

Thank you for asking for submissions for this bill.

I consider that Medicare benefits should only be paid for clinically relevant services. An ultrasound service to determine the gender of the child in order to abort a certain gender is not a clinically relevant service.

Thank you

Yours sincerely