum basic rate;
  - (b) add any additional amounts that are subject to income or assets testing;
  - (c) apply the income and assets tests;
  - (d) add any additional amounts that are not subject to income or assets testing.
- (2) The overall rate calculation process is usually described in an early Module of the relevant Rate Calculator.

1063 Standard categories of family situations

- (1) The Rate Calculators use the following standard categories of family situations:
  - not member of a couple;
  - member of a couple (or partnered);
  - partnered (partner getting neither pension nor benefit);
  - partnered (partner getting pension or benefit);
  - partnered (partner getting pension);
  - partnered (partner getting benefit);

Part 3.2—Pension Rate Calculator A

1064 Rate of age and disability support pensions and carer payment (people who are not blind)

(1) The rate of:

- (a) age pension; and
- (b) disability support pension of a person who has turned 21, or of a person who has not turned 21 and has one or more dependent children; and
- (d) carer payment;

is, subject to subsection (2), to be calculated in accordance with the Rate Calculator at the end of this section.

Note 1: Module A of the Rate Calculator establishes the overall rate calculation process and the remaining Modules provide for the calculation of the component amounts used in the overall rate calculation.

Note 2: The rate obtained by applying the Rate Calculator may be reduced because of:

- the receipt of compensation (see Part 3.14); or
- overseas portability (see Part 4.2—Division 3); or
- the receipt of payments under the New Enterprise Incentive Scheme (see Part 3.15).

Note 3: For dependent child see section 5.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person's age or disability support pension if the person is permanently blind.

Note: The rate for an age pension or disability support pension payable to a person who is permanently blind is dealt with in section 1065.

(4) If:

- (a) a person has a relationship with another person, whether of the same sex or a different sex (other person); and
- (b) the relationship between them is a de facto relationship in the Secretary's opinion (formed after the Secretary has had regard to all the circumstances of the relationship, including, in particular, the matters referred to in paragraphs 4(3)(a) to (e) and subsection 4(3A));

- (c) either or both of them are under the age of consent applicable in the State or Territory in which they are living;

the person's pension rate is not to exceed the rate at which it would be payable to the person if the other person were the person's partner.

Note: This provision has the effect of taking into account the ordinary income, maintenance income and assets of the partner in applying the ordinary income test, maintenance income test and assets test respectively.

Rate limited for armed service widow

(5) If:

- (a) an armed services widow is receiving a pension under Part II or IV of the Veterans' Entitlements Act at a rate determined under or by reference to subsection 30(1) of that Act; and

  - (ii) immediately before 1 November 1986, the widow was receiving a payment referred to in paragraph (b) at a rate exceeding $3,247.40; and
  - (iii) the pension referred to in paragraph (b) is of the same type as the one which was payable to the person before 1 November 1986;

the rate of pension received by the widow immediately before 1 November 1986; and

(d) in any other case—$3,247.40.

Rate limited for armed services widower

(6) If:

- (a) an armed services widower is receiving a pension under Part II or IV of the Veterans' Entitlements Act at a rate determined under or by reference to subsection 30(1) of that Act; and

Pension Rate Calculator A

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate

- 1064-A1 The rate of pension is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the annual rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 364 (fortnightly rates are provided for information only).

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using MODULE B below.
- Step 1A. Work out the amount of pension supplement using Module BA below.
- Step 1B. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module C below.
- Step 3. Work out the amount per year (if any) for rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(b).
- Step 4. Add up the amounts obtained in Steps 1, 1A, 1B and 3: the result is called the maximum payment rate.
- Step 5. Apply the ordinary income test using MODULE E below to work out the income reduction.
- Note: Module F contains provisions that may apply to working out the ordinary income of a person, and the ordinary income of a partner of the person, for the purposes of disability support pension.
- Step 8. Take the income reduction away from the maximum payment rate: the result is called the income reduced rate.

OFFICIAL: Sensitive // Legal Privilege

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.2 Pension Rate Calculator A

Module A Overall rate calculation process

Section 1064

---

- Step 9. Apply the assets test using MODULE G below to work out the reduction for assets.
- Step 10. Take the reduction for assets away from the maximum payment rate: the result is called the assets reduced rate.
- Step 11. Compare the income reduced rate and the assets reduced rate: the lower of the 2 rates, or the income reduced rate if the rates are equal, is the provisional annual payment rate.
- Step 12. The rate of pension is the amount obtained by:
- (a) subtracting from the provisional annual payment rate any special employment advance deduction (see Part 3.16B); and
  - (b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and
  - (c) adding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance (see Module H).

- Note 1: If a person's assets reduced rate is less than the person's income reduced rate, the person may be able to take advantage of provisions dealing with financial hardship (sections 1129 and 1130).
- Note 2: Section 1210 deals with the application of income and assets test reductions.
- Note 3: The rate calculation for a member of a couple is affected by the operation of points 1064-A2 and 1064-A3.
- Note 4: In some circumstances a person may also be qualified for a pharmaceutical allowance under Part 2.22.
- Note 5: A person's rate may also be reduced because the person or the person's partner receives compensation (see section 1173) or because the person or the person's partner is receiving a foreign pension (see scheduled international social security agreements at section 1208).

Section 1064

Note 7: Clause 146 of Schedule 1A may affect the provisional annual payment rate in step 11.

Members of a couple

1064-A2 Where 2 people are members of a couple, they will be treated as pooling their resources (income and assets) and sharing them on a 50/50 basis (see points 1064-E2 and 1064-G2 below). They will also be treated as sharing expenses (e.g. for rent) on a 50/50 basis (see section 1070V).

Module B—Maximum basic rate

Maximum basic rate

1064-B1 A person's maximum basic rate depends on the person's family situation. Work out which family situation in Table B applies to the person. The maximum basic rate is the corresponding amount in column 3.

Table B—Maximum basic rates

Column 1 Item	Column 2 Person's family situation	Column 3 Rate per year	Column 4 Rate per fortnight
1.	Not member of couple	$8,114.60	$312.10
2.	Partnered	$6,767.80	$260.30
3.	Member of illness separated couple	$8,114.60	$312.10
4.	Member of respite care couple	$8,114.60	$312.10
5.	Partnered (partner in gaol)	$8,114.60	$312.10

Note 1: For member of couple, partnered, illness separated couple, respite care couple and partnered (partner in gaol) see section 4.

Note 2: The maximum basic rates are adjusted 6 monthly: see sections 1191 to 1198A.

- (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks;

the person's pension supplement amount is:

- (c) if an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force—the amount worked out under point 1064-BA4; and
- (d) otherwise—the amount worked out under point 1064-BA3.

Residents in Australia etc.—no election in force

1064-BA3 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out by:

- (a) applying the applicable percentage in the following table to the combined couple rate of pension supplement; and
- (b) if:

- (i) the person is not partnered; and
- (ii) the amount resulting from paragraph (a) is not a multiple of $2.60;

rounding the amount up or down to the nearest multiple of $2.60 (rounding up if the amount is not a multiple of $2.60 but is a multiple of $1.30).

5	Partnered (partner in gaol)	66.33%

Note: For combined couple rate of pension supplement, see subsection 20A(1).

Residents in Australia etc.—election in force

- 1064-BA4 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out as follows:
- (a) work out the amount for the person under point 1064-BA3 as if the election were not in force;
  - (b) from that amount, subtract the person's minimum pension supplement amount.

Persons absent from Australia for more than 6 weeks

- 1064-BA5 If the person is not covered by point 1064-BA2, the person's pension supplement amount is the person's pension supplement basic amount.

Module C—Energy supplement

- 1064-C1 An energy supplement is to be added to the person's maximum basic rate if the person is residing in Australia and:
- (a) is in Australia; or
  - (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

Note: Section 918 may affect the addition of the energy supplement.

- 1064-C2 However, this Module does not apply if quarterly energy supplement is payable to the person.
- 1064-C3 The person's energy supplement is the amount worked out using the following table:

Module E—Ordinary income test

Effect of income on maximum payment rate

1064-E1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's ordinary income on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ordinary income on a yearly basis.

Note 1: For the treatment of the ordinary income of members of a couple see point 1064-E2.

Note 2: Module F contains provisions that may apply to working out the ordinary income of a person, and the ordinary income of a partner of the person, for the purposes of disability support pension.

Step 2. Work out the person's ordinary income free area (see point 1064-E4 below).

Note: A person's ordinary income free area is the amount of ordinary income that the person can have without any deduction being made from the person's maximum payment rate.

Step 3. Work out whether the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area.

Section 1064

---

- Step 4. If the person's ordinary income does not exceed the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is nil.
- Step 5. If the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is the person's ordinary income less the person's ordinary income free area.
- Step 6. Use the person's ordinary income excess to work out the person's reduction for ordinary income using points 1064-E10 to 1064-E12 below.

Note 1: See point 1064-A1 (Steps 5 to 8) for the significance of the person's reduction for ordinary income.

Note 2: The application of the ordinary income test is affected by provisions concerning:

- the general concept of ordinary income and the treatment of certain income amounts (Division 1 of Part 3.10);
- the work bonus (section 1073AA);
- business income (sections 1074 and 1075);
- income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term)) (Division 1B of Part 3.10);
- income from income streams not covered by Division 1B of Part 3.10 (Division 1C of Part 3.10);
- disposal of income (sections 1106 to 1111).

Ordinary incomes of members of couples

1064-E2 If a person is a member of a couple, add the couple's ordinary incomes (on a yearly basis) and divide by 2 to work out the amount of the person's ordinary income for the purposes of this Module.

Note: For the purposes of working out a person's disability support pension rate under this Rate Calculator, Module F applies to working out the ordinary incomes of both members of the couple.

Payment of arrears of periodic compensation payments

1064-E3 If:

- (a) at the time of an event that gives rise to an entitlement of a person to compensation, the person is receiving age pension, disability support pension or carer pension; and
- (b) in relation to that entitlement, the person receives a payment of arrears of periodic compensation;

the person is taken to receive on each day in the periodic payments period an amount calculated by dividing the amount received by the number of days in the periodic payments period.

Note: For periodic payments period see section 17.

How to calculate a person's ordinary income free area

1064-E4 A person's ordinary income free area is worked out using Table E-1. Work out which family situation in Table E-1 applies to the person. The ordinary income free area is the corresponding amount in column 3.

Table E-1—Ordinary free area limits

Column 1 Item	Column 2 Category of person	Column 3 Basic free area per year	Column 4 Basic free area per fortnight
1.	Not member of a couple	$2,080	$80
2.	Partnered (partner getting neither pension nor benefit)	$1,820	$70
3.	Partnered (partner getting benefit)	$1,820	$70
4.	Partnered (partner getting pension)	$1,820	$70

Pension reduction for ordinary income in excess of ordinary income free area

1064-E10 A person's reduction for ordinary income is:

Ordinary income excess  $\times$  0.5

Ordinary income excess

1064-E11 A person's ordinary income excess is the person's ordinary income less the person's ordinary income free area.

Module F—Ordinary income for the purposes of disability support pension

Application of this Module

1064-F1 This Module applies only for the purposes of working out the rate of disability support pension payable to a person. It so applies to that person and, if the person is a member of a couple, to the person's partner.

Lump sum payments arising from termination of employment

1064-F2 Subject to points 1064-F4 to 1064-F14 (inclusive), if:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) as a result the person is entitled to a lump sum payment from the person's former employer;

the person is taken to have received the lump sum payment on the day on which the person's employment was terminated.

Certain leave payments taken to be ordinary income—employment continuing

1064-F4 If:

- (a) a person is employed; and
- (b) the person is on leave for a period; and
- (c) the person is or was entitled to receive a leave payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise) in respect of a part or all of a leave period;

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Certain payments taken to be ordinary income—employment terminated

1064-F5 If:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) the person receives a termination payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise);

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the period to which the payment relates.

More than one termination payment on a day

1064-F6 If:

- (a) a person is covered by point 1064-F5; and
- (b) the person receives more than one termination payment on a day;

the income maintenance period is worked out by adding the periods to which the payments relate.

Start of income maintenance period—employment continuing

- 1064-F7 If a person is covered by point 1064-F4, the income maintenance period starts on the first day of the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Start of income maintenance period—employment terminated

- 1064-F8 If a person is covered by point 1064-F5, the income maintenance period starts, subject to point 1064-F9, on the day on which the person is paid the termination payment.

Commencement of income maintenance period where there is a second termination payment

- 1064-F9 If:
- (a) a person who is covered by point 1064-F5 is subject to an income maintenance period (the first period); and
  - (b) the person is paid another termination payment during that period (the second termination payment);
- the income maintenance period for the second termination payment starts on the day after the end of the first period.

Leave payments or termination payments in respect of periods longer than a fortnight

- 1064-F10 If:
- (a) a person receives a leave payment or termination payment; and
  - (b) the payment is in respect of a period longer than a fortnight; the person is taken to receive in a payment fortnight or part of a payment fortnight an amount calculated by:
  - (c) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the period to which the payment relates (the daily rate); and
  - (d) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the payment fortnight that are also in the period.

Section 1064

1064-F11 If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while an income maintenance period applies to the person, the Secretary may determine that the whole, or any part, of the period does not apply to the person.

Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).

Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).

Note 3: If an income maintenance period applies to a person, then, during that period:

- (a) the pension claimed may not be payable to the person; or
- (b) the amount of the pension payable to the person may be reduced.

When a person receives a leave payment or a termination payment

1064-F12 For the purposes of points 1064-F4 to 1064-F11 (inclusive), a person (the first person) is taken to receive a leave payment or termination payment if:

- (a) the payment is made to another person:
  - (i) at the direction of the first person or a court; or
  - (ii) on behalf of the first person; or
  - (iii) for the benefit of the first person; or
- (b) the first person waives or assigns his or her right to receive the payment.

Single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments

1064-F13 If a person who is covered by point 1064-F5 receives a single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments, then, for the purposes of the application of points 1064-F4 to 1064-F12 (inclusive):

- (a) each part of the payment that is in respect of a different kind of termination payment is taken to be a separate payment; and

- (b) the income maintenance period in respect of the single payment is worked out by adding the periods to which the separate payments relate.

Definitions

1064-F14 In this Module:

leave payment includes a payment in respect of sick leave, annual leave, maternity leave and long service leave, but does not include:

- (a) an instalment of parental leave pay; or
- (b) dad and partner pay.

payment fortnight means a fortnight in respect of which a disability support pension is paid, or would be paid apart from the application of an income maintenance period, to a person.

period to which the payment relates means:

- (a) if the payment is a leave payment—the leave period to which the payment relates; or
- (b) if the payment is a termination payment and is calculated as an amount equivalent to an amount of ordinary income that the person would (but for the termination) have received from the employment that was terminated—the period for which the person would have received that amount of ordinary income; or
- (c) if the payment is a termination payment and paragraph (b) does not apply—the period of weeks (rounded down to the nearest whole number) in respect of which the person would have received ordinary income, from the employment that was terminated, of an amount equal to the amount of the termination payment if:
  - (i) the person's employment had continued; and
  - (ii) the person received ordinary income from the employment at the rate per week at which the person usually received ordinary income from the employment prior to the termination.

redundancy payment includes a payment in lieu of notice.

termination payment includes:

- (a) a redundancy payment; and
- (b) a leave payment relating to a person's employment that has been terminated; and
- (c) any other payment that is connected with the termination of a person's employment.

Module G—Assets test

Effect of assets on maximum payment rate

1064-G1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's assets on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the value of the person's assets.

Note 1: For the treatment of the assets of members of a couple see point 1064-G2.

Note 2: For the assets that are to be disregarded in valuing a person's assets see section 1118.

Note 3: For the valuation of an asset that is subject to a charge or encumbrance see section 1121.

Step 2. Work out the person's assets value limit (see point 1064-G3 below).

Note: A person's assets value limit is the maximum value of assets the person can have without affecting the person's pension rate.

Step 3. Work out whether the value of the person's assets exceeds the person's assets value limit.

Section 1064

- Step 4. If the value of the person's assets does not exceed the person's assets value limit, the person's assets excess is nil.
- Step 5. If the value of the person's assets exceeds the person's assets value limit, the person's assets excess is the value of the person's assets less the person's assets value limit.
- Step 6. Use the person's assets excess to work out the person's reduction for assets using points 1064-G4 to 1064-G7 below.

Note 1: See point 1064-A1 (steps 9 and 10) for the significance of the person's reduction for assets.

Note 2: The application of the assets test is affected by provisions concerning disposal of assets (sections 1123 to 1128), retirement villages (sections 1145 to 1157) and financial hardship (sections 1129 and 1130).

Value of assets of members of couples

1064-G2 For the purposes of this Module:

- (a) the value of the assets of a member of a couple is to be taken to be 50% of the sum of:
  - (i) the value of the person's assets; and
  - (ii) the value of the person's partner's assets; and
- (b) the value of the assets of a particular kind of a member of a couple is to be taken to be 50% of the sum of:
  - (i) the value of the person's assets of that kind; and
  - (ii) the value of the person's partner's assets of that kind.

Assets value limit

1064-G3 A person's assets value limit is worked out using Table G-1. Work out the person's family situation and home ownership situation. The assets value limit is the corresponding amount in column 3.

  - (b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and
  - (c) adding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance (see Module E).
- Step 6. Compare the notional income/assets tested rate and the non-income/assets tested rate: whichever is the greater is the person's rate of pension.

Note 1: The person will also be qualified for a pharmaceutical allowance under Part 2.22.

Note 2: An amount of remote area allowance is to be added under Step 5 only if the person's rate of pension after Step 4 is greater than nil.

Module B—Maximum basic rate

Maximum basic rate

- 1065-B1 A person's maximum basic rate depends on the person's family situation. Work out which family situation in Table B applies to the person. The maximum basic rate is the corresponding amount in column 3 of the Table.

Table B—Maximum basic rates
Column 1 Item	Column 2 Person's family situation	Column 3 Rate per year	Column 4 Rate per fortnight
1.	Not member of couple	$8,114.60	$312.10
2.	Partnered	$6,767.80	$260.30
3.	Member of illness separated couple	$8,114.60	$312.10
4.	Member of respite care couple	$8,114.60	$312.10

- (a) is in Australia; or
  - (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks;
- the person's pension supplement amount is:
- (c) if an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force—the amount worked out under point 1065-BA4; and
  - (d) otherwise—the amount worked out under point 1065-BA3.

Residents in Australia etc.—no election in force

1065-BA3 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out by:

- (a) applying the applicable percentage in the following table to the combined couple rate of pension supplement; and
- (b) if:
  - (i) the person is not partnered; and
  - (ii) the amount resulting from paragraph (a) is not a multiple of $2.60;rounding the amount up or down to the nearest multiple of $2.60 (rounding up if the amount is not a multiple of $2.60 but is a multiple of $1.30).

Item	Person's family situation	Use this %
1	Not member of couple	66.33%
2	Partnered	50%
3	Member of illness separated couple	66.33%
4	Member of respite care couple	66.33%
5	Partnered (partner in gaol)	66.33%

Note: For combined couple rate of pension supplement, see subsection 20A(1).

Residents in Australia etc.—election in force

1065-BA4 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out as follows:

---

Section 1065

---

- (a) work out the amount for the person under point 1065-BA3 as if the election were not in force;
- (b) from that amount, subtract the person's minimum pension supplement amount.

Persons absent from Australia for more than 6 weeks

1065-BA5 If the person is not covered by point 1065-BA2, the person's pension supplement amount is the person's pension supplement basic amount.

Module C—Energy supplement

- 1065-C1 An energy supplement is to be added to the person's maximum basic rate if the person is residing in Australia and:
- (a) is in Australia; or
  - (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

Note: Section 918 may affect the addition of the energy supplement.

1065-C2 However, this Module does not apply if quarterly energy supplement is payable to the person.

1065-C3 The person's energy supplement is the amount worked out using the following table:

Energy supplement
Item	Person's family situation	Amount of energy supplement
1	Not a member of a couple	$366.60
2	Partnered	$275.60

- 1065-E1 An amount by way of remote area allowance is to be added to a person's rate of pension if:
- (aa) either:
    - (i) the person's rate of pension apart from this point is greater than nil; or
    - (ii) apart from this point, the person's rate of pension would be nil merely because an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force; and
  - (a) the person's usual place of residence is situated in the remote area; and
  - (b) the person is physically present in the remote area.

Note: For remote area and physically present in the remote area see section 14.

Rate of remote area allowance

- 1065-E2 The rate of remote area allowance payable to a person is worked out using Table E. Work out which family situation in the Table applies to the person. The rate of remote area allowance is the corresponding amount in column 3 plus an additional corresponding amount in column 5 for each FTB child, and each regular care child, of the person.

Part 3.4A—Pension Rate Calculator D

1066A Rate of disability support pension (people under 21 who are not blind)

- (1) The rate of disability support pension of a person who has not turned 21 is, subject to subsection (2), to be calculated in accordance with the Rate Calculator at the end of this section.

Note: Module A of the Rate Calculator establishes the overall rate calculation process and the remaining Modules provide for the calculation of the component amounts used in the overall rate calculation.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
- (a) the person is permanently blind; or
  - (b) the person has one or more dependent children.

Note 1: The rate for a disability support pension payable to a person under 21 who is permanently blind is dealt with in section 1066B.

Note 2: For dependent child see section 5.

Note 3: The rate for a disability support pension payable to a person under 21 who has one or more dependent children is dealt with in section 1064 or 1065.

- (3) A person's disability support pension rate is not to exceed the rate at which a disability support pension would be payable to that person if the person's rate were calculated using Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064.

- (5) If:
- (a) a person has a relationship with another person, whether of the same sex or a different sex (other person); and
  - (b) the relationship between them is a de facto relationship in the Secretary's opinion (formed after the Secretary has had regard to all the circumstances of the relationship, including, in particular, the matters referred to in paragraphs 4(3)(a) to (e) and subsection 4(3A));

Pension Rate Calculator D

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate

1066A-A1 The rate of pension is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the annual rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 364 (fortnightly rates are provided for information only).

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using MODULE B below.
- Step 1A. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module BA below.
- Step 2. Work out the amount per year for youth disability, Supplement using MODULE C below.
- Step 3. Work out the amount per year (if any) of pharmaceutical allowance using MODULE D below.
- Step 4. Work out the amount per year (if any) for rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(b).

Step 5. Add up the amounts obtained in Steps 1, 1A, 2, 3 and 4: the result is called the maximum payment rate.

Note: Module G contains provisions that may apply to working out, under this Rate Calculator, the ordinary income of a person, and the ordinary income of a partner of the person.

Step 6. Apply the ordinary income test using MODULE F below to work out the income reduction.

Step 9. Take the income reduction away from the maximum payment rate: the result is called the income reduced rate.

Step 10. Apply the assets test using MODULE H below to work out the reduction for assets.

Step 11. Take the reduction for assets away from the maximum payment rate: the result is called the assets reduced rate.

Step 12. Compare the income reduced rate and the assets reduced rate: the lower of the 2 rates, or the income reduced rate if the rates are equal, is the provisional annual payment rate.

Step 13. The rate of pension is the amount obtained by:

- (a) subtracting from the provisional annual payment rate any special employment advance deduction (see Part 3.16B); and
- (b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and

- Note 1: If a person's assets reduced rate is less than the person's income reduced rate, the person may be able to take advantage of provisions dealing with financial hardship (sections 1129 and 1130).
- Note 2: Section 1210 deals with the application of income and assets test reductions.
- Note 3: The rate calculation for a member of a couple is affected by the operation of point 1066A-A2.

Members of a couple

1066A-A2 Where 2 people are members of a couple, they will be treated as pooling their resources (income and assets) and sharing them on a 50/50 basis (see points 1066A-F2, and 1066A-H2 below). They will also be treated as sharing expenses (e.g. for rent) on a 50/50 basis (see section 1070V).

Module B—Maximum basic rate

No pharmaceutical allowance before advance payment period ends

1066A-D4 Pharmaceutical allowance is not to be added to a person's maximum basic rate if:

- (a) the person has received an advance pharmaceutical allowance under Part 2.23 of this Act; and
- (b) the person's advance payment period has not ended.

Note: For advance payment period see point 1066A-D5.

Advance payment period

1066A-D5 A person's advance payment period:

- (b) ends after the number of paydays worked out using the following formula have passed:

$$\frac{\text{amount of advance} \times 26}{\text{pharmaceutical allowance rate}}$$

where:

amount of advance is the amount of the advance paid to the person.

No pharmaceutical allowance if annual limit reached

1066A-D6 Pharmaceutical allowance is not to be added to a person's maximum basic rate if:

- (a) the person has received an advance pharmaceutical allowance during the current calendar year; and
- (b) the total amount paid to the person for that year by way of:
  - (i) pharmaceutical allowance; and
  - (ii) advance pharmaceutical allowance;

equals the total amount of pharmaceutical allowance that would have been paid to the person during that year if the person had not received any advance pharmaceutical allowance.

Note 1: For the amount paid to a person by way of pharmaceutical allowance see subsections 19A(2) to (6).

Note 2: The annual limit is affected by:

- how long during the calendar year the person was on pension or benefit;
- the rate of pharmaceutical allowance the person attracts at various times depending on the person's family situation.

Effect of income on maximum payment rate

1066A-F1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's ordinary income on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ordinary income on a yearly basis.

Note 2: Module G contains provisions that may apply to working out, under this Rate Calculator, the ordinary income of a person, and the ordinary income of a partner of the person.

Step 2. Work out the person's ordinary income free area (see point 1066A-F3 below).

Note: A person's ordinary income free area is the amount of ordinary income that the person can have without any deduction being made from the person's maximum payment.

- Step 5. If the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is the person's ordinary income less the person's ordinary income free area.
- Step 6. Use the person's ordinary income excess to work out the person's reduction for ordinary income using points 1066A-F9 to 1066A-F11 below.

Note 1: See point 1066A-A1 (Steps 6 to 9) for the significance of the person's reduction for ordinary income.

Note 2: The application of the ordinary income test is affected by provisions concerning:

- business income (sections 1074 and 1075);

the person is taken to receive on each day in the periodic payments period an amount calculated by dividing the amount received by the number of days in the periodic payments period.

Note: For periodic payments period see section 17.

How to calculate a person's ordinary income free area

1066A-F3 A person's ordinary income free area is worked out using Table F-1. Work out which family situation in Table F-1 applies to the person. The ordinary income free area is the corresponding amount in column 3.

1066A-G1 This Module applies to a person and, if the person is a member of a couple, the person's partner.

Lump sum payments arising from termination of employment

1066A-G2 Subject to points 1066A-G4 to 1066A-G14 (inclusive), if:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) as a result the person is entitled to a lump sum payment from the person's former employer;

the person is taken to have received the lump sum payment on the day on which the person's employment was terminated.

Certain leave payments taken to be ordinary income—employment continuing

1066A-G4 If:

- (a) a person is employed; and
- (b) the person is on leave for a period; and

Section 1066A

- (c) the person is or was entitled to receive a leave payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise) in respect of a part or all of a leave period;

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Certain payments taken to be ordinary income—employment terminated

1066A-G5 If:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) the person receives a termination payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise);

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the period to which the payment relates.

More than one termination payment on a day

1066A-G6 If:

- (a) a person is covered by point 1066A-G5; and
- (b) the person receives more than one termination payment on a day;

the income maintenance period is worked out by adding the periods to which the payments relate.

Start of income maintenance period—employment continuing

1066A-G7 If a person is covered by point 1066A-G4, the income maintenance period starts on the first day of the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Module G Payments taken to be ordinary income

Section 1066A

Start of income maintenance period—employment terminated

1066A-G8 If a person is covered by point 1066A-G5, the income maintenance period starts, subject to point 1066A-G9, on the day on which the person is paid the termination payment.

Commencement of income maintenance period where there is a second termination payment

1066A-G9 If:

- (a) a person who is covered by point 1066A-G5 is subject to an income maintenance period (the first period); and
- (b) the person is paid another termination payment during that period (the second termination payment);

the income maintenance period for the second termination payment starts on the day after the end of the first period.

Leave payments or termination payments in respect of periods longer than a fortnight

1066A-G10 If:

- (a) a person receives a leave payment or termination payment; and
- (b) the payment is in respect of a period longer than a fortnight; the person is taken to receive in a payment fortnight or part of a payment fortnight an amount calculated by:
  - (c) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the period to which the payment relates (the daily rate); and
  - (d) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the payment fortnight that are also in the period.

1066A-G11 If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while an income maintenance period applies to the person, the Secretary may determine that the whole, or any part, of the period does not apply to the person.

Section 1066A

---

- Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).
- Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).
- Note 3: If an income maintenance period applies to a person, then, during that period:
- (a) the pension claimed may not be payable to the person; or
  - (b) the amount of the pension payable to the person may be reduced.

When a person receives a leave payment or a termination payment

1066A-G12 For the purposes of points 1066A-G4 to 1066A-G11 (inclusive), a person (the first person) is taken to receive a leave payment or termination payment if:

- (a) the payment is made to another person:
  - (i) at the direction of the first person or a court; or
  - (ii) on behalf of the first person; or
  - (iii) for the benefit of the first person; or
- (b) the first person waives or assigns his or her right to receive the payment.

Single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments

1066A-G13 If a person who is covered by point 1066A-G5 receives a single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments, then, for the purposes of the application of points 1066A-G4 to 1066A-G12 (inclusive):

- (a) each part of the payment that is in respect of a different kind of termination payment is taken to be a separate payment; and
- (b) the income maintenance period in respect of the single payment is worked out by adding the periods to which the separate payments relate.

Definitions

1066A-G14 In this Module:

leave payment includes a payment in respect of sick leave, annual leave, maternity leave and long service leave, but does not include:

- (c) if the payment is a termination payment and paragraph (b) does not apply—the period of weeks (rounded down to the nearest whole number) in respect of which the person would have received ordinary income, from the employment that was terminated, of an amount equal to the amount of the termination payment if:
  - (i) the person's employment had continued; and
  - (ii) the person received ordinary income from the employment at the rate per week at which the person usually received ordinary income from the employment prior to the termination.

redundancy payment includes a payment in lieu of notice.

termination payment includes:

Module H—Assets test

Effect of assets on maximum payment rate

1066A-H1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's assets on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the value of the person's assets.

Note 1: For the treatment of the assets of members of a couple see point 1066A-H2.

Note 2: For the assets that are to be disregarded in valuing a person's assets see section 1118.

Note 3: For the valuation of an asset that is subject to a charge or encumbrance see section 1121.

Step 2. Work out the person's assets value limit (see point 1066A-H3 below).

Note: A person's assets value limit is the maximum value of assets the person can have without affecting the person's pension rate.

Step 3. Work out whether the value of the person's assets exceeds the person's assets value limit.

Step 4. If the value of the person's assets does not exceed the person's assets value limit, the person's assets excess is nil.

Section 1066A

---

- Step 5. If the value of the person's assets exceeds the person's assets value limit, the person's assets excess is the value of the person's assets less the person's assets value limit.
- Step 6. Use the person's assets excess to work out the person's reduction for assets using points 1066A-H4 to 1066A-H7 below.

Note 1: See point 1066A-A1 Steps 10 and 11 for the significance of the person's reduction for assets.

Note 2: The application of the assets test is affected by provisions concerning disposal of assets (sections 1123 to 1128), retirement villages (sections 1145 to 1157) and financial hardship (sections 1129 and 1130).

Value of assets of members of couples

1066A-H2 For the purposes of this Module:

- (a) the value of the assets of a member of a couple is to be taken to be 50% of the sum of:
  - (i) the value of the person's assets; and
  - (ii) the value of the person's partner's assets; and
- (b) the value of the assets of a particular kind of a member of a couple is to be taken to be 50% of the sum of:
  - (i) the value of the person's assets of that kind; and
  - (ii) the value of the person's partner's assets of that kind.

Assets value limit

1066A-H3 A person's assets value limit is worked out using Table H-1. Work out the person's family situation and home ownership situation. The assets value limit is the corresponding amount in column 3.

Part 3.4B—Pension Rate Calculator E

1066B Rate of disability support pension (people under 21 who are blind)

- (1) The rate of disability support pension of a person who has not turned 21 and is permanently blind is to be calculated in accordance with the Rate Calculator at the end of this section.

Note: Module A of the Rate Calculator establishes the overall rate calculation process and the remaining Modules provide for the calculation of the component amounts used in the overall rate calculation.

- (1A) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person has one or more dependent children.

Note 1: The rate for a disability support pension payable to a person under 21 who has one or more dependent children is dealt with in section 1065.

Note 2: For dependent child see section 5.

- (2) A person's disability support pension rate is not to exceed the rate at which a disability support pension would be payable to that person if the person's rate were calculated using Pension Rate Calculator B at the end of section 1065.

- (4) Where:

- (a) a person who is permanently blind has a relationship with another person, whether of the same sex or a different sex (other person); and
- (b) the relationship between them is a de facto relationship in the Secretary's opinion (formed after the Secretary has had regard to all the circumstances of the relationship, including, in particular, the matters referred to in paragraphs 4(3)(a) to (e) and subsection 4(3A));

(c) that other person is under the age of consent applicable in the State or Territory in which the person is living;
the rate of disability support pension payable to the person who is permanently blind is not to exceed the rate at which it would be payable to the person if the other person were the person's partner.

