

I plead with the Government to consider the future for our grand children as more important than the rape of our environment by get-rich plunderers.

Kind regards
Alan Graham