

Treasury to give further evidence to the home ownership inquiry

9.15am to 12.00pm, Friday, 25 September 2015

The Treasury will appear again before the House Economics Committee on Friday 25 September 2015 in Parliament House as part of the inquiry into home ownership.

The Chair of the Committee, John Alexander said that 'we look forward to this second appearance by the Treasury. The Committee will be discussing a number of policy settings that impact on the rates of home ownership in Australia with Treasury officials, including tax policies and macroeconomic drivers in the housing market.'
