Senator Conaghan asked:

Mr Conaghan MP: So currently does the Commonwealth director report back to you, I know that it has changed, does he or she report back to you with percentage rates-

Commissioner: you mean acceptance rate?

Mr Conaghan MP: no, conviction rate

Commissioner: Conviction rates, I'd have to come back to you, we would probably have that statistic that we could get that for you, yep, we could get that

Answer:

The CDPP does not report conviction rates directly to the AFP. The AFP maintains records of prosecution outcomes via the AFP's case management system. In 2018-19, 95% of AFP cases that proceeded to court recorded a conviction.
