

ABC

Dear Sir,

As a frequent traveller overseas my greatest delight on returning home is tuning in to the ABC. It is the most civilized and civilizing institution in this country.

Attacks on its integrity are a threat to this unique position, such as the outsourcing, privatization and cancellation of niche programmes.

Please preserve this great institution. We need to hang on to some of the institutions that have made Australia the great country it has been.

Yours
Bill Murray