

RE: Senate Environment and Communications Legislation Committee: Inquiry into the Water Amendment (Water for the Environment Special Account) Bill 2012

Can you submit the concerns we all have that the introduction of flood easements and reducing constraints for the passage of water down the Goulburn and Murray rivers will cause significant harm to farming enterprises, will flood communities and community infrastructure and will cause significant environmental damage to our riverbanks and river forests.

Regards
Robert Danieli
Goulburn Valley Water Action Group