- (14) In spite of the definition of principal officer in subsection (1), if the Australian Capital Territory is a Commonwealth authority for the purposes of this Act, the following rules have effect:
 - (a) if there is in force a written declaration by the Minister, made at the written request of the Chief Minister for the Territory, that a specified person is to be taken to be the principal officer of the Territory, this Act has effect accordingly;

- (2) Where an employee contracts a disease, any employment in which he or she was engaged by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation at any time before symptoms of the disease first became apparent shall, unless the contrary is established, be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have contributed, to a significant degree, to the contraction of the disease if the incidence of that disease among persons who have engaged in such employment is significantly greater than the incidence of the disease among persons who have engaged in other employment in the place where the employee is ordinarily employed.

- (3) Where an employee suffers an aggravation of a disease, any employment in which he or she was engaged by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation at any time before symptoms of the aggravation first became apparent shall, unless the contrary is established, be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have contributed, to a significant degree, to the aggravation if the incidence of the aggravation of that disease among persons suffering from it who have engaged in such employment is significantly greater than the incidence of the aggravation of that disease among persons suffering from it who have engaged in other employment in the place where the employee was ordinarily employed.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, an employee shall be taken to have sustained an injury, being a disease, or an aggravation of a disease, on the day when:

- (5) The death of an employee shall be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have resulted from a disease or an aggravation of a disease, if, but for that disease or aggravation, as the case may be, the death of the employee would have occurred at a significantly later time.
- (6) An incapacity for work or impairment of an employee shall be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have resulted from a disease, or an aggravation of a disease, if, but for that disease or aggravation, as the case may be:

 - (c) the extent of the incapacity or impairment would have been significantly less.
- (7) A disease suffered by an employee, or an aggravation of such a disease, shall not be taken to be an injury to the employee for the purposes of this Act if the employee has at any time, for purposes connected with his or her employment or proposed employment by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation, made a wilful and false representation that he or she did not suffer, or had not previously suffered, from that disease.

- (8) If an employee:
- (a) suffers a disease mentioned in the following table; and
 - (b) before the disease was sustained, was employed as a firefighter for the qualifying period mentioned for that disease; and
 - (c) was exposed to the hazards of a fire scene during that period; and
 - (d) in the case of a cancer of a kind covered by item 13 of the following table—satisfies the conditions (if any) prescribed for such a cancer;

 - (c) an employee is taken to have been employed as a firefighter only if he or she was employed as a firefighter by the Commonwealth, a Commonwealth authority or a licensed corporation.
- (10) Subsection (8) does not limit, and is not limited by, subsections (1) and (2).

8 Normal weekly earnings

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the normal weekly earnings of an employee (other than an employee referred to in subsection (2)) before an injury shall be calculated in relation to the relevant period under the formula:

$$(NH \times RP) + A$$

where:

NH is the average number of hours worked in each week by the employee in his or her employment during the relevant period;

RP is the employee's average hourly ordinary time rate of pay during that period; and

A is the average amount of any allowance payable to the employee in each week in respect of his or her employment during the relevant period, other than an allowance payable in respect of special expenses incurred, or likely to be incurred, by the employee in respect of that employment.

- (2) Where an employee is required to work overtime on a regular basis, the normal weekly earnings of the employee before an injury shall be the amount calculated in accordance with subsection (1) plus an additional amount calculated in relation to the relevant period under the formula:

$$NH \times OR$$

where:

NH is the average number of hours of overtime worked in each week by the employee in his or her employment during the relevant period; and

OR is the employee's average hourly overtime rate of pay during that period.

- (3) Where an employee was, at the date of the injury, employed by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation in part-time employment or unpaid employment, any earnings of the employee from any other employment shall, for the purposes of this section, be treated as earnings of the employee from his or her employment by the Commonwealth or the licensed corporation.
- (4) Where, because of the shortness of the relevant period, it is impracticable to calculate the normal weekly earnings of an employee before an injury under subsection (1) or (2), the normal weekly earnings of the employee before the date of injury shall be taken to be the normal weekly earnings before that date of another employee performing comparable work, being normal weekly earnings from employment by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation and calculated under subsection (1) or (2), as the case requires.
- (5) Where, because of the shortness of the relevant period, the normal weekly earnings as calculated in relation to the relevant period under subsection (1) or (2) would not fairly represent the weekly rate at which the employee was being paid in respect of his or her employment before the injury, the normal weekly earnings before the date of the injury shall be calculated in relation to such other period as Comcare considers reasonable for the purpose of arriving at an amount that does fairly represent the weekly rate at which the employee was being so paid.

- (6) Subject to this section, if the minimum amount per week payable to an employee in respect of his or her employment by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation at the date of the injury is increased, or would have been increased if the employee had continued in that employment, because of:

- (a) the attainment by the employee of a particular age;
- (b) the completion by the employee of a particular period of service; or
- (c) the receipt by the employee of an increase in salary, wages or pay by way of an increment in a range of salary, wages or pay applicable to the employee or to his or her office, position or appointment;

the normal weekly earnings of the employee before the injury, as calculated under the preceding subsections, shall be increased by the same percentage as the percentage by which that minimum amount per week is increased, or would have been increased, as the case may be.

- (7) Subject to this section, if:

- (a) an employee continues to be employed by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation after the date of an injury; and
- (b) the minimum amount per week payable to the employee in respect of that employment is increased because of the promotion of the employee;

the normal weekly earnings of the employee before the injury, as calculated under the preceding subsections, shall be increased by the same percentage as the percentage by which that minimum amount per week is increased.

