

Dear Minister,

Please Save Students as they struggling with the college closures and those who are applied genuinely according by satisfying the immigration points system it would be totally unfair for such people who are waiting patiently for their case to be finalised they are not queue jumpers they are not coming in boats they are 100% legal i sincerely request you think about their future as a harsh decision will shatter their dreams have no hope as they were building all these days...

Neeli.Venkatesh