

Clean, unpolluted water is essential for healthy human life. We can not risk contaminating our country's agricultural or drinking water supplies. Australia's water must be protected from the effects of coal, coal seam gas and other unconventional gas mining.

Kind regards
Ruth Nielsen