Pension Rate Calculator E

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate

1066B-A1 The rate of pension is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the annual rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 364 (fortnightly rates are provided for information only).

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out what would be the person's rate of pension if Pension Rate Calculator D applied to the person: the result is called the notional income/assets tested rate.
- Step 2. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using MODULE B below.
- Step 2A. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module BA below.

- Step 3. Work out the amount per year for youth disability supplement using MODULE C below.

Step 4. Work out the amount per year (if any) of pharmaceutical allowance using MODULE D below.

Step 5. Add up the amounts obtained in Steps 2, 2A, 3 and 4: the result is called the maximum payment rate.

Step 6. Work out the non-income/assets tested rate by:

  - (a) subtracting from the maximum payment rate any special employment advance deduction (see Part 3.16B); and
  - (b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and
  - (c) adding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance (see Module F).

Step 7. Compare the notional income/assets tested rate and the non-income/assets tested rate: whichever is the greater is the person's rate of pension.

Note: An amount of remote area allowance is to be added under Step 6 only if the person's rate of pension after Step 5 is greater than nil.

Module B—Maximum basic rate

Maximum basic rate

(a) is in Australia; or

(b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

However, this Module does not apply if quarterly energy supplement is payable to the person.

$$\frac{\text{amount of advance} \times 26}{\text{pharmaceutical allowance rate}}$$

where:

amount of advance is the amount of the advance paid to the person.

pharmaceutical allowance rate is the yearly amount of pharmaceutical allowance which would be added to the person's maximum basic rate in working out the instalment for the day on which the advance is paid if pharmaceutical allowance were to be added to the person's maximum basic rate on that day.

No pharmaceutical allowance if annual limit reached

1066B-D6 Pharmaceutical allowance is not to be added to a person's maximum basic rate if:

- (a) the person has received an advance pharmaceutical allowance during the current calendar year; and

  - (i) pharmaceutical allowance; and
  - (ii) advance pharmaceutical allowance;

equals the total amount of pharmaceutical allowance that would have been paid to the person during that year if the person had not received any advance pharmaceutical allowance.

Note 1: For the amount paid to a person by way of pharmaceutical allowance see subsections 19A(2) to (6).

Youth Allowance Rate Calculator

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate

1067G-A1 The rate of allowance is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the fortnightly rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 14.

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using Module B below.
- Step 1A. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module BA below.
- Step 2. Work out the amount a fortnight (if any) of pharmaceutical allowance using Module C below.
- Step 2A. Work out the amount per fortnight (if any) for youth disability supplement using Module D below.
- Step 3. Work out the applicable amount per fortnight (if any) for rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(a).

Module A Overall rate calculation process

Section 1067G

Step 4. Add up the amounts obtained in Steps 1 to 3: the result is the maximum payment rate.

Step 8. If the person is not independent, work out the person's reduction for parental income using Module E.

Step 12. Apply the income test using Module H below to work out the person's income reduction.

Step 13. Take away from the maximum payment rate the greatest of the following that apply:

(a) the person's reduction for parental income;

(c) the person's income reduction.

(If a reduction described in paragraph (a) applies, and is not less than any other reduction that applies, take away from the maximum payment rate the first-mentioned reduction.) The result is the provisional fortnightly payment rate. If that rate is nil because of the taking away of a reduction described in paragraph (a) then youth allowance is not payable to the person.

Note: If a person's maximum payment rate is reduced under this step, section 1210 sets the order in which the components of that rate are to be reduced.

Step 14. The rate of allowance is the amount obtained by:

(a) subtracting from the provisional fortnightly payment rate any special employment advance deduction (see Part 3.16B); and

(b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and

- (c) except where the person is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of the period for which the rate of allowance is being worked out, adding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance (see Module K).

Module B—Maximum basic rate

Maximum basic rate

1067G-B1 The maximum basic rate of a person other than a person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of the period for which the maximum basic rate is being worked out is to be worked out as follows:

- (a) if the person is not independent (see section 1067A) and is not a long term income support student (see section 1067F)—use Table BA;
- (b) if the person is independent and is not a long term income support student—use Table BB or point 1067G-B3A;
- (c) if the person is a long term income support student—use Table BC.

The maximum basic rate of a person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of the period for which the maximum basic rate is being worked out is nil (see section 552C).

Person who is not independent

1067G-B2 If the person is not independent (see section 1067A) and is not a long term income support student (see section 1067F), work out whether the person:

- (a) lives at home (see section 1067E); or
- (b) is required to live away from home (see section 1067D).

The person's maximum basic rate is the amount in column 3 of the table that corresponds to the person's situation as described in column 2 of the table.

- (a) is receiving a payment of pension, benefit, allowance or compensation referred to in Module L; or
- (c) is receiving a payment under the ABSTUDY Scheme.

Submodule 3—Appropriate tax year

Appropriate tax year

1067G-F4 Subject to this Submodule, the appropriate tax year for a youth allowance payment period is the base tax year for that period.

Base tax year

1067G-F5 The base tax year for a youth allowance payment period is the tax year that ended on 30 June in the calendar year that came immediately before the calendar year in which the period ends.

Example: A youth allowance payment period ends on 25 January 1999—this day occurs in the calendar year 1 January 1999 to 31 December 1999—the calendar year that came immediately before this one is the calendar year 1 January 1998 to 31 December 1998—the base tax year is the tax year that ended on 30 June 1998 (i.e. the year of income that began on 1 July 1997).

Change to appropriate tax year because of increase in combined parental income

1067G-F6 If a person's combined parental income under Submodule 4 for the tax year following the base tax year exceeds:

- (a) 125% of the person's combined parental income under that Submodule for the base tax year; and
- (b) 125% of the person's parental income free area under Submodule 5;

the appropriate tax year, for the purpose of applying this Module to the person in respect of a youth allowance payment period that ends after 30 September in a year, is the tax year following the base tax year.

Change to appropriate tax year at person's request

1067G-F7 If:

- (aa) a person's combined parental income for the tax year following the base tax year is substantially less than it was in the base tax year and is likely to continue to be so for 2 years after the later of:
    - (i) 1 January in the tax year following the base tax year; or
    - (ii) the day on which the combined parental income is reduced; and
  - (a) the person requests the Secretary to make a determination under point 1067G-F8; and
  - (b) as a result, the Secretary determines under that point that, for the purpose of applying this Module to the person in respect of a youth allowance payment period that ends on or after:
    - (i) the day on which the request is made; or
    - (ii) 1 January in a year;whichever day is later, the appropriate tax year is the tax year following the base tax year;
- the appropriate tax year, for that purpose, is the tax year following the base tax year.

Person may ask Secretary to change appropriate tax year

1067G-F8 If:

- (a) youth allowance:
  - (i) is not payable to a person because the rate of youth allowance because of this Module is nil; or
  - (ii) is payable at a reduced rate because of this Module; and
- (b) the person gives the Secretary an estimate of the person's combined parental income under Submodule 4 for the tax year following the base tax year; and

- (c) the person requests the Secretary to make a determination under this point; and
- (d) the person agrees that the person's rate of youth allowance is to be recalculated if the person's actual combined parental income for that tax year exceeds the amount that the person estimated;

the Secretary must determine that, for the purpose of applying this Module to the person in respect of a youth allowance payment period that ends on or after:

- (e) the day on which the request is made; or
- (f) 1 January in a year;

whichever day is later, the appropriate tax year is the tax year following the base tax year.

Form of request

1067G-F9 A request under point 1067G-F8 must be made in writing in accordance with a form approved by the Secretary.

Submodule 4—Combined parental income

Combined parental income

1067G-F10 For the purposes of this Module, a person's combined parental income for a particular tax year is the sum of the following amounts (income components) in respect of each of the person's parents:

- (a) the parent's taxable income for that year, disregarding each parent's assessable FHSS released amount (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) for that year;
- (b) the parent's adjusted fringe benefits total for that year;
- (c) the parent's target foreign income for that year;
- (d) the parent's total net investment loss for that year;
- (da) the parent's tax free pensions or benefits for that year (worked out in accordance with clause 7 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act);

- (e) the parent's reportable superannuation contributions (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) for that year.

Note 2: For taxable income see subsection 23(1).

Note 3: For adjusted fringe benefits total see subpoint 1067G-F11(2).

Note 4: For target foreign income see subpoint 1067G-F11(3).

Note 5: For total net investment loss, see subsection 10B(2).

Income components for tax year

1067G-F11(1) A parent's taxable income for a tax year is:

- (a) the parent's assessed taxable income for that year; or
- (b) if the parent does not have an assessed taxable income for that year—the accepted estimate, in respect of the parent, of taxable income for that year.

1067G-F11(2) A parent's adjusted fringe benefits total for a tax year is the amount worked out using the formula:

Section 57A employer fringe benefits total + Other employer fringe benefits total

where:

other employer fringe benefits total is the amount that is the sum of the following:

- (a) each of the parent's reportable fringe benefits amounts for the tax year under section 135P of the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986;
- (b) each of the parent's reportable fringe benefits amounts for the tax year under section 135Q of the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986, to the extent that section relates to the parent's employment by an employer described in section 58 of that Act.

section 57A employer fringe benefits total is the amount that is the sum of each of the parent's individual quasi-fringe benefits amounts for the tax year under section 135Q of the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986, to the extent that section relates to the parent's employment by an employer described in section 57A of that Act.

1067G-F11(3) A parent's target foreign income for a tax year is the accepted estimate of the amount of the parent's foreign income (as defined in section 10A) for the tax year that is not:

- (a) taxable income; or
- (b) received in the form of a fringe benefit (as defined in the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986, as it applies of its own force or because of the Fringe Benefits Tax (Application to the Commonwealth) Act 1986) in relation to the parent as employee (as defined in the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986) and a year of tax.

Assessed taxable income

1067G-F12 A parent's assessed taxable income for a tax year at a particular time is the most recent of:

- (a) if, at that time, the Commissioner of Taxation has made an assessment or an amended assessment of that taxable income—that taxable income according to the assessment or amended assessment; or
- (b) if, at that time, a tribunal has amended an assessment or an amended assessment made by the Commissioner—that taxable income according to the amendment made by the tribunal; or
- (c) if, at that time, a court has amended an assessment or an amended assessment made by the Commissioner or an amended assessment made by a tribunal—that taxable income according to the amendment made by the court.

Accepted estimate

1067G-F13 An accepted estimate of an income component or an amount described in subpoint 1067G-F11(3), in respect of a parent, for a tax year is that income component or amount according to the most recent notice given under point 1067G-F14 and accepted by the Secretary for the purposes of this Module.

Notice estimating income component

1067G-F14 A notice setting out an estimate of an income component or an amount described in subpoint 1067G-F11(3), for a tax year, of a parent of a person claiming or receiving youth allowance may be given to the Secretary by:

- (a) the parent; or
- (b) the person claiming or receiving youth allowance.

However, if the parent gives a notice, any notice given, in respect of the same income component or amount and the same tax year, by the person claiming or receiving youth allowance is taken not to be, or not to have been, given.

Acceptance of notice

1067G-F15 The Secretary is to accept a notice referred to in point 1067G-F14 for the purposes of this Module only if the Secretary is satisfied that the estimate is reasonable.

Income reduced by maintenance paid by a parent

1067G-F20 A parent's combined parental income for a tax year is reduced by an amount equal to any maintenance paid during the tax year by the parent:

- (a) for the upkeep of a child of the parent if the parent does not have care of the child; or
- (b) to a former partner of the parent.

Submodule 5—Parental income free area

Parental income free area

1067G-F22 For the purposes of this Module, a person's parental income free area for a time in a calendar year is an amount equal to the income free area under clause 38N of Schedule 1 to the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999, as affected by indexation under Schedule 4 to that Act, on 1 January in the calendar year.

Section 1067G

Note: The parental income free area is not indexed under this Act because it is affected by indexation under the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999.

Submodule 6—If person’s combined parental income exceeds parental income free area

Having parental income in common

1067G-F26 For the purposes of this Submodule, 2 or more persons have parental income in common if:

- (a) the parental income test applies to each of them; and
- (b) a parent of one of the persons is also a parent of each of the other persons.

Note: See also points 1067G-F30 and 1067G-F31, which extend the situations in which a person will have parental income in common with other persons.

Person who does not have parental income in common with anyone else

1067G-F27 Work out a person’s parental income test result using the following formula and point 1067G-F29 if:

- (a) the person does not have parental income in common with anyone else; and
- (b) the person’s combined parental income (see Submodule 4) for the appropriate tax year exceeds the person’s parental income free area (see Submodule 5):

The excess

Note: Dividing by 130 is equivalent to dividing by 26 (for 26 fortnights in a year) and dividing again by 5 (so that the parental income test result is only 20 cents for each dollar of the excess).

Person who has parental income in common with someone else

1067G-F28 Work out a person’s parental income test result using the following formula and point 1067G-F29 if:

- (a) the person has parental income in common with one or more other persons; and

$$\frac{\text{The excess}}{130} \times \frac{\text{Person's maximum payment rate under Module A}}{\text{Total of maximum payment rate of each person who has parental income in common}}$$

Note: Dividing by 130 is equivalent to dividing by 26 (for 26 fortnights in a year) and dividing again by 5.

Rounding the parental income test result

1067G-F29 If the result of the formula in whichever of points 1067G-F27 and 1067G-F28 applies is not a multiple of 10 cents, round the result to the nearest 10 cents (rounding a multiple of 5 cents upwards).

Extension to recipients under ABSTUDY or Assistance for Isolated Children Scheme

1067G-F30 This Submodule applies in relation to a person in respect of whom a payment is made under the ABSTUDY Scheme or the Assistance for Isolated Children Scheme and to whom a parental income test under that scheme applies as if:

- (a) the parental income test under this Module applied to the person; and
- (b) the total of the amounts described in the following table as relevant to the person were the maximum payment rate for the person for the purposes of this Submodule.

---

Note: This Submodule does not (of its own force) affect the amount payable to the person under the ABSTUDY Scheme or the Assistance for Isolated Children Scheme.

Extension to FTB children and regular care children

1067G-F31 In working out a person's (the recipient's) parental income test result for the purposes of this Module:

- (a) an FTB child, or a regular care child, of someone who is a parent of the recipient is taken to be a person (a relevant sibling) who has parental income in common with the recipient; and
- (b) in using the formula in point 1067G-F28 for the recipient, the maximum payment rate for relevant siblings is  $\frac{14}{365}$  of the amount worked out under point 1067G-F32.

Note: For FTB child and regular care child, see section 23.

1067G-F32 For the purposes of paragraph 1067G-F31(b), the amount worked out under this point is the amount that would, at the time the recipient's rate of youth allowance is worked out, be the parent's maximum rate:

- (a) under step 1 of the method statement in clause 3 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act (having regard only to clauses 7 and 11 for the purposes of paragraph (a) of that step); or
- (b) if the only relevant sibling is a regular care child—under step 1 of the method statement in clause 28A of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act.

1067G-F33 In working out the parent's maximum rate for the purposes of point 1067G-F32:

- (a) assume that the parent has made a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment in accordance with the Family Assistance Administration Act; and
- (b) assume that the parent has not made an election under subsection 58A(1) of the Family Assistance Act; and
- (c) make any other assumption that the Minister, by legislative instrument, specifies.

1067G-F34 Work out the amount under point 1067G-F32 for one parent only.

1067G-F35 Count the amount worked out under point 1067G-F32 once only in using the formula in point 1067G-F28 for a recipient, regardless of how many relevant siblings the recipient has.

Module GA—Maintenance income test

Submodule 1—Maintenance income test result

Maintenance income test result

1067G-GA1 This is how to work out the maintenance income test result for a person for the purposes of the method statement in point 1067G-E1.

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out whether the person is exempt from the maintenance income test using Submodule 2. If the person is exempt, go to step 5.
- Step 2. If the person is not exempt, work out the annualised amount of maintenance income for a parent of the person (the parent's maintenance income) using Submodule 3.

Step 3. Work out the parent's maintenance income free area using Submodule 4.

Step 4. Work out whether the parent's maintenance income exceeds the parent's maintenance income free area.

Step 5. If:

- (a) the parent's maintenance income does not exceed the parent's maintenance income free area; or
- (b) the person is exempt from the maintenance income test;

then the maintenance income test result for the person is nil.

Step 6. If the parent's maintenance income exceeds the parent's maintenance income free area, multiply the excess by 0.5. The result, divided by 26, is the maintenance income test result for the person.

Submodule 2—Exemption from maintenance income test

Parent exempt from FTB maintenance income test

1067G-GA2 A person is exempt from the maintenance income test if paragraphs 19B(a) and (b) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act apply to the person's parent or to the parent's partner.

Submodule 3—Annualised amount of maintenance income for parent of a person

Annualised amount of maintenance income

clause 20 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act applied. In doing so:

- (a) assume that the person is an FTB child of the parent; and
- (b) assume that paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) are not in the step; and
- (c) only take into account maintenance income received in relation to the person; and
- (d) in working out whether maintenance income is received in relation to the person, have regard to the considerations that would apply under the Family Assistance Act; and
- (e) have regard to maintenance income for the income year in respect of which the person's rate of youth allowance is being worked out.

Submodule 4—Maintenance income free area

Main rule

1067G-GA4 The maintenance income free area for a parent of a person is:

- (a) the column 2 amount (see point 1067G-GA7); or
- (b) if another point in this Submodule applies—the amount worked out in the point.

If there are other siblings including an FTB child

1067G-GA5 This point applies if the parent of the person is also the parent of:

- (a) an FTB child in relation to whom the parent receives maintenance income; or
- (b) both:
  - (i) an FTB child in relation to whom the parent receives maintenance income; and
  - (ii) another person who is receiving youth allowance and in relation to whom the parent receives maintenance income.

The maintenance income free area for the parent is the column 3 amount (see point 1067G-GA7).

If there are other siblings but no FTB child

1067G-GA6 This point applies if the parent of the person:

- (a) is also the parent of another person (an other recipient) who is receiving youth allowance and in relation to whom the parent receives maintenance income; and
- (b) is not the parent of an FTB child in relation to whom the parent receives maintenance income.

The maintenance income free area for the parent is worked out using this formula:

$$\frac{\text{Column 2 amount} + \text{Column 3 amount for each other recipient}}{1 + \text{Number of other recipients}}$$

Definitions of column 2 amount and column 3 amount

1067G-GA7 In this Submodule:

column 2 amount means the amount specified for item 1 in column 2 of the table in clause 22 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act.

column 3 amount means the amount specified for item 1 in column 3 of the table in clause 22 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act.

Note: The amounts are indexed under Schedule 4 of the Family Assistance Act.

Receiving maintenance income in relation to a person

1067G-GA8 In working out whether a parent of a person receives maintenance income in relation to an FTB child or other person, have regard to the considerations that would apply under the Family Assistance Act.

Effect of ordinary income on maximum payment rate

1067G-H1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's ordinary income, and the ordinary income of a partner of the person, on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ordinary income on a fortnightly basis (where appropriate, taking into account the matters provided for in points 1067G-H2 to 1067G-H25).

Step 2. If the person is a member of a couple, work out the partner income free area using point 1067G-H26.

Note: The partner income free area is the maximum amount of ordinary income the person's partner can have without affecting the person's benefit.

Step 3. Use point 1067G-H27 to work out the person's partner income excess. (If there is no partner income excess under that point, the person's partner income excess is taken to be nil.)

Step 4. Use the person's partner income excess to work out the person's partner income reduction using point 1067G-H28.

Step 5. Use point 1067G-H30 to work out the person's ordinary income excess. (If there is no ordinary income excess under that point, the person's ordinary income excess is taken to be nil.)

Step 6. Use the person's ordinary income excess to work out the person's ordinary income reduction using points 1067G-H31, 1067G-H32 and 1067G-H33.

Section 1067G

---

Step 7. Add the person's partner income reduction and ordinary income reduction: the result is the person's income reduction referred to in Step 12 of the Method statement in point 1067G-A1.

Note 1: For ordinary income see subsection 8(1).

Note 2: The application of the income test is affected by provisions concerning:

- (a) the general concept of ordinary income and the treatment of certain income amounts (Division 1 of Part 3.10);
- (b) business income (sections 1074 and 1075);
- (c) income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term)) (Division 1B of Part 3.10);
- (d) income from income streams not covered by Division 1B of Part 3.10 (Division 1C of Part 3.10);
- (e) disposal of income (sections 1106 to 1111).

Ordinary income of members of certain couples

1067G-H2 If a person is a member of a couple and the person's partner is receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment, the person's ordinary income is taken to be one half of the sum of:

- (a) the amount that would be the person's ordinary income if he or she were not a member of a couple; and
- (b) the amount that would be the ordinary income of the person's partner if the partner were not a member of a couple.

Friendly society amounts

1067G-H3 The ordinary income of a person:

- (a) who has a temporary incapacity exemption under section 542A; or
- (b) who is a partner of a person who has a temporary incapacity exemption under that section; is not to include any amount received from an approved friendly society in respect of the incapacity to which the temporary incapacity exemption relates.

is not to include any amount received from an approved friendly society in respect of the incapacity that resulted in the determination.

Lump sum payments arising from termination of employment

1067G-H4 Subject to points 1067G-H11 to 1067G-H20 (inclusive), if:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) as a result the person is entitled to a lump sum payment from the person's former employer;

the person is taken to have received the lump sum payment on the day on which the person's employment was terminated.

Ordinary income to include certain sick leave entitlements

~~1067G-H5 If a person is qualified for youth allowance and has a temporary incapacity exemption under section 542A, the person's ordinary income is taken to include an amount equal to the amount in respect of sick leave worked out under points 1067G-H6, 1067G-H7 and 1067G-H8.~~

Ordinary income to include certain sick leave entitlements

1067G-H5 If a person is qualified for youth allowance and the person:

- (a) has a temporary incapacity exemption under section 542A; or the person's ordinary income is taken to include an amount equal to the amount in respect of sick leave worked out under points 1067G-H6, 1067G-H7 and 1067G-H8.

Sick leave entitlements

1067G-H6 If:

- (a) a person has sick leave entitlements on a day that the person is incapacitated for work; and
- (b) the person has the right to claim payment from the person's employer by way of sick leave payment in respect of that day; and
- (c) the person's employer is able to pay the person the person's sick leave payment in respect of that day; and
- (d) the person is not receiving a leave payment (other than a sick leave payment) in respect of that day;

the person is, for the purposes of this point, taken to have received a sick leave payment equal to the person's sick leave entitlements in respect of that day, assuming that the person does not exercise any rights the person may have in relation to the amount to be paid in respect of that day.

Subsequent consecutive applications of point 1067G-H6

1067G-H7 If point 1067G-H6 has applied to a person in respect of a day, then, for the purposes of any subsequent consecutive applications of the point, the person's sick leave entitlements are to be taken to be reduced by a day.

Sick leave payments already included in ordinary income

1067G-H8 A person's ordinary income is not to include a payment received by the person in respect of sick leave to the extent that an amount equal to the payment has been included in the person's ordinary income under point 1067G-H5.

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Certain termination payments taken to be ordinary income

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the period to which the payment relates.

Exception to points 1067G-H11 and 1067G-H12

1067G-H12A Point 1067G-H11 or 1067G-H12 does not apply in relation to a person's entitlement referred to in paragraph 1067G-H11(c) or in relation to a person's termination payment referred to in paragraph 1067G-H12(b) if:

- (a) the person makes a claim for youth allowance on or after the commencement of this point; and
- (b) the person makes the claim after the death of the person's partner on or after the commencement of this point; and
- (c) if the person is a man or a woman who was not pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; and
- (d) if the person is a woman who was pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim:
  - (i) in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; or
  - (ii) in the period starting on the day of the death of the partner and ending when the child is born or the woman otherwise stops being pregnant;whichever ends later; and
- (e) the entitlement referred to in paragraph 1067G-H11(c) arose, or the termination payment referred to in paragraph 1067G-H12(b) was paid, in the period applicable under paragraph (c) or (d) of this point.

More than one termination payment on a day

the income maintenance period is worked out by adding the periods to which the payments relate.

Start of income maintenance period—employment continuing

1067G-H14 If the person is covered by point 1067G-H11, the income maintenance period starts on the first day of the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Start of income maintenance period—employment terminated

1067G-H14A Subject to point 1067G-H14C, if the person is covered by point 1067G-H12, the income maintenance period starts, subject to point 1067G-H14B, on the day the person is paid the termination payment.

Commencement of income maintenance period where there is a second termination payment

1067G-H14B If a person who is covered by point 1067G-H12 is subject to an income maintenance period (the first period) and the person is paid another termination payment during that period (the second leave payment), the income maintenance period for the second termination payment commences the day after the end of the first period.

Start of income maintenance period where liquid assets test waiting period applies 1067G-H14C If a person to whom point 1067G-H14A applies is subject to a liquid assets test waiting period, the income maintenance period is taken to have started on the day on which the liquid assets test waiting period started.

Leave payments or termination payments in respect of periods longer than a fortnight

1067G-H15 Subject to points 1067G-H5 to ~~1067G-H9~~1067G-H8 (inclusive), if:
(a) a person receives a leave payment or termination payment;
and

Section 1067G

(b) the payment is in respect of a period greater than a fortnight; the person is taken to receive in a payment fortnight or part of a payment fortnight an amount calculated by:

- (c) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the period to which the payment relates (daily rate); and
- (d) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the payment fortnight that are also in the period.

1067G-H16 If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while an income maintenance period applies to the person, the Secretary may determine that the whole, or any part, of the period does not apply to the person.

Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).

Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).

Note 3: If an income maintenance period applies to a person, then, during that period:

- (a) the allowance claimed may not be payable to the person; or
- (b) the amount of the allowance payable to the person may be reduced.

When a person receives a leave payment or a termination payment

1067G-H17 For the purposes of points 1067G-H6 to 1067G-H16 (inclusive), a person (first person) is taken to receive a leave payment or termination payment if the payment is made to another person:

- (a) at the direction of the first person or a court; or
- (b) on behalf of the first person; or
- (c) for the benefit of the first person; or
- (d) the first person waives or assigns the first person's right to receive the payment.

Single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments

1067G-H18 If a person who is covered by point 1067G-H12 receives a single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments, then, for the purposes of the application of points 1067G-H11 to 1067G-H17 (inclusive), each part of the payment that is in respect of a different kind of termination payment is taken to be a separate payment and the income maintenance period in respect of the single payment is worked out by adding the periods to which the separate payments relate.

Definitions

1067G-H19 In points 1067G-H11 to 1067G-H18 (inclusive):

payment fortnight means a fortnight in respect of which a youth allowance is paid, or would be paid apart from the application of an income maintenance period, to a person.

period to which the payment relates means:

- (a) if the payment is a leave payment—the leave period to which the payment relates; or
- (b) if the payment is a termination payment and is calculated as an amount equivalent to an amount of ordinary income that the person would (but for the termination) have received from the employment that was terminated—the period for which the person would have received that amount of ordinary income; or
- (c) if the payment is a termination payment and paragraph (b) does not apply—the period of weeks (rounded down to the nearest whole number) in respect of which the person would have received ordinary income, from the employment that was terminated, of an amount equal to the amount of the termination payment if:
  - (i) the person's employment had continued; and
  - (ii) the person received ordinary income from the employment at the rate per week at which the person usually received ordinary income from the employment prior to the termination.

redundancy payment includes a payment in lieu of notice.

termination payment includes:

- (a) a redundancy payment; and
- (b) a leave payment relating to a person's employment that has been terminated; and
- (c) any other payment that is connected with the termination of a person's employment.

Meaning of leave payment

1067G-H20 In points 1067G-H5 to 1067G-H19 (inclusive):

leave payment includes a payment in respect of sick leave, annual leave, maternity leave and long service leave, but does not include:

- (a) an instalment of parental leave pay; or
- (b) dad and partner pay.

Board and lodging

1067G-H22 A person's ordinary income is not to include a payment to the person for board or lodging provided by the person to a parent, child, brother or sister of the person.

Ordinary income generally taken into account when first earned, derived or received

1067G-H23 Subject to points 1067G-H23A, 1067-H23B, 1067G-H24 and 1067G-H25 and sections 1072A and 1073, ordinary income (except employment income) is to be taken into account in the fortnight in which it is first earned, derived or received.

Claimant or recipient receives lump sum amount for remunerative work

1067G-H23A If a person whose claim for youth allowance has been granted receives, after the claim was made, a lump sum amount that:

- (a) is paid to him or her in relation to remunerative work; and
- (b) is not a payment to which point 1067G-H24 applies; and
- (c) is not an exempt lump sum; and
- (d) is not employment income;

the person is, for the purposes of this Module, taken to receive one fifty-second of that amount as ordinary income during each week in the 12 months commencing on the day on which the person becomes entitled to receive that amount.

Partner of claimant or recipient receives lump sum amount for remunerative work

1067G-H23B If:

- (a) a person whose claim for youth allowance has been granted is a member of a couple; and
- (b) after the person had made the claim, the person's partner receives a lump sum amount that:
  - (i) is paid to him or her in relation to remunerative work; and
  - (ii) is not a payment to which point 1067G-H24 applies; and
  - (iii) is not an exempt lump sum; and
  - (iv) is not employment income;

the partner is, for the purposes of this Module, taken to receive one fifty-second of that amount as ordinary income during each week in the 12 months commencing on the day on which the partner becomes entitled to receive that amount.

Operation of points 1067G-H23A and 1067G-H23B

1067G-H23C Points 1067G-H23A and 1067G-H23B have effect even if the person who has made the claim:

Section 1067G

---

- (a) is subject to a liquid assets test waiting period or an income maintenance period in respect of the allowance claimed; or
  - (b) is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period;
- during the period of 12 months referred to in those points.

Ordinary income received at intervals longer than one fortnight

1067G-H24 Subject to points 1067G-H11 to 1067G-H20 (inclusive), if:

- (a) a person receives a number of payments of ordinary income (except employment income); and
- (b) each payment is in respect of a period (work period) that is greater than a fortnight; and
- (c) there is reasonable predictability or regularity as to the timing of the payments; and
- (d) there is reasonable predictability as to the quantum of the payments;

the person is taken to receive in a fortnight falling within, or overlapping with, a work period an amount calculated by:

- (e) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the work period (daily rate); and
- (f) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the fortnight that are also within the work period.

Payment of arrears of periodic compensation payments

1067G-H25 If:

- (a) at the time of an event that gives rise to an entitlement of a person to compensation, the person is receiving youth allowance; and
- (b) in relation to that entitlement, the person receives a payment of arrears of periodic compensation;

the person is taken to receive, in a fortnight falling within, or overlapping with, the periodic payments period, an amount calculated by:

- (c) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the periodic payments period (daily rate); and

- (d) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the fortnight that are also within the periodic payments period.

Note: For periodic payments period see section 17.

Partner income free area

1067G-H26 The partner income free area for a person is:

- (a) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has not turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which youth allowance would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a youth allowance and were not undertaking full-time study (see section 541B); or
- (b) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which jobseeker payment would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a jobseeker payment; or
- (c) if the person's partner is receiving a social security benefit—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which that benefit would not be payable to the partner.

1067G-H26A For the purposes of paragraph 1067G-H26(a), disregard steps 2, 2A and 3 of the method statement in point 1067G-A1.

1067G-H26B For the purposes of paragraph 1067G-H26(b), disregard steps 2 and 3 of the method statement in point 1068-A1.

Partner income excess

1067G-H27 If:

- (a) a person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person's partner is not receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and

Section 1067G

---

- (c) the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area for the partner;

then:

- (d) the person has a partner income excess; and
- (e) the person's partner income excess is the amount by which the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area.

Partner income reduction

1067G-H28 If a person has a partner income excess, the person's partner income reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the person's partner income excess.

Example:

Facts: Alice's partner Martin has an ordinary income of $800. Assume that the partner income free area under point 1067G-H26 is $640.

Result: Martin's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area. Alice therefore has a partner income excess under point 1067G-H27 of:

$$$800 - $640 = $160$$

Alice's partner income reduction under point 1067G-H28 is therefore:

$$60\% \times $160 = $96$$

Ordinary income free area

1067G-H29 A person's ordinary income free area is:

- (a) if the person is undertaking full-time study at any time in the fortnight in respect of which a youth allowance may be payable, other than in compliance with a requirement contained in an employment pathway plan that is in force in relation to the person—$400; or
- (aa) if the person is a new apprentice at any time in the fortnight in respect of which a youth allowance may be payable—$400; or
- (b) otherwise—$150.

Ordinary income excess

1067G-H30 If a person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area:

- (a) the person has an ordinary income excess; and
- (b) the person's ordinary income excess is the amount by which the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area.

Ordinary income reduction

1067G-H31 If a person has an ordinary income excess, the person's ordinary income reduction is the sum of:

- (a) the person's lower range reduction (if any)(see point 1067G-H32); and
- (b) the person's upper range reduction (if any) (see point 1067G-H33).

