

Lowering the voting age.

The age should be lowered to 16 to allow younger people who are already affected by the governments choices at this age to be able to vote and speak up so they have a say in what happens in this country.

Josh Malynn