

To Whom it May Concern

In regards to the funding through medicare of gender selection I ask you to reconsider the bill and acknowledge that gender selection should not be a medicare funded procedure as it is not a medical procedure but a form of genocide. In turn the money should be spent on stopping the act of abortion. Medicare funds would be better used on real issues of saving lives rather than the vain attempt at playing God.

Sincerely