

We believe that any funding is a start to start in increasing wages to our profession. We believe this funding should be sustained funding and include all sectors of the early childhood sector