

Name: David Rutter

Submission:

I am finding extremely biased reporting values by companies such as the Sydney Morning Herald which are run by former Liberal MPs. This is evident in tone and spin, as well as raw article counts on partisan reporting on the major political parties with clear biases in favour of one party over the other.