Submission to the Inquiry into the Fair Work Amendment (Small Business-Penalty Rates Exemption) Bill 2012

I am a casual employee, working as a retail worker, currently earning around $22 per hour.

I was a retired person and found I could not afford to retire and so I went back to work.

If penalty rates were abolished my already small income would be significantly reduced.

My weekends are important to me because that is the only time I can spend time with my family.

I urge the committee to keep penalty rates so that working on weekends is at least partly compensated for the time that we cannot spend with the family.