- (8) Subject to this section, where:

- (a) the employment of an employee is of a kind referred to in subsection 5(4) or subsection (3) of this section; and

- (b) the employee is not receiving earnings from any other employment at the date of the injury;
the normal weekly earnings of the employee before the injury shall be an amount determined by Comcare to be the amount per week that the employee would have been able to earn at the date of the injury (including any amount in respect of overtime worked on a regular basis) if he or she had engaged in suitable paid employment.
- (9) The normal weekly earnings of an employee before the date of the employee's injury, as calculated under the preceding subsections, must, while the employee continues to be employed by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation, be increased or reduced by the relevant percentage.
- (9A) For the purposes of subsection (9), relevant percentage means the same percentage as the percentage of increase or reduction in the minimum amount per week payable in respect of employees included in a class of employees of which the employee was a member at the date of the injury as a result of:
- (a) the operation of a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory; or
 - (b) the making, alteration or operation of an award, order, determination or industrial agreement or the doing of any other act or thing, under such a law.
- (9B) The normal weekly earnings of an employee before injury, as calculated under subsections (1) to (8) and as increased or reduced under subsection (9) must, if the employee has ceased, or ceases, to be employed by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation, be further increased, with effect from each indexation date in relation to that cessation, by reference to the percentage of increase (if any) of an index that is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection over the year ending on the 31 December preceding each such indexation date.
- (9C) For the purpose of subsection (9B), the indexation date, in relation to a cessation of employment, is:
- (a) the 1 July next following:
 - (i) the date on which this Act receives the Royal Assent; or

- (ii) the date of that cessation of employment;
whichever last occurs; and
 - (b) each subsequent 1 July.
- (9D) For the purpose of subsection (9B), the regulations may specify the manner of calculating the further increase referred to in that subsection by reference to the movement of the index that is prescribed for the purposes of that subsection.
- (9E) The normal weekly earnings of an employee before an injury, as calculated under the preceding subsections, must, with effect from 1 July in each year, be further increased by the amount under subsection (9F) if, in the 12 months immediately preceding that 1 July:
 - (a) there was no increase in those earnings under subsection (6), (7) or (9); and
 - (b) there was no reduction in those earnings under subsection (9).
- (9F) If the normal weekly earnings of an employee before an injury must be increased because of subsection (9E), the amount by which they are increased is the percentage of increase (if any) in the index prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection over the period of 12 months ending on the 31 December immediately before the relevant 1 July.
- (9G) For the purposes of subsection (9F), the regulations may specify the manner of calculating the further increase mentioned in that subsection by reference to the movement of the index that is prescribed for the purposes of that subsection.
- (10) If the amount of the normal weekly earnings of an employee before an injury, as calculated under the preceding subsections, would exceed:
 - (a) where the employee continues to be employed by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation—the amount per week of the earnings that the employee would receive if he or she were not incapacitated for work; or

- (b) where the employee has ceased to be employed by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation—whichever is the greater of the following amounts:
- (i) the amount per week of the earnings that the employee would receive if he or she had continued to be employed by the Commonwealth or the licensed corporation in the employment in which he or she was engaged at the date of the injury;
 - (ii) the amount per week of the earnings that the employee would receive if he or she had continued to be employed by the Commonwealth or the licensed corporation in the employment in which he or she was engaged at the date on which the employment by the Commonwealth or the licensed corporation ceased;

the amount so calculated shall be reduced by the amount of the excess.

9 Relevant period

- (1) For the purposes of calculating the normal weekly earnings of an employee before an injury, a reference in section 8 to the relevant period is, subject to this section, a reference to the latest period of 2 weeks before the date of the injury during which the employee was continuously employed by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if, during the period referred to in subsection (1), the minimum amount per week payable to an employee in respect of his or her employment by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation was varied as a result of:
- (a) the operation of a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory; or
 - (b) the making, alteration or operation of an award, order, determination or industrial agreement, or the doing of any other act or thing, under such a law;
- any part of that period that occurred before the variation, or last variation, took place shall be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the relevant period.

- (3) Where in any case the application of subsection (2) would require that a period be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the relevant period in relation to an employee, and as a result of disregarding that period:
- (a) it would be impracticable to calculate under section 8 the normal weekly earnings of the employee before an injury; or
 - (b) the normal weekly earnings as so calculated would not fairly represent the weekly rate at which the employee was being paid in respect of his or her employment by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation before the injury;
- subsection (2) shall not apply in that case, but the normal weekly earnings of the employee during that period shall be taken to be the amount that would have been his or her normal weekly earnings during that period if the variation had taken effect at the beginning of that period.
- (4) If, during any part of the period calculated under the preceding subsections, the employee's earnings were reduced, or the employee did not receive any earnings, because of absence from his or her employment for any reason, that part of that period shall be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the relevant period.

10 Recovery of damages

For the purposes of this Act, damages shall be taken to have been recovered by an employee, or by or for the benefit of a dependant of a deceased employee, when the amount of the damages was paid to or for the benefit of the employee or dependant, as the case may be.

11 Liability of relevant authority

The liability of a relevant authority to pay compensation to a person under this Act is the liability of that authority to pay to the person such amount or amounts as are determined by that authority to be payable to the person under this Act.

12 Amounts of compensation

An amount of compensation payable under a provision of this Act in respect of an injury is, unless the contrary intention appears, in addition to an amount of compensation paid or payable under any other provision of this Act in respect of that injury.

13 Indexation—Consumer Price Index

- (1) In this section:

index number, in relation to a quarter, means the All Groups Consumer Price Index number, being the weighted average of the 8 capital cities, published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter.

relevant amount means the amount specified in paragraph 18(4)(a) or subsection 19(7), (8) or (9), 24(9), 27(2), 29(1) or (3), 30(1) or 137(1).

relevant year means the period of 12 months commencing on 1 July 1988 and each subsequent period of 12 months.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this section, the Australian Statistician has published or publishes an index number in respect of a quarter in substitution for an index number previously published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter, the publication of the later index number shall be disregarded for the purposes of this section.
- (3) If at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this section, the Australian Statistician has changed or changes the index reference period for the Consumer Price Index, then, for the purposes of the application of this section after the change took place or takes place, regard shall be had only to the index number published in terms of the new index reference period.
- (4) Where the factor ascertained under subsection (5) in relation to a relevant year is greater than one, this Act has effect as if for each relevant amount there were substituted, on the first day of that relevant year, an amount calculated by multiplying by that factor:

- (a) if, by virtue of another application or other applications of this section, this Act has effect as if another amount or amounts were substituted for the relevant amount—the substituted amount or the last substituted amount; or
 - (b) in any other case—the relevant amount.
- (5) The factor to be ascertained for the purposes of subsection (4) in relation to a relevant year is the number (calculated to 3 decimal places) ascertained by dividing the index number of the December quarter immediately before the relevant year by the index number for the December quarter immediately before that first-mentioned December quarter.
- (6) Where the factor ascertained under subsection (5) in relation to a relevant year would, if it were calculated to 4 decimal places, end with a number greater than 4, the factor ascertained under that subsection in relation to that relevant year shall be taken to be the factor calculated to 3 decimal places in accordance with that subsection and increased by 0.001.

