

Senate inquiry ABC

As a regular listener to Radio National and a frequent viewer of the ABC channels I want to voice my concern about recent moves to further outsource programs. This seems a very short-sighted move that ignores local creative talent and will turn many Australians to other sources of information and entertainment.

Jennifer Bryce