  - (a) forms or would form part of the reporting of news, the presenting of current affairs or any genuine editorial content in news media; or
  - (b) is or would be by a person for a dominant purpose that is a satirical, academic, educative or artistic purpose, taking into account any relevant consideration including the dominant purpose of any other communication of matter by the person; or
  - (c) is or would be a private communication by a person to another person who is known to the first person; or
  - (d) is or would be by or to a person who is a Commonwealth public official (within the meaning of the Criminal Code) in that person's capacity as such an official; or
  - (e) is or would be a private communication to a political entity (who is not a Commonwealth public official) in relation to public policy or public administration; or
  - (f) occurs or would occur in the House of Representatives or the Senate, or is or would be to a parliamentary committee.

The Electoral Commissioner maintains the Transparency Register under this Division.

The Transparency Register contains details reported to the Electoral Commission under this Part, and other public information.

This Division regulates gifts that are made to registered political parties, candidates, groups, political campaigners and third parties.

Gifts of over $1,000 to political entities (broadly, registered political parties, candidates and Senate groups) or political campaigners must not be made by foreign donors. A foreign donor is a person who does not have a connection to Australia, such as a person who is not an Australian citizen or an entity that does not have a significant business presence in Australia.

Broadly, gifts must not be made to a political entity, political campaigner or third party by a foreign donor for the purpose of incurring electoral expenditure or creating or communicating electoral matter.

Anti-avoidance provisions apply to strengthen these requirements.

A person or entity may commit an offence or be liable for a civil penalty if the person or entity contravenes the requirements. There are some exceptions, such as when a gift is made in a personal capacity.