13AA Indexation—Wage Price Index

Definitions

- (1) In this section:

index number, in relation to a quarter, means:

- (a) the Wage Price Index (total hourly rates of pay excluding bonuses/all sectors/all Australia/original) number published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter; or
- (b) if:
 - (i) a series of index numbers is prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; and
 - (ii) the Australian Statistician publishes an index number in respect of the quarter; and
 - (iii) that index number belongs to the series;that index number.

relevant amount means the amount specified in subsection 17(3), (4) or (5).

relevant year means:

- (a) the financial year starting on 1 July 2009; or
- (b) a later financial year.

Indexation

- (2) If the indexation factor for a relevant year is greater than one, this Act has effect as if for each relevant amount there were substituted, on the first day of that relevant year, an amount calculated by multiplying by that factor:
 - (a) if, because of one or more other applications of this section, this Act has effect as if another amount or amounts were substituted for the relevant amount—the substituted amount or the last substituted amount; or
 - (b) in any other case—the relevant amount.

Indexation factor

- (3) For the purposes of this section, the indexation factor for a relevant year is the number calculated, to 3 decimal places, using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Index number for the reference December quarter}}{\text{Index number for the base December quarter}}$$

where:

base December quarter means the last December quarter before the reference December quarter.

reference December quarter means the last December quarter before the relevant year.

- (4) If the number calculated under subsection (3) for a relevant year would, if it were calculated to 4 decimal places, end with a number greater than 4, the number so calculated is increased by 0.001.

Other provisions

- (5) Subject to subsection (6), if at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this section, the Australian Statistician has published or publishes an index number for a quarter in substitution for an index number previously published for that quarter, the publication of the later index number is to be disregarded for the purposes of this section.

- (6) If at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this section, the Australian Statistician has changed or changes the index reference period for:

- (a) the Wage Price Index; or
- (b) another index;

then, for the purposes of the application of this section after the change took place or takes place, regard is to be had only to the index number published in terms of the new index reference period.

13A Application of Criminal Code

Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code applies to all offences against this Act.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Part II—Compensation

Division 1—Injuries, property loss or damage, medical expenses

14 Compensation for injuries

- (1) Subject to this Part, Comcare is liable to pay compensation in accordance with this Act in respect of an injury suffered by an employee if the injury results in death, incapacity for work, or impairment.
- (2) Compensation is not payable in respect of an injury that is intentionally self-inflicted.
- (3) Compensation is not payable in respect of an injury that is caused by the serious and wilful misconduct of the employee but is not intentionally self-inflicted, unless the injury results in death, or serious and permanent impairment.

15 Compensation for loss of or damage to property used by employee

- (1) If:
 - (a) an employee has an accident arising out of and in the course of his or her employment by the Commonwealth or a licensed corporation; and
 - (b) the accident does not cause injury to the employee but results in the loss of, or damage to, property used by the employee;

Comcare is liable to pay compensation to the employee of an amount equal to the amount of the expenditure reasonably incurred by the employee in the necessary replacement or repair of the property.

Note: However, members of the Defence Force with service after the MRCA commencement date might only be entitled to compensation under the MRCA and not this Act (see subsection 4AA(3)).

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), expenditure incurred by an employee in the necessary replacement or repair of property used by the employee shall be taken to include any fees or charges paid or payable by the employee to a legally qualified medical practitioner or dentist or other qualified person for a consultation, examination, prescription or other service reasonably rendered in connection with the replacement or repair.
- (3) Compensation is not payable under this section if the loss or damage is attributable to the serious and wilful misconduct of the employee.

16 Compensation in respect of medical expenses etc.

- (1) Where an employee suffers an injury, Comcare is liable to pay, in respect of the cost of medical treatment obtained in relation to the injury (being treatment that it was reasonable for the employee to obtain in the circumstances), compensation of such amount as Comcare determines is appropriate to that medical treatment.

Note: Compensation is not payable under this subsection in relation to certain defence-related claims (see Division 2A of Part XI).

- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether or not the injury results in death, incapacity for work, or impairment.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the cost of medical treatment shall, in a case where the treatment involves the supply, replacement or repair of property used by the employee, be deemed to include any fees or charges paid or payable by the employee to a legally qualified medical practitioner or dentist or other qualified person for a consultation, examination, prescription or other service reasonably required in connection with that supply, replacement or repair.
- (4) An amount of compensation payable by Comcare under subsection (1) is payable:
 - (a) if the employee has paid the cost of the medical treatment—to, or in accordance with the directions of, the employee; or
 - (b) if the employee dies before the compensation is paid and without having paid the cost referred to in subsection (1) and another person, not being the legal personal representative of the employee, has paid that cost—to that other person; or

(c) in any other case—to the person to whom the cost is payable.

(5) Where a person is liable to pay any cost referred to in subsection (1), any amount paid under subsection (4) to the person to whom that cost is payable is, to the extent of the payment, a discharge of the liability of the first-mentioned person.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), if:

(a) compensation in respect of the cost of medical treatment is payable; and

(b) the employee reasonably incurs expenditure in doing either or both of the following:

(i) making a necessary journey for the purpose of obtaining that medical treatment;

(ii) remaining, for the purpose of obtaining that medical treatment, at a place to which the employee has made a journey for that purpose;

Comcare is liable to pay compensation to the employee:

(c) in respect of the journey—of an amount worked out using the formula:

Specified rate per kilometre × Number of kilometres travelled

where:

specified rate per kilometre means such rate per kilometre as the Minister specifies, by legislative instrument, under this subsection in respect of journeys to which this subsection applies.

numbers of kilometres travelled means the number of whole kilometres Comcare determines to have been the reasonable length of such a journey as it was necessary for the employee to make (including the return part of the journey).

(d) in respect of the employee remaining for the purpose of obtaining the treatment—of an amount equal to the expenditure so reasonably incurred in remaining for that purpose.

