

It is time to get serious about the vast amounts of waste material produced by drink bottles and give people the incentive needed to be more mindful of how they dispose of their drink bottles. Please pass the bill to introduce the 10c deposit on drink bottles nationally and clean up Australia once again.

Amanda Peyton