

Container Deposit Scheme

I am writing tonight to ask why the bill for the container deposit scheme was rejected. I disagree with this decision. There is little doubt that its opposition suits private interests, not public and environmental interest.

Please support the scheme and restore a little faith we have in the political system.

Regards
Rosie Wong