

Example 1

Dear Committee Members,

I am greatly disappointed in this Bill.

It is not properly based on human rights principles, creating the likelihood that different forms of rights ... the right to be free from harm, the right of free speech, the right to vote etc, won't be properly balanced.

Yours sincerely,

, , Australia

Example 2

Dear Committee Members,

I totally disagree with this bill in the strongest possible sense. The misinformation and disinformation over the Covid period brought to light the ease at which the government and mainstream media could lie and obfuscate reality. I do not wish to be ruled over by people who wield the power to lie with impunity. The truth needs to be spoken about in robust debate in a free society lest our freedoms dwindle away while we are being gaslit to believe it isn't happening. I find this bill to be troubling for a free society, and so should you.

Yours sincerely,