- (7) Comcare is not liable to pay compensation under subsection (6) unless:
- (a) the reasonable length of such a journey as it was necessary for the employee to make (including the return part of the journey) exceeded 50 kilometres; or
 - (b) if the journey made by the employee involved the use of public transport or ambulance services—the employee’s injury reasonably required the use of such transport or services regardless of the distance involved.
- (8) The matters to which Comcare shall have regard in deciding questions arising under subsections (6) and (7) include:
- (a) the place or places where appropriate medical treatment was available to the employee;
 - (b) the means of transport available to the employee for the journey;
 - (c) the route or routes by which the employee could have travelled; and
 - (d) the accommodation available to the employee.
- (9) Where:
- (a) an employee suffers an injury;
 - (b) a person has reasonably incurred expenditure in connection with the transportation of the employee, or, if the employee has died, of his or her body, from the place where the injury was sustained to a hospital or similar place, or to a mortuary; and
 - (c) the employee, or the legal personal representative of the employee, does not make a claim for compensation in respect of that expenditure;

Comcare is liable to pay compensation to the person who incurred the expenditure of an amount equal to the amount of that expenditure.

Division 2—Injuries resulting in death17 Compensation for injuries resulting in death

- (1) This section applies where an injury to an employee results in death.
- (2) Subject to this section and sections 16 and 18, if the employee dies without leaving dependants, compensation is not payable in respect of the injury.
- (3) Subject to this section and to sections 16 and 18, if the employee dies leaving dependants some or all of whom were, at the date of the employee's death, wholly dependent on the employee, Comcare is liable to pay compensation in respect of the injury of $400,000 and that compensation is payable to, or in accordance with the directions of, Comcare for the benefit of all of those dependants.
- (4) If the employee dies without leaving dependants who were wholly dependent on the employee at the date of the employee's death but leaving dependants who were partly dependent on the employee at that date:
 - (a) subject to this section and to sections 16 and 18, Comcare is liable to pay compensation in respect of the injury of such amount, not exceeding $400,000, as Comcare determines, having regard to any losses suffered by those dependants as a result of the cessation of the employee's earnings; and
 - (b) that compensation is payable to, or in accordance with the directions of, Comcare for the benefit of those dependants.
- (5) If:
 - (a) a prescribed child was, at the date of the injury or at the date of the employee's death, wholly or mainly dependent on the employee;
 - (b) a prescribed child, being a child of the employee, was born after the employee's death; or

- (c) a prescribed child would, if the employee had not died, have been wholly or mainly dependent on the employee;

Comcare is liable to pay compensation at the rate of $110 a week and that compensation is payable to, or in accordance with the directions of, Comcare for the benefit of that child from the date of the employee's death or the date of the birth of the child, whichever is the later.
- (6) Compensation is not payable under subsection (5) in respect of:
 - (a) any period during which the child is not a prescribed child; and
 - (b) in the case of a child referred to in paragraph (5)(c)—any period during which, if the employee had not died, the child would not have been wholly or mainly dependent upon the employee.
- (7) An amount of compensation paid or payable under this Act before the death of an employee:
 - (a) is not affected by subsection (2);
 - (b) shall not be deducted from the compensation payable under subsection (3); and
 - (c) shall not be taken into account in determining the compensation payable under subsection (4).
- (8) Where an amount of compensation is payable under this section for the benefit of 2 or more dependants of the deceased employee, Comcare shall determine the shares of those dependants in that amount as Comcare thinks fit, having regard to any losses suffered by those dependants as a result of the cessation of the employee's earnings.
- (9) A reference in this section to a dependant of a deceased employee shall be read as a reference to a dependant by or on behalf of whom a claim is made for compensation under this section.
- (10) Where claims for compensation under this section are made by or on behalf of 2 or more dependants of a deceased employee, Comcare shall make one determination in respect of those claims.

18 Compensation in respect of funeral expenses

- (1) Where an injury to an employee results in death, Comcare is liable to pay compensation in respect of the cost of the employee's funeral to the person who paid the cost of the funeral or, if that cost has not been paid, to the person who carried out the funeral.
- (2) The amount of compensation is the amount, not exceeding the amount determined in accordance with subsection (4), that Comcare considers reasonable, having regard to:
 - (a) the charges ordinarily made for funerals in the place where the funeral was carried out; and
 - (b) any amount paid or payable in respect of the cost of the funeral under any other law of the Commonwealth.
- (3) Where a person is liable to pay the cost of the funeral of an employee, any amount paid under this section to the person who carried out the funeral is, to the extent of the payment, a discharge of the liability of the first-mentioned person.
- (4) The maximum amount of compensation under subsection (2) is:
 - (a) $9,000; or
 - (b) if the regulations prescribe a higher amount—that amount.

Note: The amount of $9,000 is indexed under section 13.

Division 3—Injuries resulting in incapacity for work

19 Compensation for injuries resulting in incapacity

- (1) This section applies to an employee who is incapacitated for work as a result of an injury, other than an employee to whom section 20, 21, 21A or 22 applies.
- (2) Subject to this Part, Comcare is liable to pay to the employee in respect of the injury, for each week that is a maximum rate compensation week during which the employee is incapacitated, an amount of compensation worked out using the formula:

where:

AE is the greater of the following amounts:

- (a) the amount per week (if any) that the employee is able to earn in suitable employment;
- (b) the amount per week (if any) that the employee earns from any employment (including self-employment) that is undertaken by the employee during that week.

NWE is the amount of the employee's normal weekly earnings.

- (2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), a week is a maximum rate compensation week, in relation to an employee to whom this section applies, if:
 - (a) it is a week during which the employee's incapacity prevents the employee working the employee's normal weekly hours because the employee is unable to work or unable to work at the level at which the employee worked before the injury; and
 - (b) the total number of hours that the employee has been prevented from working, or working at that level, during that incapacity, in that week and in all previous weeks, if any, to which paragraph (a) applies, does not exceed 45 times the employee's normal weekly hours.

(2B) If, before the end of a particular week, the total of the hours that the employee has been prevented from working, or working at that level, in that week and in previous weeks, will exceed the total number of hours worked out in accordance with paragraph (2A)(b), then:

- (a) subsection (2) applies in respect of the part of the week before that total number of hours is exceeded in accordance with subsection (2C); and
- (b) subsection (3) applies in respect of the remainder of the week in accordance with subsection (2D).

