

This legislation MUST be aborted.

There is something ethically, morally and constitutionally wrong about anyone attempting to control these items via patents.

I would go one step further to – any one who messing with what is that belongs to all of humanity should be held financially and environmentally accountable for undoing any damage they do to the original genetic strains.

Genetic modification, is tantamount to genetic warfare and terrorism. Stop this legislation.