

I believe the voting age should be lowered to 17 years of age because people that are 17 have an understanding of both of the young adult hood and the adult hood that will be in a year or so. So having people at the age of 17 is a benefit to both young adults and adults them selves.