

Our water needs protection. Landholders must have the right to say no. Protecting water is important, but if we are going to protect landholders and communities from coal seam gas and large coal mining, we need to give landholders the right to say no to coal seam gas and large coal mining projects on their land. Laws should apply to all forms of mining and gas exploration/extraction. I demand that all CSG operations be ceased immediately.

Kind regards
Narelle Jarvis