Inquiry into Superannuation (Objective) Bill 2023 [Provisions]

Department: Department of the Treasury
Topic: Early release rules advice
Reference: Written
Senator: Andrew Bragg

Question:

Please provide the legal advice to support the Government's justification that the Bill will not undermine early release rules in the SIS Regulations.

Answer:

Consistent with long-established practice, the Government generally does not disclose confidential legal advice. In addition, the Government does not disclose details which may reveal the deliberations of Cabinet, in accordance with the long-established principle of cabinet confidentiality.
