

Dear Senate Economic Legislation Committee

ARENA needs to continue the good work that it has begun. The technological advances that are being made with this important funding will be important for the economic future of Australia. Renewable energy is disrupting the coal and gas industries of the world and that can not be stopped. ARENA is funding the future of Australian research and industrial know how.

Please keep ARENA.

Regards

Tim Brown