(2C) For the purposes of paragraph (2B)(a), the compensation payable in respect of the part of the week to which that paragraph refers is an amount worked out using the formula:

$$\frac{X}{NWH} \times [NWE - AE]$$

where:

AE applies in relation to the whole of that particular week and has the same meaning as in subsection (2).

NWE is the amount of the employee's normal weekly earnings.

NWH means the number of normal weekly hours worked by the employee before his or her injury.

X is the total of the hours in that particular week:

- (a) that would have counted towards the employee's normal weekly hours (whether those hours are worked or not); and
- (b) that elapse before the total number of hours worked out in accordance with paragraph (2A)(b) exceeds 45 times the employee's normal weekly hours.

(2D) For the purposes of paragraph (2B)(b), the compensation payable in respect of the part of the week to which that paragraph refers is worked out using the formula:

$$\frac{NWH - X}{NWH} \times \text{Reduced rate compensation entitlement}$$

where:

NWH means the number of normal weekly hours worked by the employee before his or her incapacity.

reduced rate compensation entitlement is the rate of compensation that would have been applicable for the whole week had subsection (3) applied throughout the whole week.

X is the total of the hours in that particular week:

- (a) that would have counted towards the employee's normal weekly hours (whether those hours are worked or not); and
 - (b) that elapse before the total number of hours worked out in accordance with paragraph (2A)(b) exceeds 45 times the employee's normal weekly hours.
- (3) Subject to this Part, Comcare is liable to pay compensation to the employee, in respect of the injury, for each week during which the employee is incapacitated, other than a week referred to in subsection (2), of an amount calculated using the formula:

$$(\text{Adjustment percentage} \times \text{NWE}) - \text{AE}$$

where:

adjustment percentage is a percentage equal to:

- (a) if the employee is not employed during that week—75%; or
- (b) if the employee is employed for 25% or less of his or her normal weekly hours during that week—80%; or
- (c) if the employee is employed for more than 25% but not more than 50% of his or her normal weekly hours during that week—85%; or
- (d) if the employee is employed for more than 50% but not more than 75% of his or her normal weekly hours during that week—90%; or
- (e) if the employee is employed for more than 75% but less than 100% of his or her normal weekly hours during that week—95%; or

- (f) if the employee is employed for 100% of his or her normal weekly hours during that week—100%.

AE applies in relation to the whole of that particular week and has the same meaning as in subsection (2).

NWE is the amount of the employee's normal weekly earnings.

- (3A) If, as a result of the incapacity:

- (a) the amount per week payable to the employee in respect of his or her continued employment is reduced; and
- (b) a pension under a superannuation scheme is payable to the employee;

subsection (3) applies in relation to the employee in relation to a week during which the employee is incapacitated as if the references in the subsection to the amount he or she was able to earn during the week in suitable employment were instead references to the sum of that amount and any amount of the pension referred to in paragraph (b) that is payable to the employee in respect of that week.

- (4) In determining, for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), the amount per week that an employee is able to earn in suitable employment, Comcare shall have regard to:

- (a) where the employee is in employment (including self-employment)—the amount per week that the employee is earning in that employment;
- (b) where, after becoming incapacitated for work, the employee received an offer of suitable employment and failed to accept that offer—the amount per week that the employee would be earning in that employment if he or she were engaged in that employment;
- (c) where, after becoming incapacitated for work, the employee received an offer of suitable employment and, having accepted that offer, failed to engage, or to continue to engage, in that employment—the amount per week that the employee would be earning in that employment if he or she were engaged in that employment;
- (d) where, after becoming incapacitated for work, the employee received an offer of suitable employment on condition that the employee completed a reasonable rehabilitation or vocational retraining program and the employee failed to fulfil that condition—the amount that the employee would be earning in that employment if he or she were engaged in that employment;

- (e) where, after becoming incapacitated for work, the employee has failed to seek suitable employment—the amount per week that, having regard to the state of the labour-market at the relevant time, the employee could reasonably be expected to earn in such employment if he or she were engaged in such employment;
 - (f) where paragraph (b), (c), (d) or (e) applies to the employee—whether the employee's failure to accept an offer of employment, to engage, or to continue to engage, in employment, to undertake, or to complete, a rehabilitation or vocational retraining program or to seek employment, as the case may be, was, in Comcare's opinion, reasonable in all the circumstances; and
 - (g) any other matter that Comcare considers relevant.
- (5) Where an amount of compensation calculated under subsection (3) exceeds 150% of the amount called the Average Weekly Ordinary Time Earnings of Full-time Adults, as published from time to time by the Australian Statistician, the amount so calculated shall be reduced by an amount equal to the excess.
- (6) Where an amount of compensation calculated under paragraph (3)(a) is less than the minimum earnings, the amount so calculated shall be increased by an amount equal to the difference between that amount and the minimum earnings.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), the minimum earnings of an employee shall be taken to be:
- (a) $202, or, if subsection (8) or (9) applies in relation to the employee, the sum of $202 and the amount or amounts required to be added under whichever of those subsections applies; or
 - (b) an amount equal to 90% of the employee's normal weekly earnings;
- whichever is less.

- (8) If there are prescribed persons wholly or mainly dependent on the employee, there shall be added to the amount of $202 specified in paragraph (7)(a) the amount of $50.
- (9) If there are prescribed children in relation to whom this Act applies (whether born before, on or after the date of the injury) wholly or mainly dependent on the employee, there shall be added to the amount of $202 specified in paragraph (7)(a) the amount of $25 for each of those children, but an amount shall not be so added for a child in relation to any period before the date of birth of that child.
- (10) If a prescribed child is:
- (a) a prescribed person in relation to the employee; and
 - (b) the only prescribed person who is wholly or mainly dependent on the employee;
- subsection (9) does not apply in relation to that child.
- (11) If 2 or more prescribed children are each:
- (a) a prescribed person in relation to the employee; and
 - (b) wholly or mainly dependent on the employee;
- subsection (8) applies in relation to one of those children and subsection (9) applies in relation to the remainder of those children.
- (12) In this section, prescribed person, in relation to an employee, means:
- (a) the spouse of the employee; or
 - (b) any of the following persons, being a person who is 16 or more:
 - (i) the parent, step-parent, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandparent, child, stepchild, grandchild, sibling or half-sibling of the employee;
 - (ii) a person in relation to whom the employee stands in the position of a parent or who stands in the position of a parent to the employee;

- (iii) a person (other than the spouse of the employee or a person referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii)) who is wholly or mainly maintained by the employee and has the care of a prescribed child, being a child who is wholly or mainly dependent on the employee.

