MEDIA RELEASE

Joint Standing Committee on Migration

Inquiry into the regulation of Australian migration agents

Issue date: 25 June 2018

Public hearing for inquiry into review processes associated with visa cancellations

Representatives of the Department of Home Affairs will discuss visa cancellation processes and review mechanisms when the Joint Standing Committee on Migration holds a public hearing as part of its inquiry into review processes associated with visa cancellations made on criminal grounds.

The inquiry is examining issues including the efficiency of existing review processes as they relate to decisions made under section 501 of the Migration Act; present levels of duplication associated with the merits review process; and the scope of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal's jurisdiction to review ministerial decisions.

Public hearing details: 10:45am to 11:30am, Wednesday 27 June 2018, Committee Room 1R4, Parliament House, Canberra.

The full terms of reference are available on the Committee's website.

The hearing will be broadcast live at aph.gov.au/live
