

---

I refer to the above Bill and advise that as a member of the general community, I support any Bill and/or any legislation that removes medicare funding of abortions particularly where such decisions to abort are based on "family balancing" by parents who want to abort a child simply because they would have liked a child of another gender.

I support Governments working towards removing any incentives for couples who wish to abort particularly in such circumstances.

Kind Regards

Steven Ktenas