Note: In relation to subparagraph (12)(b)(i), see also subsection 4(2).

- (14) For the purposes of the definition of prescribed person in subsection (12), a person who has the care of a child referred to in subparagraph (12)(b)(iii) shall not be taken not to be wholly or mainly maintained by an employee merely because the employee pays remuneration to the person for caring for that child.

20 Compensation for injuries resulting in incapacity where employee is in receipt of a superannuation pension

- (1) Compensation payable to an employee who is incapacitated for work as a result of an injury is determined in accordance with this section if:
 - (a) the employee is retired from his or her employment (whether the employee retired voluntarily or was compulsorily retired); and
 - (b) the employee receives a pension under a superannuation scheme as a result of the employee's retirement.
- (2) Comcare is liable to pay compensation to the employee, in respect of the injury, in accordance with this section for each week after the date of the retirement during which the employee is incapacitated.
- (3) The amount of compensation is the amount worked out using this formula:

$$\text{Amount of compensation} = \left(\text{Superannuation amount} + 5\% \text{ of the employee's normal weekly earnings} \right)$$

where:

- (a) section 19, other than subsection 19(6), had applied to the employee; and
 - (b) in the case of an employee who was not a member of the Defence Force immediately before retirement—the week were a week referred to in subsection 19(3).
- (4) In using the formula in subsection (3) to calculate an amount of compensation for an employee who retired before the day on which item 22 of Schedule 1 to the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2007 commenced, use “SC” instead of “5% of the employee’s normal weekly earnings”. For this purpose:

SC means the amount of superannuation contributions that the employee would have been required to pay in that week if he or she were still contributing to the superannuation scheme.

21 Compensation for injuries resulting in incapacity where employee is in receipt of a lump sum benefit

- (1) Compensation payable to an employee who is incapacitated for work as a result of an injury is determined in accordance with this section if:
 - (a) the employee is retired from his or her employment (whether the employee retired voluntarily or was compulsorily retired); and
 - (b) the employee receives a lump sum benefit under a superannuation scheme as a result of the employee’s retirement.
- (2) Comcare is liable to pay compensation to the employee, in respect of the injury, in accordance with this section for each week after the date of the retirement during which the employee is incapacitated.
- (3) The amount of compensation is the amount worked out using this formula:

$$\text{Amount of compensation} - \left(\text{Weekly interest on the lump sum} + \frac{5\% \text{ of the employee's normal weekly earnings}}{52} \right)$$

where:

- (a) section 19, other than subsection 19(6), had applied to the employee; and
- (b) in the case of an employee who was not a member of the Defence Force immediately before retirement—the week were a week referred to in subsection 19(3).

weekly interest on the lump sum means the amount worked out by:

- (a) multiplying the superannuation amount in relation to the lump sum benefit received by the employee by the rate specified in an instrument made under subsection (5); and
 - (b) dividing the result of paragraph (a) by 52.
- (4) In using the formula in subsection (3) to calculate an amount of compensation for an employee who retired before the day on which item 22 of Schedule 1 to the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2007 commenced, use “SC” instead of “5% of the employee’s normal weekly earnings”. For this purpose:

SC means the amount of superannuation contributions that the employee would have been required to pay in that week if he or she were still contributing to the superannuation scheme.

- (5) For the purposes of the definition of weekly interest on the lump sum in subsection (3) of this section and subsection 21A(3), the Minister may, by legislative instrument, specify a rate that applies for the period of 12 months commencing on 1 July in any year.

21A Compensation for injuries resulting in incapacity if employee is in receipt of a superannuation pension and a lump sum benefit

- (1) Compensation payable to an employee who is incapacitated for work as a result of an injury is determined in accordance with this section if:
 - (a) the employee is retired from his or her employment (whether the employee retired voluntarily or was compulsorily retired); and
 - (b) the employee receives:
 - (i) a pension; and
 - (ii) a lump sum benefit;

under a superannuation scheme as a result of the employee's retirement.
- (2) Comcare is liable to pay compensation to the employee, in respect of the injury, in accordance with this section for each week after the date of the retirement during which the employee is incapacitated.
- (3) The amount of compensation is the amount worked out using this formula:

$$\text{Amount of compensation} = \left(\begin{array}{l} \text{Superannuation} \\ \text{amount in relation} \\ \text{to the pension} \end{array} + \begin{array}{l} \text{Weekly} \\ \text{interest on the} \\ \text{lump sum} \end{array} + \begin{array}{l} \text{5\% of the} \\ \text{employee's normal} \\ \text{weekly earnings} \end{array} \right)$$

where:

- Note: If the amount of the Commonwealth salary etc. payment is less than the amount of compensation, the balance of the compensation will still be payable after a set-off.
- (4) To the extent that the amount repayable is set off, Comcare is taken for the purposes of this Act to have made a payment in discharge of its liability to pay the compensation.

- (8) To the extent that the amount repayable is not set off under subsection (3), it may be recovered by the Commonwealth as a debt due to the Commonwealth by action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

- (1) A determining authority may, on its own motion:
- (a) reconsider a determination made by it; or
 - (b) cause such a determination to be reconsidered by a person to whom its power under this section is delegated, being a person other than the person who made, or was involved in the making of, the determination;

- (3) A request for reconsideration of a determination shall:
 - (a) set out the reasons for the request; and

- (4) On receipt of a request, the determining authority shall reconsider the determination or cause the determination to be reconsidered by a person to whom its power under this section is delegated, being a person other than a person who made, or was involved in the making of, the determination.
- (5) Where a person reconsiders a determination, the person may make a decision affirming or revoking the determination or varying the determination in such manner as the person thinks fit.
- (6) The determining authority or person must decide a request made by a claimant to reconsider a determination within the period prescribed by the regulations.

