

Individuals and communities should have the right to say 'no' to gas exploration on their properties or when it has the potential to threaten their water resources.

Keep the laws in the federal jurisdiction to have a consistent approach across Australia.

Kind regards
Diane Evers