Lower range reduction

1067G-H32 The person's lower range reduction is an amount equal to 50% of the part of the person's ordinary income excess that does not exceed:

- (a) if the person is undertaking full-time study at any time in the fortnight in respect of which a youth allowance may be payable, other than in compliance with a requirement contained in an employment pathway plan that is in force in relation to the person—$80; or
- (b) if the person is a new apprentice at any time in the fortnight in respect of which a youth allowance may be payable—$80; or
- (c) otherwise—$100.

Upper range reduction

1067G-H33 The person's upper range reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the part (if any) of the person's ordinary income excess that exceeds:

- (a) if the person is undertaking full-time study at any time in the fortnight in respect of which a youth allowance may be payable, other than in compliance with a requirement contained in an employment pathway plan that is in force in relation to the person—$80; or
- (b) if the person is a new apprentice at any time in the fortnight in respect of which a youth allowance may be payable—$80; or
- (c) otherwise—$100.

- (b) if it is to be reduced, the amount of the reduction.

Application of this Module

1067G-J2 This Module applies to a person during a particular fortnight, in respect of which youth allowance may be payable to the person, if the person is undertaking full-time study (see section 541B) or is a new apprentice (see subsection 23(1)) at any time during the fortnight.

Income bank credit

1067G-J3 A person's income bank credit for a particular income bank fortnight of the person is to be worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Assume that the person's income bank credit, at the time this Module starts applying to the person, is an opening balance of zero.
- Step 2. If, for the person's first income bank fortnight, the person has an income credit under point 1067G-J4, add it to the opening balance.
- Step 3. For each subsequent income bank fortnight of the person, up to but not including the fortnight in question, either:
- (a) if the person has an income credit for that fortnight under point 1067G-J4 and the person is not a new apprentice—add it to the balance of the person's income bank credit in respect of all the previous fortnights, but not so as to increase the balance beyond $10,000; or
  - (aa) if the person has an income credit for that fortnight under point 1067G-J4 and the person is a new apprentice—add it to the balance of the person's income bank credit in respect of all the previous fortnights, but not so as to increase the balance beyond $1,000; or

- (b) if the person has, in respect of that fortnight, drawn from the person's income bank credit under point 1067G-J5—deduct from that balance the amount drawn, but not so as to reduce the balance below zero.

The result is the person's income bank credit for the fortnight in question.

Income credit

1067G-J4 For the purposes of point 1067G-J3, if the amount that would, apart from this Module, be the person's ordinary income for an income bank fortnight of the person is less than the ordinary income free area (see paragraph 1067G-H29(a) or (aa)):

- (a) the person has an income credit for that fortnight; and
- (b) the income credit is an amount equal to the difference between the ordinary income free area (see paragraph 1067G-H29(a) or (aa)) and the first-mentioned amount.

Drawing from income bank credit

1067G-J5 For the purposes of point 1067G-J3, if the amount that would, apart from this Module, be the person's ordinary income for an income bank fortnight of the person is greater than the ordinary income free area (see paragraph 1067G-H29(a) or (aa)):

- (a) the person is taken to have drawn from the person's income bank credit in respect of that fortnight; and
- (b) the amount drawn is taken to be an amount equal to the difference between the first-mentioned amount and the ordinary income free area (see paragraph 1067G-H29(a) or (aa)).

Income bank fortnight

1067G-J6 For the purposes of this Module, an income bank fortnight of a person is any fortnight, in respect of which youth allowance may be payable to the person, during the whole or a part of which this Module applies to the person.

Opening balance following cancellation of another social security pension or benefit

1067G-J7 If:

- (a) a person ceases to be a working credit participant because of a determination to cancel, or an automatic cancellation of, the person's social security pension or social security benefit; and
- (b) the person had a working credit balance greater than nil immediately before the date of effect of the determination or cancellation; and
- (c) the person makes a claim, or is taken to have made a claim, for a youth allowance; and
- (d) the Secretary determines that the claim is to be granted with effect from a day within 12 months after the date of effect mentioned in paragraph (b); and
- (e) the person becomes a person to whom this Module applies on a day (the module application day), being either the day with effect from which the claim is granted or a day following that day;

the working credit balance mentioned in paragraph (b) becomes the opening balance of the income bank credit applicable to the person on the module application day.

- (a) a person ceases to be a working credit participant because of a determination to suspend the person's social security pension or social security benefit; and
- (b) while the person's pension or benefit is suspended, there is a determination to cancel the person's pension or benefit; and

- (b) the person's partner has an FTB child or a regular care child; and
- (c) the person's partner is not receiving additional allowance for the child;

the child is taken, for the purposes of this Module, to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, (as the case requires) of the person.

Special rule dealing with the death of an FTB or regular care child

1067G-K9 If an FTB child, or a regular care child, of a person dies, this Module has effect, for a period of 14 weeks after the death of the child, as if the child had not died.

Note: This point does not prevent this Module having the effect it would have had if the child would otherwise have ceased to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, during that 14 weeks.

Austudy Payment Rate Calculator

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate

1067L-A1 The rate of payment is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the fortnightly rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 14.

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using Module B below.
- Step 1A. Work out the pension supplement amount (if any) using Module BA below.
- Step 1B. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module BB below.
- Step 2. Work out the amount a fortnight (if any) of pharmaceutical allowance using Module C below.
- Step 2A. Work out the applicable amount per fortnight (if any) for rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(a).
- Step 3. Add up the amounts obtained in Steps 1, 1A, 1B, 2 and 2A: the result is the maximum payment rate.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.5A Austudy Payment Rate Calculator

Module B Maximum basic rate

Section 1067L

Step 4. Apply the income test using Module D below to work out the person's income reduction.

Step 5. Take away the person's income reduction from the maximum payment rate: the result is the provisional fortnightly payment rate.

Note: If a person's rate is reduced under this step, the order in which the reduction is to be made is laid down by section 1210.

Step 6. The rate of payment is the amount obtained by:

- (a) subtracting from the provisional fortnightly payment rate any special employment advance deduction (see Part 3.16B); and
- (b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and
- (c) adding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance (see Module F).

Module B—Maximum basic rate

Maximum basic rate

1067L-B1 A person's maximum basic rate is to be worked out as follows:

- (a) if the person is not a long term income support student (see section 1067K)—use Table BA;
- (b) if the person is a long term income support student—use point 1067L-B3.

Person who is not a long term income support student

1067L-B2(1) If the person is not a long term income support student (see section 1067K), work out:

- (b) whether the person has a dependent child (see subsections 5(2) to (9)); and
- (c) if the person is not a member of a couple, whether the person has a YA child (see subpoint (2)).

The person's maximum basic rate is the amount in column 3 of the table that corresponds to the person's situation as described in column 2 of the table.

Table BA—Maximum basic rates (persons who are not long term income support students)

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3
Item	Person's situation	Rate
1	Does not have a dependent child or a YA child	$512.50
2	Is a member of a couple and has a dependent child	$557.90
3	Is not a member of a couple and has a dependent child or YA child	$656

Note: The rates in column 3 are indexed annually in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191–1194).

(2) In this point:

YA child, in relation to a person who is not a member of a couple, means a child who is receiving youth allowance, is under 18 years of age and would be a dependent child of the person if he or she were not receiving the allowance.

Person who is a long term income support student

1067L-B3 If the person is a long term income support student (see section 1067K), work out whether the person is a member of a couple (see section 4).

Module BA—Pension supplement

Pension supplement

1067L-BA1 A pension supplement amount is to be added to the person's maximum basic rate if the person is residing in Australia, has reached pension age and:

- (a) is in Australia; or
- (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

1067L-BA2 The person's pension supplement amount is:

- (a) if an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force—the amount worked out under point 1067L-BA4; and
- (b) otherwise—the amount worked out under point 1067L-BA3.

Amount if no election in force

1067L-BA3 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out by:

- (a) applying the applicable percentage in the following table to the combined couple rate of pension supplement; and
- (b) dividing the result by 26; and

Note: For combined couple rate of pension supplement, see subsection 20A(1).

Amount if election in force

1067L-BA4 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out as follows:

- work out the amount for the person under point 1067L-BA3 as if the election were not in force;
- from that amount, subtract  $\frac{1}{26}$  of the person's minimum pension supplement amount.

Module BB—Energy supplement

1067L-BB1 An energy supplement is to be added to the person's (the recipient's) maximum basic rate if the recipient is residing in Australia and:

- is in Australia; or
- is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

However, this Module does not apply if quarterly energy supplement is payable to the recipient.

Module D—Income test

Effect of ordinary income on maximum payment rate

1067L-D1 This is how to work out the effect of:

- (a) a person's ordinary income; and
  - (b) the ordinary income of a partner of the person;
- on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ordinary income on a fortnightly basis (where appropriate, taking into account the matters provided for in points 1067L-D2 to 1067L-D24).

Step 2. If the person is a member of a couple, work out the partner income free area using point 1067L-D25.

Note: The partner income free area is the maximum amount of ordinary income the person's partner can have without affecting the person's benefit.

Step 3. Use point 1067L-D26 to work out the person's partner income excess. (If there is no partner income excess under that point, the person's partner income excess is taken to be nil.)

Step 4. Use the person's partner income excess to work out the person's partner income reduction using point 1067L-D27.

Note 1: For ordinary income see subsection 8(1).

Note 2: The application of the income test is affected by provisions concerning the following:

- (a) the general concept of ordinary income and the treatment of certain income amounts (Division 1 of Part 3.10);
- (b) business income (sections 1074 and 1075);
- (c) income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term)) (Division 1B of Part 3.10);
- (d) income from income streams not covered by Division 1B of Part 3.10 (Division 1C of Part 3.10);

Ordinary income of members of certain couples

1067L-D2 If a person is a member of a couple and the person's partner is receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment, the person's ordinary income is taken to be one half of the sum of:

- (b) the person receives more than one termination payment on a day;

the income maintenance period is worked out by adding the periods to which the payments relate.

Start of income maintenance period—employment continuing

Leave payments or termination payments in respect of periods longer than a fortnight

1067L-D11 If:

- (a) a person receives a leave payment or termination payment; and
- (b) the payment is in respect of a period longer than a fortnight; the person is taken to receive in a payment fortnight or part of a payment fortnight an amount calculated by:
- (c) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the period to which the payment relates (daily rate); and
- (d) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the payment fortnight that are also in the period.

1067L-D12 If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while an income maintenance period applies to the person, the Secretary may determine that the whole, or any part, of the period does not apply to the person.

Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).

Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).

Note 3: If an income maintenance period applies to a person, then, during that period:

- (a) the allowance claimed may not be payable to the person; or
- (b) the amount of the allowance payable to the person may be reduced.

When a person receives a leave payment or a termination payment

1067L-D13 For the purposes of points 1067L-D5 to 1067L-D12 (inclusive), a person (first person) is taken to receive a leave payment or termination payment if:

Single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments

1067L-D14 If a person who is covered by point 1067L-D6 receives a single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments, then, for the purposes of the application of points 1067L-D5 to 1067L-D13 (inclusive):

- (a) each part of the payment that is in respect of a different kind of termination payment is taken to be a separate payment; and
- (b) the income maintenance period in respect of the single payment is worked out by adding the periods to which the separate payments relate.

Definitions

1067L-D15 In points 1067L-D5 to 1067L-D14 (inclusive):

payment fortnight means a fortnight in respect of which an austudy payment is paid, or would be paid apart from the application of an income maintenance period, to a person.

period to which the payment relates means:

- (a) if the payment is a leave payment—the leave period to which the payment relates; or
- (b) if the payment is a termination payment and is calculated as an amount equivalent to an amount of ordinary income that the person would (but for the termination) have received from the employment that was terminated—the period for which the person would have received that amount of ordinary income; or
- (c) if the payment is a termination payment and paragraph (b) does not apply—the period of weeks (rounded down to the nearest whole number) in respect of which the person would have received ordinary income, from the employment that

- (i) the person's employment had continued; and
- (ii) the person received ordinary income from the employment at the rate per week at which the person usually received ordinary income from the employment prior to the termination.

redundancy payment includes a payment in lieu of notice.

termination payment includes:

- (a) a redundancy payment; and
- (b) a leave payment relating to a person's employment that has been terminated; and
- (c) any other payment that is connected with the termination of a person's employment.

Meaning of leave payment

1067L-D16 In points 1067L-D5 to 1067L-D15 (inclusive):

leave payment includes a payment in respect of sick leave, annual leave, maternity leave and long service leave, but does not include:

- (a) an instalment of parental leave pay; or
- (b) dad and partner pay.

Board and lodging

1067L-D18 A person's ordinary income is not to include a payment to the person for board or lodging provided by the person to a parent, child, brother or sister of the person.

Ordinary income generally taken into account when first earned, derived or received

1067L-D19 Subject to points 1067L-D20, 1067L-D21, 1067L-D23 and 1067L-D24 and sections 1072A and 1073, ordinary income (except employment income) is to be taken into account in the fortnight in which it is first earned, derived or received.

Claimant or recipient receives lump sum amount for remunerative work

1067L-D20 If a person whose claim for austudy payment has been granted receives, after the claim was made, a lump sum amount that:

- (a) is paid to him or her in relation to remunerative work; and
- (b) is not a payment to which point 1067L-D21 applies; and
- (c) is not an exempt lump sum; and
- (d) is not employment income;

the person is, for the purposes of this Module, taken to receive one fifty-second of that amount as ordinary income during each week in the 12 months commencing on the day on which the person becomes entitled to receive that amount.

Partner of claimant or recipient receives lump sum amount for remunerative work

1067L-D21 If:

- (a) a person whose claim for austudy payment has been granted is a member of a couple; and
- (b) after the person has made the claim, the person's partner receives a lump sum amount that:
  - (i) is paid to him or her in relation to remunerative work; and
  - (ii) is not a payment to which point 1067L-D23 applies; and
  - (iii) is not an exempt lump sum; and
  - (iv) is not employment income;

the partner is, for the purposes of this Module, taken to receive one fifty-second of that amount as ordinary income during each week in the 12 months commencing on the day on which the partner becomes entitled to receive that amount.

Operation of points 1067L-D20 and 1067L-D21

1067L-D22 Points 1067L-D20 and 1067L-D21 have effect even if the person who has made the claim:

- (a) is subject to a liquid assets test waiting period or an income maintenance period in respect of the allowance claimed; or
  - (b) is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period;
- during the period of 12 months referred to in those points.

Ordinary income received at intervals longer than one fortnight

1067L-D23 Subject to points 1067L-D5 to 1067L-D16 (inclusive), if:

- (a) a person receives a number of payments of ordinary income (except employment income); and
- (b) each payment is in respect of a period (work period) that is greater than a fortnight; and
- (c) there is reasonable predictability or regularity as to the timing of the payments; and
- (d) there is reasonable predictability as to the quantum of the payments;

the person is taken to receive in a fortnight falling within, or overlapping with, a work period an amount calculated by:

- (e) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the work period (daily rate); and
- (f) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the fortnight that are also within the work period.

Payment of arrears of periodic compensation payments

1067L-D24 If:

- (a) at the time of an event that gives rise to an entitlement of a person to compensation, the person is receiving an austudy payment; and

- (b) in relation to that entitlement, the person receives a payment of arrears of periodic compensation;
the person is taken to receive, in a fortnight falling within, or overlapping with, the periodic payments period, an amount calculated by:
- (c) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the periodic payments period (daily rate); and
- (d) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the fortnight that are also within the periodic payments period.

Note: For periodic payments period see section 17.

Partner income free area

1067L-D25 The partner income free area for a person is:

- (a) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has not turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which youth allowance would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a youth allowance and were not undertaking full-time study (see section 541B); or
- (b) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which jobseeker payment would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a jobseeker payment; or
- (c) if the person's partner is receiving a social security benefit—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which that benefit would not be payable to the partner.

1067L-D25A For the purposes of paragraph 1067L-D25(a), disregard steps 2, 2A and 3 of the method statement in point 1067G-A1.

1067L-D25B For the purposes of paragraph 1067L-D25(b), disregard steps 2 and 3 of the method statement in point 1068-A1.

Partner income excess

1067L-D26 If:

- (a) a person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person's partner is not receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and
- (c) the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area for the partner;

then:

- (d) the person has a partner income excess; and
- (e) the person's partner income excess is the amount by which the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area.

Partner income reduction

1067L-D27 If a person has a partner income excess, the person's partner income reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the person's partner income excess.

Example:

Facts: Alice's partner Martin has an ordinary income of $800. Assume that the partner income free area under point 1067L-D25 is $640.

Result: Martin's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area. Alice therefore has a partner income excess under point 1067L-D26 of:

$$$800 - $640 = $160$$

Alice's partner income reduction under point 1067L-D27 is therefore:

$$60\% \times $160 = $96$$

Ordinary income free area

1067L-D28 A person's ordinary income free area is $400.

Ordinary income excess

- 1067L-D29 If a person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area:
- (a) the person has an ordinary income excess; and
  - (b) the person's ordinary income excess is the amount by which the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area.

Ordinary income reduction

- 1067L-D30 If a person has an ordinary income excess, the person's ordinary income reduction is the sum of:
- (a) the person's lower range reduction (if any) (see point 1067L-D31); and
  - (b) the person's upper range reduction (if any) (see point 1067L-D32).

Lower range reduction

- 1067L-D31 The person's lower range reduction is an amount equal to 50% of the part of the person's ordinary income excess that does not exceed $80.

Upper range reduction

- 1067L-D32 The person's upper range reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the part (if any) of the person's ordinary income excess that exceeds $80.

Module E—Student income bank

Student income bank

- 1067L-E1 A person's ordinary income under Module D may be reduced under this Module. This diagram sets out how to work out:
- (a) whether the person's ordinary income for a particular fortnight in respect of which austudy payment may be payable to the person, is to be reduced; and

(b) if it is to be reduced, the amount of the reduction.

Income bank credit

1067L-E2 A person's income bank credit for a particular income bank fortnight of the person is to be worked out as follows:

Method statement

Step 1. Assume that the person's income bank credit, at the time this Module starts applying to the person, is an opening balance of zero.

OFFICIAL: Sensitive // Legal Privilege

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.5A Austudy Payment Rate Calculator

Module E Student income bank

Section 1067L

---

Step 2. If, for the person's first income bank fortnight, the person has an income credit under point 1067L-E3, add it to the opening balance.

Step 3. For each subsequent income bank fortnight of the person, up to but not including the fortnight in question, either:

(a) if the person has an income credit for that fortnight under point 1067L-E3 and the person is not a new apprentice—add it to the balance of the person's income bank credit in respect of all the previous fortnights, but not so as to increase the balance beyond $10,000; or

(aa) if the person has an income credit for that fortnight under point 1067L-E3 and the person is a new apprentice—add it to the balance of the person's income bank credit in respect of all the previous fortnights, but not so as to increase the balance beyond $1,000; or

(b) if the person has, in respect of that fortnight, drawn from the person's income bank credit under point 1067L-E4—deduct from that balance the amount drawn, but not so as to reduce the balance below zero.

The result is the person's income bank credit for the fortnight in question.

Section 1067L

Income credit

1067L-E3 For the purposes of point 1067L-E2, if the amount that would, apart from this Module, be the person's ordinary income for an income bank fortnight of the person is less than the ordinary income free area (see point 1067L-D28):

- (a) the person has an income credit for that fortnight; and
- (b) the income credit is an amount equal to the difference between the ordinary income free area (see point 1067L-D28) and the first-mentioned amount.

Drawing from income bank credit

1067L-E4 For the purposes of point 1067L-E2, if the amount that would, apart from this Module, be the person's ordinary income for an income bank fortnight of the person is greater than the ordinary income free area (see point 1067L-D28):

- (a) the person is taken to have drawn from the person's income bank credit in respect of that fortnight; and
- (b) the amount drawn is taken to be an amount equal to the difference between the first-mentioned amount and the ordinary income free area (see point 1067L-D28).

Income bank fortnight

1067L-E5 For the purposes of this Module, an income bank fortnight of a person is any fortnight in respect of which an austudy payment may be payable to the person.

Opening balance following cancellation of another social security pension or benefit

1067L-E6 If:

- (a) a person ceases to be a working credit participant because of a determination to cancel, or an automatic cancellation of, the person's social security pension or social security benefit; and

- (b) the person had a working credit balance greater than nil immediately before the date of effect of the determination or cancellation; and
- (c) the person makes a claim, or is taken to have made a claim, for an austudy payment; and
- (d) the Secretary determines that the claim is to be granted with effect from a day within 12 months after the date of effect mentioned in paragraph (b); and
- (e) the person becomes a person to whom this Module applies on a day (the module application day), being either the day with effect from which the claim is granted or a day following that day; and
- (f) the person has not reached pension age before the module application day;

the working credit balance mentioned in paragraph (b) becomes the opening balance of the income bank credit applicable to the person on the module application day.

Opening balance following suspension and subsequent cancellation of another social security pension or benefit

1067L-E7 If:

- (a) a person ceases to be a working credit participant because of a determination to suspend the person's social security pension or social security benefit; and
- (b) while the person's pension or benefit is suspended, there is a determination to cancel the person's pension or benefit; and
- (c) the person had a working credit balance greater than nil immediately before the date of effect of the suspension determination; and
- (d) the person makes a claim, or is taken to have made a claim, for an austudy payment; and
- (e) the Secretary determines that the claim is to be granted with effect from a day within 12 months after the date of effect mentioned in paragraph (c); and
- (f) the person becomes a person to whom this Module applies on a day (the module application day), being either the day with effect from which the claim is granted or a day following that day; and

- (g) the person has not reached pension age before the module application day;

the working credit balance mentioned in paragraph (c) becomes the opening balance of the income bank credit applicable to the person on the module application day.

Module F—Remote area allowance

Remote area allowance—person physically in remote area

1067L-F1 An amount by way of remote area allowance is to be added to a person's rate of austudy payment if:

- (a) the person's rate of austudy payment apart from this point is greater than nil; and
- (b) the person's usual place of residence is situated in the remote area; and
- (c) the person is physically present in the remote area.

Note 1: For remote area see subsection 14(1).

Note 2: A person may be considered to be physically present in a remote area during temporary absences (see subsection 14(2)).

Rate of remote area allowance

1067L-F2 A person's rate of remote area allowance is worked out using Table F. Work out which family situation in the table applies to the person. The rate of remote area allowance is the corresponding amount in column 3 plus the additional corresponding amount in column 4 for each FTB child, and each regular care child, of the person.

1	Not a member of a couple	$18.20	$7.30
2	Partnered	$15.60	$7.30
3	Member of an illness separated couple	$18.20	$7.30
4	Partnered (partner in gaol)	$18.20	$7.30

Note: For member of a couple, partnered, illness separated couple and partnered (partner in gaol) see section 4.

Meaning of remote area allowance

1067L-F3 In Table F, remote area allowance means an amount added to a person's austudy payment by way of remote area allowance.

In remote area

1067L-F4 For the purposes of Table F, a person is in the remote area if:

- (a) the person's usual place of residence is in the remote area;
and
- (b) the person is physically present in the remote area.

Special rule if partner has an FTB or regular care child but is not receiving a pension

(c) the person's partner has an FTB child or a regular care child; the child is taken, for the purposes of this Module, to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, (as the case requires) of the person.

Special rule if partner has an FTB or regular care child but is not receiving additional allowance for the child

1067L-F7 If:

(a) an additional allowance is to be included in the rate of remote area allowance for a person who is a member of a couple; and

(b) the person's partner has an FTB child or a regular care child; and

(c) the person's partner is not receiving additional allowance for the child;

the child is taken, for the purposes of this Module, to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, (as the case requires) of the person.

Special rule dealing with the death of an FTB or regular care child

1067L-F9 If an FTB child, or a regular care child, of a person dies, this Module has effect, for a period of 14 weeks after the death of the child, as if the child had not died.

Note: This point does not prevent this Module having the effect it would have had if the child would otherwise have ceased to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, during that 14 weeks.

Chapter 3—General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.6—Benefit Rate Calculator B

1068 Rate of widow allowance, jobseeker payment (18 or over), partner allowance, and mature age allowance under Part 2.12B

- (1) The rate of:
- (a) jobseeker payment; or
  - (c) partner allowance; or
  - (ca) mature age allowance under Part 2.12B; or
  - (d) widow allowance;
- is to be calculated in accordance with the Rate Calculator at the end of this section.

Note: Module A of the Rate Calculator establishes the overall rate calculation process and the remaining Modules provide for the calculation of the component amounts used in the overall rate calculation.

- (2) If:
- (a) a person has a relationship with another person, whether of the same sex or a different sex (other person); and
  - (b) the relationship between them is a de facto relationship in the Secretary's opinion (formed after the Secretary has had regard to all the circumstances of the relationship, including, in particular, the matters referred to in paragraphs 4(3)(a) to (e) and subsection 4(3A));
  - (c) the other person is under the age of consent applicable in the State or Territory in which the person is living;
- the person's benefit rate is not to exceed the rate at which it would be payable to the person if the other person were the person's partner.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.6 Benefit Rate Calculator B

Module A Overall rate calculation process

Section 1068

---

Note: This provision has the effect of taking into account the ordinary income and assets of the partner in applying the ordinary income test and assets test respectively.

Rate of benefit limited for certain armed services widows

(3) If:

- (a) an armed services widow is receiving a pension under Part II or IV of the Veterans' Entitlements Act at a rate determined under or by reference to subsection 30(1) of that Act; and
- (b) the widow has been receiving a payment referred to in paragraph (a) continuously since before 1 November 1986; and
- (c) before 1 November 1986 the widow was also receiving a social security benefit; the rate of benefit payable to the widow is not to be increased:

- (d) if, immediately before 1 November 1986, the widow was receiving a social security benefit at a rate less than $124.90 per fortnight—to a rate greater than $124.90 per fortnight; or
- (e) if, immediately before 1 November 1986, the widow was receiving a social security benefit at a rate equal to or greater than $124.90 per fortnight—to a rate greater than the rate at which it was payable immediately before 1 November 1986.

Note 1: A benefit is not payable to a widow who starts to get a payment referred to in subsection (3) after 1 November 1986—see sections 408CF, 614, 660YCF and 771HI.

Note 2: For armed services widow see subsection 4(1).

Benefit Rate Calculator B

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate

1068-A1 The rate of benefit is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the fortnightly rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 14.

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using MODULE B below.
- Step 1A. Work out the pension supplement amount (if any) using Module BA below.
- Step 1B. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module C below.
- Step 2. Work out the amount per fortnight (if any) of pharmaceutical allowance using MODULE D below.
- Step 3. Work out the applicable amount per fortnight (if any) for rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(a).
- Step 4. Add up the amounts obtained in Steps 1 to 4: the result is called the maximum payment rate.
- Step 5. Apply the income test using MODULE G below to work out the income reduction.
- Step 6. Take the income reduction away from the maximum payment rate: the result is called the provisional fortnightly payment rate.
- Step 7. The rate of benefit is the amount obtained by:
- (a) subtracting from the provisional fortnightly payment rate any special employment advance deduction (see Part 3.16B); and
  - (b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and

|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

- Note 1: If a person's rate is reduced under step 6, the order in which the reduction is to be made against the components of the maximum payment rate is laid down by section 1210.
- Note 2: In some circumstances a person may also be qualified for a pharmaceutical allowance under Part 2.22.
- Note 3: An amount of remote area allowance is to be added under paragraph (c) of step 7 only if the conditions in point 1068-J1 are satisfied.

Module B—Maximum basic rate

Maximum basic rate

- 1068-B1 The maximum basic rate of a person other than a person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of the period for which the maximum basic rate is being worked out is worked out using Table B. Work out the person's family situation and whether the person has a dependent child or not. The maximum basic rate is the corresponding amount in the rate column. The maximum basic rate of a person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of the period for which the maximum basic rate is being worked out is nil (see sections 408CG, 614A, 660YCH and 771HK).

Section 1068

Note 8: Some recipients of jobseeker payment have a maximum basic rate based on the maximum basic rate under the Pension PP (Single) Rate Calculator (see point 1068-B5).

Certain children who are not young persons are to be treated as dependent children

1068-B1A If:

- (a) a person is not a member of a couple; and
  - (b) the person has at least one natural child, adopted child or relationship child who has turned 16 but has not turned 18; and
  - (c) either:
    - (i) a social security benefit is payable to the child; or
    - (ii) if the person is receiving jobseeker payment—a disability support pension is payable to the child; and
  - (d) the child is substantially dependent on the person;
- the person's maximum basic rate is worked out as if the person had a dependent child.

Certain children treated as dependent children if in recipient's care for at least minimum period

1068-B1B The maximum basic rate for a person receiving jobseeker payment is worked out as if the person had a dependent child if:

- (a) either:
  - (i) the person is legally responsible (whether alone or jointly with another person) for the day-to-day care, welfare and development of a child under 16; or
  - (ii) under a family law order, registered parenting plan or parenting plan that is in force, a child under 16 is supposed to live or spend time with the person; and
- (b) the child is in the person's care for at least 14% of:
  - (i) the instalment period in relation to which the maximum basic rate is being worked out; or

Section 1068

---

- (ii) if the Secretary, under point 1068-B1C, determines another period for the person for the purposes of this subparagraph—that other period; and
- (c) none of subsections 5(3), (6) and (7) prevents the child from being a dependent child of the person; and
- (d) the person is not a member of a couple.

Note: For family law order, registered parenting plan and parenting plan see subsection 23(1).

1068-B1C The Secretary may, in writing, determine a period of either 14 days or 28 days for the purposes of subparagraph 1068-B1B(b)(ii). In making the determination, the Secretary must have regard to the guidelines (if any) determined under point 1068-B1E.

1068-B1D A determination made under point 1068-B1C is not a legislative instrument.

1068-B1E The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, determine guidelines to be complied with when making a determination under point 1068-B1C.

Certain dependent children to be disregarded

1068-B2 For the purposes of items 4A and 4B of Table B in point 1068-B1, if:

- (a) a person has a dependent child; and
- (b) the child has turned 18; and
- (c) the child is a prescribed student child;

the child is to be disregarded in working out the person's maximum basic rate under that point.

Note: For prescribed student child see section 5.

1068-B3 On 20 March 1994 the amounts specified in items 3, 4, 4A and 4B in column 3B of Table B in point 1068-B1 are increased by $6.00. The increase is to be made after the indexation of the amounts on that day has occurred.

Section 1068

---

- 1068-B4 The amounts in items 3, 4, 4A and 4B in columns 3A and 3B of Table B in point 1068-B1 are to be indexed on 20 September 1993 and 20 March 1994 under section 1192 as if Part 2 of the Social Security Amendment Act (No. 2) 1993 had commenced on 1 September 1993.

Maximum basic rate for certain jobseeker payment recipients

- 1068-B5 Despite point 1068-B1, if a person:
- (a) is not a member of a couple; and
  - (b) receives jobseeker payment; and
  - (c) is not required to ~~satisfy the activity test because of a determination in relation to the person under subsection 602C(3) or (3A)~~satisfy the employment pathway plan requirements because of a determination that is in effect under subsection 40P(2) of the Administration Act because of paragraph 40P(2)(a) or (b) of that Act;

the person's maximum basic rate is the amount worked out as follows:

Pension PP (Single) maximum basic amount 26

where:

Module G—Income test

Effect of ordinary income on maximum payment rate

- 1068-G1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's ordinary income, and the ordinary income of a partner of the person, on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ordinary income on a fortnightly basis.
- Note: For the treatment of amounts received from friendly societies, see point 1068-G4.
- Step 2. If the person is a member of a couple, work out the partner income free area using point 1068-G9.
- Note: The partner income free area is the maximum amount of ordinary income the person's partner may have without affecting the person's benefit.
- Step 3. Use paragraphs 1068-G10(a), (b) and (c) to work out whether the person has a partner income excess.
- Step 4. If the requirements of paragraphs 1068-G10(a), (b) and (c) are not satisfied then the person's partner income excess is nil.
- Step 5. If the requirements of paragraphs 1068-G10(a), (b) and (c) are satisfied, the person's partner income excess is the partner's ordinary income less the partner income free area.

Income test Module G

Section 1068

---

- Step 6. Use the person's partner income excess to work out the person's partner income reduction using point 1068-G11.
- Step 7. Work out whether the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area under point 1068-G12.
- Note: A person's ordinary income free area is the maximum amount of ordinary income the person may have without affecting the person's benefit rate.
- Step 8. If the person's ordinary income does not exceed the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is nil.
- Step 9. If the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is the person's ordinary income less the person's ordinary income free area.
- Step 10. Use the person's ordinary income excess to work out the person's ordinary income reduction using points 1068-G14, 1068-G15, 1068-G16 and 1068-G17.
- Step 11. Add the person's partner income reduction and ordinary income reduction: the result is the person's income reduction referred to in Step 5 of point 1068-A1.

Note 1: For ordinary income see section 8.

Note 2: See point 1068-A1 (Steps 6 to 9) for the significance of the person's income reduction.

