Public hearing on Myanmar – 13 April 2021

The Foreign Affairs and Aid Subcommittee of the Joint Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade will hold a public hearing on Tuesday 13 April in Canberra to examine recent worrying developments in Myanmar in greater depth, and to hear from concerned sectors of Australian society about the troubling direction Myanmar has taken since the military coup of 1 February.

Chair of the subcommittee, Mr Dave Sharma MP, said “More than 60 individuals and organisations responded to our call for expressions of interest to participate in the public hearing. There is clearly a high degree of community concern within Australia about the escalating violence and rising death toll in Myanmar, and the increasingly inhumane behaviour of the military leadership there.”

“The response from across the community has been overwhelming. On Tuesday the subcommittee will hear from individuals and organisations part of the Myanmar diaspora and community, government departments, and other experts,” according to Deputy Chair Mr Julian Hill MP.

The program has been published on the Committee's website.

The public hearing is being held with limited numbers in a controlled and COVID Safe manner. The hearing will be broadcast, and can be viewed through the APH website.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, committee proceedings held at Australian Parliament House are currently not open to members of the public wishing to observe the hearing in-person.

Further information about the inquiry can be found on the Committee's website.
