

Australian Government

Australian Government response to the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Procedure report:

Provisions for a more family-friendly Chamber

February 2016

Response from the Government to the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Procedure report: Provisions for a more family-friendly Chamber

Opening Statement

The Government thanks the Committee for its work in inquiring into the provisions for nursing mothers in the House of Representatives.

The Government's response to the recommendation is as follows:

Recommendation 1

The Committee recommends that standing order 257 be amended to add paragraph (d) as follows:

257 Admission of Senators and visitors

.....

(d) A visitor does not include an infant being cared for by a Member.

The Government supports this recommendation.