

---

I oppose any bill that restricts the actions of genuine people who care about the welfare of animals. I have little faith in most farmers and people who choose to make money from animals. Being a farmer is a big responsibility and thus they need to be accountable. 4 Corners showed this beautifully in regards to the greyhound industry.

David Morgan.