Note 3: The application of the ordinary income test is affected by provisions concerning:

- the general concept of ordinary income and the treatment of certain income amounts (Division 1 of Part 3.10);
- business income (sections 1074 and 1075);
- income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term)) (Division 1B of Part 3.10);

- 1068-G2 Subject to point 1068-G3, if a person is a member of a couple and the person's partner is receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment, the person's ordinary income is taken to be one half of the sum of:
- (a) the amount that would be the person's ordinary income if he or she were not a member of a couple; and
  - (b) the amount that would be the ordinary income of the person's partner if the partner were not a member of a couple.

Friendly society amounts

- 1068-G4 The ordinary income of a person to whom, or to whose partner, jobseeker payment is payable and who, or whose partner, ~~under Subdivision BA of Division 1 of Part 2.12, is not required to satisfy the activity test~~ is not required to satisfy the employment pathway plan requirements because of a determination that is in effect under section 40L of the Administration Act and that has been made because of the circumstance referred to in paragraph 40L(5)(a) of that Act, is not to include any amount received by the person or partner from an approved friendly society in respect of the incapacity because of which the person or partner is not required to satisfy ~~the activity test~~ those employment pathway plan requirements.

1068-G7AM If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while an income maintenance period applies to the person, the Secretary may determine that the whole, or any part, of the period does not apply to the person.

- (a) has to serve an ordinary waiting period or a liquid assets test waiting period in respect of the payment or allowance claimed; or
  - (b) is subject to an income maintenance period in respect of the payment or allowance claimed; or
  - (c) is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period;
- during the period of 12 months referred to in those points.

Ordinary income received at intervals longer than one fortnight

1068-G8 Subject to points 1068-G7AF to 1068-G7AR (inclusive), if:

- (a) a person receives a number of payments of ordinary income (except employment income); and
- (b) each payment is in respect of a period (in this point called the work period) that is greater than a fortnight; and
- (c) there is reasonable predictability or regularity as to the timing of the payments; and
- (d) there is reasonable predictability as to the quantum of the payments;

the person is taken to receive in a fortnight falling within, or overlapping with, a work period an amount calculated by:

- (e) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the work period (the result is called the daily rate); and
- (f) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the fortnight that are also within the work period.

Payment of arrears of periodic compensation payments

1068-G8A If:

- (a) at the time of an event that gives rise to an entitlement of a person to compensation, the person is receiving jobseeker payment; and

---

Section 1068

---

(b) in relation to that entitlement, the person receives a payment of arrears of periodic compensation;

the person is taken to receive in a fortnight falling within, or overlapping with, the periodic payments period, an amount calculated by:

(c) dividing the amount received by the number of days in the periodic payments period (the result is called the daily rate); and

(d) multiplying the daily rate by the number of days in the fortnight that are also within the periodic payments period.

Note: For periodic payments period see section 17.

Partner income free area

1068-G9 The partner income free area for a person is:

- (a) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has not turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which youth allowance would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a youth allowance and were not undertaking full-time study (see section 541B); or
- (b) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which jobseeker payment would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a jobseeker payment; or
- (c) if the person's partner is receiving a social security benefit—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which that benefit would not be payable to the partner.

1068-G9A For the purposes of paragraph 1068-G9(a), disregard steps 2, 2A and 3 of the method statement in point 1067G-A1.

1068-G9B For the purposes of paragraph 1068-G9(b), disregard steps 2 and 3 of the method statement in point 1068-A1.

Section 1068

---

Partner income excess

1068-G10 If:

- (a) a person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person's partner is not receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and
- (c) the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area for the partner;

then:

- (d) the person has a partner income excess; and
- (e) the person's partner income excess is the amount by which the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area.

Partner income reduction

1068-G11 If a person has a partner income excess, the person's partner income reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the part of the partner's ordinary income that exceeds the partner income free area.

Example:

Facts: Susan's partner Colin has an ordinary income of $800. Assume that the partner income free area under point 1068-G9 is $640.

Application: Colin's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area. He therefore has a partner income excess under point 1068-G10 of:

$$$800 - $640 = $160$$

Susan's partner income reduction under point 1068-G11 is therefore:

$$60\% \times $160 = $96$$

Ordinary income free area

1068-G12 A person's ordinary income free area is $150.

Note: The income free area is used in the ordinary income test in relation to fortnightly income.

Section 1068

---

Ordinary income excess

- 1068-G13 If a person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area:
- (a) the person has an ordinary income excess; and
  - (b) the person's ordinary income excess is the amount by which the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area.

Ordinary income reduction—general

- 1068-G14 Subject to point 1068-G17, if a person has an ordinary income excess, the person's ordinary income reduction is the sum of:
- (a) the person's lower range reduction (see point 1068-G15); and
  - (b) the person's upper range reduction (if any) (see point 1068-G16).

Lower range reduction

- 1068-G15 The person's lower range reduction is an amount equal to 50% of the part of the person's ordinary income excess that does not exceed $106.

Upper range reduction

- 1068-G16 The person's upper range reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the part (if any) of the person's ordinary income excess that exceeds $106.

Ordinary income reduction for certain recipients of jobseeker payment

- 1068-G17 If:
- (a) a person has an ordinary income excess; and
  - (b) the person is receiving jobseeker payment; and
  - (c) the person is not a member of a couple; and
  - (d) the person is the principal carer of a child;

Section 1068

---

the person's ordinary income reduction is an amount equal to 40% of the person's ordinary income excess.

Module J—Remote area allowance

Remote area allowance—person physically in remote area

- 1068-J1 An amount by way of remote area allowance is to be added to a person's rate if:
- (aa) any of the following subparagraphs applies:
    - (i) apart from this point, the person's rate would be greater than nil;
    - (ii) apart from this point, the person's rate would be nil merely because an advance pharmaceutical allowance has been paid to the person under Part 2.23 of this Act;
    - (iii) apart from this point, the person's rate would be nil merely because an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force;
    - (iv) apart from this point, the person's rate would be nil merely because of both of the matters mentioned in subparagraphs (ii) and (iii); and
  - (a) the person's usual place of residence is situated in the remote area; and
  - (b) the person is physically present in the remote area.

Note 1: For remote area see subsection 14(1).

Note 2: A person may be considered to be physically present in a remote area during temporary absences—see subsection 14(2).

Rate of remote area allowance

- 1068-J3 The rate of remote area allowance payable to a person is worked out using Table J. Work out which family situation in the Table applies to the person. The rate of remote area allowance is the corresponding amount in column 3 plus an additional corresponding amount in column 4 for each FTB child, and regular care child, of the person.

Section 1068

Table J

Remote area allowance

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4
Item	Person's family situation	Basic allowance	Additional allowance for each FTB child and regular care child
1.	Not member of couple	$18.20	$7.30
2.	Partnered	$15.60	$7.30
3.	Member of illness separated couple	$18.20	$7.30
5.	Partnered (partner in gaol)	$18.20	$7.30

Meaning of remote area allowance

1068-J4 In Table J, remote area allowance means:

- (a) an amount added to a person's social security pension or benefit by way of remote area allowance; or
- (b) a remote area allowance payable under point SCH6-G1 of the VEA.

In remote area

1068-J5 For the purposes of Table J in point 1068-J3, a person is in the remote area if:

- (a) the person's usual place of residence is in the remote area; and
- (b) the person is physically present in the remote area.

Section 1068

---

Special rule where partner has an FTB or regular care child but is not receiving a pension

1068-J7 If:

- (a) a person who is a member of a couple is qualified for an amount by way of additional allowance; and
- (b) the person's partner is not receiving a pension or benefit; and
- (c) the person's partner has an FTB child or a regular care child; the child is taken, for the purposes of this Module, to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, (as the case requires) of the person.

Special rule where partner has an FTB or regular care child but is not receiving additional allowance for the child

1068-J8 If:

- (a) a person who is a member of a couple is qualified for an amount by way of remote area allowance; and
- (b) the person's partner has an FTB child or a regular care child; and
- (c) the person's partner is not receiving additional allowance for the child;

the child is taken, for the purposes of this Module, to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, (as the case requires) of the person.

Special rule dealing with the death of an FTB or regular care child

1068-J9 If an FTB child, or a regular care child, of a person dies, this Module has effect, for a period of 14 weeks after the death of the child, as if the child had not died.

Note: This point does not prevent this Module having the effect it would have had if the child would otherwise have ceased to be an FTB child, or a regular care child, during that 14 weeks.

Part 3.6A—Parenting Payment Rate Calculator

1068A Rate of parenting payment—pension PP (single)

- (1) If a person is not a member of a couple, the person's rate of parenting payment is the pension PP (single) rate.
- (2) The pension PP (single) rate is worked out in accordance with the rate calculator at the end of this section.

Note: For rate of a person who is a member of a couple see section 1068B.

- (3) If:
  - (a) a person has a relationship with another person, whether of the same sex or a different sex (the other person); and
  - (b) the relationship between them is a de facto relationship in the Secretary's opinion (formed after the Secretary has had regard to all the circumstances of the relationship, including, in particular, the matters referred to in paragraphs 4(3)(a) to (e) and subsection 4(3A)); and
  - (c) either or both of them are under the age of consent applicable in the State or Territory in which they are living;the person's pension PP (single) rate is not to exceed the benefit PP (partnered) rate which would be payable to the person if the other person were the person's partner.

Pension PP (Single) Rate Calculator

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate

1068A-A1 The rate of pension PP (single) is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the annual rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 364 (fortnightly rates are provided for information only).

Section 1068A

---

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using Module B below.
- Step 1A. Work out the amount of pension supplement using Module BA below.
- Step 1B. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module BB below.
- Step 2. Work out the amount per year (if any) of pharmaceutical allowance using Module C below.
- Step 3. Work out the amount per year (if any) for rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(b).
- Step 4. Add up the amounts obtained in Steps 1, 1A, 1B, 2 and 3: the result is called the maximum payment rate.
- Step 5. Apply the ordinary income test using Module E below to work out the income reduction.
- Step 6. Take the income reduction away from the maximum payment rate: the result is called the provisional annual payment rate.
- Step 7. The rate of pension PP (single) is the amount obtained by:
- (a) subtracting from the provisional annual payment rate any special employment advance deduction (see Part 3.16B); and
  - (b) if there is any amount remaining, subtracting from that amount any advance payment deduction (see Part 3.16A); and

(c) adding any amount payable by way of remote area allowance (see Module F).
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------

- Note 1: If a person's rate is reduced under Step 6, the order in which the reduction is to be made against the components of the maximum payment rate is laid down by section 1210.
- Note 2: In some circumstances a person may also be qualified for a pharmaceutical allowance under Part 2.22.
- Note 3: An amount of remote area allowance is to be added under Step 7 only if the person's provisional payment rate under Step 6 is greater than nil.

Module B—Maximum basic rate

Maximum basic rate

1068A-B1 A person's maximum basic rate is $21,470.80 per year ($825.80 per fortnight).

Note: The maximum basic rate is indexed 6 monthly in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

Module BA—Pension supplement

Pension supplement

1068A-BA1 A pension supplement amount is to be added to the person's maximum basic rate.

Residents of pension age who are in Australia etc.

1068A-BA2 If the person is residing in Australia, has reached pension age and:

- (a) is in Australia; or
- (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks;

the person's pension supplement amount is:

- (c) if an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force—the amount worked out under point 1068A-BA4; and
- (d) otherwise—the amount worked out under point 1068A-BA3.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.6A Parenting Payment Rate Calculator

Module BB Energy supplement

Section 1068A

---

Residents of pension age in Australia etc.—no election in force

1068A-BA3 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out by:

- (a) working out 66.33% of the combined couple rate of pension supplement; and
- (b) if the result is not a multiple of $2.60, rounding the result up or down to the nearest multiple of $2.60 (rounding up if the result is not a multiple of $2.60 but is a multiple of $1.30).

Note: For combined couple rate of pension supplement, see subsection 20A(1).

Residents of pension age in Australia etc.—election in force

1068A-BA4 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out as follows:

- (a) work out the amount for the person under point 1068A-BA3 as if the election were not in force;
- (b) from that amount, subtract the person's minimum pension supplement amount.

Other persons

1068A-BA5 If the person is not covered by point 1068A-BA2, the person's pension supplement amount is the person's pension supplement basic amount.

Module BB—Energy supplement

1068A-BB1 An energy supplement is to be added to the person's (the recipient's) maximum basic rate if the recipient is residing in Australia and:

- (a) is in Australia; or
- (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

However, this Module does not apply if quarterly energy supplement is payable to the recipient.

Note: Section 918 may affect the addition of the energy supplement.

---

Section 1068A

---

Recipient has reached pension age

1068A-BB2 If the recipient has reached pension age, the recipient's energy supplement is $366.60.

Recipient has not reached pension age

1068A-BB3 If the recipient has not reached pension age, the recipient's energy supplement is $312.00.

Module C—Pharmaceutical allowance

Qualification for pharmaceutical allowance

1068A-C1 Subject to points 1068A-C1A, 1068A-C2, 1068A-C3 and 1068A-C5, an additional amount by way of pharmaceutical allowance is to be added to a person's maximum basic rate if the person is an Australian resident.

No pharmaceutical allowance if person has reached pension age

1068A-C1A Pharmaceutical allowance is not to be added to a person's maximum basic rate if the person has reached pension age.

No pharmaceutical allowance if person receiving certain supplements under other Acts

- (a) veterans supplement under section 118A of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; or
- (b) MRCA supplement under section 300 of the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act; or
- (c) pharmaceutical supplement under Part 3A of the Australian Participants in British Nuclear Tests and British Commonwealth Occupation Force (Treatment) Act 2006; or
- (d) pharmaceutical supplement under Part 4 of the Treatment Benefits (Special Access) Act 2019.

Section 1068A

---

No pharmaceutical allowance before advance payment period ends

1068A-C3 Pharmaceutical allowance is not to be added to a person's maximum basic rate if:

- (a) the person has received an advance pharmaceutical allowance under Part 2.23 of this Act; and
- (b) the person's advance payment period has not ended.

Note: For advance payment period see point 1068A-C4.

Advance payment period

1068A-C4(1) A person's advance payment period starts on the day on which the advance pharmaceutical allowance is paid to the person.

- (2) The period ends after the number of paydays worked out using the following formula have passed:

$$\frac{\text{Amount of advance} \times 26}{\text{Pharmaceutical allowance rate}}$$

where:

amount of advance is the amount of the advance paid to the person.

pharmaceutical allowance rate is the yearly amount of pharmaceutical allowance which would be added to the person's maximum basic rate in working out the person's rate of pension PP (single) on the day on which the advance is paid if pharmaceutical allowance were to be added to the person's maximum basic rate on that day.

No pharmaceutical allowance if annual limit reached

1068A-C5 Pharmaceutical allowance is not to be added to a person's maximum basic rate if:

- (a) the person has received an advance pharmaceutical allowance during the current calendar year; and
- (b) the total amount paid to the person for that year by way of:

Section 1068A

---

(i) pharmaceutical allowance; and

(ii) advance pharmaceutical allowance;

equals the total amount of pharmaceutical allowance that would have been paid to the person during that year if the person had not received any advance pharmaceutical allowance.

Note 1: For the amount paid to a person by way of pharmaceutical allowance see subsections 19A(2) to (7).

Note 2: The annual limit is affected by the following:

- (a) how long during the calendar year the person was on pension or benefit;
- (b) the rate of pharmaceutical allowance the person attracts at various times depending on the person's family situation.

Amount of pharmaceutical allowance

1068A-C7 The amount of pharmaceutical allowance is $140.40 per year ($5.40 per fortnight).

Note: The annual amount is adjusted annually in line with CPI increases (see section 1206A).

Module E—Ordinary income test

Effect of income on maximum payment rate

1068A-E1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's ordinary income on the person's maximum payment rate:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ordinary income on a yearly basis.
- Step 2. Work out the person's ordinary income free area (see points 1068A-E14 to 1068A-E18 below).

Section 1068A

---

Note: A person's ordinary income free area is the amount of ordinary income that the person can have without any deduction being made from the person's maximum payment rate.

Step 3. Work out whether the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area.

Step 4. If the person's ordinary income does not exceed the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is nil.

Step 5. If the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is the person's ordinary income less the person's ordinary income free area.

Step 6. Use the person's ordinary income excess to work out the person's reduction for ordinary income using points 1068A-E19 and 1068A-E20 below.

Note 1: See point 1068A-A1 (Steps 5 and 6) for the significance of the person's reduction for ordinary income.

Note 2: The application of the ordinary income test is affected by provisions concerning the following:

- (a) the general concept of ordinary income and the treatment of certain income amounts (Division 1 of Part 3.10);
- (b) business income (sections 1074 and 1075);
- (c) income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term)) (Division 1B of Part 3.10);
- (d) income from income streams not covered by Division 1B of Part 3.10 (Division 1C of Part 3.10);
- (e) disposal of income (sections 1106 to 1111).

Directed termination payments excluded

1068A-E2 If:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and

Section 1068A

---

- (b) as a result the person is entitled to a lump sum payment from the person's former employer; and
- (c) the payment, or part of the payment, is a directed termination payment within the meaning of section 82-10F of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997;

the payment, or that part, is to be disregarded in working out the ordinary income of the person for the purposes of this Module.

Certain leave payments taken to be ordinary income—employment continuing

1068A-E3 If:

- (a) a person is employed; and
- (b) the person is on leave for a period; and
- (c) the person is or was entitled to receive a leave payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise) in respect of a part or all of the leave period;

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Certain termination payments taken to be ordinary income

1068A-E4 If:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) the person receives a termination payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise);

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the period to which the payment relates.

More than one termination payment on a day

1068A-E5 If:

- (a) the person is covered by point 1068A-E4; and

Section 1068A

---

- (b) the person receives more than one termination payment on a day;

the income maintenance period is worked out by adding the periods to which the payments relate.

Start of income maintenance period—employment continuing

- 1068A-E6 If the person is covered by point 1068A-E3, the income maintenance period starts on the first day of the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Start of income maintenance period—employment terminated

- 1068A-E7 If the person is covered by point 1068A-E4, the income maintenance period starts, subject to point 1068A-E8, on the day the person is paid the termination payment.

Commencement of income maintenance period where there is a second termination payment

- 1068A-E8 If a person who is covered by point 1068A-E4 is subject to an income maintenance period (the first period) and the person is paid another termination payment during that period (the second leave payment), the income maintenance period for the second termination payment commences on the day after the end of the first period.

- 1068A-E9 If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while an income maintenance period applies to the person, the Secretary may determine that the whole, or any part, of the period does not apply to the person.

Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple).

Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).

Note 3: If an income maintenance period applies to a person, then, during that period:

- (a) the pension PP (single) claimed may not be payable to the person; or

Section 1068A

---

- (b) the amount of the pension PP (single) payable to the person may be reduced.

When a person receives a leave payment or a termination payment

- 1068A-E10 For the purposes of points 1068A-E2 to 1068A-E9 (inclusive), a person (the first person) is taken to receive a leave payment or termination payment if the payment is made to another person:
- (a) at the direction of the first person or a court; or
  - (b) on behalf of the first person; or
  - (c) for the benefit of the first person; or
- the first person waives or assigns the first person's right to receive the payment.

Single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments

- 1068A-E11 If a person who is covered by point 1068A-E4 receives a single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments, then, for the purposes of the application of points 1068A-E3 to 1068A-E10 (inclusive), each part of the payment that is in respect of a different kind of termination payment is taken to be a separate payment and the income maintenance period in respect of the single payment is worked out by adding the periods to which the separate payments relate.

Definitions

- 1068A-E12 In points 1068A-E3 to 1068A-E12 (inclusive):

leave payment includes a payment in respect of sick leave, annual leave, maternity leave and long service leave, but does not include:

- (a) an instalment of parental leave pay; or
- (b) dad and partner pay.

period to which the payment relates means:

- (a) if the payment is a leave payment—the leave period to which the payment relates; or

Section 1068A

- (b) if the payment is a termination payment and is calculated as an amount equivalent to an amount of ordinary income that the person would (but for the termination) have received from the employment that was terminated—the period for which the person would have received that amount of ordinary income; or
- (c) if the payment is a termination payment and paragraph (b) does not apply—the period of weeks (rounded down to the nearest whole number) in respect of which the person would have received ordinary income, from the employment that was terminated, of an amount equal to the amount of the termination payment if:
  - (i) the person's employment had continued; and
  - (ii) the person received ordinary income from the employment at the rate per week at which the person usually received ordinary income from the employment prior to the termination.

redundancy payment includes a payment in lieu of notice, but does not include a directed termination payment within the meaning of section 82-10F of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997.

termination payment includes:

- (a) a redundancy payment; and
- (b) a leave payment relating to a person's employment that has been terminated; and
- (c) any other payment that is connected with the termination of a person's employment.

Payment of arrears of periodic compensation payments

1068A-E13 If:

- (a) at the time of an event that gives rise to an entitlement of a person to compensation, the person is receiving a compensation affected payment; and
- (b) in relation to that entitlement, the person receives a payment of arrears of periodic compensation;

Section 1068A

the person is taken to receive, on each day in the periodic payments period, an amount calculated by dividing the amount received by the number of days in the periodic payments period.

Note: For compensation affected payment and periodic payments period see section 17.

How to calculate a person's ordinary income free area

1068A-E14 A person's ordinary income free area is worked out using Table E. The ordinary income free area is the amount in Column 2 plus the additional amount in Column 4 for each dependent child of the person.

Table E—Ordinary income free area

Column 1 Item	Column 2 Basic free area per year	Column 3 Basic free area per fortnight	Column 4 Additional free area per year	Column 5 Additional free area per fortnight
1	$2,600	$100	$639.60	$24.60

Note 1: For dependent child see section 5 and point 1068A-E21.

Note 2: The basic free area per year is indexed annually in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

No additional free area for certain prescribed student children

1068A-E15 No additional free area is to be added for a dependent child who:
(a) has turned 18; and
(b) is a prescribed student child;
unless the person whose rate is being calculated receives carer allowance for the child.

Reduction of additional free area for dependent children

1068A-E16 The additional free area for a dependent child is reduced by the annual amount of any payment received by the person for or in respect of that particular child. The payments referred to in point 1068A-E17 do not result in a reduction.

Part 3.6A Parenting Payment Rate Calculator

Module E Ordinary income test

Section 1068A

---

Payments that do not reduce additional free area

1068A-E17 No reduction is to be made under point 1068A-E16 for a payment:

- (a) under this Act; or
- (b) of maintenance income; or
- (c) under the Veterans' Entitlements Act; or
- (d) under an Aboriginal study assistance scheme; or
- (e) under the Assistance for Isolated Children Scheme.

Note: For Aboriginal study assistance scheme see subsection 23(1).

Examples of payments reducing additional free area

1068A-E18 Examples of the kinds of payments that result in a reduction under point 1068A-E16 are:

- (a) amounts received from State authorities or registered public benevolent institutions in respect of the boarding out of the child; or
- (b) amounts of superannuation or compensation paid in respect of the child; or
- (c) amounts (other than amounts covered by point 1068A-E17) paid in respect of the child under educational schemes; or
- (d) foster care allowance payments made by a State welfare authority.

Ordinary income excess

1068A-E19 A person's ordinary income excess is the person's ordinary income less the person's ordinary income free area.

Reduction for ordinary income

1068A-E20 A person's reduction for ordinary income is:

Ordinary income excess  $\times$  0.4

1068A-E21 In this Module:

dependent child, in relation to a person, includes any child of the person who is under 18 and is receiving a youth allowance.

Module F—Remote area allowance

Remote area allowance

1068A-F1 An amount by way of remote area allowance is to be added to a person's rate if:

- (a) any of the following subparagraphs applies:
  - (i) apart from this point, the person's rate would be greater than nil;
  - (ii) apart from this point, the person's rate would be nil merely because an advance pharmaceutical allowance has been paid to the person under Part 2.23 of this Act;
  - (iii) apart from this point, the person's rate would be nil merely because an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force;
  - (iv) apart from this point, the person's rate would be nil merely because of both of the matters mentioned in subparagraphs (ii) and (iii); and
- (b) the person's usual place of residence is situated in a remote area; and
- (c) the person is physically present in the remote area.

Note: For remote area and physically present in the remote area see section 14.

Rate of remote area allowance

1068A-F2 The rate of remote area allowance payable to a person is worked out using Table F. The rate of remote area allowance is the amount in Column 2 plus the additional corresponding amount in Column 4 for each FTB child, and each regular care child, of the person.

1068B Rate of parenting payment—PP (partnered)

- (1) If a person is a member of a couple, the person's rate of parenting payment is the benefit PP (partnered) rate.
- (2) The benefit PP (partnered) rate is worked out in accordance with the rate calculator at the end of this section.

Note: For member of a couple see section 4.

Benefit PP (Partnered) Rate Calculator

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Method of calculating rate—general

1068B-A1 The rate of benefit PP (partnered) is a daily rate. That rate is worked out by dividing the fortnightly rate calculated according to this Rate Calculator by 14. There are 2 ways of working out the fortnightly rate:

- (a) one for a person who is not a partner of a non-independent YA recipient (see point 1068B-A2); and
- (b) one for a person who is a partner of a non-independent YA recipient (see point 1068B-A3).

Note: For partner of a non-independent YA recipient see subsection 23(1).

Method of calculating rate for person who is not a partner of a non-independent YA recipient

1068B-A2 If a person is not the partner of a non-independent YA recipient, the fortnightly rate of benefit PP (partnered) for the person is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using Module C below.
- Step 2. Work out the amount per fortnight (if any) of rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(a).
- Step 2A. Work out the pension supplement amount (if any) using Module DA below.
- Step 2B. Work out the energy supplement (if any) using Module DB below.
- Step 3. Work out the amount per fortnight (if any) of pharmaceutical allowance using Module E below.
- Step 4. Add up the amounts obtained in steps 1 to 3: the result is called the maximum payment rate.
- Step 5. Apply the income test using Module D below to work out the person's income reduction.
- Step 6. Take the income reduction away from the maximum payment rate: the result is called the provisional payment rate.
- Step 7. The rate of benefit PP (partnered) is the difference between:
  - (a) the provisional payment rate; and

plus, except where the person is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or part of the period for which the rate of payment is being worked out, any amount by way of remote area allowance that, under Module G, is to be added to the person's rate of benefit PP (partnered).

Note 1: For partner of a non-independent YA recipient see subsection 23(1).

Note 2: If a person's rate is reduced under step 6, the order in which the reduction is to be made against the components of the maximum payment rate is laid down by section 1210 (maximum basic rate first, then rent assistance).

Step 1. Work out the person's maximum basic rate using Module C below.

Step 2. Work out the amount per fortnight (if any) of rent assistance in accordance with paragraph 1070A(a).

Step 2A. Work out the pension supplement amount (if any) using Module DA below.

4	Partnered (partner in gaol)	$667.50

Note 1: For illness separated couple, respite care couple and partnered (partner in gaol) see section 4.

Note 2: The rates are indexed 6 monthly in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

Maximum basic rate—CDEP Scheme participant

1068B-C3 The maximum basic rate of a person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of the period for which the maximum basic rate is being worked out is nil (see section 500W).

Module D—Income test

Effect of income on maximum payment rate

1068B-D1 This is how to work out the effect of a person's ordinary income, and the ordinary income of the person's partner, on the person's maximum payment rate:

Section 1068B

---

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ordinary income on a fortnightly basis.

Note: The amount of the person's ordinary income is affected by points 1068B-D2 to 1068B-D21.

Step 2. Work out the partner income free area using point 1068B-D22.

Note: The partner income free area is the maximum amount of ordinary income the person's partner can have without affecting the person's rate.

Step 3. Use point 1068B-D23 to work out the person's partner income excess.

Step 4. Use the person's partner income excess to work out the person's partner income reduction using point 1068B-D24.

Step 5. Work out whether the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area (see point 1068B-D27).

Note: A person's ordinary income free area is the maximum amount of ordinary income the person can have without affecting the person's rate.

Step 6. If the person's ordinary income does not exceed the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is nil.

Step 7. If the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area, the person's ordinary income excess is the person's ordinary income less the person's ordinary income free area.

Section 1068B

---

Step 8. Use the person's ordinary income excess to work out the person's ordinary income reduction using points 1068B-D29 to 1068B-D31.

Step 9. Add the person's ordinary income reduction and partner income reduction: the result is the person's income reduction referred to in step 5 of the method statement in point 1068B-A2.

Note 1: For ordinary income see section 8.

Note 2: See point 1068B-A2 (step 6) for the significance of the person's income reduction.

Note 3: The application of the ordinary income test is affected by provisions concerning the following:

- (a) the general concept of ordinary income and the treatment of certain income amounts (Division 1 of Part 3.10);
- (b) business income (sections 1074 and 1075);
- (c) income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term)) (Division 1B of Part 3.10);
- (d) income from income streams not covered by Division 1B of Part 3.10 (Division 1C of Part 3.10);
- (e) disposal of income (sections 1106 to 1111).

Ordinary income of members of certain couples

1068B-D2 If a person's partner is receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment, the person's ordinary income is taken to be one half of the sum of:

- (a) the amount that would be the person's ordinary income if he or she were not a member of a couple; and
- (b) the amount that would be the ordinary income of the person's partner if the partner were not a member of a couple.

Board and lodging

1068B-D6 A person's ordinary income is not to include a payment to the person for board or lodging provided by the person to a parent, child, brother or sister of the person.

---

Section 1068B

---

Lump sum payments arising from termination of employment

1068B-D7 Subject to points 1068B-D8 to 1068B-D18 (inclusive), if:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) as a result, the person is entitled to a lump sum payment from the person's former employer;

the person is taken to have received the lump sum payment on the day on which the person's employment was terminated.

Directed termination payments excluded

1068B-D8 If:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) as a result the person is entitled to a lump sum payment from the person's former employer; and
- (c) the payment, or part of the payment, is a directed termination payment within the meaning of section 82-10F of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997;

the payment, or that part, is to be disregarded in working out the ordinary income of the person for the purposes of this Module.

Certain leave payments taken to be ordinary income—employment continuing

1068B-D9 If:

- (a) a person is employed; and
- (b) the person is on leave for a period; and
- (c) the person is or was entitled to receive a leave payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise) in respect of a part or all of the leave period;

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.6A Parenting Payment Rate Calculator

Module D Income test

Section 1068B

Certain termination payments taken to be ordinary income

1068B-D10 If:

- (a) a person's employment has been terminated; and
- (b) the person receives a termination payment (whether as a lump sum payment, as a payment that is one of a series of regular payments or otherwise);

the person is taken to have received ordinary income for a period (the income maintenance period) equal to the period to which the payment relates.

More than one termination payment on a day

1068B-D11 If:

- (a) the person is covered by point 1068B-D10; and
- (b) the person receives more than one termination payment on a day;

the income maintenance period is worked out by adding the periods to which the payments relate.

Start of income maintenance period—employment continuing

1068B-D12 If the person is covered by point 1068B-D9, the income maintenance period starts on the first day of the leave period to which the leave payment entitlement relates.

Start of income maintenance period—employment terminated

1068B-D13 If the person is covered by point 1068B-D10, the income maintenance period starts, subject to point 1068B-D14, on the day the person is paid the termination payment.

Commencement of income maintenance period where there is a second termination payment

1068B-D14 If a person who is covered by point 1068B-D10 is subject to an income maintenance period (the first period) and the person is paid another termination payment during that period (the second leave payment), the income maintenance period for the second

Section 1068B

termination payment commences the day after the end of the first period.

1068B-D15 If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while an income maintenance period applies to the person, the Secretary may determine that the whole, or any part, of the period does not apply to the person.

Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).

Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).

Note 3: If an income maintenance period applies to a person, then, during that period:

- (a) the benefit PP (partnered) claimed may not be payable to the person; or
- (b) the amount of the benefit PP (partnered) payable to the person may be reduced.

When a person receives a leave payment or a termination payment

1068B-D16 For the purposes of points 1068B-D8 to 1068B-D15 (inclusive), a person (the first person) is taken to receive a leave payment or termination payment if the payment is made to another person:

- (a) at the direction of the first person or a court; or
- (b) on behalf of the first person; or
- (c) for the benefit of the first person; or

the first person waives or assigns the first person's right to receive the payment.

Single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments

1068B-D17 If a person who is covered by point 1068B-D10 receives a single payment in respect of different kinds of termination payments, then, for the purposes of the application of points 1068B-D9 to 1068B-D16 (inclusive), each part of the payment that is in respect of a different kind of termination payment is taken to be a separate payment and the income maintenance period in respect of the single payment is worked out by adding the periods to which the separate payments relate.