 - (c) if the determination affected a Commonwealth authority that holds a licence under Part VIII of the SRC Act but the licence does not authorise acceptance of liability for claims in respect of which the determination is made—Comcare.
- (1) Subject to this section, the costs incurred by a party to proceedings instituted under this Part in respect of that reviewable decision shall be borne by that party.
- (2) Subject to this section, where a proceeding instituted under this Part in respect of a reviewable decision relating to a determination is rendered abortive because a decision has been made, following a reconsideration under subsection 62(1), varying or revoking that determination, the responsible authority is liable to reimburse the claimant for costs reasonably incurred by the claimant in connection with that proceeding.
- (3) Where:

 - (f) the authority reconsidered the original determination under subsection 62(1) and made a determination more favourable to the claimant than the original determination;
 - (g) the authority is satisfied that, if it had had the relevant information at the time when the original determination was made, it would have made a determination more favourable to the claimant than the original determination; and
 - (h) the responsible authority would, but for subsection (5), be liable under subsection (2), to reimburse the claimant for costs reasonably incurred by the claimant;
- the determining authority may make a declaration, in writing, that subsection (2) does not apply to those costs.
- (4) Where:
- (a) a determining authority has determined a claim (in this section called the original determination);
 - (b) the authority, before making that determination, gave the claimant a notice under section 58 requesting the claimant to give it a document, or a copy of the document, specified in the notice (in this subsection called the relevant document);
 - (c) the claimant failed to comply with the notice;
 - (d) at the time when the authority determined the claim, it did not have the information contained in the relevant document nor was that information reasonably available to it; determination more favourable to the claimant than the original determination; and

- (h) the responsible authority would, but for subsection (5), be liable, under subsection (2), to reimburse the claimant for costs reasonably incurred by the claimant;

the determining authority may make a declaration, in writing, that subsection (2) does not apply in relation to those costs.

- (5) Where a determining authority makes a declaration under subsection (3) or (4) that subsection (2) does not apply in relation to costs incurred by a claimant, subsection (2) does not apply in relation to those costs.
- (6) A determining authority shall give a copy of a declaration made by it under subsection (3) or (4) to the claimant.
- (7) Application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision by a determining authority to make a declaration under subsection (3) or (4).
- (8) Where, in any proceedings instituted by the claimant, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal makes a decision:
 - (a) varying a reviewable decision in a manner favourable to the claimant; or
 - (b) setting aside a reviewable decision and making a decision in substitution for the reviewable decision that is more favourable to the claimant than the reviewable decision;the Tribunal may, subject to this section, order that the costs of those proceedings incurred by the claimant, or a part of those costs, shall be paid by the responsible authority.
- (8A) Subject to this section, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal may order that the costs incurred by the claimant of any proceedings instituted by the Commonwealth be paid by:
 - (a) if the Tribunal varies the relevant reviewable decision in a manner less favourable to the claimant, or sets aside the relevant reviewable decision and substitutes a decision that is less favourable to the claimant—Comcare; or
 - (b) in any other case—the Commonwealth.

Section 67

- (8B) Subject to this section, if in any proceedings instituted by a licensed authority or a licensed corporation, the Tribunal affirms the reviewable decision or varies that decision in a manner more favourable to the claimant, or sets aside the relevant reviewable decision and substitutes a decision that is more favourable to the claimant, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal may order that the costs of the proceedings incurred by the claimant be paid by the responsible authority.
- (9) Where the Administrative Appeals Tribunal gives a decision setting aside a reviewable decision and remitting the case for re-determination by the determining authority, the Tribunal shall, subject to this section, order that the costs of the proceedings before it incurred by the claimant shall be paid by the responsible authority.
- (10) Nothing in subsection (8), (8A) or (9) authorises the Administrative Appeals Tribunal to order a person to pay any costs incurred by a claimant in relation to an application for an extension of time for applying to the Tribunal for a review of a reviewable decision.
- (11) Where, in any proceedings, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal varies or sets aside a reviewable decision, the Tribunal shall not make an order under subsection (8) or (9) in favour of a claimant in relation to the costs of those proceedings if:
 - (a) the authority, before making the reviewable decision, gave the claimant a notice under section 58 requesting the claimant to give Comcare or authority information specified in the notice (in this subsection called the relevant information); and
 - (b) the Tribunal is satisfied that:
 - (i) the claimant failed to comply with that notice;
 - (ii) at the time when the authority made the reviewable decision, it did not have the relevant information, nor was the relevant information reasonably available to it; and
 - (iii) if the authority had had the relevant information at the time when it made the reviewable decision it would have made a decision more favourable to the claimant than the reviewable decision.

- (12) Where, in any proceedings, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal varies or sets aside a reviewable decision, the Tribunal shall not make an order under subsection (8) or (9) in favour of a claimant in relation to the costs of those proceedings if:
- (a) the determining authority, before making the reviewable decision, gave the claimant a notice under section 58 requesting the claimant to give the authority a copy of the document specified in the notice (in this subsection called the relevant document); and
 - (b) the Tribunal is satisfied that:
 - (i) the claimant failed to comply with that notice;
 - (ii) at the time when the authority made the reviewable decision, it did not have the information contained in the relevant document, nor was that information reasonably available to it; and
 - (iii) if the authority had had the information contained in the relevant document at the time when it made the reviewable decision it would have made a decision more favourable to the claimant than the reviewable decision.
- (13) Where the Administrative Appeals Tribunal orders a responsible authority to pay costs incurred by a claimant, the Tribunal may, in the absence of agreement between the parties as to the amount of the costs, tax or settle the amount of the costs or order that the costs be taxed by the Registrar or an officer of the Tribunal.
- (14) For the purposes of section 69A of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975, the responsible authority is taken to be a party to the proceeding before the Administrative Appeals Tribunal.

- Note: Section 23A requires the employer to set off repayments of salary etc. made to the employee in relation to the pre-determination period against amounts payable by the employer under this subsection.
- (5) When the employer pays the employee the anticipatory payment, or the payment that it holds for the benefit of the employee, the payment is taken for the purposes of this Act to be a payment by Comcare in discharge of its liability to pay the compensation.
 - (6) Also, in the case of the anticipatory payment:
 - (a) to avoid doubt, the provision of an Act that appropriates the Consolidated Revenue Fund for the purposes of any payments by the employer to the employee of salary or wages (ignoring section 116) also appropriates the Consolidated Revenue Fund for the purposes of the anticipatory payment; and

- (4) Subject to section 23A, the employer must, either before or after receiving the advised payment, make a payment of an equal amount to the employee, out of money that the employer holds on its own account.

