

this bill is important because it seeks to prohibit government funding to coal-fired power plants at a time where the effects of climate change are becoming significant and irreversible. - I also support the bill because it provides mechanisms to transition workers out of coal-based employment to other areas. I strongly believe with the threat of becoming one of the worlds highest contributors and highest risks to climate change this should be considered.