To whom it may concern,

Please accept my submission. I do not require this submission to be made confidential.

Marie Duffy, retired Union Organiser t

Today I received a call from my granddaughter telling me that she has was sacked soon after she told her boss that she was have a baby. She has filled in the paper work required for Fairwork Australia, however she has only been at the workplace for a short period. Small businesses still do not abide by the rules and get away with it... all small businesses should be required to do a test regarding workers right and be up to do..but people won't join a union..

Sincerely,
Marie Duffy