Section 1068B

Definitions

1068B-D18 In points 1068B-D9 to 1068B-D18 (inclusive):

leave payment includes a payment in respect of sick leave, annual leave, maternity leave and long service leave, but does not include:

- (a) an instalment of parental leave pay; or
- (b) dad and partner pay.

period to which the payment relates means:

- (a) if the payment is a leave payment—the leave period to which the payment relates; or
- (b) if the payment is a termination payment and is calculated as an amount equivalent to an amount of ordinary income that the person would (but for the termination) have received from the employment that was terminated—the period for which the person would have received that amount of ordinary income; or
- (c) if the payment is a termination payment and paragraph (b) does not apply—the period of weeks (rounded down to the nearest whole number) in respect of which the person would have received ordinary income, from the employment that was terminated, of an amount equal to the amount of the termination payment if:
  - (i) the person's employment had continued; and
  - (ii) the person received ordinary income from the employment at the rate per week at which the person usually received ordinary income from the employment prior to the termination.

redundancy payment includes a payment in lieu of notice, but does not include a directed termination payment within the meaning of section 82-10F of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997.

Section 1068B

termination payment includes:

- (a) a redundancy payment; and
- (b) a leave payment relating to a person's employment that has been terminated; and
- (c) any other payment that is connected with the termination of a person's employment.

Period over which ordinary income taken into account

1068B-D19 Subject to points 1068B-D8 to 1068B-D18 (inclusive), a person's ordinary income (except employment income) is to be taken into account over such period, not exceeding 52 weeks, as the Secretary determines.

Note 1: This point, in conjunction with point 1068B-D20, enables the Secretary to determine the person's fortnightly income amount that best represents the person's income situation.

Note 2: See Division 1AA of Part 3.10 for the treatment of employment income.

Fortnightly rate of ordinary income

1068B-D20 For the purposes of this Module, the person's ordinary income (except employment income) for such a period is to be reduced to a fortnightly rate rounded to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents downwards).

Payment of arrears of periodic compensation payments

1068B-D21 If:

- (a) at the time of an event that gives rise to an entitlement of a person to compensation, the person is receiving a compensation affected payment; and
- (b) in relation to that entitlement, the person receives a payment of arrears of periodic compensation;

the person is taken to receive, on each day in the periodic payments period, an amount calculated by dividing the amount received by the number of days in the periodic payments period.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.6A Parenting Payment Rate Calculator

Module D Income test

Section 1068B

---

Note: For compensation affected payment and periodic payments period see section 17.

Partner income free area

1068B-D22 The partner income free area for a person is:

- (a) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has not turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which youth allowance would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a youth allowance and were not undertaking full-time study (see section 541B); or
- (b) if the person's partner is not receiving a social security benefit and has turned 22—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which jobseeker payment would not be payable to the partner if the partner were qualified for a jobseeker payment; or
- (c) if the person's partner is receiving a social security benefit—the amount of income of the partner (rounded up to the nearest dollar) beyond which that benefit would not be payable to the partner.

1068B-D22A For the purposes of paragraph 1068B-D22(a), disregard steps 2, 2A and 3 of the method statement in point 1067G-A1.

1068B-D22B For the purposes of paragraph 1068B-D22(b), disregard steps 2 and 3 of the method statement in point 1068-A1.

Partner income excess

1068B-D23 If:

- (b) the person's partner is not receiving a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and
- (c) the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area for the partner;

the person's partner income excess is the amount by which the partner's ordinary income exceeds the partner income free area. Otherwise, the person's partner income excess is nil.

Partner income reduction

1068B-D24 If a person has a partner income excess, the person's partner income reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the part of the partner's ordinary income that exceeds the partner income free area.

Ordinary income free area

1068B-D27 A person's ordinary income free area is $150.

Note: The income free area is used in the ordinary income test in relation to fortnightly income.

Ordinary income excess

1068B-D28 If a person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area:

- (a) the person has an ordinary income excess; and
- (b) the person's ordinary income excess is the amount by which the person's ordinary income exceeds the person's ordinary income free area.

Ordinary income reduction

1068B-D29 If a person has an ordinary income excess, the person's ordinary income reduction is the sum of:

- (a) the person's lower range reduction (see point 1068B-D30); and
- (b) the person's upper range reduction (if any) (see point 1068B-D31).

Lower range reduction

1068B-D30 The person's lower range reduction is an amount equal to 50% of the part of the person's ordinary income excess that does not exceed $106.

---

Upper range reduction

1068B-D31 The person's upper range reduction is an amount equal to 60% of the part (if any) of the person's ordinary income excess that exceeds $106.

Module DA—Pension supplement

Pension supplement

1068B-DA1 A pension supplement amount is to be added to the person's maximum basic rate if the person is residing in Australia, has reached pension age and:

- (a) is in Australia; or
- (b) is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

1068B-DA2 The person's pension supplement amount is:

- (a) if an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force—the amount worked out under point 1068B-DA4; and
- (b) otherwise—the amount worked out under point 1068B-DA3.

Amount if no election in force

1068B-DA3 The person's pension supplement amount is the amount worked out by:

- (a) applying the applicable percentage in the following table to the combined couple rate of pension supplement; and
- (b) dividing the result by 26; and
- (c) if:
  - (i) the person is not partnered; and
  - (ii) the amount resulting from paragraph (b) is not a multiple of 10 cents;

rounding the amount up or down to the nearest multiple of 10 cents (rounding up if the amount is not a multiple of 10 cents but is a multiple of 5 cents).

- is in Australia; or
- is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period not exceeding 6 weeks.

However, this Module does not apply if quarterly energy supplement is payable to the recipient.

Division 4—Certain concepts used in this Part

1070S Division has effect for purposes of Part

This Division has effect for the purposes of this Part.

1070T Rent threshold amount

- (1) If the rate of a person's social security payment is to be calculated in accordance with the Pension PP (Single) Rate Calculator, the person's rent threshold amount is $82.80.
- (2) In any other case, a person's rent threshold amount is worked out in accordance with subsection (3).
- (3) First, identify which of sections 1070L, 1070N, 1070P, 1070Q and 1070R applies to work out the rate of rent assistance for the person's social security payment. Next, identify which family situation in the table in that section applies to the person. The person's rent threshold amount is the amount in the formula in column 3 of the table, in relation to the family situation, that is deducted from fortnightly rent.

Example: If a person who is not a member of a couple receives an age pension, the person's rent threshold amount is worked out as follows. First, identify section 1070L as the section applicable to an age pension. Then identify the family situation in item 1 of the table in that section as applicable to the person. Finally, the person's rent threshold amount is $82.80, being the amount that, in the formula in column 3 of that table, is deducted from the person's fortnightly rent. Indexation of the $82.80 has been ignored for the purposes of this example.

Part 3.9—Seniors Health Card Income Test Calculator

Note: Section 10A contains many of the definitions that are relevant to the provisions of this Part.

1071 Seniors Health Card Income Test Calculator

The Seniors Health Card Income Test Calculator at the end of this section is to be used in working out whether a person satisfies the seniors health card income test for the purposes of this Act.

Seniors Health Card Income Test Calculator

Satisfying the seniors health card income test

1071-1 This is how to work out whether a person satisfies the seniors health card income test at a particular time (the test time).

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's adjusted taxable income for the reference tax year.

Step 1A. If, at the test time, the person, or the person's partner (if any), has at least one long-term financial asset (see point 1071-13), work out the person's deemed income amount under:

- (a) if, at the test time, the person is not a member of a couple—point 1071-11A; or
- (b) if, at the test time, the person is a member of a couple—point 1071-11B.

Step 1B. Work out the sum of the amounts at step 1 and step 1A (if any).

Section 1071

---

- Step 2. Work out the person's seniors health card income limit using point 1071-12.
- Step 3. Work out whether the amount at step 1B exceeds the seniors health card income limit.
- Step 4. If the amount at step 1B is less than the person's seniors health card income limit, the person satisfies the seniors health card income test.
- Step 5. If the amount at step 1B is equal to or exceeds the person's seniors health card income limit, the person does not satisfy the seniors health card income test.

Reference tax year

- 1071-2(1) In the ordinary case, a person's reference tax year is:
- (a) if the person has received a notice of assessment of his or her taxable income for the tax year immediately preceding the tax year in which the test time occurred—that immediately preceding tax year; or
  - (b) otherwise—the tax year immediately preceding the tax year applicable under paragraph (a).
- (2) However, if the person has informed the Secretary in writing that the person wishes to have his or her entitlement to a seniors health card determined by reference to his or her adjusted taxable income for the tax year in which the test time occurred (the current tax year), the person's reference tax year is the current tax year.

Adjusted taxable income

- 1071-3 For the purposes of this Part, a person's adjusted taxable income for a particular tax year is the sum of the following amounts (income components):
- (a) the person's taxable income for that year, disregarding the person's assessable FHSS released amount (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) for that year;

Section 1071

---

- (b) the person's fringe benefits value for that year;
- (c) the person's target foreign income for that year;
- (d) the person's total net investment loss (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) for that year;
- (e) the person's reportable superannuation contributions (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) for that year.

Note 1: For taxable income see subsection 23(1) and point 1071-4.

Note 2: For fringe benefits value see point 1071-6.

Note 3: For target foreign income see subsection 10A(2) and point 1071-7.

Taxable income

1071-4 For the purposes of this Part, a person's taxable income for a particular tax year is:

- (a) the person's assessed taxable income for that year; or
- (b) if the person does not have an assessed taxable income for that year—the person's accepted estimate of taxable income for that year.

Assessed taxable income

1071-5 For the purposes of this Part, a person's assessed taxable income for a particular tax year at a particular time is the most recent of:

- (a) if, at that time, the Commissioner of Taxation has made an assessment or an amended assessment of that taxable income—that taxable income according to the assessment or amended assessment; or
- (b) if, at that time, a tribunal has amended an assessment or an amended assessment made by the Commissioner—that taxable income according to the amendment made by the tribunal; or
- (c) if, at that time, a court has amended an assessment or an amended assessment made by the Commissioner or an amended assessment made by a tribunal—that taxable income according to the amendment made by the court.

Section 1071

---

Fringe benefits value

- 1071-6 For the purposes of this Part, a person's fringe benefits value for a particular tax year is the person's accepted estimate of the amount by which the total of the assessable fringe benefits received or to be received by the person in the tax year exceeds $1,000.

Note: For assessable fringe benefit see subsection 10A(2) and Part 3.12A.

Target foreign income

- 1071-7 For the purposes of this Part, a person's target foreign income for a particular tax year is the person's accepted estimate of the amount of that income for that year.

Total net investment loss

- 1071-8 For the purposes of this Part, a person's total net investment loss for a particular tax year is the person's accepted estimate of the amount of that loss for that year.

Accepted estimate

- 1071-9 For the purposes of this Part, a person's accepted estimate of an income component for a particular tax year is that income component according to the most recent notice given by the person to the Secretary under point 1071-10 and accepted by the Secretary for the purposes of this Part.

Notice estimating income component

- 1071-10(1) A person may give the Secretary a notice, in a form approved by the Secretary, setting out the person's estimate of an income component of the person for a tax year.

Section 1071

---

- (2) The notice is to contain, or be accompanied by, such information as is required by the form to be contained in it or to accompany it, as the case may be.
- (3) The Secretary is to accept a notice only if the Secretary is satisfied that the estimate is reasonable.

Adjusted taxable income of members of couples

- 1071-11 If a person is a member of a couple, add the couple's adjusted taxable incomes for the reference tax year and divide by 2 to work out the amount of the person's adjusted taxable income for the reference tax year.

Deemed income amount

- 1071-11A This is how to work out the person's deemed income amount under this point:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the total value of all of the person's long-term financial assets (see point 1071-13) at the test time.
- Step 2. Work out under section 1076 the amount of ordinary income the person would be taken to receive per year on the financial assets:
  - (a) on the assumption that the only financial assets of the person were the financial assets referred to in step 1; and
  - (b) on the assumption that the total value of the person's financial assets were the amount at step 1.
- Step 3. The result at step 2 is the person's deemed income amount.

Section 1071

1071-11B This is how to work out the person's deemed income amount under this point:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the total value of all of the person's long-term financial assets (see point 1071-13) at the test time.
- Step 2. If, at the test time, the person's partner has reached the minimum age mentioned in section 301-10 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, work out the total value of all of the person's partner's long-term financial assets (see point 1071-13) at the test time.
- Step 3. Work out under section 1077 the amount of ordinary income the couple would be taken to receive per year on the financial assets:
- (a) on the assumption that section 1077 applied to the person and the person's partner; and
  - (b) on the assumption that the only financial assets of the person and the person's partner were the financial assets referred to in steps 1 and 2; and
  - (c) on the assumption that the total value of the couple's financial assets were the sum of the amounts at steps 1 and 2.
- Step 4. Divide the amount at step 3 by 2: the result is the person's deemed income amount.

Seniors health card income limit

1071-12 A person's seniors health card income limit is worked out using the Seniors Health Card Income Limit Table. Work out which family situation in the table applies to the person. The person's seniors health card income limit is the corresponding amount in column 3 plus an additional corresponding amount in column 4 for each dependent child of the person.

Section 1071

3	Member of illness separated couple	$50,000	$639.60
4	Member of respite care couple	$50,000	$639.60

Note: The amounts in column 3 are to be indexed on 20 September 2014 and each later 20 September in line with CPI increases (see sections 1190 to 1194).

Long-term financial asset

1071-13 For the purposes of this Part, a long-term financial asset is:

- (a) a financial investment within the meaning of paragraph (i) of the definition of financial investment in subsection 9(1), where the asset-tested income stream (long term) arises under a complying superannuation plan (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) that is not a constitutionally protected fund (within the meaning of that Act); or
- (b) a financial investment within the meaning of paragraph (j) of the definition of financial investment in subsection 9(1).

Part 3.9A—Health Care Card Income Test Calculator

1071A Health care card income test

The Health Care Card Income Test Calculator at the end of this section is to be used in working out whether a person satisfies the health care card income test for the purposes of Division 3 of Part 2A.1.

Health Care Card Income Test Calculator

Satisfying the health care card income test: persons claiming a card

- 1071A-1 This is how to work out whether a person claiming a health care card satisfies the health care card income test on the day on which the person claims the card, whether or not the person is the holder of a health care card at that time.

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ascertained income for the period of 8 weeks ending on the day on which the person lodged the claim.
- Step 2. Work out the amount of the person's allowable income for the period.
- Step 3. If the person's ascertained income for the period is less than the person's allowable income for the period, the person satisfies the health care card income test.

Section 1071A

---

Step 4. If the person's ascertained income for the period equals or exceeds the person's allowable income for the period, the person does not satisfy the health care card income test.

Satisfying the health care card income test: cardholders

1071A-2 This is how to work out whether a person who holds a health care card satisfies the health care card income test at a particular time where there has been a change in circumstances.

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount of the person's ascertained income for the period of 8 weeks ending on the day on which the change of circumstances occurred.
- Step 2. Work out the amount of the person's allowable income for the period.
- Step 3. If the person's ascertained income for the period is less than 125% of the person's allowable income for that period, the person satisfies the health care card income test.
- Step 4. If the person's ascertained income for the period is 125% or more of the person's allowable income for that period, the person does not satisfy the health care card income test.

Working out allowable income

1071A-2A For the purposes of step 2 of the method statement in point 1071A-1 or 1071A-2:

- (a) disregard steps 1A, 2 and 3 of the method statement in point 1068-A1; and

Section 1071A

---

- (b) the amount at step 1B of the method statement in point 1068-A1 is taken to be the amount applicable under item 5 of the table in point 1068-C3.

Cessation of dependency

- 1071A-3 For the purposes of point 1071A-2, if a person (the first person) ceases to be a dependant of another person who is the holder of a health care card:
- (a) the fact that the first person has so ceased is to be disregarded for a period of 4 weeks commencing on the day on which the first person so ceased; and
  - (b) if, at the end of the period, the first person has not become again a dependant of that other person, the first person is taken to have ceased to be a dependant of the other person at the expiration of that period of 4 weeks.

Definitions

- 1071A-4 In this Part:

allowable income, in relation to any period of 8 weeks, means:

- (a) in relation to a person who had a dependant or dependants on the last day of the period—the amount worked out by multiplying by 8, or such other number as is prescribed, the aggregate of:
  - (i) the amount of the weekly rate of income that would, on the last day of the period, be sufficient to prevent both members of a one-income couple from receiving jobseeker payment; and
  - (ii) $20, or such other amount as is prescribed; and
  - (iii) an amount worked out by multiplying $34, or such higher amount as is prescribed, by the number of the dependants of the person on the last day of the period; or
- (b) in relation to a person who had no dependants on the last day of the period—the amount worked out by multiplying by 8, or such other number as is prescribed, an amount equal to

---

60%, or such other percentage as is prescribed, of the aggregate of the amount worked out under subparagraph (a)(i) and the amount referred to in subparagraph (a)(ii) if paragraph (a) had applied to the person.

ascertained income, in relation to a period, means:

- (a) in relation to a person who is not a member of a couple—the income of the person in respect of that period; and
- (b) in relation to a person who is a member of a couple—the income of the person and his or her partner in respect of that period.

income, in relation to a person, means ordinary income and, to the extent that they are not ordinary income, includes:

- (aa) payments of a social security pension or a social security benefit; and

Part 3.10—General provisions relating to the ordinary income test

Division 1—Ordinary income concept and treatment of certain income amounts

1072 General meaning of ordinary income

A reference in this Act to a person's ordinary income for a period is a reference to the person's gross ordinary income from all sources for the period calculated without any reduction, other than a reduction under Division 1A.

Note 1: For ordinary income see subsection 8(1).

Note 2: For other provisions affecting the amount of a person's ordinary income see section 1073AA (work bonus), sections 1074 and 1075 (business income), Division 1B (income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term)) and Division 1C (income from income streams not covered by Division 1B).

1072A Treatment of certain lump sum payments

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a person has claimed a social security pension or a social security benefit; and
  - (b) on or after the first day of the period of 12 months ending at the end of the day the person made the claim, the person receives an amount of income in the form of a lump sum payment of arrears of periodic payments; and
  - (c) the lump sum payment is not income within the meaning of Division 1B or 1C of this Part; and
  - (d) the lump sum payment is not in relation to remunerative work undertaken by the person; and
  - (e) the lump sum payment is not an exempt lump sum; and
  - (f) the lump sum payment is not a payment of compensation.

- (2) The Secretary may determine that the person is taken to have received the lump sum payment over such period, not exceeding 52 weeks, as the Secretary determines.
- (3) The period determined by the Secretary must begin on the day on which the person received the lump sum payment.
- (4) For each day in the period determined by the Secretary, the person is taken to have received an amount of ordinary income worked out by dividing the amount of the lump sum payment by the number of days in that period.

1073 Certain amounts taken to be received over 12 months

- (1) Subject to points 1067G-H5 to 1067G-H20 (inclusive), 1067L-D5 to 1067L-D16 (inclusive), 1068-G7AF to 1068-G7AR (inclusive), 1068A-E2 to 1068A-E12 (inclusive) and 1068B-D7 to 1068B-D18 (inclusive), if a person receives, whether before or after the commencement of this section, an amount that:
  - (a) is not income within the meaning of Division 1B or 1C of this Part; and
  - (b) is not:
    - (i) income in the form of periodic payments; or
    - (ii) ordinary income from remunerative work undertaken by the person; or
    - (iii) an exempt lump sum.

the person is, for the purposes of this Act, taken to receive one fifty-second of that amount as ordinary income of the person during each week in the 12 months commencing on the day on which the person becomes entitled to receive that amount.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to a person who has claimed one of the following:
  - (a) jobseeker payment;
  - (c) youth allowance;
  - (d) widow allowance;
  - (e) partner allowance;

even if the person:

- (g) has to serve an ordinary waiting period or a liquid assets test waiting period in respect of the payment or allowance claimed; or
  - (h) is subject to an income maintenance period in respect of the payment or allowance claimed; or
  - (i) is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period;
- during the period of 12 months referred to in subsection (1).

Division 1AAA—Work bonus

1073AA Work bonus

- (1) This section applies to a person if:
- (a) the person's rate of social security pension is calculated in accordance with Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064; and
  - (b) the person has reached pension age.

Note: For pension age see subsections 23(5A), (5B), (5C) and (5D).

Work bonus income greater than or equal to income concession amount

- (2) If the person's work bonus income for an instalment period is greater than or equal to the income concession amount for that period, then, for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the amount of the person's work bonus income for that period is reduced by an amount equal to the income concession amount.

Note: For work bonus income, see subsection (4BA).

Example 1: David has $2,300 of work bonus income in an instalment period of 14 days. David's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil.

David's work bonus income for that period is reduced by $300, leaving David $2,000 of work bonus income for that period.

Example 2: Amy has $1,000 of work bonus income in an instalment period of 14 days. Amy's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil.

Amy's work bonus income for that period is reduced by $300, leaving Amy $700 of work bonus income for that period.

- (3) If the person's unused concession balance (see section 1073AB) is greater than or equal to the amount (the current amount) of the person's work bonus income that remains after applying subsection (2) of this section in relation to an instalment period:

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.10 General provisions relating to the ordinary income test

Division 1AAA Work bonus

Section 1073AA

- (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the person's work bonus income for that period is further reduced to nil; and
- (b) if the person's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil—the person's unused concession balance is reduced by an amount equal to the current amount.

Example 1: To continue example 1 in subsection (2), assume David's unused concession balance is $2,000. The current amount is $2,000.

David's work bonus income for that period is further reduced to nil.

David's unused concession balance is now nil.

Example 2: To continue example 2 in subsection (2), assume Amy's unused concession balance is $1,600. The current amount is $700.

Amy's work bonus income for that period is further reduced to nil.

Amy's unused concession balance is now $900.

- (4) If the person's unused concession balance (see section 1073AB) is greater than nil but less than the amount of the person's work bonus income that remains after applying subsection (2) of this section in relation to an instalment period:
  - (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the person's work bonus income for that period is further reduced by an amount equal to that unused concession balance; and
  - (b) if the person's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil—the person's unused concession balance is reduced to nil.

Example: Bill has $1,300 of work bonus income in an instalment period of 14 days. Bill's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil.

Under subsection (2), Bill's work bonus income for that period is reduced by $300, leaving Bill $1,000 of work bonus income for that period.

Assume Bill's unused concession balance is $800.

Under subsection (4), Bill's work bonus income for that period is further reduced by $800 leaving Bill $200 of work bonus income for that period.

Work bonus income less than income concession amount

- (4A) If the person has work bonus income for an instalment period but that income is less than the income concession amount for that period:
- (a) for the purposes of Module E of that Rate Calculator, the person's work bonus income for that period is reduced to nil; and
  - (b) if the person's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil—the person's unused concession balance (see section 1073AB) is increased, subject to subsection 1073AB(2), by an amount equal to the difference between that income concession amount and that work bonus income (before it was reduced).

Note: For work bonus income, see subsection (4BA).

Example: Emma has $100 of work bonus income in an instalment period of 14 days. Emma's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil.

Emma's work bonus income for that period is reduced to nil.

Emma's unused concession balance is increased by $200.

No work bonus income

- (4B) If:
- (a) the person has no work bonus income for an instalment period; and
  - (b) the person's rate of social security pension for that period is greater than nil;
- the person's unused concession balance (see section 1073AB) is increased, subject to subsection 1073AB(2), by an amount equal to the income concession amount for that period.

Note: For work bonus income, see subsection (4BA).

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.10 General provisions relating to the ordinary income test

Division 1AAA Work bonus

Section 1073AA

---

Definitions

(4BA) For the purposes of this section, a person's work bonus income for an instalment period is the sum of the following:

- (a) the person's employment income taken, in accordance with Division 1AA, to have been received for that period;
- (b) the sum of the person's gainful work income for each day in that period.

Note: For employment income, see section 8.

(4BB) For the purposes of this section, a person's gainful work income for a day in an instalment period is the amount worked out using the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Annual amount}}{364}$$

where:

annual amount means the annual amount of ordinary income of the person that is earned, derived or received by the person from gainful work (within the meaning of section 1073AAA) undertaken by the person, being the annual amount as last determined by the Secretary.

(4BC) The amount at paragraph (4BA)(b) is to be rounded to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents downwards).

(4C) The income concession amount is:

- (a) for an instalment period of 14 days—$300; and
- (b) for an instalment period of less than 14 days—the amount worked out using the following formula:

$$$300 \times \frac{\text{Number of days in the instalment period}}{14}$$

Section 1073AA

Interpretation

- (5A) If a person has gainful work income for an instalment period, the rate of the person's gainful work income on a yearly basis for each day in that period may be worked out using the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Total amount of gainful work income for that period}}{\text{Number of days in that period}} \times 364$$

Note: This subsection will be relevant to working out the person's rate of social security pension in accordance with Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064 or Pension Rate Calculator C at the end of section 1066.

- (5B) An amount worked out under subsection (5A) is to be rounded to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents downwards).
- (6) If the person is a member of a couple, apply this section in relation to the person, and to the person's partner, before applying point 1064-E2.
- (7) In working out a person's employment income for the purposes of this section, disregard subsection 8(1B).
- (8) If:
- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
  - (b) the person's partner's work bonus income (within the meaning of section 46AA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986) is reduced by one or more amounts (each of which is a reduction amount) under section 46AA of that Act;
- then, in applying point 1064-E2, the ordinary income of the person's partner is to be reduced by an amount equal to the total of the reduction amounts.

- (a) the work involves personal exertion on the part of the person concerned; and
  - (b) the work is carried on within or outside Australia.

Disregard managing or administering family financial investments and real property

- (2) Work undertaken by a person is taken not to be gainful work for the purposes of this Division to the extent to which the work consists of the management or administration of any financial investment, or any real property, in which any of the following has a legal or equitable interest:
- (a) a member of the person's family group;
  - (b) a company that is a family company in relation to the person;

  - (c) gardening tasks; or
  - (d) similar tasks;
- in relation to:
- (e) the person's place of residence; or

Definitions

- (4) For the purposes of this section, a place of residence includes:
- (a) if the place is a dwelling-house—any land or building that is adjacent to the dwelling-house and that is used primarily for private or domestic purposes in association with that dwelling-house; or
  - (b) if the place is a flat or home unit—a garage or storeroom that is used for private or domestic purposes in association with the flat or home unit.

- (5) In this section:

family company, in relation to a person, means a company where:

- (a) the company is, or its directors are, accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of any or all of the members of the person's family group; or
- (b) any or all of the members of the person's family group are in a position to cast, or control the casting of, more than 50% of the maximum number of votes that may be cast at a general meeting of the company; or

1073AB Unused concession balance

Initial unused concession balance of nil

- (1) A person has an unused concession balance of nil on the first day that is after 30 June 2011 and is a day on which section 1073AA applies to the person.

Maximum unused concession balance

- (2) If, apart from this subsection, the person's unused concession balance would exceed $7,800, that balance is instead taken to be $7,800.

Example: John has an unused concession balance of $7,700. John has $100 of work bonus income in an instalment period of 14 days.

Instead of John's unused concession balance increasing to $7,900 under subsection 1073AA(4A), John's unused concession balance increases to $7,800.

Effect of ceasing to receive social security pension

- (3) If the person ceases to receive the social security pension referred to in paragraph 1073AA(1)(a), the person retains the person's unused concession balance immediately before that cessation.

Note: If section 1073AA applies to the person again, the person's unused concession balance will be that retained balance.

Division 1AA—Employment income attribution rules

1073A Attribution of employment income paid in respect of a particular period or periods

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a person is receiving a social security pension or a social security benefit; and
  - (b) the person's rate of payment of the pension or benefit is worked out with regard to the income test module of a rate calculator in this Chapter; and
  - (c) one or more amounts of employment income, each of which is in respect of a particular period or periods (each period is an employment period), are paid in an instalment period of the person to or for the benefit of the person by the same employer.

Note 1: If the person has multiple employers, this section applies separately in relation to each employer.

Note 2: If a person is receiving a social security pension and is paid employment income monthly, section 1073B may apply to that income instead of this section.

Note 3: Section 1073BA deals with the payment of employment income that is not in respect of a particular period.

- (2) The person is taken to have received the employment income over a period (the assessment period) that consists of the number of days that is equal to the sum of the number of days in each employment period, where the assessment period begins on the first day of the instalment period in which the amounts of employment income are paid.

Example: On 3 June a person is paid $756 employment income for work the person performed in the period beginning on 9 May and ending at the end of 29 May. The number of days in the employment period is 21.

Assume the instalment period begins on 1 June. The person is taken to have received the $756 over the period beginning on 1 June and ending at the end of 21 June (a period of 21 days).

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.10 General provisions relating to the ordinary income test

Division 1AA Employment income attribution rules

Section 1073A

---

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), for each day in the assessment period, the person is taken to have received an amount of employment income worked out by dividing the total amount of the employment income covered by paragraph (1)(c) by the number of days in the assessment period.

Example: To continue the example in subsection (2), the person is taken to have received $36 ( $$756/21$ ) on each of the days in the period beginning on 1 June and ending at the end of 21 June.

- (4) If the person is taken, under subsection (3), to have received employment income (the attributed employment income) during a part, but not the whole, of a particular instalment period, the person is taken to receive on each day in that instalment period an amount of employment income worked out by dividing the total amount of the attributed employment income by the number of days in the instalment period.

Example: To continue the example in subsection (2), for the instalment period beginning on 15 June and ending at the end of 28 June the person is taken, under subsection (3), to have received employment income during a part of that instalment period (15 June to 21 June). The person is taken to have received $252 ( $$36 \times 7$ ).

Under subsection (4), the person is taken to receive on each day in that instalment period an amount of employment income of $18 ( $$252/14$ ).

Interpretation

- (5) This section applies in relation to an amount of employment income paid on a day in an instalment period, whether or not the amount is received on that day.
- (6) In applying subsection (2) in relation to one or more amounts of employment income paid by a particular employer in an instalment period, in working out the sum of the number of days in each employment period, if a day in an employment period overlaps with a day in another employment period, that day must only be counted once.

1073B Attribution of employment income paid monthly

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a person is receiving a social security pension; and
  - (b) the person's rate of payment of the pension is worked out with regard to the income test module of a rate calculator in this Chapter; and
  - (c) an amount (the initial amount) of employment income, in respect of a period of 1 month, is paid on a day in a calendar month (the initial calendar month) to or for the benefit of the person by the person's employer; and
  - (d) the Secretary is satisfied that, for the reasonably foreseeable future, an amount of employment income, in respect of a period of 1 month, equal to the initial amount will be paid to or for the benefit of the person by that employer on the following:
    - (i) the corresponding day in each calendar month (a later calendar month) after the initial calendar month;
    - (ii) if there is no such day in a later calendar month—the last day of the later calendar month.

Note: If the person has multiple employers, this section applies separately in relation to each employer.

- (2) Subject to this section, for the day on which the initial amount is paid and for each day after that day, the person is taken to have received an amount of employment income worked out as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Initial amount} \times 12}{364}$$

- (3) If, after the day on which the initial amount is paid, the Secretary ceases to be satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(d) in relation to the person and the person's employer, then subsection (2) ceases to apply in relation to the person and the person's employer at the end of the period of 1 month beginning on the last payment day.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a payment day is:

Section 1073BA

- (a) the day in the calendar month on which the initial amount is paid by the person's employer; or
  - (b) the following on which an amount of employment income equal to the initial amount is paid to or for the benefit of the person by that employer:
    - (i) a corresponding day in a later calendar month;
    - (ii) if there is no such day in a later calendar month—the last day of the later calendar month.
- (5) If the person is taken, under this section, to have received employment income (the attributed employment income) during a part, but not the whole, of a particular instalment period, the person is taken to receive on each day in that instalment period an amount of employment income worked out by dividing the total amount of the attributed employment income by the number of days in the instalment period.
- (6) Section 1073A does not apply to an amount of employment income covered by paragraph (4)(a) or (b).

Interpretation

- (7) This section applies in relation to an amount of employment income paid on a day in a calendar month, whether or not the amount is received on that day.
- (8) Subsection (3) does not prevent a later application of this section in relation to the person, whether in connection with the same employer or another employer.

1073BA Attribution of employment income paid not in respect of a particular period

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a person is receiving a social security pension or a social security benefit; and

- (b) the person's rate of payment of the pension or benefit is worked out with regard to the income test module of a rate calculator in this Chapter; and
    - (c) an amount of employment income is paid on a day to or for the benefit of the person; and
    - (d) the employment income is not in respect of a particular period.
  - (2) The person is taken to have received that employment income over such period, not exceeding 52 weeks, as the Secretary determines.
    - Note 1: When determining the period, the Secretary may take into consideration the following:
      - (a) the nature of the person's remunerative work;
      - (b) the nature of the person's employment income;
      - (c) the person's financial interests;
      - (d) any financial hardship which may be caused to the person;
      - (e) whether the employment income relates to remunerative work that was undertaken at a time when the person was not receiving a social security pension or a social security benefit.
    - Note 2: The period determined by the Secretary should be fair and reasonably beneficial, taking into account the financial interests of the person receiving the social security pension or social security benefit.
  - (3) The period determined by the Secretary must begin on the first day of the instalment period in which the amount of employment income is paid.
  - (4) Subject to subsection (5), for each day in the period determined by the Secretary, the person is taken to have received an amount of employment income worked out by dividing the amount of employment income covered by paragraph (1)(c) by the number of days in that period.
  - (5) If the person is taken, under subsection (4), to have received employment income (the attributed employment income) during a part, but not the whole, of a particular instalment period, the person is taken to receive on each day in that instalment period an amount of employment income worked out by dividing the total amount of the attributed employment income by the number of days in the instalment period.

