

Australian Government

Australian Government response to the Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters report:

Report on the Candidate Qualification Checklist

MAY 2024

Introduction

On 31 March 2022, the Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters (JSCEM) tabled a report titled Report on the Candidate Qualification Checklist (the Report).

The Government's response to the recommendations of the Report follows below.

Government Response to the Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters report: Report on the Candidate Qualification Checklist.

#	Recommendation	Government Response
1	The committee recommends that the Australian Government enact the Exposure Draft of the Candidate Qualification Checklist.	Noted The Government notes the recommendation. Given the passage of time, a substantive government response is no longer appropriate.

Dissenting report by Australian Greens

#	Recommendation	Government Response
1	That the government initiate a referendum to amend section 44 of the Constitution to allow public servants and dual citizens to stand for election to Federal parliament.	Refer to recommendation 1 of the Majority Report.

#	Recommendation	Government Response
2	In the interim, the government introduce legislation to guarantee public servants who stand down from their role to run for election a right to return to work if they are not elected.	Refer to recommendation 1 of the Majority Report.
3	That the government implement recommendations of the Australian Human Rights Commission's Set the Standard review to ensure a more diverse and representative parliament.	Refer to recommendation 1 of the Majority Report.