Dear Ms Dunstone

I reply to your email and letter of 1 April 2014 concerning the Senate Legal and Constitutional Affairs Legislation Committee Inquiry into the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Amendment (Classification Tools and Other Measures) Bill 2014 and regret the time it has taken to respond.

South Australia Police note the content of the Bill, in particular the proposed amendments to enable the Secretary of the Attorney-General's Department to provide a copy of an unclassified film or an unclassified computer game that would most likely be classified 'Refused Classification' to South Australia Police. These amendments will be advantageous in situations involving child sexual abuse content where prompt investigation is a foremost consideration.

The remaining clauses of the Bill have limited application to South Australia Police and to that end South Australia Police offers no further comment.

Yours sincerely

Grant Stevens
