

Dear Committee Members

The sudden rise in the promotion of gambling on Rugby League is a disgrace.
This sport is for playing and watching, not for gambling on. It is not horse racing.
The thrusting of bookmaker Tom Waterhouse into the frontline of TV coverage is appalling.
The message it sends to my eight year old grandson who plays the game, and to all the other youngsters out there, is immoral.
Please help end this disgrace.

John Nolan