

1. State, Territory and Commonwealth assets should only ever be leased or licensed, never sold.
2. A premium for a long lease term generally and mathematically coincides with a sale price of the fee simple.
3. The benefit of a lease or licence is that the improved asset ultimately reverts to the Crown.