- (2) The Secretary may determine that the relevant person is taken to have received an amount of employment income, equal to the amount of employment income referred to in paragraph (1)(b), over the period determined by the Secretary.

1073F Working out accruals and depletions of working credit for social security beneficiaries

(a) there is an accrual to the participant's working credit balance; or

(b) the participant's working credit balance is unaffected; or

and, if there is an accrual to, or a depletion from, the participant's working credit balance, the amount of that accrual or depletion.

Method statement

- Step 2. Multiply the amount determined under step 1 by 14. This is the participant's rate of employment income on a fortnightly basis for the day.
- Step 3. Add to the participant's rate of employment income on a fortnightly basis for the day the participant's rate of any other ordinary income on a fortnightly basis for the day. This is the participant's rate of total ordinary income on a fortnightly basis for the day.
- Step 4. If the participant's rate of total ordinary income on a fortnightly basis for the day is less than $48, there is an accrual to the participant's working credit balance for the day of an amount equal to one fourteenth of the amount by which $48 exceeds that rate. The maximum working credit balance is:
- (a) if the participant became a working credit participant on a day under subsection 1073E(2), (3), (4), (5), (5A) or (6) and on that day the participant was receiving youth allowance, the participant was not undertaking full-time study and the participant was not a new apprentice—$3,500; or
  - (b) in any other case—$1,000.
- Step 5. If the participant's rate of total ordinary income on a fortnightly basis for the day is at least $48 but does not exceed the ordinary income free area applicable to the participant for the day under the income test module of the appropriate rate calculator, the participant's working credit balance for the day is neither increased nor reduced.
- Step 6. If the participant's rate of total ordinary income on a fortnightly basis for the day is at least $48 and exceeds the participant's applicable ordinary income free area for the day, the participant's working credit balance, if it is greater than nil on the day, is depleted on that day by the least of:

- (a) the amount of employment income determined under step 1; or
- (b) one fourteenth of the amount by which the participant's rate of total ordinary income on a fortnightly basis exceeds the participant's applicable ordinary income free area; or
- (c) the participant's available working credit balance.

1073G Working out the effect of a working credit depletion on the fortnightly rate of ordinary income for a social security beneficiary

If, under section 1073F, the working credit balance of a working credit participant is depleted on a particular day, the participant's rate of ordinary income on a fortnightly basis for that day is reduced by the working credit depletion amount applicable to that day, determined under step 6 of the method statement, multiplied by 14.

1073H Working out accruals and depletions of working credit for social security pensioners

This section determines, in respect of each working credit participant who is receiving a social security pension, whether, for each day in an instalment period:

- (a) there is an accrual to the participant's working credit balance; or
- (b) the participant's working credit balance is unaffected; or

and, if there is an accrual to, or a depletion from, the participant's working credit balance, the amount of that accrual or depletion.

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount (including a nil amount) of the participant's employment income taken, in accordance with Division 1AA, to have been received on that day.
- Step 2. Multiply the amount determined under step 1 by 364. This is the participant's rate of employment income on a yearly basis for the day.
- Step 3. Add to the participant's rate of employment income on a yearly basis for the day the participant's rate of any other ordinary income on a yearly basis for the day. This is the participant's rate of total ordinary income on a yearly basis for the day.
- Step 4. Divide the participant's rate of total ordinary income on a yearly basis for the day by 26. This is the participant's rate of total ordinary income, expressed on a fortnightly basis, for the day.
- Step 5. Divide the yearly ordinary income free area applicable to the participant for the day under the ordinary income test module of the appropriate rate calculator by 26. This is the participant's applicable ordinary income free area, expressed on a fortnightly basis, for the day.
- Step 6. If the participant's rate of total ordinary income, expressed on a fortnightly basis, for the day, is less than $48, there is an accrual to the participant's working credit balance, for the day, of an amount equal to one fourteenth of the amount by which $48 exceeds that rate. The maximum working credit balance is $1,000.

If the participant's rate of total ordinary income, expressed on a fortnightly basis, for the day, is at least $48 but does not exceed the participant's applicable ordinary income free area, expressed on a fortnightly basis for the day in accordance with step 5, the participant's working credit balance for the day is neither increased nor reduced.
- Step 8. If the participant's rate of total ordinary income, expressed on a fortnightly basis, for the day, is at least $48 and exceeds the participant's applicable ordinary income free area, expressed on a fortnightly basis for the day in accordance with step 5, the participant's working credit balance, if it is greater than nil on the day, is depleted on that day by the least of:
- (a) the amount of employment income determined under step 1; or
  - (b) one fourteenth of the amount by which the participant's rate of total ordinary income, expressed on a fortnightly basis, exceeds the participant's applicable ordinary income free area, expressed on that basis; or
  - (c) the participant's available working credit balance.

1073I Working out the effect of a working credit depletion on the yearly rate of ordinary income for a social security pensioner

If, under section 1073H, the working credit balance of a working credit participant is depleted on a particular day, the participant's rate of ordinary income on a yearly basis for that day is reduced by the working credit depletion amount applicable to that day, determined under step 8 of the method statement, multiplied by 364.

1073J Working credit balance prevents loss of qualification in certain cases

If:

- (a) a person receiving disability support pension, carer payment, youth allowance or jobseeker payment is a working credit participant; and
- (b) either:
  - (i) the participant commences to be taken, under a provision of this Act, to receive employment income; or
  - (ii) there is an increase in the employment income that is taken, under a provision of this Act, to be received by the participant; and
- (c) the participant has a working credit balance greater than nil at the start of the instalment period of the participant in which the commencement or increase occurs; and
- (d) but for the commencement or increase, the participant would have continued to be qualified for the payment mentioned in paragraph (a) until the earlier of:
  - (i) a day determined under Division 8 or 9 of Part 3 of the Administration Act; or
  - (ii) the day on which the participant's working credit balance is reduced to nil;

the participant is to be treated as if he or she had continued to be so qualified until the earlier of the days determined as referred to in subparagraphs (d)(i) and (ii).

Note 2: For below threshold rate see subsection 1082(1).

Step 2. Subtract the deeming threshold from the total value of the person's financial assets.

1083 Actual return on financial assets not treated as ordinary income

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), any return on a financial asset that a person actually earns, derives or receives is taken, for the purposes of this Act, not to be ordinary income of the person.

Subdivision B—Income streams that are not family law affected income streams

1097A Scope of Subdivision

- (1) This Subdivision applies to income streams that are not family law affected income streams.
- (2) However, this Subdivision does not apply to:
  - (a) an asset-tested income stream (long term) that is an account-based pension within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations 1994; or
  - (b) an asset-tested income stream (long term) that is an annuity (within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993) provided under a contract that meets the requirements determined in an instrument under subsection 9(1EA) of this Act.

Note 1: For treatment of an income stream mentioned in subsection (2), see Division 1B.

Note 2: Part 2 of Schedule 11 to the Social Services and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2014 preserves the rules in this Subdivision for a certain kind of income stream that was being provided to a person immediately before 1 January 2015 where the person was receiving an income support payment immediately before that day provided that, since that day, that income stream has been provided to the person and the person has been continuously receiving an income support payment.

1098 Income from asset-test exempt income stream

- (1) For the purpose of working out the annual rate of ordinary income of a person from an asset-test exempt income stream to which this Subdivision applies, the person is taken to receive from that income stream each year the amount worked out under section 1099 or 1099A.

Note: For asset-test exempt income stream see sections 9A, 9B and 9BA.

- (2) Sections 1099 and 1099A do not apply if:
- (a) the income stream is covered by subsection 9BA(1); or
  - (b) on the income stream's commencement day, there was a reasonable likelihood that the income stream would have been covered by subsection 9BA(1), but the income stream is no longer covered by that subsection.

Note: See section 1099AA.

1099 Income—income stream not a defined benefit income stream

If the asset-test exempt income stream to which this Subdivision applies is not a defined benefit income stream, the amount that the person is taken to receive from the income stream each year is worked out as follows:

$$\text{Annual payment} = \frac{\text{Purchase price}}{\text{Relevant number}}$$

where:

annual payment means the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream.

purchase price has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

relevant number has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

Example: Mark is 65 years old and single. He purchases an annuity for $100,000 with a term based on life expectancy (i.e. 15.41 years, which he chooses to round up to 16 years). The annuity has all the revised characteristics listed in the legislation. His annual payment from the annuity totals $9,895. Mark's assessable income from this income stream is:

$$$9,895 - \left[ \frac{$100,000}{16 \text{ years}} \right] = $3,645$$

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.10 General provisions relating to the ordinary income test

Division 1C Income from income streams not covered by Division 1B

Section 1099A

1099A Income—income stream is a defined benefit income stream

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if the asset-test exempt income stream to which this Subdivision applies is a defined benefit income stream, the amount that the person is taken to receive from the income stream each year is worked out as follows:

Annual payment – Deductible amount

where:

annual payment means the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream.

deductible amount has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

Cap on deductible amount

- (2) If:
- (a) the defined benefit income stream is not a military defined benefit income stream; and
  - (b) apart from this subsection, the deductible amount under subsection (1) in relation to the income stream for the year would exceed 10% of the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream;
- then that deductible amount is taken to be an amount equal to 10% of the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream.

1099AA Income from market-linked asset-test exempt income stream

- (1) If either of the following conditions is satisfied in relation to the asset-test exempt income stream to which this Subdivision applies:
- (a) the income stream is covered by subsection 9BA(1);
  - (b) on the income stream's commencement day, there was a reasonable likelihood that the income stream would have been covered by subsection 9BA(1), but the income stream is no longer covered by that subsection;

the annual rate of ordinary income of a person from the income stream is worked out under whichever of subsections (2) and (3) is applicable.

Recipient makes election

(2) If:

- (a) the person has elected that a particular amount is to be the payment, or the total of the payments, to be made under the income stream in respect of a period (the payment period) that:
  - (i) consists of the whole or a part of a particular financial year; and
  - (ii) begins on or after the income stream's commencement day; and
- (b) the election is in force on a particular day in the payment period;

the annual rate of ordinary income of the person from the income stream on that day is worked out using the following formula:

$$\left[ \frac{\text{Total payments}}{\text{Days in payment period}} - \frac{\text{Purchase price}}{\text{Relevant number} \times 365} \right] \times 365$$

where:

purchase price has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

relevant number has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

total payments means the payment, or the total of the payments, to be made under the income stream in respect of the payment period.

Recipient does not make election

- (3) If the person has not elected that a particular amount is to be the payment, or the total of the payments, to be made under the income stream in respect of a period (the payment period) that:
  - (a) consists of the whole or a part of a particular financial year; and

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Section 1099B

---

(b) begins on or after the income stream's commencement day; the annual rate of ordinary income of the person from the income stream on each day during the payment period is worked out using the following formula:

$$\left[ \frac{\text{Default amount}}{\text{Days in payment period}} - \frac{\text{Purchase price}}{\text{Relevant number} \times 365} \right] \times 365$$

where:

default amount means 100% of the amount worked out for the financial year using the formula in subsection 9BA(5) (for pro-rating, see subsection (4)).

purchase price has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

relevant number has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

- (4) If the income stream's commencement day is not a 1 July, the default amount (within the meaning of subsection (3)) for the financial year starting on the preceding 1 July must be reduced on a pro-rata basis by reference to the number of days in the financial year that are on and after the commencement day.

Exception—income stream's commencement day happens in June

- (5) If:
- (a) the income stream's commencement day happens in June; and
  - (b) no payment is made under the income stream for the financial year in which the commencement day happens;
- subsections (2), (3) and (4) do not apply in working out the annual rate of ordinary income of the person from the income stream on a day in that financial year.

1099B Income from asset-tested income stream (long term)

- (1) For the purpose of working out the annual rate of ordinary income of a person from an asset-tested income stream (long term) to which this Subdivision applies, the person is taken to receive from that income stream each year the amount worked out under section 1099C or 1099D.

- (2) Sections 1099C and 1099D do not apply to an income stream if section 1099DAA applies to the income stream.

1099C Income—asset-tested income stream (long term) that is not a defined benefit income stream

If the asset-tested income stream (long term) to which this Subdivision applies is not a defined benefit income stream, the amount that the person is taken to receive from the income stream each year is worked out as follows:

$$\text{Annual payment} - \left[ \frac{\text{Purchase price} - \text{Residual capital value}}{\text{Relevant number}} \right]$$

where:

annual payment means the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream.

purchase price has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

relevant number has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

residual capital value has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

Note: For treatment of asset-tested income streams (short term) see Division 1B of Part 3.10.

Example: Sally is 65 years old and single. She purchases a 10 year annuity for $150,000, with a residual capital value of $20,000. Her total annual annuity payment is $18,337. Sally's assessable income from her 10 year annuity is:

$$$18,337 - \frac{$150,000 - $20,000}{10} = $5,337$$

Section 1099D

1099D Income—asset-tested income stream (long term) that is a defined benefit income stream

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if the asset-tested income stream (long term) to which this Subdivision applies is a defined benefit income stream, the amount that the person is taken to receive from the income stream each year is worked out as follows:

Annual payment – Deductible amount

where:

annual payment means the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream.

deductible amount has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

Cap on deductible amount

- (2) If:
- (a) the defined benefit income stream is not a military defined benefit income stream; and
  - (b) apart from this subsection, the deductible amount under subsection (1) in relation to the income stream for the year would exceed 10% of the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream;
- then that deductible amount is taken to be an amount equal to 10% of the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream.

1099DAA Income from certain low-payment asset-tested income streams

- (1) If:
- (a) an income stream is an asset-tested income stream (long term) to which this Subdivision applies; and
  - (b) the income stream is an allocated pension within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations 1994; and

- (d) on a day in the payment period, the amount worked out using the formula in subsection (2) is less than the amount worked out using the formula in subsection (3);

the annual rate of ordinary income of a person from the income stream on that day is worked out under subsection (3).

Annual rate based on total payments

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(d), the formula in this subsection is:

$$\left[ \frac{\text{Total payments}}{\text{Days in payment period}} - \frac{\text{Purchase price}}{\text{Relevant number} \times 365} \right] \times 365$$

where:

purchase price has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

relevant number has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

total payments means the payment, or the total of the payments, made, or to be made, under the income stream in respect of the payment period.

Annual rate based on minimum amount

- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(d), the formula in this subsection is:

purchase price has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

relevant number has the meaning given by subsection 9(1).

Exception—income stream's commencement day happens in June

(4) If:

- (a) the income stream's commencement day happens in June;
and
  - (b) no payment is made under the income stream for the financial year in which the commencement day happens;
- subsections (2) and (3) do not apply in working out the annual rate of ordinary income of the person from the income stream on a day in that financial year.

1099DAB Income—asset-tested income stream (lifetime)

If the income stream is an asset-tested income stream (lifetime), the amount that the person is taken to receive from the income stream each year is worked out as follows:

Annual payment  $\times$  0.6

where:

annual payment means the amount payable to the person for the year under the income stream.

Subdivision C—Family law affected income streams

1099DA Scope of Subdivision

- (1) This Subdivision applies to family law affected income streams.

- (2) However, this Subdivision does not apply to:
- (a) an asset-tested income stream (long term) that is an account-based pension within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations 1994; or

Division 1D—Aged care accommodation bonds: certain transactions before 6 November 1997

1099E Scope of Division

- (1) This Division applies to a person if:
- (a) at any time from the beginning of 1 October 1997 until the end of 5 November 1997, the person became liable to pay an accommodation bond for entry to a residential care service; and
  - (b) either an accommodation charge would have been payable for the entry, or the person would have been a charge exempt resident, had section 44-8B and Division 57A of the Aged Care (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997 been in force at the time of the entry; and
  - (c) the person later made an agreement (a refund agreement) with the provider of the service that the person's liability to pay an accommodation bond for the entry was to be replaced with a liability to pay an accommodation charge for the entry, and that any payment of any of the bond was to be refunded to the person.

Note: For accommodation bond, accommodation charge and charge exempt resident, see subsection 11(1).

- (2) This Division also applies to a person if the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) on or before 5 November 1997, the person sold his or her principal home for the sole or principal purpose of raising money to pay an accommodation bond for entry to a residential care service; and
  - (b) either an accommodation charge would have been payable for the entry, or the person would have been a charge exempt resident, had section 44-8B and Division 57A of the Aged Care Act 1997 been in force at the time of the entry.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2), the time at which a person sells his or her home is the time when he or she comes under a legal obligation to transfer the home to the buyer.

1099F Exempt bond amount does not count as income

The person's exempt bond amount (see section 1099H) does not count as income of the person for the purposes of this Act.

Note: Income is otherwise defined in section 8.

1099G Person's ordinary income reduced using financial asset rules

- (1) For the purposes of this section, assume that the person's exempt bond amount (see section 1099H) were a financial asset of the person.
- (2) The person's ordinary income for a year is reduced by the amount of ordinary income taken to be received on the asset for the year, as worked out under Division 1B (income from financial assets (including income streams (short term) and certain income streams (long term))).
- (3) In working out that reduction, assume that the total value of the person's financial assets exceeded the person's deeming threshold (deeming threshold is a term used in Division 1B).

Division 2 Conversion of foreign currency amounts

Section 1100

Division 2—Conversion of foreign currency amounts

1100 How value of a payment received in a foreign currency is to be determined

(1) If:

- (a) the rate of a payment to be made to a person under this Act is being worked out for a calculation day; and
- (b) an amount received by the person in a foreign currency needs to be taken into account in working out the rate;

the value in Australian currency of the amount received is to be determined in accordance with this section.

(2) Except in the case of:

- (a) amounts received in a foreign currency in respect of which the Secretary determines that it is not appropriate for this subsection to apply; or
- (b) a payment, or class or kind of payments, received in a foreign currency, being a payment or a class or kind of payments in respect of which the Secretary determines that it is not appropriate for this subsection to apply;

the value in Australian currency of the amount received is to be calculated using the appropriate market exchange rate for the foreign currency on the fifth business day before the calculation day.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the appropriate market exchange rate on a particular day for a foreign currency to which subsection (2) applies is:

- (a) if there is an on-demand airmail buying rate for the currency available at the Commonwealth Bank of Australia at the start of business in Sydney on that day and the Secretary determines it is appropriate to use that rate—that rate; or
- (b) in any other case:
  - (i) if there is another rate of exchange for the currency, or there are other rates of exchange for the currency, available at the Commonwealth Bank of Australia at the start of business in Sydney on that day and the Secretary determines it is appropriate to use the other rate or one of the other rates—the rate so determined; or

- (ii) otherwise—a rate of exchange for the currency available from another source at the start of business in Sydney on that day that the Secretary determines it is appropriate to use.
- (4) In the case of a foreign currency or a payment in a foreign currency in respect of which the Secretary has determined that it is not appropriate for subsection (2) to apply, the value in Australian currency of the amount received is to be calculated using a rate of exchange that the Secretary determines to be appropriate.
  - (5) The Secretary may make written determinations for the purposes of this section.
  - (6) In this section:

business day means a day other than:

- (a) a Saturday; or
- (b) a Sunday; or
- (c) a day that is a public holiday or bank holiday in Canberra or Sydney.

calculation day means the first business day for each month.

month means one of the 12 months of the calendar year.

1100A Determining value of a payment originally denominated in a foreign currency but made in Australian currency

- (1) This section applies if, for the purposes of working out for a calculation day the rate of a payment to be made to a person under this Act, it is necessary to take account of a payment (the foreign payment):
  - (a) that the person received from a source overseas; and
  - (b) that was originally denominated in a foreign currency but was received by the person in Australian currency.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.10 General provisions relating to the ordinary income test

Division 2 Conversion of foreign currency amounts

Section 1100A

---

- (2) For those purposes, the value in Australian currency of the foreign payment is taken to be the value that would have been determined under section 1100 had the person received the foreign payment in the foreign currency.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect regardless of the amount of the foreign payment actually received by the person in Australian currency.
- (4) In this section:
calculation day has the same meaning as in section 1100.

Division 3—Disposal of ordinary income

- (1) This section applies to a person's asset-tested income stream if it is not a defined benefit income stream, it is not an asset-tested income stream (lifetime) and it is not a family law affected income stream.

Section 1119

---

Note: For defined benefit income streams, see section 1120. For asset-tested income streams (lifetime), see sections 1120AA and 1120AB. For family law affected income streams, see section 1120A.

- (2) The value of the income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, worked out:
- (a) if the person receives payments from the income stream 2 or more times a year—in relation to each 6 month period of the income stream's term; and

- (4) If the income stream does not have an account balance, the value of the income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, worked out as follows:

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.12 General provisions relating to the assets test

Division 1 Value of person's assets

Section 1120

---

Example: Sally is 65 years old and single. She purchases a 10 year annuity for $150,000 with a residual capital value of $20,000. Her total annual annuity payment is $18,337. Monthly payments commence on 1 January. Her assessable asset for the first six months will be:

$$$150,000 - \left[ \left( \frac{$150,000 - $20,000}{10 \text{ years}} \right) \times 0 \text{ year} \right] = $150,000$$

Her assessable asset after 30 June in that year will be:

1120 Value of asset-tested income streams that are defined benefit income streams

- (1) This section applies to a person's asset-tested income stream if it is a defined benefit income stream and it is not a family law affected income stream.

Note: For family law affected income streams, see section 1120A.

- (2) The value of the income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, worked out in relation to each 12 month period of the income stream's term.
- (3) The value of the income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, worked out as follows:

Annual payment × Pension valuation factor

where:

annual payment means the amount payable to the person for the relevant 12 month period under the income stream.

pension valuation factor means the pension valuation factor that applies to the person in accordance with the determination made, by legislative instrument, by the Minister for the purposes of this section.

1120AA Value of asset-tested income streams (lifetime) that are managed investments

- (1) This section applies to a person's asset-tested income stream (lifetime), that does not arise under arrangements that are regulated by the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, in relation to a day that is before the person's assessment day (within the meaning of section 1120AB) for the income stream.

Note: For asset-tested income stream (lifetime), see subsection 9(1).

- (2) However, this section does not apply to a family law affected income stream.

Note: For family law affected income streams, see section 1120A.

Value of income stream

- (3) Subject to this section, the value of the person's income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, the purchase amount for the income stream.

Purchase amount

- (4) For the purposes of this section, the purchase amount for the income stream is:
- (a) subject to paragraph (b)—if one or more amounts have been paid for the income stream, the sum of each compounded amount in relation to an amount paid for the income stream, as worked out under subsection (5), less any commuted amounts; or
  - (b) if the circumstances determined in an instrument under subsection (7) apply in relation to the income stream—the amount worked out in accordance with that instrument.
- (5) A compounded amount in relation to an amount paid for the income stream is worked out by applying the following formula for each relevant adjustment day (from the earliest to the latest):

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.12 General provisions relating to the assets test

Division 1 Value of person's assets

Section 1120AA

---

$$\text{Compounded amount for the relevant adjustment day} \times \left( 1 + \frac{\text{Relevant above threshold rate for the relevant adjustment day}}{\text{the relevant adjustment day}} \right)$$

where:

compounded amount for the relevant adjustment day means:

- (a) for the earliest relevant adjustment day—the amount that was paid for the income stream; or
- (b) for each later relevant adjustment day—the result of applying the formula for the most recent earlier relevant adjustment day.

relevant above threshold rate for the relevant adjustment day means the following:

- (a) if the relevant adjustment day is the relevant payment day—zero;
- (b) if the relevant adjustment day is a 12-month anniversary of the relevant payment day—the rate applicable under subsection 1082(2) for that relevant adjustment day, expressed as a decimal fraction.

relevant adjustment day means each of the following:

- (a) the relevant payment day;
- (b) each 12-month anniversary of the relevant payment day.

relevant payment day means the day that the amount was paid for the income stream.

- (6) If the income stream is a joint income stream, then, for the purposes of applying subsections (4) and (5) to the person and to a day covered by subsection (1), an amount paid for the income stream is taken to be that amount multiplied by the proportion of the income stream attributable to the person on that day.
- (7) The Secretary may make a legislative instrument for the purposes of paragraph (4)(b).

1120AB Value of asset-tested income streams (lifetime) that are not managed investments

- (1) This section applies to a person's asset-tested income stream (lifetime) in relation to a day that is on or after the person's assessment day for the income stream.

Note 1: For asset-tested income stream (lifetime), see subsection 9(1). For assessment day, see subsections (6) and (7) of this section.

Note 2: This section applies separately in relation to each asset-tested income stream (lifetime) of a person.

- (2) However, this section does not apply to a family law affected income stream.

Note: For family law affected income streams, see section 1120A.

Value of income stream

- (3) Subject to this section, the value of the person's income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, worked out as follows:

- (a) for a day in the period beginning on the person's assessment day for the income stream and ending at the end of the person's threshold day for the income stream:

Purchase amount  $\times$  0.6

- (b) for a day after the person's threshold day for the income stream:

Purchase amount  $\times$  0.3

Note: For threshold day, see subsections (9) and (10). For purchase amount, see subsection (12).

- (4) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more methods for working out the value of an asset-tested income stream (lifetime) for persons to whom this section applies.

- (5) If one or more amounts worked out in accordance with the instrument are higher than the amount under subsection (3), then the value of the person's income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, the highest of those amounts.

Assessment day

- (6) Subject to subsection (7), for the purposes of this section, a person's assessment day for an asset-tested income stream (lifetime) is:
- (a) if the income stream arises under arrangements that are regulated by the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993—the latest of the following:
    - (i) the day the person first satisfies a condition of release that is mentioned in regulations under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and is of a kind determined in an instrument under subsection (8);
    - (ii) the day the first amount was paid for the income stream;
    - (iii) the day the person acquired the income stream (if no amount is identifiable as having been paid for the income stream); or
  - (b) otherwise:
    - (i) if the commencement day in relation to the income stream is before the day the person reaches pension age—the commencement day in relation to the income stream; or
    - (ii) in any other case—the latest of the day the first amount was paid for the income stream, the day the person reaches pension age and the day the person acquired the income stream (if no amount is identifiable as having been paid for the income stream).
- Note: For commencement day, see subsection 9(1).
- (7) For the purposes of this section, a person's assessment day for an asset-tested income stream (lifetime) that reverted to the person as a reversionary beneficiary is:
- (a) if the income stream reverted to the person on or after the commencement day in relation to the income stream—the day of the reversion; or
  - (b) if the income stream reverted to the person before the commencement day in relation to the income stream and the income stream arises under arrangements that are regulated by the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993:

- (i) if the commencement day in relation to the income stream is before the day the person first satisfies a condition of release that is mentioned in regulations under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and is of a kind determined in an instrument under subsection (8)—the commencement day in relation to the income stream; or
  - (ii) in any other case—the later of the day of the reversion and the day the person first satisfies a condition of release that is mentioned in regulations under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and is of a kind determined in an instrument under subsection (8); or
- (c) if the income stream reverted to the person before the commencement day in relation to the income stream and the income stream does not arise under arrangements that are regulated by the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993:
- (i) if the commencement day in relation to the income stream is before the day the person reaches pension age—the commencement day in relation to the income stream; or
  - (ii) in any other case—the later of the day of the reversion and the day the person reaches pension age.

Note: For commencement day, see subsection 9(1).

- (8) The Secretary may, by notifiable instrument, determine a kind of condition of release for the purposes of subparagraphs (6)(a)(i) and (7)(b)(i) and (ii).

Threshold day

- (9) Subject to subsection (10), for the purposes of this section, a person's threshold day for an asset-tested income stream (lifetime) is worked out using the following method statement:

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.12 General provisions relating to the assets test

Division 1 Value of person's assets

Section 1120AB

Method statement

Step 1. Work out, in relation to a man aged 65 on the person's assessment day for the income stream, the number of expected years remaining in the man's life, by reference to the instrument in force under subsection (11) on that assessment day, rounded down to the nearest whole number of years.

Note: The number of expected years remaining in a 65-year old man's life is used no matter how old the person is and whether the person is a man or a woman.

Step 2. Increase the number of years at step 1 by 65.

Step 3. Subject to step 4, the person's threshold day for the income stream is the later of the following days:

- (a) the day before the person reaches the age in years worked out at step 2;
- (b) the last day of the 5-year period beginning on the person's assessment day for the income stream.

Step 4. If the income stream is a joint income stream, the person's threshold day for the income stream is the later of the following days:

- (a) the day before the oldest of the persons, to whom a proportion of the income stream is attributable on the person's assessment day for the income stream, reaches the age in years worked out at step 2;
- (b) the last day of the 5-year period beginning on the person's assessment day for the income stream.

(10) If:

Section 1120AB

---

- (a) an asset-tested income stream (lifetime) reverts to a person as a reversionary beneficiary on the death of another person; and
  - (b) before the death of the other person, the other person's assessment day for the income stream had occurred;
- then:
- (c) if, before the death of the other person, the other person's threshold day for the income stream had not occurred—the reversionary beneficiary's threshold day for the income stream is taken to be the day that would have been the other person's threshold day if the other person had not died; and
  - (d) if, before the death of the other person, the other person's threshold day for the income stream had occurred—the reversionary beneficiary's threshold day for the income stream is taken to be the other person's threshold day; and
  - (e) if the reversionary beneficiary's assessment day for the income stream worked out under subsection (7) is on or after the reversionary beneficiary's threshold day for the income stream worked out under paragraph (c) or (d) of this subsection:
    - (i) paragraph (3)(a) is taken not to apply to the reversionary beneficiary and the income stream; and
    - (ii) paragraph (3)(b) is taken to apply to the reversionary beneficiary and the income stream for a day that is on or after the reversionary beneficiary's assessment day for the income stream.
- (11) The Secretary may make a notifiable instrument for the purposes of step 1 of the method statement in subsection (9). If there are Life Tables published by the Australian Government Actuary, the Secretary must be satisfied that the instrument is consistent with the latest of those Life Tables.

Purchase amount

- (12) For the purposes of this section, the purchase amount for the income stream is:

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.12 General provisions relating to the assets test

Division 1 Value of person's assets

Section 1120AB

- (a) subject to paragraph (b)—if one or more amounts have been paid for the income stream—the sum of:
    - (i) each compounded amount in relation to an amount paid for the income stream before the person's assessment day for the income stream, as worked out under subsection (13); and
    - (ii) each amount paid for the income stream on or after that assessment day; less any commuted amounts; or
  - (b) if the circumstances determined in an instrument under subsection (15) apply in relation to the income stream—the amount worked out in accordance with that instrument.
- (13) A compounded amount in relation to an amount paid for the income stream before the person's assessment day for the income stream is worked out by applying the following formula for each relevant adjustment day (from the earliest to the latest):

$$\text{Compounded amount for the relevant adjustment day} \times \left( 1 + \frac{\text{Relevant above threshold rate for the relevant adjustment day}}{\text{the relevant adjustment day}} \right)$$

where:

compounded amount for the relevant adjustment day means:

- (a) for the earliest relevant adjustment day—the amount that was paid for the income stream; or
- (b) for each later relevant adjustment day—the result of applying the formula for the most recent earlier relevant adjustment day.

relevant above threshold rate for the relevant adjustment day means:

- (a) if the relevant adjustment day is a 12-month anniversary of the relevant payment day—the rate applicable under subsection 1082(2) for that relevant adjustment day, expressed as a decimal fraction; or expressed as a decimal fraction

relevant adjustment day means each of the following:

- (a) each 12-month anniversary of the relevant payment day that happens before the person's assessment day;
- (b) the person's assessment day.

Note: For assessment day, see subsections (6) and (7).

relevant number of days means the number of days in the period:

- (a) beginning on the day after:
  - (i) if the assessment day is at least 12 months after the relevant payment day—the most recent 12-month anniversary of the relevant payment day; or
  - (ii) otherwise—the relevant payment day; and
- (b) ending at the end of the assessment day.

relevant payment day means the day that the amount was paid for the income stream.

- (14) If the income stream is a joint income stream, then, for the purposes of applying subsections (12) and (13) to the person and to a day covered by subsection (1), an amount paid for the income stream is taken to be that amount multiplied by the proportion of the income stream attributable to the person on that day.
- (15) The Secretary may make a legislative instrument for the purposes of paragraph (12)(b).

1120A Value of asset-tested FLA income streams

- (1) This section applies to family law affected income streams.

- (2) The value of an income stream that is not a defined benefit income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, determined by the Secretary.
- (3) The value of an income stream that is a defined benefit income stream is, for the purposes of the assets test, determined by the Secretary.
- (4) In making a determination under subsection (2) or (3), the Secretary must comply with any relevant decision-making principles in force under subsection (5).

1120B Value of partially asset-test exempt income streams

- (1) This section applies to income streams covered by paragraph 1118(1)(da).

Section 1121

---

- (b) the fund has reserves (within the meaning of section 115 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993).

