

LifeCircle Mentors

1300 364 673

Caring for someone who is facing the end of life can be one of the most challenging experiences of life.

If you are feeling overwhelmed or uncertain a LifeCircle mentor can support you as you care for someone at end of life.

Our trained mentors can help you:

- with answers to your questions
- access the support you need
- prepare for the future
- get emotional support

All of our volunteer mentors have cared for someone at the end of life.

LifeCircle's vision is to help all Australians to live well and die well.

Call 1300 364 673 and we will match you with a volunteer mentor.

We offer:

- Mentors – who support people caring for someone at end of life
- HOPELINE® telephone counsellors - supporting people living with life-threatening illness
- Life Matters Community Events - information about end of life issues

HOPELINE®

Telephone Counselling

1300 364 673 9am to 9pm

Are you, or someone you care about, living with a serious or terminal illness? It can help to talk to someone who will listen - someone who really understands.

Our trained volunteer telephone counsellors have either survived or cared for a loved one with a life-threatening illness.

If you need help, emotional support and some practical ideas on how to manage the tough times, call our HOPELINE®.

LifeCircle's vision is to help all Australians to live well and die well.

HOPELINE® Telephone Counsellors
