

Dear Senators,

My concern is that the right voices are being heard, not just the loudest voices.

Some noisy, if not 'unrighteous' groups have the ear of the politicians and their aim is to extinguish opposing voices.

Anti-Discrimination Laws like in Victoria were used to try and silence some worthy men.

May free speech rights be upheld in Australia in 2012.

Sincerely,

Michael E. Cox