Dear Secretary

I note that your Committee is to conduct an enquiry into on-line gambling and its impacts.

I submit that the Committee should recommend that gambling advertising should be banned from Australian television.

Gambling is an activity with no social value, apart from some low-level entertainment and amusement activities.

Gambling should not be promoted by intense, saturation television advertising as it is now. This has the effect of overwhelming vulnerable people into adopting on-line gambling.

I urge your Committee recommend the banning of gambling advertising.

Yours sincerely
