Dear Sir / Madam,

I submit you the late submission of the history statement written by myself the true revelation regarding the Torres Strait region and Australia. There is the message to the authorities, making it known. Please the content where the truth is revealed and read careful what is mentioned. The information in the statement agreed what the researchers found to what I have stated and what I have said.

Later I will submit the revelation of the Torres Strait only, who are presently living in all the islands. There is a Multicultural society, migration took place during the prealing industry and the introduction of the Christianity in eighteen and nineteen centuries. I eager to have a interview to give revelation of the society in the past.

The explorers found new land and development took place in Australia. I do hope that you will understand the message in my history statement which reveals the truth.

Enclose are other copies of relevant information for your understanding.

Yours faithfully,