Note: Section 23A requires the employer to set off repayments of salary etc. made to the employee in relation to the pre-determination period against amounts payable by the employer under this subsection.
- (5) The payment by the employer is taken for the purposes of this Act to be a payment by Comcare in discharge of its liability to pay the compensation.

- (a) a person (in this section called the debtor) is liable to pay an amount to a relevant authority under this Act; and
- (b) the relevant authority holds on behalf of the debtor:
 - (i) money, being compensation payable under this Act for the benefit of the debtor; or

- (ii) investments acquired out of money of a kind referred to in subparagraph (i);

the relevant authority shall recover from the money so held, or shall realise the investments so held and recover from the proceeds of the realisation, an amount not exceeding the amount referred to in paragraph (a) and the recovery of that amount is, to the extent of the amount, a discharge of the liability of the debtor to the relevant authority and of the relevant authority to the debtor.

114 Recovery of overpayments

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), if:

- (a) an amount of compensation under this Act has been paid to a person in consequence of a false or misleading statement or representation or in consequence of a failure or omission to comply with a provision of this Act;

the amount concerned is recoverable by the relevant authority from the person in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the relevant authority.

- (1A) Paragraph (1)(b) does not apply to an amount of compensation that the relevant authority is entitled to recover under section 114B.
- (2) Where an amount is recoverable from a person under subsection (1) and an amount is payable under this Act to or for the benefit of that person, the recoverable amount may be deducted from the amount so payable.

the following provisions of this section apply.

- (2) Comcare or the authority, as the case may be, may give written notice to the administrator of the scheme:
- (a) stating that Comcare or the authority may make, or may have made, an overpayment of compensation to the retired employee; and
 - (b) requiring the administrator to tell Comcare or the authority whether the retired employee has received any payment in respect of his or her entitlement referred to in paragraph (1)(b) or whether all the retired employee's benefits under the scheme have been deferred; and
 - (c) requiring the administrator, if the retired employee has not received any such payment (unless all the retired employee's benefits under the scheme have been deferred):
 - (i) not to pay any pension or lump sum to the retired employee until the administrator receives a notice from Comcare or the authority under subsection (5); and

- (5) When Comcare or a licensed authority receives from the administrator of the superannuation scheme particulars of the rate of pension, or the lump sum, or the rate of pension and the lump sum, payable to the retired employee, then Comcare or the authority, as the case may be, must, within 2 working days after receiving those particulars:

Section 114B

- (a) determine whether an overpayment of compensation to the employee has occurred; and
 - (b) give written notice to the administrator:
 - (i) if it determines that no overpayment has occurred—stating that fact; or
 - (ii) otherwise—stating the amount of the overpayment and requiring the administrator to pay that amount to Comcare or the authority in accordance with this section.
- (6) Comcare or a licensed authority must not reduce the rate or amount of compensation payable to the retired employee under this Act until it has given to the administrator of the superannuation scheme the notice referred to in subsection (5).
- (7) The amount to be stated in the notice under subparagraph (5)(b)(ii) is the amount by which the sum of the amounts of any compensation paid after the retirement of the employee exceeds the sum of the amounts of compensation that should have been paid because of section 20, 21 or 21A, as the case requires.
- (8) The administrator of the superannuation scheme is to pay the amount of the overpayment of compensation to Comcare or the licensed authority in accordance with subsections (9) and (10) out of the payments of pension or of a lump sum that would otherwise have been made by the administrator to the retired employee.
- (9) If the amount of any payment of pension or of a lump sum that would otherwise have been made by the administrator to the relevant employee on any day is less than or equal to the adjusted overpayment worked out as at that day, that amount is to be paid by the administrator to Comcare or the authority instead of to the retired employee.
- (10) If the amount of any payment of pension or of a lump sum that would otherwise have been made by the administrator to the relevant employee on any day is greater than the adjusted overpayment worked out as at that day, so much of that amount as is equal to that adjusted overpayment is to be paid by the administrator to Comcare or the authority instead of to the retired employee.

- (11) For the purposes of subsections (9) and (10), the adjusted overpayment as at a particular day is the amount of the original overpayment less any amounts that have been paid by the administrator to Comcare or the authority before that day in reduction of the original overpayment.
- (12) The payment by the administrator of an amount to Comcare or a licensed authority under a notice given under subsection (5) discharges, to the extent of that amount:
 - (a) the liability of the administrator to pay that amount to the retired employee; and
 - (b) the liability of the employee to pay that amount to Comcare or the authority, as the case may be.
- (13) The administrator of a superannuation scheme must comply with a requirement made of the administrator under this section by Comcare or a licensed authority. However, failure to comply with the requirement is not an offence.
- (14) This section has effect despite:
 - (a) sections 143 and 143A of the Superannuation Act 1922; and
 - (b) sections 85 and 85A of the Defence Force Retirement Benefits Act 1948; and
 - (c) sections 129 and 130 of the Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits Act 1973; and

- (15) In this section:

- (b) if a day is set out in the decision—on the day so set out (whether that day is before, on, or after, the day on which the decision is made).

Note: If Comcare writes off a debt, this means an administrative decision has been made that, in the circumstances, there is no point in trying to recover the debt. In law, however, the debt still exists and may later be pursued.

114D Comcare may waive debt

- (1) Comcare may decide, in writing, to waive its right to recover from a person the whole or a part of a debt due to Comcare.
- (2) In exercising the power under subsection (1), Comcare must act in accordance with directions from time to time in force under subsection (3).
- (3) The Minister may, by legislative instrument:
 - (a) give a direction to Comcare relating to the exercise of its power under subsection (1); and
 - (b) revoke or vary a direction so given.
- (4) Section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to a direction given by the Minister under subsection (3).
- (5) A decision of Comcare under subsection (1) takes effect:
 - (a) if no day is set out in the decision—on the day on which the decision is made; or
 - (b) if a day is set out in the decision—on the day so set out (whether that day is before, on, or after the day on which the decision is made).

Note: If Comcare waives its rights to recover, this is a permanent bar to recovery of the debt—the debt effectively ceases to exist.
