

I wish to make a submission to this enquiry.

What is required for this section of the Constitution is for prospective MP's and Senators to properly and assiduously complete the relevant documentation after exercising due diligence.

We do not require another expensive postal survey.

We expect our representatives to do their paperwork.

Anne C. Tan