Exposure Draft of Human Rights and Anti-Discrimination Bill 2012

Women's Health Victoria welcomes the opportunity to comment on the consolidation of Commonwealth anti-discrimination laws.

Women's Health Victoria is a statewide women's health promotion, information and advocacy service. Women's Health Victoria's vision is Women living well – healthy, empowered, equal.

Women's Health Victoria would like to reiterate our support for the inclusion of domestic and family violence as a new ground for discrimination. This issue was originally raised in the Australian Human Rights Commission's submission to the consultation on Consolidation on Commonwealth Anti-Discrimination Laws in February 2012, but I note that the recommendation has not been adopted in the Exposure Draft of the legislation.

The submissions provided by the Australian Human Rights Commission is comprehensive, and provides a thorough analysis of why domestic and family violence should be included as a separate ground. Women's Health Victoria continues to support all the recommendations put forward by the Australian Human Rights Commission in their submissions, available online from:

I urge you to consider inclusion of domestic and family violence in any future review of the Human Rights and Anti-Discrimination Bill 2012.

Yours Sincerely

RITA BUTERA
