

JOINT SELECTION COMMITTEE ON AUSTRALIA'S IMMIGRATION DETENTION
NETWORK
AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE

Question No. 2

Senator Morrison asked the following question, following the hearing of 5 October 2011:

Mr MORRISON: But you were not? Has AFP been asked to appear before the Williams-Hawke review?

Cmdr Murray: We have been providing some support to the Hawke-Williams review.

CHAIR: Assistant Commissioner, do you have something to add?

Mr Jabbour: I might be able to assist. This is something that I will submit going to the point that Assistant Commissioner Mennilli raised in relation to the legal issues, particularly around the Commonwealth application of places legislation. We can provide that—

CHAIR: Is that a matter that you want to discuss in camera or are you happy to make it public?

Mr Jabbour: I do not have it with me.

CHAIR: You can provide that.

Mr Jabbour: It does not need to be in camera. It is just the interpretation of the law as it stands.

CHAIR: Can you let us know if it is able to be released publically?

Mr Jabbour: Yes.

CHAIR: That is our preference.

The answer to the honourable Senator's question is as follows:

As requested by the committee, attached is the document Immigration Detention Facilities Applicable Laws table.

The document is intended to provide some guidance to Australian Federal Police members in relation to complex legal arrangements at Immigration Detention Facilities. Each situation may provide different circumstances which may not necessarily be covered by the table.

The document is a work in progress and may evolve over time, taking into consideration new situations. Further analysis and advice may be obtained on relevant issues.

Powers and Offences

Immigration Detention Centres (IDC's) or Alternative Places of Detention (APODs) located in Commonwealth Places

(States where COPAL arrangements are in place*)

*All State jurisdictions other than Tasmania, e.g. including Villawood NSW

Commonwealth Place are places in a State which are 'places acquired by the Commonwealth for public purposes' – ie properties owned by Cth for public purpose.

If interviewing must use Part IC CA 1914</li> <li>NSW Police can use NSW LEA s99 power of arrest</li> </ul>	Commonwealth Places (Application of Laws) Act 1970 (COPAL Act) applies local State laws to Commonwealth Places State criminal offences are 'applied' offences and become Commonwealth offences.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Part IC not excluded by the COPAL Arrangement with States which exclude the exercise of most other Commonwealth powers under the Crimes Act 1914 in the investigation of an applied State offence. The powers excluded are Part IAA CA 1914 (i.e. s3E search warrant, information gathering, arrest and related powers) AND Sections 9,13, 15, 15A, 15B and 15C, and, all the provisions of Divisions 1 to 9 (inclusive) of Part IB, sections 20C, 21B and 21E and Part ID of the Crimes Act 1914. (These provisions primarily deal with sentencing and imprisonment of Federal Offenders and related matters).

<sup>2</sup> There are complex legal issues associated with State arrest of detainees. The significant issue is to ensure State Police bear in mind that arresting a detainee does not compromise the fact the person continues to remain detained under the Migration Act whilst in police custody. If the State Officer does this, then no issue arises (ie the detainee will be subject to two parallel frameworks, being Cth immigration detention and State arrest).

<sup>3</sup> There are no 'state offences with a federal aspect' in Commonwealth Places. Due to COPAL, State offences become Commonwealth offences and therefore cannot be 'state offences' with a federal aspect.

State criminal offences are 'applied' offences and become Commonwealth offences.<sup>13</sup> NOTE no separate admin arrangement under COPAL excluding Cth officers from exercising Cth powers. All normal Cth powers available to AFP officers.

<sup>12</sup> There are complex legal issues associated with State arrest of detainees. The significant issue is to ensure State Police bear in mind that arresting a detainee does not compromise the fact the person continues to remain detained under the Migration Act whilst in police custody. If the State Officer does this, then no issue arises (ie the detainee will be subject to two parallel frameworks, being Cth immigration detention and State arrest).

<sup>13</sup> There are no 'state offences with a federal aspect' in Commonwealth Places. Due to COPAL, State offences become Commonwealth offences and therefore cannot be 'state offences' with a federal aspect.