Note: The value of a person's investment in a superannuation fund is only included in the value of the person's assets after the person reaches pension age or starts to receive a pension or annuity out of the fund (see paragraph 1118(1)(f)).

- (2) Despite paragraph 1118(1)(h), the value of the person's investment in the superannuation fund includes the following amount:

$$\frac{\text{Person's interest in the fund}}{\text{Total interest in the fund}} \times \text{Value of the fund's reserves}$$

- (3) However, if it is not possible to work out the person's interest in the superannuation fund, the value of the person's investment in the fund includes the following amount:

$$\frac{\text{Value of the fund's reserves}}{\text{Number of members in the fund}}$$

1121 Effect of charge or encumbrance on value of assets

- (1) If there is a charge or encumbrance over a particular asset of the person, the value of the asset, for the purposes of calculating the value of the person's assets for the purposes of this Act (other than Division 1B of Part 3.10), is to be reduced by the value of that charge or encumbrance.

Note: This section does not apply to an asset to which section 1121A (primary production assets) applies.

- (1A) Subsection (1) does not apply to a charge that arises under section 1138.

Note: See subsection (5) for a charge that arises under section 1138.

Note: For family member see subsection 23(1).

- (2) The value of a person's primary production asset is worked out in the following way:

(d) either:

(3) This subsection applies to a person if:

(a) either:

- (i) the person is an attributable stakeholder of a company or trust (within the meaning of Part 3.18); or
- (ii) the person is a member of a couple and the other member of the couple is an attributable stakeholder of a company or trust (within the meaning of Part 3.18); and
- (b) the company or trustee has given the Commonwealth a guarantee that the company or trustee will pay any debt that may become payable to the Commonwealth by the person under this Division; and

    - (ia) if DFISA under Part VIIAB of the Veterans' Entitlements Act is payable to the person—1.5 multiplied by the maximum payment rate less the DFISA rate; or
    - (ii) some other rate nominated by the person;whichever is the lowest.

Section 1135

1135 Effect of participation in pension loans scheme—creation of debt

- (1) If the rate of the pension payable by operation of the pension loans scheme is more than the rate that would have been received by the person but for the operation of the scheme, the person owes a debt to the Commonwealth.
- (3) This is how to work out the amount of the debt owed by the person from time to time:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the sum of the amount of pension received by the person from time to time under the pension loans scheme: the result is the primary loan amount.
- Step 2. Add to the primary loan amount the amount of any registration costs payable by the person under subsection 1143(4): the result is the registration cost adjusted amount.
- Step 3. Take away from the registration cost adjusted amount the sum of the amount of pension (if any) that would have been received by the person but for the operation of the scheme: the result is the basic amount of debt.
- Step 4. Add to the basic amount of debt the amount of interest payable. The interest payable is compound interest at the rate fixed under subsection (4) and compounding fortnightly: the result is the total amount of debt.
- Step 5. From the total amount of debt take away any amount of the debt already paid to the Commonwealth: the result is the current amount of debt owed by the person.

- (4) The rate at which compound interest is payable under subsection (3) is the rate fixed from time to time by the Minister by legislative instrument.

1135A Effect of participation in pension loans scheme—maximum loan available

- (1) The maximum loan available to a person under the pension loans scheme is the amount worked out using the formula:

$$\text{age component amount} \times \frac{\text{value of real assets}}{10,000}$$

where:

age component amount means the amount that is specified in a determination under subsection (3) and that relates to:

- (a) if the person is not a member of a couple—the age the person turned on his or her last birthday; or
- (b) if the person is a member of a couple—the age the younger member of the couple turned on his or her last birthday.

value of real assets means:

- (a) if neither subparagraph 1133(1)(d)(ii) nor subparagraph 1133(2)(d)(ii) applied to the person when the person made his or her request to participate in the pension loans scheme—the value of the real assets (after deduction of any nominated amount); or
- (b) if subparagraph 1133(1)(d)(ii) or (2)(d)(ii) applied to the person when the person made his or her request to participate in the pension loans scheme—the value of the charge referred to in paragraph 1133(3)(c).

Note 1: For real assets see subsection 1133AA(1).

Note 2: For nominated amount see subsection 1133AA(1).

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following provisions have effect:

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.12 General provisions relating to the assets test

Division 4 Pension loans scheme

Section 1136

---

- (a) if, but for this paragraph, the value of real assets would be an amount that exceeds $10,000 but is not a multiple of $10,000, the value is to be taken to be the next lower amount that is a multiple of $10,000;
  - (b) if, but for this paragraph, the value of real assets would be less than $10,000, the value is to be taken to be nil.
- (3) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, make a determination for the purposes of the following:
  - (a) the definition of age component amount in subsection (1) of this section;
  - (b) the definition of age component amount in subsection 52ZCA(1) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986.

1136 Need for a request to participate

- (1) A person who wants to participate in the pension loans scheme must make a request to participate in accordance with this section.
- (1A) A request under subsection (1) must:
  - (a) specify any real property that is not to be included in working out the value of real assets for the purposes of sections 1133 and 1135A, or that is not to be subject to a charge under section 1138; and
  - (b) specify an amount (if any) to be the nominated amount for the purposes of this Division; and
  - (c) specify the rate of the pension (if any) nominated by the person for the purposes of subparagraph 1134(1)(e)(ii).
- (1B) Paragraphs (1A)(a) and (b) do not apply if subparagraph 1133(1)(d)(ii) or (2)(d)(ii) applied to the person when the person made his or her request to participate in the pension loans scheme.
- (2) The request must be signed:
  - (a) if the person is not a member of a couple—by the person; or
  - (b) if the person is a member of a couple—by both members of the couple.

- (3) The request must be:
  - (a) in writing; and
  - (b) in a form approved by the Secretary; and

  - (a) nominate an amount to be the nominated amount for the purposes of this Division; or
  - (b) nominate a rate of pension for the purposes of subparagraph 1134(1)(e)(ii); or
  - (c) change the nominated amount earlier specified; or
  - (d) change the rate of the pension earlier specified;must make a request that specifies the nomination or change (as the case may be).
- (1A) Paragraphs (1)(a) and (c) do not apply if subparagraph 1133(1)(d)(ii) or (2)(d)(ii) applied to the person when the person made his or her request to participate in the pension loans scheme.
- (2) A request under subsection (1) must be signed:
  - (a) if the person is not a member of a couple—by the person; or

1157P Method of valuing loan fringe benefits

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the value of a loan fringe benefit is to be worked out in accordance with section 1157Q.
- (2) If a determination is in force under section 1157R, the value of a loan fringe benefit is to be worked out in accordance with the determination.

1157Q Value of loan fringe benefits

- (1) This is how to work out the value of a loan fringe benefit:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out whether the loan is a housing loan or another type of loan.

Note: For housing loan see subsection 10A(9).

Step 2. Work out the notional rate of interest for the loan using subsection (2), (3) or (4).

Step 3. Work out the actual rate of interest for the loan in the appropriate tax year using subsection (5).

Step 4. Work out whether the actual rate of interest exceeds the notional rate of interest.

Step 5. If the actual rate of interest is equal to or exceeds the notional rate of interest, the value of the loan fringe benefit is nil.

Note: If the value of the loan fringe benefit is nil, you do not have to go any further in the Method statement.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.12A Provisions for carer allowance and seniors health card income test

Division 6 Value of loan fringe benefits

Section 1157Q

- Step 6. If the actual rate of interest is less than the notional rate of interest, take the actual rate of interest away from the notional rate of interest.
- Step 7. Work out the amount of the loan (both the principal and interest) that is outstanding in the appropriate tax year using subsection (6).
- Step 8. Multiply the rate of interest obtained in Step 6 and the amount obtained in Step 7: the result is the interim value of the loan.
- Step 9. Work out how many complete weeks in the appropriate tax year the person had or will have the loan: the result is the number of allowable weeks.
- Step 10. Apply the formula:
- $$\frac{\text{number of allowable weeks} \times \text{interim value of the loan}}{52}$$
- Step 11. The amount obtained by applying the formula in Step 10 is the value of the loan fringe benefit.
- Note: If the person is a member of a couple, the value of the loan fringe benefit is to be halved in certain circumstances (see subsection (7)).

- (2) The notional rate of interest for the tax year ending 30 June 1993 is:

- that is available on that day from a bank which is one of 4 banks specified in a determination made, by legislative instrument, by the Minister.
- (5) The actual rate of interest for the loan is:
- (a) if the loan starts after 1 July in the appropriate tax year—the rate of interest that is payable under the loan on the day on which the loan starts; and
  - (b) in any other case—the rate of interest that is payable under the loan on 1 July in the appropriate tax year.
- (6) The amount of the loan that is outstanding is:

1192 Indexation of amounts

- (1) If an amount is to be indexed under this Division on an indexation day, this Act has effect as if the indexed amount were substituted for that amount on that day.
- (2) This is how to work out the indexed amount for an amount that is to be indexed under this Division on an indexation day:

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.16 Indexation and adjustment of amounts

Division 2 CPI indexation

Section 1192

---

Method statement

- Step 1. Use section 1193 to work out the indexation factor for the amount on the indexation day.
- Step 2. Work out the current figure for the amount immediately before the indexation day.
- Step 3. Multiply the current figure by the indexation factor: the result is the provisional indexed amount.
- Step 4. Use section 1194 to round off the provisional indexed amount: subject to Division 3, the result is the indexed amount. (The indexed amount (including one replaced under Division 3) may be increased under section 1195 in certain cases.)

Note: For current figure see subsection 20(1).

- (4AB) The first indexation of the amounts to which item 14AAA of the CPI Indexation Table in subsection 1191(1) relates is to take place on 1 July 2015.
- (4AC) Amounts under item 14AAA of the CPI Indexation Table in subsection 1191(1) are not to be indexed on 1 July of the first financial year beginning on or after the day this subsection commences and on 1 July of the next 2 financial years.

1195 Certain indexed amounts to be increased in line with increases in Male Total Average Weekly Earnings

- (1) For the purposes of this section:
  - (a) a category A amount is the annual rate specified in point 1068A-B1; and
  - (b) a category B amount is an amount specified as set out below:
    - (i) point 1064-B1—Table B—item 2—column 3;
    - (ii) point 1065-B1—Table B—item 2—column 3.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.16 Indexation and adjustment of amounts

Section 1195

---

(2) If:

- (a) a category A amount is to be indexed under this Division on an indexation day; and
- (b) 25% of the annualised MTAWWE figure for whichever of the following quarters is applicable:
  - (i) if the indexation day is a 20 March—the most recent December quarter;
  - (ii) if the indexation day is a 20 September—the most recent June quarter;

exceeds the indexed amount for the category A amount;

then:

- (c) the indexed amount for the category A amount is to be increased by an amount equal to the excess; and
- (d) if the indexed amount for the category A amount (as increased under paragraph (c)) is not a multiple of $2.60, the indexed amount (as increased under paragraph (c)) is to be further increased by rounding up to the next highest multiple of $2.60.

(2A) If:

- (a) a category B amount is to be indexed under this Division on an indexation day; and
- (b) 50% of the combined couple benchmark for that indexation day exceeds the indexed amount for the category B amount;

then:

- (c) the indexed amount for the category B amount is to be increased by an amount equal to the excess; and
- (d) if the indexed amount for the category B amount (as increased under paragraph (c)) is not a multiple of $2.60, the indexed amount (as increased under paragraph (c)) is to be further increased by rounding up to the next highest multiple of $2.60.

(2B) For the purposes of this section, the combined couple benchmark, for an indexation day, is 41.76% of the annualised MTAWWE figure for whichever of the following quarters is applicable:

- (a) if the indexation day is a 20 March—the most recent December quarter;
  - (b) if the indexation day is a 20 September—the most recent June quarter.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the annualised MTAW figure for a quarter is 52 times the amount set out for the reference period in the quarter under the headings “Average Weekly Earnings of Employees, Australia—Males—All males—Total earnings—ORIGINAL” in a document published by the Australian Statistician entitled “Average Weekly Earnings, States and Australia”.
- (4) If at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this section), the Australian Statistician publishes the amount referred to in subsection (3):
  - (a) under differently described headings (the new headings); or
  - (b) in a document entitled otherwise than as described in subsection (3) (the new document);then the annualised MTAW figure is to be calculated in accordance with subsection (3) as if the references to:
  - (c) “Average Weekly Earnings of Employees, Australia—Males—All males—Total earnings—ORIGINAL”; or
  - (d) “Average Weekly Earnings, States and Australia”;were references to the new headings and/or the new document, as the case requires.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, the reference period in a particular quarter is the period described by the Australian Statistician as the pay period ending on or before a specified day that is the third Friday of the middle month of that quarter.
- (6) If at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this section), the Australian Statistician publishes an amount in substitution for a particular amount previously published by the Australian Statistician, the publication of the later amount is to be disregarded for the purposes of this section.

Division 3—Social security pension indexation using Pensioner and Beneficiary Living Cost Index

1196 Social security pension indexation using Pensioner and Beneficiary Living Cost Index

- (1) This section applies to the amount (the starting amount) referred to in column 2 of item 1 of the table in subsection 1191(1), except to the extent that it covers the maximum basic rate for pension PP (single).
- (2) If the indexed amount for the starting amount, worked out under section 1192 on an indexation day and disregarding section 1195 and this Division, is less than the living cost amount worked out on that indexation day using the following method statement, then that indexed amount is taken to be an amount equal to that living cost amount:

Method statement

- Step 1. Use section 1197 to work out the living cost indexation factor on that indexation day.
- Step 2. Work out the current figure for the starting amount immediately before that indexation day.
Note: For current figure see subsection 20(1).
- Step 3. Multiply the current figure by the living cost indexation factor: the result is the provisional living cost amount.
- Step 4. Use section 1198 to round off the provisional living cost amount: the result is the living cost amount.

Note 1: If the indexed amount for the starting amount, worked out under section 1192, is taken to be an amount equal to that living cost amount, there may be a further increase of that replaced indexed amount under section 1195.

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.16 Indexation and adjustment of amounts

Division 3 Social security pension indexation using Pensioner and Beneficiary Living Cost Index

Section 1197

---

Note 2: On and after 20 March 2013, the indexation of certain amounts may be affected by Division 8.

1197 Living cost indexation factor

- (1) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the living cost indexation factor on an indexation day is:

$$\frac{\text{Living cost index number for reference quarter}}{\text{Living cost index number for base quarter}}$$ worked out to 3 decimal places.

Definitions

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the living cost index number, in relation to a quarter, is the All Groups Pensioner and Beneficiary Living Cost Index number that is the weighted average of the 8 capital cities and is published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the reference quarter is:
- (a) if the indexation day is a 20 March—the most recent December quarter before the indexation day; and
  - (b) if the indexation day is a 20 September—the most recent June quarter before the indexation day.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the base quarter is the June or December quarter that:
- (a) is a quarter before the reference quarter; and
  - (b) has the highest living cost index number.

Rounding

- (5) If a living cost indexation factor worked out under subsection (1) would, if it were worked out to 4 decimal places, end in a number that is greater than 4, that indexation factor is to be increased by 0.001.

- (6) If a living cost indexation factor worked out under subsections (1) and (5) would be less than 1, that indexation factor is to be increased to 1.

Publication of substituted living cost index numbers

- (7) Subject to subsection (8), if at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this section) the Australian Statistician publishes a living cost index number for a quarter in substitution for a living cost index number previously published by the Australian Statistician for that quarter, the publication of the later living cost index number is to be disregarded for the purposes of this section.

Change to index reference period

- (8) If at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this section) the Australian Statistician changes the index reference period for the Pensioner and Beneficiary Living Cost Index, regard is to be had, for the purposes of applying this section after the change takes place, only to living cost index numbers published in terms of the new index reference period.

1198 Rounding off amounts

- (1) If a provisional living cost amount is a multiple of $2.60, the provisional living cost amount becomes the living cost amount.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if a provisional living cost amount is not a multiple of $2.60, the living cost amount is the provisional living cost amount rounded up or down to the nearest multiple of $2.60.
- (3) If a provisional living cost amount is not a multiple of $2.60 but is a multiple of $1.30, the living cost amount is the provisional living cost amount rounded up to the nearest multiple of $2.60.

1198A Adjustment of single pension rate MBR amounts

- (1) This Act has effect as if, on 20 March (an indexation day) and 20 September (an indexation day) each year, the adjusted single pension amount were substituted for each single pension rate MBR amount (see item 1AAA of the table in section 1190).
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the adjusted single pension amount is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount substituted for the amount specified in column 3 of item 2 of Table B in point 1064-B1 on that indexation day under section 1192.
- Step 2. Multiply the amount worked out at step 1 by 2.
- Step 3. Work out 66.33% of the amount worked out at step 2.
- Step 4. Round the amount worked out at step 3 to the nearest multiple of $2.60 (rounding up if necessary): the result is the adjusted single pension amount.

Part 3.16A—Advance payment deductions

1206H Advance payment deduction

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 1206L, an advance payment deduction is to be made from the rate of a social security entitlement that is payable to a person if:
- (a) the person has received an advance payment, or an instalment of an advance payment, of that social security entitlement or of another social security entitlement that was previously payable to the person; and
  - (b) the person has not yet repaid the whole of the advance payment or instalment; and
  - (c) the amount of the advance payment or instalment that has not been repaid is not a debt under subsection 1224E(1).

Note: For social security entitlement see subsection 23(1).

- (2) An advance payment deduction is not to be made from a person's rate on:
- (a) the payday on which the advance payment is paid; or
  - (b) the payday on which the first instalment of the advance payment is paid;
- as the case requires.

1206J Amount of advance payment deduction—basic calculation

Subject to sections 1206K, 1206L, 1206M and 1206N, the advance payment deduction for an advance payment of a social security entitlement is worked out by dividing the full amount of the advance payment by 13.

Section 1206K

1206K Person may request larger advance payment deduction

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and sections 1206L, 1206M and 1206N, a person's advance payment deduction is increased to a larger amount if the person asks the Secretary in writing for the advance payment deduction to be the larger amount.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the Secretary is satisfied that the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the advance payment deduction were the larger amount.

1206L Reduction of advance payment deduction in cases of severe financial hardship

Reduction

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and sections 1206M and 1206N, if:
  - (a) the person applies in writing to the Secretary for an advance payment deduction to be decreased, or to be stopped, because of severe financial hardship; and
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that:
    - (i) the person's circumstances are exceptional and could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time of the person's application for the advance payment; and
    - (ii) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the advance payment deduction that would otherwise apply were to continue;

the Secretary may determine in writing that, for the period specified in the determination, the advance payment deduction is to be a lesser amount (which may be a nil amount) specified in the determination.

Review of reduction

- (2) At any time while the determination is in force, the Secretary may:
  - (a) vary the determination so as to require to be deducted from the person's rate an advance payment deduction larger than the deduction (if any) previously applying under the

Section 1206M

determination, but smaller than the deduction applying immediately prior to the determination; or

(b) revoke the determination;

but only if the Secretary is satisfied that the person would not suffer severe financial hardship because of the variation or revocation.

Variation or revocation in writing

(3) A variation or revocation of a determination must be in writing.

1206M The final advance payment deduction

Final advance payment deduction not to exceed unpaid amount

(1) If an advance payment deduction that would otherwise be deducted from a person's rate exceeds the part of the advance payment that the person has not yet repaid (by previous deductions under this Part or otherwise), the amount of that advance payment deduction equals the part that the person has not yet repaid.

Example:

Facts: Assume that, in the example at the end of section 1206J, Anne has requested that the advance payment deduction be the larger amount of $55 (see section 1206K), so that the advance payment of $450 will be repaid sooner.

Application: If $55 is deducted from Anne's fortnightly rate of benefit, $440 will have been repaid after 8 successive fortnights, leaving $10 unpaid. Under section 1206M, the final advance payment deduction will be $10.

This section subject to section 1206N

(2) This section has effect subject to section 1206N.

1206N Provisional payment rate insufficient to cover advance payment deduction

(1) If the provisional payment rate referred to in the relevant Rate Calculator is less than the advance payment deduction would be

- (b) the provisional payment rate worked out for the person using Pension Rate Calculator A in accordance with Step 1 of the Method statement in point 1065-A1 in Pension Rate Calculator B is less than the advance payment deduction would be apart from this subsection;

Section 1209U

---

- (7) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, make determinations for the purposes of this section.

1209U Waiver of contravention of this Division

- (1) A contravention of a requirement of this Division concerning a particular matter, in relation to a trust that would be a special disability trust if it were not for the contravention, does not prevent the trust being a special disability trust if:
- (a) the Secretary, by written notice (a waiver notice) to the trustees, waives the requirement as it concerns that matter; and
  - (b) in a case where the waiver notice requires the trustees to comply with any conditions relating to the matter—the trustees comply with those conditions within the time or times (if any) stated in the waiver notice.
- (2) A waiver notice has effect, subject to any conditions mentioned in paragraph (1)(b):
- (a) from:
    - (i) the time of the contravention; or
    - (ii) if the waiver notice states a time for the start of its period of effect that is after the time of the contravention—the stated time; and
  - (b) if the waiver notice states a time for the end of its period of effect—until the stated time.
- (3) If guidelines are made under subsection (4), a decision in relation to giving a waiver notice to the trustees of the trust must be made in accordance with the guidelines.
- (4) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, make guidelines for deciding any or all of the following:
- (a) whether or not to give waiver notices to trustees of trusts;
  - (b) what conditions to include in waiver notices;
  - (c) the periods during which waiver notices are to have effect.

Division 2—Income of special disability trusts

1209V Attribution of income

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an amount of income that a special disability trust derives is taken not to be income received by any individual.

Note: For special disability trust, see section 1209L.

- (2) This section has effect despite Division 7 of Part 3.18 and any other provisions of this Act.

1209X Income amounts from special disability trusts

An income amount that the principal beneficiary of a special disability trust receives is not income of the beneficiary for the purposes of this Act to the extent that consideration for the income amount was provided by a distribution from the trust.

Note 1: For income amount, see section 8.

Note 2: For special disability trust, see section 1209L.

Division 3—Assets of special disability trusts

1209Y Attribution of assets

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the assets of a special disability trust are not to be included in the assets of the principal beneficiary of the trust.

Note: For special disability trust, see section 1209L.

- (2) However, this section does not apply to the extent that the value of the assets owned by the trust exceeds the trust's asset value limit.

- (3) The asset value limit of a special disability trust is $500,000.

Note: This amount is indexed annually on 1 July (see sections 1191 to 1194).

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2), disregard the value of any right or interest of the trust in the principal home of the principal beneficiary of the trust.

Note: For principal home, see subsections 11(5) to (7).

- (5) This section has effect despite Division 8 of Part 3.18 and any other provisions of this Act.

Division 4—Transfers to special disability trusts

1209Z Effect of certain transfers to special disability trusts

- (1) If a person transfers an asset (the transferred asset) to a special disability trust, the transfer is taken not to be a disposal of the asset (within the meaning of section 1123) if:
- (a) the person is an immediate family member of the principal beneficiary of the trust; and
  - (b) the person, or the person's partner:
    - (i) is receiving a social security pension and has reached pension age; or
    - (ii) is receiving a service pension and has reached pension age within the meaning of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; or
    - (iii) is receiving income support supplement and has reached qualifying age within the meaning of section 5Q of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; or
    - (iv) is receiving a veteran payment and has reached pension age; and
  - (c) the person receives no consideration, and is not entitled to any consideration, for the transfer; and
  - (d) the transfer is unconditional; and
  - (e) the value of the transferred asset does not exceed $500,000; and
  - (f) in a case where there has already been a transfer to which this section has applied (an exempt transfer), by that person or any other person, to the trust or any other special disability trust that had the same principal beneficiary—the sum of:
    - (i) the values of all of the assets transferred, by exempt transfers that have already been made, to the trust or any other special disability trust that had the same principal beneficiary; and
    - (ii) the value of the transferred asset;does not exceed $500,000.

Section 1209ZA

Note 1: For special disability trust, see section 1209L.

Note 2: For immediate family member, see subsection 23(1).

Note 3: For pension age (except for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) of this section), see subsections 23(5A) to (5D).

Note 4: For social security pension, service pension and income support supplement, see subsection 23(1).

(2) This section has effect subject to sections 1209ZA and 1209ZD.

(3) In this section:

other special disability trust includes a special disability trust within the meaning of the Veterans' Entitlements Act.

value, of an asset transferred to a special disability trust, means the market value of the asset at the time of the transfer.

1209ZA The effect of exceeding the $500,000 limit

(1) If section 1209Z would apply to a transfer of an asset except for the fact that the value of the transferred asset exceeds $500,000, that section does not prevent the transfer from being a disposal or disposition of the asset, but the amount of the disposal or disposition is taken to be the amount of the excess.

(2) If:

(a) section 1209Z would apply to a transfer of an asset but for the fact that the sum of:

(i) the values of all of the exempt transfers that have already been made to the trust or any other special disability trust that had the same principal beneficiary; and

(ii) the value of the transferred asset; exceeds $500,000; and

(b) that sum would not exceed $500,000 if the value of the transferred asset were disregarded;

Section 1209ZB

that section does not prevent the transfer from being a disposal of the asset, but the amount of the disposal or disposition is taken to be the amount of the excess referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) This section has effect subject to section 1209ZD.

(4) In this section:

other special disability trust includes a special disability trust within the meaning of the Veterans' Entitlements Act.

value, of an asset transferred to a special disability trust, means the market value of the asset at the time of the transfer.

1209ZB Transfers by the immediate family members prior to reaching pension age etc.

(1) If:

- (a) an immediate family member of the principal beneficiary of a special disability trust transfers an asset to the trust; and
- (b) at the time of the transfer, neither the immediate family member nor the partner of the immediate family member is a person who:
  - (i) is receiving a social security pension and has reached pension age; or
  - (ii) is receiving a service pension and has reached pension age within the meaning of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; or
  - (iii) is receiving income support supplement and has reached qualifying age within the meaning of section 5Q of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; or
  - (iv) is receiving a veteran payment and has reached pension age;

the immediate family member is taken for the purposes of this Division only to transfer the asset to the trust at the earliest time at which subparagraph (b)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) applies to the immediate family member or partner.

Note 1: For immediate family member, see subsection 23(1).

Chapter 3 General provisions relating to payability and rates

Part 3.18A Private financial provision for certain people with disabilities

Note 4: For social security pension, service pension and income support supplement, see subsection 23(1).

- (2) However, if under subsection (1) transfers of assets to the trust by different immediate family members are taken to have been made on the same day, the transfers are taken to have been made on that day in the order in which they would have been taken to be made but for this Division.

Note: For immediate family member, see subsection 23(1).

- (3) This section does not affect the operation of Part 3.12 or any other provision of this Act outside of this Division.

1209ZC Transfers by principal beneficiaries or partners

- (1) If a person transfers an asset to a special disability trust, the transfer is taken not to be a disposal of the asset (within the meaning of section 1123) if:
- (a) the person is the principal beneficiary of the trust, or the principal beneficiary's partner; and
  - (b) the person receives no consideration, and is not entitled to any consideration, for the transfer; and
  - (c) the transfer is unconditional.

Note 1: For special disability trust see section 1209L.

Note 2: Section 1209R limits the circumstances in which the principal beneficiary or the principal beneficiary's partner can transfer assets to the trust.

- (2) This section has effect subject to section 1209ZD.

1209ZD Cessation of special disability trusts

- (1) If:
- (a) a special disability trust ceases to exist or ceases to be a special disability trust; and

Section 1209ZD

- (b) a person had transferred an asset to the trust during the period of 5 years immediately preceding the cessation; and
  - (c) section 1209Z, 1209ZA or 1209ZC applied to the transfer; then the transfer is taken, after the cessation, to be a disposal or disposition of the asset that occurred at the time of the transfer.
- (2) The amount of the disposal or disposition is taken to be the amount worked out using the formula:

$$\left( \text{Asset value} \times \frac{\text{Final value of trust assets}}{\text{Initial value of trust assets}} \right) + \text{Subsection 1209ZA(2) amount}$$

where:

asset value means:

- (a) if section 1209Z or 1209ZC applied to the transfer—the value of the asset at the time of the transfer; or
- (b) if subsection 1209ZA(1) applied to the transfer—$500,000; or
- (c) if subsection 1209ZA(2) applied to the transfer—the difference between the value of the asset at the time of the transfer and the amount that was taken under that subsection to be the amount of the disposal or disposition of the asset.

final value of trust assets means the value of all of the assets of the trust at the time of the cessation.

initial value of trust assets means the value of all of the assets of the trust at the time of the transfer.

subsection 1209ZA(2) amount means the amount (if any) that was taken under subsection 1209ZA(2) to be the amount of the disposal or disposition of the asset.

- (3) If the special disability trust ceases to exist, or ceases to be a special disability trust, because the principal beneficiary dies, the value of the asset at the time of the transfer is taken for the purposes of this section to be the value of so much (if any) of the

Part 3.19—Miscellaneous

1210 Application of income and assets test reductions and of compensation reductions for income tax purposes

- (1) If:
- (a) the rate of a person's social security payment is increased under Part 3.7 (rent assistance) and/or one or more of the following Modules of the Rate Calculator:
    - (i) the pension supplement Module (the PS Module) (if any);
    - (ia) the energy supplement Module (the ES Module);
    - (ii) the pharmaceutical allowance Module (the PA Module) (if any); and
  - (b) that rate is to be reduced under:
    - (i) the income test Module or the assets test Module of the Rate Calculator; or
    - (ii) section 1173 (compensation reductions);
- the reduction is to be applied as follows (in descending order):

Item	Component of the rate
1	all of the rate apart from any increase mentioned in paragraph (a)
2	the portion of the person's pension supplement amount (if any) equal to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>(a) if the Rate Calculator produces an annual rate—the person's pension supplement basic amount; and</li><li>(b) if the Rate Calculator produces a fortnightly rate—<math>\frac{1}{26}</math> of the person's pension supplement basic amount</li></ul>
3	(a) if an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force—any remaining portion of the person's pension supplement amount; or (b) otherwise—any remaining portion of the person's pension supplement amount to the extent to which it exceeds the person's minimum pension supplement amount
4	the amount of any increase under Part 3.7
4A	the amount of any increase under the ES Module

Section 1210

Item	Component of the rate
5	the person's minimum pension supplement amount
6	the amount of any increase under the PA Module

Note 1: For table item 4A, the amount will be nil if quarterly energy supplement is payable to the person (for example, see point 1064-C2). See also subsection (2A).

Note 2: Table item 5 will not apply if an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force, as the rate would have already been reduced to nil.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1):

- (a) disregard table items 2, 3 and 5 if the person's rate is increased under the PA Module (if any) of the Rate Calculator; and
- (b) disregard table item 6 if the person's rate is increased under the PS Module (if any) of the Rate Calculator.

(2A) If:

- (a) quarterly energy supplement is payable to a person; and
- (b) if quarterly energy supplement were not payable to the person:
  - (i) the rate (the main rate) of the person's social security payment would be increased under the ES Module of the Rate Calculator; and
  - (ii) the main rate would be reduced as described in paragraph (1)(b); and
- (c) the social security payment:
  - (i) is not a social security pension; or
  - (ii) is a disability support pension to which subsection 1066A(1) or 1066B(1) applies; or
  - (iii) if the person has not reached pension age—is a pension PP (single);

the reduction is to be applied to the components mentioned in items 5 and 6 of the table in subsection (1) only to the extent that the amount of the reduction (after it is applied to the components mentioned in items 1 to 4) exceeds the amount of the increase mentioned in subparagraph (b)(i) of this subsection.

Section 1210

(3) If:

- (a) the rate (the main rate) of a person's social security payment is increased under the PS Module of the Rate Calculator; and
- (b) that rate is to be reduced as described in paragraph (1)(b); and
- (c) an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force;

the person's quarterly pension supplement is reduced to the same extent (if any) that the component of the main rate that would correspond to the person's minimum pension supplement amount would be reduced under subsection (1) were the election not in force.

Note: The reduction will be disregarded unless the person's quarterly pension supplement is reduced to nil (see subsection 43(5A) of the Administration Act).

(3A) If:

- (a) quarterly energy supplement is payable to a person; and
- (b) if quarterly energy supplement were not payable to the person:
  - (i) the rate (the main rate) of the person's social security payment would be increased under the ES Module of the Rate Calculator; and
  - (ii) the main rate would be reduced as described in paragraph (1)(b);

the person's quarterly energy supplement is reduced to the same extent (if any) that the component of the main rate that would correspond to the person's energy supplement would be reduced under subsection (1) were quarterly energy supplement not payable to the person.

Note: The reduction may be disregarded unless the main rate would be reduced to nil (see subsection 43(5B) of the Administration Act).

Chapter 4—International agreements and portability

Part 4.2—Overseas portability

Division 1—Preliminary

1211 Social Security (International Agreements) Act overrides Part

Australian resident disability support pensioner means a person who qualifies for disability support pension only because he or she is an Australian resident.

claim, in relation to a social security payment, includes a claim that is taken to have been made under a provision of the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999.

