

This is ridiculous how this government call sitself a law-maker, yet behind all that pomp, it's nothing more than a farcical hypocrite.

Would there be such a capping if the migrants are all WHITE? From ENGLAND?

Was this not the country that had WHITE AUSTRALIA policy ending only less than 40 years ago?

Why was this policy not brought out when the economy was tanking in 2008 but now when interest rates are going up? – Meaning the economy is actually over-heating??!

The explanation isn't economics, it's clearly racism and a inner insistence on white-supremacy!

Why are teh refugees being kept out of this country?! What if instead of Afghanistan, they came from ENGLAND?

Who gets the right to make 'laws' in this country—(98% in Parliament are) White Men. You dare sanctify laws passed under the veil of hypocrisy?! In the USA. They have laws that require 1 in 8 jobs go to blacks, even in film and TV.....

Yet when you tune into thte media in this country it's nothing but whites! You watch the US news and they have blacks and Asians as anchors! Then in a flash the news cuts back to Australian TV and it's all white , ALL WHITE! What a shame!

The US 'Law-makers' – by no means beacons of enlightenment have passed laws giving ethnics those rights for media representation years ago, yet this country chooses to keep on as if there are no Asians or Ethnics in this country.

Well, all I can say is, what you find hard to stomach now will get even harder as China and India become super-powers. Ha ha ha ha ha.....
