

I would hope that the practice of fracking would stop now in the Georgina basin, this will wreck the underground water supply that so many people and property's depend on, this is not repairable, what about future generations?

An angry person, please stop this stupidity.

Kind regards
Andre Munckton