1212A Meaning of acute family crisis

For the purposes of this Part, a person's absence is for the purpose of attending to an acute family crisis at a particular time if the Secretary is satisfied that the absence is, at that time:

- (a) for the purpose of visiting a family member who is critically ill; or
- (b) for the purpose of visiting a family member who is hospitalised with a serious illness; or
- (c) for a purpose relating to the death of a family member; or

or
- (c) for a purpose specified in the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

1212C Meaning of *temporary absence

For the purposes of this Part, a person's absence from Australia is temporary if, throughout the absence, the person does not cease to reside in Australia (within the meaning of subsection 7(3)).

1212D Part does not affect need for qualification

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Part confers a right on a person to continue to be paid a social security payment if the person is not qualified for the payment (even if the person's failure to qualify is related to the absence).

Division 2—Portability of social security payments

Subdivision A—Basic portability provisions

1213 Persons to whom Division applies

This Division applies to a person during a period (the period of absence) throughout which the person is continuously absent from Australia, if:

- (a) immediately before the period of absence commenced, the person was receiving a social security payment (the payment) mentioned in column 2 of the table at the end of section 1217; or
- (b) during the period of absence, the person's claim for such a payment is granted under the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999.

1214 Some payments generally portable with no time limit

- (1) If the person's maximum portability period for the payment is an unlimited period, the person's right to continue to be paid the payment throughout the period of absence is not affected merely by the absence.

Note 1: Section 1217 defines the person's maximum portability period for the payment.

Note 2: However, the person's rate of payment may be affected after 26 weeks—see Division 3.

- (2) This section is subject to section 1220.

1215 Some payments generally portable with time limit

- (1) If the person's maximum portability period for the payment is not an unlimited period, the following rules apply:
  - (a) throughout the person's portability period for the payment, the person's right to continue to be paid the payment is not affected merely by the absence;

Part 4.2 Overseas portability

Division 2 Portability of social security payments

Section 1216

- (b) throughout so much (if any) of the period of absence as occurs after the end of the person's portability period for the payment, the payment is not payable to the person.

Note: Section 1217 defines the person's maximum portability period and portability period for the payment.

- (2) This section is subject to Subdivision B of this Division (which contains exceptions) and section 1220.

1216 Amounts added to rate

- (1) During the period of absence, rent assistance, incentive allowance and pharmaceutical allowance are not to be added to the person's rate under Chapter 3 after whichever of the following times applies:

- (a) if the person's maximum portability period for the payment is an unlimited period—26 weeks after the period of absence commenced;
- (b) otherwise—the end of the person's portability period for the payment.

- (2) If:

- (a) the 26 weeks mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) ends on or after 11 March 2020; and
- (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the person's absence from Australia is temporary; and
- (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the person is unable to return to Australia before the end of that 26-week period because of the impact of the coronavirus known as COVID-19;

the Secretary may, in relation to the person, determine that a reference to 26 weeks in paragraph (1)(a) is taken to be a reference to another number of weeks. However, the Secretary must ensure that the determination does not result in a period referred to in that paragraph that ends after 30 June 2021.

- (3) Despite Subdivision B of Division 9 of Part 3 of the Administration Act, a favourable determination (within the meaning of section 108 of that Act) that is made as a result of a determination referred to in subsection (2) of this section may be expressed to take effect on a day earlier than otherwise permitted by that Subdivision.

1217 Meaning of maximum portability period, allowable absence and *portability period

Meaning of maximum portability period

- (1) The person's maximum portability period for the payment is the period referred to in column 5 of the table at the end of this section (the table) that is applicable to:
- (a) the payment (as specified in column 2 of the table); and
  - (b) the class of persons to which the person belongs (as specified in column 3 of the table).

Meaning of allowable absence

- (2) The person's absence is an allowable absence in relation to the payment at a particular time if, at that time:
- (a) it is an absence specified in column 4 of the item in the table at the end of this section that is applicable to the payment and the person; and
  - (b) except where an unlimited absence is specified in column 5 of the item or a provision of Subdivision B applies, the absence does not:
    - (i) exceed the period specified in column 5 of that item; or
    - (ii) in the case of item 2—cause the total number of days (whether consecutive or not) of the person's temporary absence from Australia in the last 12 months to exceed 28, ignoring days in accordance with that item.

Meaning of portability period if unlimited maximum portability period

- (3) If the person's maximum portability period for the payment is an unlimited period, the person's portability period for the payment, in relation to the period of absence, is an unlimited period beginning at the commencement of the period of absence.

Meaning of portability period if maximum portability period limited

- (4) If the person's maximum portability period for the payment is not an unlimited period, the person's portability period for the payment, in relation to the period of absence, is the period:
- (a) beginning at the commencement of the period of absence; and
  - (b) ending at the earlier of the following times:
    - (i) the first time during the period of absence at which the absence is not an allowable absence in relation to the payment;

This section sets out the Pension Portability Rate Calculator for the purposes of this Part.

Pension Portability Rate Calculator

---

Chapter 4 International agreements and portability

Part 4.2 Overseas portability

Division 3 Rate of portable pensions

Section 1221

---

Module A—Overall rate calculation process

Overall rate calculation process

1221-A1 This is how to calculate a person's portability rate:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the period of the person's Australian working life residence using Module B: the result is called the residence period.
- Step 2. Use the person's residence period to work out the person's residence factor using Module C below.
- Step 3. Work out the rate that would be the person's pension or allowance rate if this Rate Calculator did not apply to the person: the result is called the person's notional domestic rate.
- Step 4. Multiply the person's notional domestic rate by the person's residence factor: the result is the person's portability rate.

Limit in portability rate

1221-A2 If a person's portability rate as calculated under point 1221-A1 would exceed the rate (the notional rate) that would be the person's notional domestic rate under that point if the person had a residence factor of 1, the person's portability rate is the rate that equals the notional rate.

Former recipients of widow B pension

1221-A3 If:

- (a) immediately before 20 March 2020, a woman was receiving a widow B pension under Part 2.8; and

Section 1221

---

- (b) the woman had become qualified for the widow B pension because of the woman's partner's death; and
- (c) on a day on or after 20 March 2020, the woman's rate of age pension is worked out as mentioned in section 1220A; and
- (d) on that day, that partner's period of Australian working life residence (immediately before that partner's death) exceeds the woman's period of Australian working life residence on that day; and
- (e) on that day, the woman is not a member of a couple;

then, for the purposes of working out that rate of age pension, the woman's period of Australian working life residence is taken to be equal to that partner's period of Australian working life residence (immediately before that partner's death).

Former recipients of wife pension

1221-A4 If immediately before 20 March 2020:

- (a) either:
  - (i) a woman was receiving a wife pension under Part 2.4; or
  - (ii) a woman was receiving a wife pension under a scheduled international social security agreement; and
- (b) the woman was a member of a couple; and
- (c) the rate of the woman's wife pension was required to be worked out having regard to the woman's period of Australian working life residence; and
- (d) the woman's period of Australian working life residence was taken to be equal to the period of Australian working life residence of the woman's partner;

then, for a day on or after 20 March 2020, the woman's period of Australian working life residence is taken to be equal to the period of Australian working life residence of the woman's partner if the following apply on that day:

- (e) the woman is a member of that same couple;
- (f) the woman's rate of age pension is worked out as mentioned in section 1220A.

Module B—Australian working life residence

Working life

- 1221-B1 For the purposes of this Module, a person's working life is the period beginning when the person turns 16 and ending when the person reaches pension age.

Note: For pension age see subsections 23(5A), (5B), (5C) and (5D).

Australian working life residence (general)

- 1221-B2 Subject to points 1221-B3 and 1221-B4, a person's period of Australian working life residence as at a particular time is the number of months in the period, or the aggregate of the periods, during the person's working life during which the person has, up to that time, been an Australian resident.

Note: For the method of calculating the number of months in the period see points 1221-B3 and 1221-B4 below.

Calculation of number of months

- 1221-B3 If a person's period of Australian working life residence would, apart from this point, be a number of whole months, the period is to be increased by one month.
- 1221-B4 If a person's period of Australian working life residence would, apart from this point, be a number of whole months and a day or days, the period is to be increased so that it is equal to the number of months plus one month.

Module C—Residence factor

Residence factor (period of Australian working life residence 35 years or more)

- 1221-C1 If a person's period of Australian working life residence is 420 months (35 years) or more, the person's residence factor is 1.

Note: If a person's residence factor is 1, the person's pension will be payable outside Australia at the full domestic rate.

- (a) the deduction is to be made from a social security payment that is pension bonus or from a payment of arrears of social security payments; or
- (b) the deduction is to be made from a social security payment that is not pension bonus and the person to whom the payment would, apart from the deduction, be made has consented to the amount of the deduction being an amount that would reduce the payment to nil.

(1AA) However, the Secretary:

- (a) must not make a determination that would reduce a payment to nil if the reduction to nil would result in the person being in severe financial hardship; and
- (b) must not make a determination that would reduce (including reduce to nil) an economic security strategy payment, essential medical equipment payment or training and learning bonus, unless the person to whom the payment or bonus:
  - (i) is to be made; or
  - (ii) would, apart from the deduction, be made;has requested that the Secretary determine under this section the amount of a deduction that is to be made from the payment or bonus; and
- (c) must not make a determination that would reduce (including reduce to nil) a payment of a student start-up loan.

(1B) If the person concerned elects in writing that this subsection is to apply in relation to him or her, the Secretary may decide under subsection (1A) that the amount by which each payment of the person's social security payment is to be reduced is such amount as results in reducing the payment to nil.

(2) The debt or overpayment must be deducted unless:

Section 1232

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

Note 1: Subsection 4B(2) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court that convicts an individual of an offence to impose a fine instead of, or in addition to, a term of imprisonment. The maximum fine that a court can impose on the individual is worked out by multiplying the maximum term of imprisonment (in months) by 5, and then multiplying the resulting number by the amount of a penalty unit. The amount of a penalty unit is stated in section 4AA of that Act.

Note 1A: If a body corporate is convicted of the offence, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a maximum fine of an amount that is 5 times the maximum fine that could be imposed on an individual convicted of the same offence.

(7) If, apart from this subsection, money is not due or repayable on demand to a person unless a condition is fulfilled, the money is to be taken, for the purposes of this section, to be due or repayable on demand, as the case may be, even though the condition has not been fulfilled.

(7F) This section applies to money in spite of any law of a State or Territory (however expressed) under which the amount is inalienable.

1237A Waiver of debt arising from error

Administrative error

Note: Section 1237AAE limits the circumstances in which an assurance of support debt may be waived under this section, and the amount of the debt that may be waived.

1237AAB Waiver in relation to settlements

Settlement of civil action

- (1) If the Commonwealth has agreed to settle a civil action against a debtor for recovery of a debt for less than the full amount of the debt, the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the debt and the amount that is the subject of the settlement.

Settlement of proceedings before the AAT

- (2) If the Secretary has agreed to settle proceedings before the AAT relating to recovery of a debt on the basis that the debtor will pay less than the full amount of the debt, the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the debt and the amount that is the subject of the settlement.

Waiver where at least 80% of debt recovered and debtor cannot pay more

- (3) If:
  - (a) the Commonwealth has recovered at least 80% of the original value of a debt from a debtor; and

Section 1237AAB

- (b) the Commonwealth and the debtor agree that the recovery is in full satisfaction for the whole of the debt; and
- (c) the debtor cannot repay a greater proportion of the debt; the Secretary must waive the remaining 20% or less of the value of the original debt.

Agreement for part-payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

- (4) If the Secretary and a debtor agree that the debtor's debt will be fully satisfied if the debtor pays the Commonwealth an agreed amount less than the amount of the debt outstanding at the time of the agreement (the unpaid amount), the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the unpaid amount and the agreed amount.

Limits on agreement to accept part-payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

- (5) The Secretary must not make an agreement described in subsection (4) unless the Secretary is satisfied that the agreed amount is at least the present value of the unpaid amount if it is repaid in instalments of amounts, and at times, determined by the Secretary.

Formula for working out present value of unpaid amount

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the present value of the unpaid amount is the amount worked out in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{annual repayment}}{\text{interest}} \times \left[ 1 - \frac{1}{\left( 1 + \text{interest} \right)^{\text{repayment period}}} \right]$$

where:

annual repayment is the amount of the debt that the Secretary believes would be recovered under Part 5.3 in a year if subsection (4) did not apply in relation to the debt.

Section 1237AAC

interest is the annual rate of interest specified by the Minister by legislative instrument.

repayment period is the number of years needed to repay the unpaid amount if repayments equal to the annual repayment were made each year.

Example:

Facts: Bill owed a debt of $35,000 to the Commonwealth. After repaying $5,000 (leaving an unpaid amount of $30,000), he offers to make an immediate payment of a further $20,000 in full satisfaction of the debt. The Secretary is satisfied that Bill cannot repay a larger amount of the debt than this. The Secretary believes that $1,500 of the debt would be recovered under Part 5.3 in a year, at which rate it would take 20 years to repay the debt. The Minister has specified an interest rate of 5% a year for the purposes of subsection (6).

Application: The Secretary can accept Bill's offer and make an agreement with him as described in subsection (4), because the $20,000 is more than the present value of $30,000 repaid over 20 years at a 5% interest rate (which is

$$$18,693.33 = ($1,500 \div 0.05) \times (1 - (1 \div (1 + 0.05)^{20}))$$

If the Secretary makes the agreement, the Secretary must waive $10,000 of the debt (the difference between the unpaid amount of $30,000 and the agreed amount of $20,000).

Note: Section 1237AAE limits the circumstances in which an assurance of support debt may be waived under this section, and the amount of the debt that may be waived.

1237AAC Waiver where debtor or debtor's partner would have been entitled to an allowance

Waiver if there was an unclaimed entitlement to family payment or family allowance

- (1) If:
- (a) a debt arises from overpayments made to the debtor; and
  - (b) the debtor or the debtor's partner does not claim family payment or family allowance for the period when the overpayments were made; and

Section 1237AAC

- (c) an amount of family payment or family allowance would have been payable for the period when the overpayments were made if the debtor or the debtor's partner had lodged a claim;

the Secretary must waive the right to recover the debt to the extent set out in subsection (2).

(1A) If:

- (a) a debt arises from overpayments to a youth allowance recipient (the debtor); and
- (b) the debtor would have been an FA child of another person for the period when the overpayments were made if the debtor had not been a youth allowance recipient; and
- (c) an amount of family allowance would have been payable to the other person in respect of the debtor for the period when the overpayments were made if:
  - (i) the debtor had been an FA child of the other person for that period; and
  - (ii) the other person had lodged a claim;

the Secretary must waive the debt to the extent set out in subsection (2A).

Amount of debt Secretary must waive

- (2) The Secretary must waive under subsection (1) the right to recover the amount of debt equal to the amount of family payment or family allowance that would have been payable to the debtor or the debtor's partner in the 3-year period ending on the day the overpayment is stopped if:
  - (a) the overpayments had not been made to the debtor; and
  - (b) the debtor or the debtor's partner had lodged a claim for the payment.

- (2A) The Secretary must waive under subsection (1A) the right to recover the amount of debt equal to the amount of family allowance that would have been payable to the other person in the 3-year period ending on the day on which the overpayment is stopped if:

Section 1237AAC

---

- (a) the debtor had been an FA child of the person; and
- (b) the other person had lodged a claim for family allowance.

Reference to amount of family allowance is a reference to minimum rate plus guardian allowance and large family supplement

- (3) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (2A):
  - (a) an amount of family allowance is the minimum standard family allowance rate plus any guardian allowance that is payable plus any large family supplement that is payable; and
  - (b) an amount of family allowance does not include multiple birth allowance.

Waiver if there was an unclaimed entitlement to parenting allowance or parenting payment

- (4) If:
  - (a) a debt arises from overpayments to the debtor; and
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the overpayments did not result wholly or partly from the debtor or another person knowingly:
    - (i) making a false statement or false representation; or
    - (ii) failing or omitting to comply with a provision of this Act or the 1947 Act; and
  - (c) the debtor or the debtor's partner did not claim parenting allowance or parenting payment for the period (the overpayment period) when the overpayments were made; and
  - (d) an amount of parenting allowance or parenting payment would have been payable for that period if the debtor or the debtor's partner had lodged a claim;the Secretary must waive the right to recover the debt to the extent set out in subsection (5).

Section 1237AAD

Waiver of amount equal to notional entitlement to parenting allowance or parenting payment (as the case requires)

- (5) The Secretary must waive under subsection (4) the right to recover the amount of debt equal to the amount of parenting allowance or parenting payment (as the case requires) that would have been payable to the debtor or the debtor's partner during so much of the overpayment period as was not earlier than 3 years before the day on which the overpayment is stopped if:
- (a) the overpayments had not been made to the debtor; and
  - (b) the debtor or the debtor's partner had lodged a claim for the allowance or payment (as the case requires).

Calculating the amount equal to notional entitlement to parenting allowance

- (6) For the purposes of working out the amount of parenting allowance or parenting payment that would have been payable to the debtor or the debtor's partner, the rate of parenting allowance or parenting payment for the debtor or the debtor's partner:
- (a) if the Secretary is satisfied that the rate would have been greater than the maximum basic component if parenting allowance or parenting payment had been claimed—is taken to have been that greater rate; or
  - (b) in any other case—is taken not to have exceeded the maximum basic component of parenting allowance specified at the relevant time in the Parenting Allowance Rate Calculator or the PP (Partnered) Rate Calculator (as the case requires).

1237AAD Waiver in special circumstances

The Secretary may waive the right to recover all or part of a debt if the Secretary is satisfied that:

- (a) the debt did not result wholly or partly from the debtor or another person knowingly:
  - (i) making a false statement or a false representation; or

Section 1237AAE

---

- (ii) failing or omitting to comply with a provision of this Act, the Administration Act or the 1947 Act; and
- (b) there are special circumstances (other than financial hardship alone) that make it desirable to waive; and
- (c) it is more appropriate to waive than to write off the debt or part of the debt.

Note 1: Section 1236 allows the Secretary to write off a debt on behalf of the Commonwealth.

Note 2: This section has effect subject to section 1237AAE in relation to an assurance of support debt.

1237AAE Extra rules for waiver of assurance of support debts

- (1) This section affects waiver under some other provisions of this Part of an assurance of support debt in connection with an assurance of support given by one or more persons (the assurers), by setting out extra rules limiting the circumstances in which waiver may occur and the extent of waiver.
- (2) The Secretary may waive under section 1237AAD the right to recover all or part of the debt only if the Secretary is satisfied that the waiver is justified on grounds other than one or more of the assurers being unaware of the effect of section 1061ZZGG, or of regulations made under the Migration Act 1958, in connection with the assurance.
- (3) If the Secretary has been given a security that meets the requirements of subsection 1061ZZGD(3) in connection with the assurance, the Secretary may waive under section 1237AAA, 1237AAB or 1237AAD the right to recover an amount of the debt that is not greater than the difference (if any) between:
  - (a) the debt; and
  - (b) the amount that can be:
    - (i) obtained by enforcing the security; and
    - (ii) applied to reduce the debt.

Note: An amount that can be obtained by enforcing the security cannot be applied to reduce the debt if it is applied to reduce another assurance of support debt connected with the assurance of support.

Section 1237AB

- (4) If 2 or more assurers are jointly and severally liable for the debt, the Secretary may waive under section 1237AAD the right to recover an amount of the debt that is not greater than the amount (which may be a nil amount) of the debt that the Secretary is satisfied cannot be recovered from any of the assurers.
- (5) If subsections (3) and (4) apply, the Secretary may waive under section 1237AAD the right to recover an amount of the debt that is not greater than the amount (if any) of the debt that may be waived taking into account both of those subsections.

1237AB Secretary may waive debts of a particular class

- (1) The Secretary may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, decide to waive the Commonwealth's right to recover debts arising under or as a result of this Act or Part 3B or 3D of the Administration Act that are included in a class of debts specified, by legislative instrument, by the Minister.
- (2) A decision under subsection (1) takes effect:
  - (a) if no day is specified in the decision—on the day on which the decision is made; or
  - (b) if a day is specified in the decision—on the day so specified (whether that day is before, after or on the day on which the decision is made).
- (3) A legislative instrument under subsection (1) does not commence before the end of the period for disallowing the instrument.

- (5) Despite Subdivision B of Division 9 of Part 3 of the Administration Act, a favourable determination (within the meaning of section 108 of that Act) that is made as a result of a determination referred to in subclause (4) of this clause may be expressed to take effect on a day earlier than otherwise permitted by that Subdivision.

(10) If:

Clause 135

135 Unlimited maximum portability period for disability support pension

- (1) The Secretary may determine that a person's maximum portability period for disability support pension is an unlimited period if:
- (a) at the commencement of this clause, the person is absent from Australia and receiving disability support pension; and
  - (b) under this Act as in force immediately before the commencement, that absence could not affect the person's right to continue to be paid the disability support pension throughout the period of that absence; and
  - (c) after the commencement, the person enters Australia but does not become an Australian resident again.

Note: The condition in paragraph (1)(b) may be met:

- (a) because the person was severely disabled (see subsection 1214(1) and item 2 of the table in subsection 1217(5) as those subsections were in force just before the commencement); or
  - (b) because clause 128 (as in force just before the commencement) applied to the person section 1213A as in force before its repeal by the Social Security and Veterans' Entitlements Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous Matters) Act 2000.
- (2) The determination has effect for the purposes of Part 4.2 of this Act as it applies in relation to an absence after the person's entry, despite the repeal and substitution of items 2 and 3 of the table in section 1217 of this Act by the Family and Community Services and Veterans' Affairs Legislation Amendment (2003 Budget and Other Measures) Act 2003.

136 Transitional definition of deductible amount (commencing 1 July 2007)

- (1) This clause applies if:
- (a) a person has received at least one payment from a defined benefit income stream before 1 July 2007, and is still receiving payments from the income stream; and
  - (b) the person receives income support payment in respect of a continuous period starting before, and ending on or after, the person's trigger day (see subsection (5)); and

---

- (c) the amount of the income support payment received before the person's trigger day was affected by the deduction of a deductible amount (within the meaning of this Act or the Veterans' Entitlements Act, as the case requires, apart from this clause) from the amount of the payments payable to the person for a year under the income stream; and
- (d) if the person's trigger day is after 1 July 2007—the income stream has not been partially commuted on or after 1 July 2007 and before the person's trigger day.

Note 1: If the income stream is wholly commuted, this clause will stop applying because the person will no longer be receiving payments from the income stream (see paragraphs (1)(a) and (d)).

Note 2: For the deduction of a deductible amount from amounts payable under certain defined benefit income streams, see sections 1099A and 1099D of this Act and sections 46V and 46Y of the Veterans' Entitlements Act.

- (2) Despite the amendment of this Act by Part 2 of Schedule 8 to the Tax Laws Amendment (Simplified Superannuation) Act 2007, for the purposes of working out the amount of any income support payment (other than a service pension or income support supplement) received by the person on or after the trigger day in respect of the remaining part of the period mentioned in paragraph (1)(b), the deductible amount, in relation to the income stream for a year, is the greater of the following amounts:
    - (a) the deductible amount mentioned in paragraph (1)(c);
    - (b) the sum of the amounts that are the tax free components (worked out under subsections 307-125(4) to (7) of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997) of the payments received from the income stream during the year.
  - (3) However, this clause stops applying to an income stream immediately after the time (if any) that the deductible amount in relation to the income stream is, under subclause (2), the amount mentioned in paragraph (2)(b).
- (3A) If:
- (a) this clause applies; and then, for the purposes of the operation of paragraph 1099A(2)(b) or 1099D(2)(b), the transitional amount is taken to be the deductible amount under subsection 1099A(1) or 1099D(1) in relation to that income stream for that year.

- (4) For the purposes of this clause, without limiting paragraph (1)(b), if the form of a person's income support payment mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) changes during a period, the continuity of the period is not broken by the change.

Example: The form of a person's income support payment may change from one kind of payment (for instance, a service pension under the Veterans' Entitlements Act) to another (for instance, a social security pension under this Act).

- (5) In this clause:

trigger day, for a person, means:

Clause 146

Provisional annual payment rate

- (3) The person's provisional annual payment rate is taken to be the amount worked out under subclause (4) if the total of:
- (a)  $\frac{1}{364}$  of that amount; and
  - (b) the amount (if any) of DFISA that would be payable to the person on the relevant day assuming that:
    - (i) the person's provisional annual payment rate were the amount worked out under subclause (4); and
    - (ii) the amendments made by Schedules 6 and 7 to the Social Security and Other Legislation Amendment (Pension Reform and Other 2009 Budget Measures) Act 2009 had not been made;

is greater than the total of:

- (c)  $\frac{1}{364}$  of the person's provisional annual payment rate apart from this clause; and
- (d) the amount (if any) of DFISA that would be payable to the person on the relevant day apart from this clause.

Note: The provisional annual payment rate is an amount worked out under the method statement in point 1064-A1. Point 1064-A1 may be relevant of its own force or because of point 1065-A1 or section 796.

- (4) The amount is the one that would be the provisional annual payment rate under the relevant point if:

  - (b) the amendments made by Schedules 6 and 7 to the Social Security and Other Legislation Amendment (Pension Reform and Other 2009 Budget Measures) Act 2009 had not been made.

Clause 146

---

- Note 1: The maximum payment rate is an amount used in point 1064-A1.
- Note 2: Subclause 147(1) deals with a person in Australia who is not a member of a couple or is a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple, or is partnered (partner in gaol).
- Note 3: Subclause 147(2) deals with a person in Australia who is a member of a couple (but not a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple, and not partnered (partner in gaol)).
- Note 4: Subclause 147(3) deals with a person who has been outside Australia for more than 6 weeks and is not a member of a couple or is a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple, or is partnered (partner in gaol).
- Note 5: Subclause 147(4) deals with a person who has been outside Australia for more than 6 weeks and is a member of a couple (but not a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple, and not partnered (partner in gaol)).
- Note 6: The amount described in subparagraph (4)(a)(i) is indexed under sections 1191 to 1194 (CPI indexation) on and after 20 March 2010.

Limit on application of subclause (3)

- (5) Subclause (3) does not apply for working out the rate of a social security pension of the person for the relevant day if the relevant day is after a day for which one of the following conditions was met:
- (a) the amount worked out for the day under subclause (4) (in a previous application of this clause) was less than or equal to the person's provisional annual payment rate, apart from this clause, for a social security pension described in paragraph (1)(a);
  - (b) the amount worked out for the day under subclause 30(4) of Schedule 5 to the Veterans' Entitlements Act was less than or equal to the person's provisional payment rate for service pension (except carer service pension) apart from clause 30 of that Schedule; equal to the person's provisional payment rate for income support supplement apart from clause 30 of that Schedule.

- (5A) However, subclause (5) does not prevent subclause (3) from applying for working out the rate of a social security pension of the person for the relevant day if:
- (a) on the relevant day the person is a member of a couple, but not a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple and not partnered (partner in gaol); and
  - (b) on each day for which a condition in paragraph (5)(a), (b) or (c) was met, the person was a member of a respite care couple; and
  - (c) on a day before all the days described in paragraph (b):
    - (i) the person was a member of a couple, but not a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple and not partnered (partner in gaol); and
    - (ii) either subclause (3) affected the rate at which a social security pension was payable to the person or clause 30 of Schedule 5 to the Veterans' Entitlements Act affected the rate at which service pension or income support supplement was payable to the person.

Note: For member of a couple, illness separated couple, respite care couple and partnered (partner in gaol) see section 4.

Relationship with DFISA provisions

- (6) This clause does not affect the operation of Part VIIAB (Defence Force Income Support Allowance and related payments) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 for the purposes of working out amounts of payments under that Part after working out the provisional annual payment rate for a social security pension taking account of this clause.

Clause 147

Note 2: Subsection 7(3) is relevant to determining whether a person is residing in Australia.

Note 3: Section 1190 explains the abbreviations used in Part 3.16.

Partnered person not covered by subclause (2)

- (4) For the purposes of subparagraph 146(4)(a)(i), work out the amount as follows, if, on the relevant day:
- (a) the person is a member of a couple, but not a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple and not partnered (partner in gaol); and
  - (b) the person either:
    - (i) is not residing in Australia; or
    - (ii) is absent from Australia and has been so for a continuous period exceeding 6 weeks.

Method statement

Step 1. Work out what each of the following amounts (described using the abbreviation used in Part 3.16 for the amount) would be on 20 September 2009, taking account of indexation under that Part on that day, if the Social Security and Other Legislation Amendment (Pension Reform and Other 2009 Budget Measures) Act 2009 had not been enacted:

- (a) the amount that would be the pension MBR for a person who is a member of a couple (but not a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple and not partnered (partner in gaol)) assuming that section 1195 did not apply on 20 September 2009;
- (b) pension supplement for a person who is (and was on 1 July 2000) a member of a couple (but not a member of an illness separated couple or respite care couple and not partnered (partner in gaol)).

Clause 148

Step 2. Add up the amounts worked out under step 1.
-----------------------------------------------------

Note 1: For member of a couple, partnered, illness separated couple, respite care couple and partnered (partner in gaol) see section 4.

Note 2: Subsection 7(3) is relevant to determining whether a person is residing in Australia.

Note 3: Section 1190 explains the abbreviations used in Part 3.16.

148 Rate of social security payments to partners of persons affected by clause 146

- (1) This clause applies if clause 146 applies to a person who is a member of a couple and that clause affects the rate at which a social security pension is payable to the person.
- (2) In working out the amount of a social security payment payable to a partner of the person, assume that the social security pension payable to the person is payable at the rate at which it would be payable if clause 146 had not been enacted.

149 Payment and income tax consequences of receiving social security pension at rate affected by clause 146

Application

- (1) This clause applies if clause 146 affects the rate at which a social security pension is payable to a person.

Purpose

- (2) The purpose of this clause is to ensure that the person is treated appropriately in relation to the payment, and income taxation, of the pension by modifying the operation of the social security law (and thus affecting the related income tax law) in relation to the person and the pension.

Note: This clause does not modify the operation of subsection 20A(4), which provides for working out the person's minimum pension supplement amount.

---

Pension supplement amount

- (3) The social security law applies in relation to the person's pension as if the amount described in subparagraph 146(4)(a)(i), as affected by any indexation and any relevant reduction described in paragraph 146(4)(a), were an amount added under the pension supplement Module of the relevant Pension Rate Calculator (and therefore used to work out the rate of the pension).

Note 1: One effect of subclause (3) is that the amount is the person's pension supplement amount (as defined in subsection 23(1)).

Note 2: If that amount exceeds the person's pension supplement basic amount (as affected by subclause (4)), other effects of subclause (3) include the following:

- (a) the excess being tax-exempt pension supplement under subsection 20A(6) of this Act;
- (b) Part 2.25C (Quarterly pension supplement) of this Act applying, which may affect timing of payment of some of the pension under the Administration Act;
- (c) the possibility of the minimum amount of fortnightly instalments of the pension being affected under section 43 of the Administration Act;
- (d) telephone allowance not being payable because of section 1061R of this Act;
- (e) utilities allowance not being payable because of section 1061T of this Act.

Note 3: Yet another effect of subclause (3) is that section 1210 will affect the operation of reductions of the maximum payment rate because of the income test and assets test.

Pension supplement basic amount

- (4) The social security law applies in relation to the person's pension as if:
- (a) each reference in the table in subsection 20A(5) to $507 were a reference to $14,814.80; and
  - (b) the reference in the table in subsection 20A(5) to $423.80 were a reference to $12,373.40.

Note 1: This affects the person's pension supplement basic amount.

Note 2: The provisions for indexing amounts in the table in subsection 20A(5) apply to the higher figures mentioned in this subclause.

Clause 150

---

Energy supplement

- (5) If subclause 147(1) or (2) is relevant to the person, the social security law applies in relation to the person's pension as if:
- (a) the energy supplement Module of the relevant Pension Rate Calculator were the same as Module C of Pension Rate Calculator A; and
  - (b) the person's energy supplement (if any) resulting from that Module were used to work out the rate of the person's pension.

Note 1: This energy supplement is included in the total worked out under paragraph 146(4)(a) (see subparagraph 146(4)(a)(ia)).

Note 2: This subclause causes Division 2 of Part 2.18A (Quarterly energy supplement) of this Act to apply. If quarterly energy supplement is payable, then no energy supplement will be available to be included in the total worked out under paragraph 146(4)(a) (see point 1064-C1 of this Act).

Note 3: Other effects of this subclause include:

- (a) the possibility of the minimum amount of fortnightly instalments of the pension being affected under section 43 of the Administration Act; and
- (b) that section 1210 will affect the operation of reductions of the maximum payment rate because of the income test and assets test.

150 Persons exempt from requirement to be Australian residents to qualify for disability support pension

Paragraphs 94(1)(ea), 94A(1)(ja) and 95(1)(d) do not affect the qualification for disability support pension of:

- (a) a person to whom the provisions mentioned in subclause 128(1) continue to apply as described in that subclause; or
- (b) a person who is covered by a determination under clause 135.

Note: Those paragraphs are in Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 2.3, which is about qualification for disability support pension.
