

The health of our environment is important and should be our no.1 priority. Laws need to be stronger so that our environment is protected. These laws need to come to the Senate before the election.

Kind regards
Pam Pike